Order of Arrest Against a Lawyer.

Emma Page, as administratrix of George Filkins Page, has sued James Blagway, a counselor of law of New York, for $2,516 funds of the estate, which it is alleged, defendant has failed to pay over. This morning, Counselor William Sullivan obtained an order of arrest from Justice Gilbert, who fixed the defendant's bail at $2,400.

Supreme Court Decisions.

BY JUSTICE FRANK

Home Insurance Company vs. Stevens Referred to G. M. Stevens to referee and report with two or three of my post letters without maintaining to you what the trouble was hoping that I might get out of it and save you the great disappointment which I knew you would feel had I mentioned it to you, but as the time has passed which I expected the thing would be arranged, and as some considerable time must now elapse before it can be arranged, I do not feel myself longer justified in ~~bothering~~ with holding you longer which my great trouble is and has been. I do not propose to go into full particulars of the case, that would occupy too much time and be of no use. It is simply this. You are aware of the agreement entered into between mother and the children as a settlement of all difficulties. I would not consent to entering into it unless I could receive immediately $5000, the sum then known of ^{the agreement} property on the ground that uncle Henry had ^{the agreement} signed, and the mortgage securing to him an annuity

The agreement was not complete. I intended at that as I had signed it, it was binding on me and I did not see why I should be kept waiting less on this matter. I believe I might have gone to sign it and I intended to go on with the Court. The only and I thought very highly of my society & was anxious to see the lawyer I had to give me. I had no objection at all. I prepared that, the law I would take into my agreement with the lawyer and I would receive at least five thousand dollars, I thought I was anxious that you should pay to the law and my wife should receive and the under structure of the law was also that I should have five thousand dollars and be on the ground at least within three or four years. I had told of the D. Robinson on the 19th of June for which I had and I gave my first receipt, as I do much more on the Court. You show me the agreement you the law clerk being payable to you agreed to Robinson for the purpose of the distribution of the law and me - the understanding being as follows that I should pay to the D. Robinson and I myself had the D. Robinson to which the law clerk was under my agreement to pay.

The Robinson and the D. Robinson from the part of Robinson on the 19th of June for the law clerk. The agreement of the day. The law clerk was under the morning. I thought we were right. I was was to be to take in the way of the the the morning, but I had no morning was to be in the office as well as a letter much. The next morning I had of the went to the office and found, as I had about many things. I was of course, I was, I had had a will. The law clerk, the law at had had to be to. I had to be to Robinson and the law clerk. I had
in a few days. I had the law clerk

I told him I did not want one thousand dollars, but all of my money. I would tell you of the fact and excitement. To cut the matter short, the man has turned easily, robbed us of our money, taken it to pay off mortgages on his house which is in his wife's name and had been sold under foreclosure, and to save the property and prevent his wife and family from being lured into the street, having our money in his hands, he had taken it little caring for the suffering which thereby he was inflicting upon me and mine. I got Ridgway to go with me to see John who was waiting for me at the Post Office and he repeated to him the same story he had to me. I gave us the one thousand dollars and said it need not be a week or ten days with me receive the balance. John & I went to see Mr. Riker and his lawyer and explained the case to him. He was surprised that Mr.
Ridgway who had before had a high high should be guilty of such a thing.

We took up of the kind of receipt to give for the $1000 and to see what security we could get for the balance.

What I desired the $1000 between us. Ridgway was not inclined to give any security, said he wanted to pay the money, would do so and for us not to get alarmed.

We gave him to understand that he had been guilty of a very serious offense and that we could have him broken at the bar. But with no purpose.

Things went on very unsatisfactorily for several days. I was much worried and almost to desperation in consequence. Finally we had to engage a lawyer W. W. Lovick, recommended to me by Duffin. After several days investigation he succeeded in getting from Mr & Mrs Ridgway a mortgage on his brick store house on Lyndon St. Had been already mortgaged for It has the bank cost five years ago $1000 with 10 day purchase $10000 $10000 also a mortgage on the farm and Deery, already mortgage $10000 the farm cost ten years ago $10000, but would not probably all ready for much more than 10 day purchase against it. The mortgage on the note and farm to July 1890, given the 13th March and amount $10000 the 20th March. Today we have a charged mortgage by the bank in the mortgage book which at the end of the month or whenever we get payment we for return of the mortgage, in fact, when we can see for any deficiency - and showed this still be a deficiency to the by our demand the mortgage on the farm to New Deery will have to be for deed.

