educated by the Government, and nurtured and protected under the old flag, which I have sworn to defend under any and all circumstances, and you must not now ask me to lift a hand against it, for this I shall never do." The other responded in a manner to almost dismay these plotters.

Presuming now that you are getting anxious to know the names of my old and loyal friends referred to, I will give them to you as follows:

The first named was Maj. George Ringgold, United States Army, and the second, General Charles Doane, major general of the militia of California. This letter I immediately took to the Secretary of War (Cameron) who, properly impressed with its importance, immediately ushered me with the letter into the presence of President Lincoln, to whom I read the letter, and the following conversation rapidly ensued between us thus: Mr. Lincoln to me: "General, do you vouch for the statement these gentlemen make?" "I do, most emphatically; I know them intimately; they are both reliable and chivalrous, 'the salt of the earth.'" To Secretary Cameron: "General, who is there near at hand whom we can trust to send out to California? Sumner is in New York; can we send him? If we can not, we have none who can be trusted. Telegraph Sumner to report here to-morrow?" Lincoln to me: "General, when does the next steamer sail?" "Day after to-morrow."

Summer did report, and did sail on the following Wednesday under sealed orders "to be opened as you enter the Golden Gate," and when he arrived and was entering the Golden Gate he opened these orders and read: "Land at the first wharf and proceed with all haste to the headquarters of the Army and assume command of the Pacific Department United States Army, and relieving Col. A. Sidney Johnston." Summer landed at the Presidio and was in command before the steamer reached her wharf at the foot of Clay street.

Now, this noble deed of George H. Ringgold, colonel in the Army, your husband, saved the secession of the Pacific States with all that that implied, and which no man can compute, and I only wish the committee having your petition in charge would summon me before them that I might render homage to one who was true as steel and ready to make every and all sacrifice to duty and right.

I am, sincerely and truly, dear madam, your friend,

W. C. KIDDE.

Mrs. MARY C. RINGGOLD.

Colonel Ringgold had a brother, Major Ringgold, killed at the battle of Palo Alto, and another brother served with distinguished bravery in the naval service during the civil war. A similar bill was introduced into the Senate and was favorably reported in 1860. The report in that case is hereto annexed, with several letters from his army friends testifying to the value of his military services attached.

Your committee believe that it is but just that the venerable widow of the meritorious officer, in her old age and in her dependent condition, should receive the increase of pension proposed to be given by this bill, especially in view of the peculiarly valuable services rendered by her late husband, and they would therefore recommend that the bill do pass, amended by striking out the word "mother" in the title, and inserting the word "widow," and by striking out the word "mother" in the fourth line of the bill and inserting the word "widow."

An act granting an increase of pension to Mrs. Mary Condy Ringgold, widow of George H. Ringgold, late lieutenant colonel and deputy paymaster general, United States Army.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled. That the Secretary of the Interior be, and is hereby, authorized and directed to increase to $30 per month the pension of Mrs. Mary Condy Ringgold, widow of the late George H. Ringgold, Lieutenant colonel and deputy paymaster general, United States Army, who died in San Francisco, Cal., April 4, 1864.

[Senate Report No. 301, Forty-ninth Congress, first session.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (S. 516) granting an increase of pension to Mrs. Mary C. Ringgold, have examined the same and report:

The claimant is the widow of George H. Ringgold, late lieutenant colonel of the United States Army, (certificate No. 39798). The following certificates and petition of the widow will show the character of his services:

WAR DEPARTMENT, PAYMASTER GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, D. C., December 17, 1881.

I had not the pleasure of a personal acquaintance with the late Lieut. Col. George H. Ringgold, deputy paymaster general. He was a graduate at West Point, and served in the line of the Army for over three years; was appointed an additional paymaster in 1846, and in the regular service July 21, 1847, and was promoted deputy paymaster general with the rank of lieutenant colonel on the 28th of May, 1862, and was chief paymaster, Department of the Pacific, from 1861 to April 4, 1864, the day of his death.

Lieutenant Colonel Ringgold had the reputation of an accomplished gentleman and faithful public officer.

WM. B. ROCHESTER,
Paymaster General, United States Army.

I heartily concur in the above.

S. V. BENÉT,
Brigadier-General, Chief of Ordnance.

I knew Colonel Ringgold for many years. He was a faithful officer and a worthy gentleman. Great sympathy is due his family for their own sakes as well as for his valuable services to the United States.

E. D. TOWNSEND,
Brigadier General, U. S. Army, Retired.

To whom it may concern:

It was my good fortune to know the late lamented Lieut. Col. George H. Ringgold, paymaster United States Army, for some years before his death, and on the California coast. He was an accomplished gentleman and a thorough man.

He was in San Francisco at the beginning of the late rebellion, and as a Marylander opposed secession in its entirety and in the particular. What with speeches and open activity he did much to dishearten the organization of the Knights of the Golden Circle, and in all this secured to himself much enmity from State's people and other Southern people with whom he had before been on terms of local as well as social brotherhood.

He had a large family, entertained hospitably, and died during the war, leaving nothing to them but his good name.