Of thought provided on the 20th March the money would have been paid, then Jan 1st we will cost 10 day purchase all this month. On the settlement made by Esquire with Deery - $1000 each was paid to the amount and I received him a certificate of $1000 in full of the amount against me or any of the kind of the estate for services rendered. In connection that he withdrew from agreement when I had commenced. The Esquire the he wanted for the Esquire that effect and any fee when the value part would be necessary to Esquire one more Esquire to that effect get back the $1000 from the estate on settlement.

Esquire change which may be making settlement of $1000 or more the bank and Esquire must take of this and repaired.
Esquire Esquire to pay more to it on the 20th of March the matter of the Esquire of the amount any of the money of Esquire that had the value more and Esquire on Mr. Ridgway, but up to present time has been unable to draw on his wife who is at the farm in Jersey - His object is to gain all the time possible to turn himself around, either to collect money or to write some other of his clients to pay us. My advertisement will require three months to get done.

I saw Mr. Goodrich to day and he has the papers made out asking the Court to grant an order for a substitution of Dorey by pushing on the premises whom by affidavits it can be shown that the party who is a resident is absent from the state. It will be some time, however before the matter is decided at least three or four months. Through our security to you from being first class it is probably ample to satisfy our claim.
In any case we can not lose much if it is settled than losing it.

You can imagine from all I have written what my anxiety has been

The great ~~calamity~~ ~~trouble~~ I have experienced - It was indeed a severe blow to me, ~~one~~ of the heaviest I ever experienced in my life. After nearly two years of long and patient suffering to be robbed of my money just as it was coming into my hands was a most terrible disappointment, ~~and~~ ~~as~~ as it were in one moment all my hopes to the ground. In the brief space of a few days, was concentrated a more suffering than I had experienced since I left home. But I have about got over it now - though I have had to strive very hard to overcome my feelings.
I am anxious now for Henry's arrival and as soon as agreement is signed and matters settled, I shall receive some more of the Cash - that which John & I got the 1st of - he gets one half, and I the other half - which I paid by Railway - In other words I have received $3,000 and must be only to move in confidence life of it. My intention was to have left had I got the $500 the 10th March and my intention was to have left in Case I had not heard from Henry the 20th of this month though I should not have done so with only a few hundred of dollars.

He will be here about the 25th and if possible to an-saw matters my intention is to be in England before comparing the two years away the 30th May. To be of good cheer and man. I hope to be with you soon God willing. I hope you are well and that the children are good to you. Continue to write to me I will telegraph to you leave God bless you my dear wife and God bless that we may soon meet again yours affectionately The Duke

I think for the present better not telegraph me about our home get the finest ea strings there are I will tell you where you can get the best kind of strings is at the drug stores. Maybe some drug store might be selling out at auction. then you see you can buy them by the wholesale, but if you go to a drug store that isent selling out they will charge you 25cts a piece for strings. ~~the~~ I wish you when you buy the strings to put the violin strings in one box, and The Banjo strings ³ in another box, and the Guitar strings in another box. I will tell you the reason why I would like you to do this, is because when you sent the instruments the strings that you sent got all mixed up, and we had a hard time finding the different strings, will you please get me a mother little box of rosin the rosin that you sent was almost to dry. And another thing will you please get me a back piece for my Violin and three or 4 bridges. The back piece that you sent me split when I was playing, it was such a pretty back piece that I felt pretty bad when it broke. Do you think you can get one almost as nice as the back piece you sent me. if you do I will have my Violin all ready for you when you come from New York I will now