Of one of the best old families of our country, they have left their lives and name written on our battlefields. Ringgold, of Palo Alto, Tex., was the colonel's brother, while the Tilghmans, Keys, and Enyces were all his relatives. The times have changed, and people who once could have come forward to the help of the family have passed away, and its support depends now on the efforts of his wife.

A grateful country could not act in a more worthy place than here in helping her to keep together a body of delicate and dependent children of him who was so true to his flag when appeals like a litany were being made to every Southern gentleman.

JNO. HAMILTON,
Colonel Fifth Artillery.

Given at Fort Hamilton, N. Y., December 15, 1884.

Colonel Ringgold was an accomplished gentleman and served his country faithfully and well.

R. C. DRUM,
Adjutant General, U. S. A.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 17, 1884.

Your petitioner, Mary C. Ringgold, whose post-office address is Washington, in the county of Washington and District of Columbia, respectfully represents that she is a pensioner under certificate No. 59798, at the rate of $30 per month, widow of the late Lieut. Col. George H. Ringgold, deputy paymaster general, United States Army.

Referring to the many cases wherein additional pension has been granted by Congress, none of them more meritorious than hers, she respectfully prays for the passage of a special act increasing her pension to $50 per month.

The services of Colonel Ringgold were especially valuable to the Government, and the expenses of living consumed all his pay, at his death his family was left destitute, and your petitioner has ever since been compelled to provide for herself and four children. She is now in declining years, and her two sons, whom she had hoped would be able to assist her having both died, she finds herself compelled so soon as that an increase of pension, which many have received for far less service, may be generously given for the brief period that remains.

She would also remind you that she belongs to a family whose members have all been faithful servants of the Government, and who have all passed away. She is the great grandchild of the renowned hero of Cowpens and Entwistle, and her family wealth was freely given during the Revolution to insure American success.

She asks attention to the papers accompanying this petition, and respectfully prays that the needed relief may be granted.

It appears that Mrs. Ringgold was left in destitute circumstances at her husband's death, with four young children to provide for. Her sons have died, and also a stepson, leaving her without any male relatives, but with an invalid sister and daughter to support, entirely dependent upon her. She is nearly sixty years of age and in poor health.

Your committee recommend the passage of the bill with an amendment as follows: Strike out the word "fifty," in line 7, and insert the word "forty" in lieu thereof.

WAR DEPARTMENT, PAYMASTER GENERAL'S OFFICE.
September 19, 1890.

I cheerfully concur in the indorsement of General Rochester of December 17, 1881, relating to the service and reputation of the late Lieutenant-Colonel Ringgold.

WM. SMITH,
Paymaster General United States Army.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, REGISTER'S OFFICE,
Washington, D. C., September 22, 1890.

DEAR MADAM: I have read Senate Report 301, Forty-ninth Congress, first session, concerning the services of your late husband, Lieut. Col. George H. Ringgold.

I regret that I am unable to reproduce in detail the facts which came to my knowledge in the course of my correspondence with him and his friends and brother officers, but I remember they showed that his character and services were held in high esteem for very substantial reasons, and that his services were especially valuable on the Pacific coast, at a time when the interests of the Government required such fidelity and intelligence as he displayed.

Sympathizing with you in the struggle you have had since his death and in the losses of your children and stepson, I sincerely hope Congress will increase your pension to $50 per month, as you desire.

Very truly yours,

W. S. ROSECRANS.

Mrs. MARY C. RINGGOLD,
Washington, D. C.

MR. CHEADLE. Mr. Speaker, I make the same point upon that bill that I did upon the others.

MR. SAWYER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to make a statement that perhaps may induce the gentleman from Indiana to waive the point in this case. Mrs. Ringgold is a woman over sixty-two years of age. She is a native of South Carolina. I am acquainted with her, having boarded in the same family that she is now living in for a year and over.

MR. KILGORE. Is she living here?

MR. SAWYER. She is living in this city. She has two children, one of them is an invalid daughter, and is supported by the mother. In addition to that, she has a widowed sister who is also supported by this beneficiary and daughter. Her husband rendered exceptional service, and there is a letter from Colonel Hamilton of the Fifth Artillery in the report showing that about the time of the breaking out of the war of the rebellion Colonel Ringgold was very patriotic in his action; and it shows that Colonel Ringgold, who was then stationed at San Francisco, did much to prevent the attempt on the part of California to go out of the Union. I know this beneficiary to be a very ladylike, refined woman, who is very poor, and that she has an invalid daughter and also an invalid sister dependent upon her.

MR. KILGORE. What pension is she receiving now?

MR. SAWYER. Thirty dollars a month.

MR. BRECKINRIDGE, of Arkansas. The objection is not proceeding from this side of the House.

MR. SAWYER. I know that.

MR. BRECKINRIDGE, of Arkansas. But you are looking over to this side of the House.