close my letter by saying good night

And the world is the same as before and continues, but they are the same the same as we are, and we are the same some times think that they are the same and of some as a time as what is it? I will say this all the time that the world is the same that I have had many times in several years past that they got out of their minds and and look for the end with hope for the future.
I have seen many of these makings of the future. I have seen the things which will be in 10 years. In a few years, many that are now in the Church will be gone by many. I have seen papers. I have seen papers in the paper which I have seen. I have seen papers in the same way as the same. I have seen you and the and much affliction at home, and that I should ever have treated you harshly, I need words and a great expenditure with age we gather experience, and I find hope that the sentiment which I need express towards you may ever remain unchanged. Thus do not, much happiness must be got out of this world certainly by riches do not give it as I find by examples before me and the sad experience of the past, and as I have given up the hope of acquiring wealth, becoming perhaps too old - being possibly my ambition I am willing to settle down taking things quietly and contentedly with desiring to obtain all the happiness I can wish you along to love

Now if you too are changed as I expect you have then certainly will be no difficulty - but now and you have said I will keep you for what you are the the best I can and probably if you answer do now answer soon be and right towards me - You know I have I love her as a sister, may even affectionate sister, but not as I love you there is a great difference, and as a wife I should not exchange you for her or a dozen to me. I long for the time when I may lead my way homeward to you my lovely years happily together with enough to do you will find me changed to a further whenever I go there. I read them all the children's letters or rather he read them all to his children

I saw also the same day Mr letter of the 1st of June enclosing insurance policy and letter from Gamess.

 They come at a good time - having learned from Moore that the last Legislature of Calif passed a law requiring all foreign insurance companies to pay to the holder 75% of the Cash value of all policies surrendered to them. I spoke to Ridgway about it and he thinks I have good cause of action - wants the law - will require it - maybe A. Johnson made the demand before the expiration of the policy - I may receive several hundred dollars and have agreed to give you one third of it - will know more about it soon - would it be wise to get two or three hundred dollars - you shall have the whole of it if I do - it will buy many

I called evening before last to see Mrs Broc, (your cousin ^{Stanley}) but as she was out with her husband. I had not that pleasure, or of an introduction to him. I left with the waiter your card. I will make an other attempt to see her at some future time. Last Sunday I dined and passed the afternoon with my friends, the Puffes, who always make me most welcome. They are all very well and desire their remembrances to you. Mrs Puffer sends you her condolences for my long absence and expresses the hope that you will not have to wait much longer for my return. Minnie, her eldest daughter, ^{about 10 years of age} is now able to write, and had prepared a letter, being her first, to send to Lillie, but as she had addressed it to Brotet, being under the impression that she was the youngest and ~~nearest~~ her age, she did not give it to me, promising to rewrite it, in time for me to take home.
I go frequently to Mrs Gibbs, to see them, she thinks Elizabeth was jealous of her at is seemingly the lot of us poor mortals to be oppressed with burdens of sorrow, and certainly to have mine to bear. The past two years of my life have been a blank to me. I look back upon it as if it were a dream from which I am awakening. It seems as though I had been purgatory or suffering from the expiating torments of hell itself. Why should I have been detained here so long, away from home, and all those I hold most dear, wife and children suffering as I have? Will the money which I may yet compensate my own loss for this? The time lost can never be restored, neither can the happiness which I have sacrificed be regained.

Two years, for a man of my years, wasted, as I have the precious time is too much for the little which I may receive, and could it have been foreseen that I must have sacrificed so much, I would I never should have undertaken the suit. But having done so, I suppose the best for me is to see it through to the end, raising gone so far, not to regard and so let us all believe, and hope for the best.

I have written you with the

Dear Mother
I received your letter of the 10th and was glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same.
I have not much news to write at present.
The weather here is very warm and the crops are doing well.
I have been thinking of writing to you for some time but have not had time. I hope to write again soon.
I love you very much and hope you love me the same.
Your affectionate son,
John Smith

Tell my Rose that (Morse writes

I saw my Saunders the other day. She said your mother had written to her informing her that you had written to her informing her that I had written her to inform you that she had told my mother you mother had written to her for money - that she had sent in some but hadn't heard from her since - the story has got mixed up in some way in the lawman man as you will get this mixed up from the way it is written. Give it as a specimen of how easily it is to get things mixed up. Then I certainly seem misunderstanding somewhat but when I doubt know I understood Mr. T. to say that your mother had written for some assistance and that she sent it to her and had heard from her but once since. This was the meaning I intended to convey, whether I did or not don't know. A little thing doesn't unless consistently held or repeated as they make matter a great consideration. Please interrupt anything I write again to any one at least I like to write back.

Sau traveled and thus abide patiently for better times. I am anxious to return home as soon as I can to decide upon what is for the best, but I am this determined, not being able to recover my money, withstanding the efforts being made.
It is not such an easy matter to squeeze money out of people when they are continued not to pay, and the law is so slow to execute. I have Coucut at the present time in a very tight place, he being in Contempt of Court in not answering a summons on the 11th inst; and shall not let up on him, but hold the rod threatening over him. He returned from Washington yesterday, and my lawyer said he informed him of the position of affairs. He got $50 out of him of which he paid me only $20 on account, retaining the balance for himself for the expenses incurred on the 11th inst. I shall in the end get the best that is in the event of all being paid. Coucut Conrad in the north of the sea just up and it is from that source. I expect to get my money from him. But it will take some time. My intention is, when I get the money from Conrad, to stick for him, con-ing the matter of execution from Harry if my lawyer should be to stick to me.

As the ~~amount~~ from Harry is very about $100 after paying lawyer, it seems and as for me to remain a month or longer after the uncertainty of the execution. I shall leave after getting the money from Conrad as that will be the best when I shall have most money in hand, and I prefer a of my expenses from it, as it will be more than sufficient to get the money, and I can keep it for some time, as I estimate they will be 15 or 20 pounds, when I return to Providence in the next week, and will

I am glad to hear that the prospects of an abundant crop are so good for in the face of impending ruin which they are so loath to believe. But though the times are dark with the majority of people, I suppose there are some few who are doing well and have more money than they know what to do with. How about Hyton? Will he be able to hold out? I hope so. For if ever a man deserved success I think that he does.

I hope you will give your consent to George and see that he is having proper care to restore him to health, in consequence of his great fat indigestion, and that the letter he has written will be one more to be forgotten.

I think your chances and those of George will be better in San Francisco than by remaining where you are, as well as the other members of the family. I enclose the $10 which I got from my lawyer, for money. I have lived for the past week on one dollar and have no more for the present unless I can get some to get down from Aunt. With love and hoping to see you all soon.
Your affectionate Father, W. W. Whaley.

Please excuse me for ending my letter

From Your Affectionate Son

George Hay. Ringold Whaley

San Diego.

Dear Father.

I write you these few lines to let you know that myself and all are well, and hope you are the same. Frank received the telegram that you sent to him yesterday. He was very glad when he received it. The first thing he did when he came from New Town, was to commence and pack his trunk, for he had very little time to spare. In the day time about noon, when Frank came from town he told me to invite some of the boys, to come up to the house and have a farewell dance, they came up and of course brought their partners, and they had the gayest old dance that was ever had in Old Town. I played until 10.00 and then the party broke up. Frank put all his baggage out on the porch so as to be ready for the stage when it arrives. When the stage arrived Mother and my sisters took their farewell kiss the stage started and Mother and I went inside and cried over the Frank. they all feel lonesome at present. In course of one or two days they will get rig. I am very sorry he has gone because one to play the Guitar. I am very glad he has gone for one reason. I will tell you why. because ~~it~~ it will make a man of him to travel alone and he will have a much finer show to work at his trade, and in course of time will be some body. I tell them all at home that I will be worth one million of dollars but they all laugh at it I will tell you how by planting gum trees dont you think I will. The money that you sent yesterday Mother let Frank have about $180.00 and she took the rest which was $120.00 Mother says she thinks she will be able to get along with that much until you return home. There has been two meetings held in Old Town already. The first one was a democratic which was held at Mr. Rose's house. the other a republican meeting which was held at the Seeley house was a most respectable meeting. The republican meeting had the brass band from New Town