MR. SAWYER. It is a little more convenient to look to that side. I referred to the gentleman from Indiana at the commencement of my remarks. If there is any case, it seems to me, where an exception

On September 16, 1885, he declared that he was induced by a recruiting officer to go into the second organization, as it made no difference what regiment he was in so long as he was in the Army, "and we thought we were being transferred." He further declared that he received no bounty, and only drew pay by the month for what time he was in the last regiment.

Twelve citizens of St. Louis, Gratiot County, Michigan, presented a memorial in 1885 to the effect that it was their belief that the soldier re-enlisted through the representations of recruiting officers that he was being transferred, and that he is a respectable citizen and a worthy man.

On February 26, 1889, in a letter to Hon. A. T. BLISS, M. C., he repeated the bulk of his former statements.

On July 22, 1889, Mr. BLISS was informed, after citing the record, that as the absence between desertion from the first service and enlistment in the second exceeded four months, the case was not covered by existing law and the application must be denied.

Respectfully submitted.

F. C. AINSWORTH,
Captain and Assistant Surgeon, United States Army.

The SECRETARY OF WAR.

The amendment recommended by the committee was agreed to.

The bill as amended was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading; and being engrossed, it was accordingly read the third time, and passed.

JAMES BROWN.

The next business on the Private Calendar was the bill (H. R. 8790) for the relief of James Brown.

The bill was read, as follows:

Bell enacted, etc., That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to remove the charge of desertion resting upon the military record of James Brown, late of Company B, Sixty-third Regiment New York Infantry Volunteers.

The report (by Mr. WILLIAMS, of Ohio) was read, as follows:

The Committee on Military Affairs, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 8790) for the relief of James Brown, submit the following report:

The committee have had under consideration the above-mentioned bill, and have carefully examined the same.

From the military record as furnished by the Secretary of War, they find that this soldier was enrolled at the age of nineteen years in Company I, Sixty-third New York Volunteers, October 1, 1861, to serve three years. He was transferred to Company F and subsequently to Company B, same regiment. That he re-enlisted as a veteran volunteer on December 22, 1863. The muster-out roll of the company, dated June 30, 1865, reports him absent, wounded May 5, 1864. The casualties of the Consolidated Brigade, First Division, Second Corps, dated August 3, 1864, report him wounded May 5, 1864, at the Wilderness, Virginia.

The records of the Surgeon General, United States Army, show that he entered Mount Pleasant Hospital, Washington, D. C., May 11, 1864, with gunshot wound received at the Wilderness May 5, 1864, and was transferred May 15, 1864, and entered Jarvis General Hospital, Baltimore, Md., with gunshot wound of left shoulder. On February 6, 1865, the Department dishonorably discharged this soldier, to date May 16, 1864, which was the day succeeding the one he entered Jarvis Hospital.

This soldier swears under date of April 22, 1866, that under orders to proceed to New York, he turned up, in line with other soldiers, who were to travel to proceed to the depot at Baltimore; that he with others went to the depot by themselves and went to New York, where he went to his mother's home in New York City. That his wound grew worse after his arrival home and that he was not able to leave the house for many months, or to rejoin his command before it was mustered out, and that he never had any intention of deserting. Affidavit shows that he was a brave soldier, and in nearly all the battles under McClellan, Burnside, Pope, Hooker, Meade, and Grant until wounded in action.

Your committee therefore recommend that the bill do pass.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading; and being engrossed, it was accordingly read the third time, and passed.

JOHN W. YOUNGER.

The next business on the Private Calendar was the bill (H. R. 11348) to place the name of John W. Younger on the pension roll.

The bill was read, as follows:

Bell enacted, etc., That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension roll, subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws, the name of John W. Younger, late of Company E, Forty-eighth Enrolled Missouri Militia.

The report (by Mr. MORRILL) was read, as follows:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 11348) to place the name of John W. Younger on the pension roll, submit the following report:

Claimant enlisted August 11, 1862, in Company E, Forty-eighth Missouri Enrolled Militia, and was discharged July 1, 1865. On the 14th of February, 1863, claimant was commissioned first lieutenant of the above-named company and regiment, and in June of the same year was transferred to Company L, Fourth Missouri Militia, which company was commanded by Capt. William G. Garth. Claimant made application for pension February 23, 1885, alleging that on or about the 1st of August, 1863, he was in command of a squad of militia, and at Hawdysell Bridge had a skirmish with guerrillas, which his command succeeded in routing, and that in the pursuit of the enemy his horse stumbled, throwing him to the ground, disabling him by rupture and injury to the left hip and leg.

Capt. William G. Garth makes affidavit that claimant, in command of a squad on or about the 1st of August, 1863, attacked and put to flight a party of guerrillas and bushwhackers, commanded by Quantrell and his associates, at Hawdysell Bridge; that while in pursuit of the flying enemy claimant's horse stumbled, throwing him to the ground with violence, causing him to be disabled by rupture and injuring his left leg and hip. Thomas A. Harnal, a private of the command, also testifies to substantially the same facts. Both witnesses testify to being present with the command at the time the injury was received and to having personal knowledge of the facts as stated.

The claim was rejected at the Bureau of Pensions on account of the disability being incurred while serving in a State organization, which is not a pensionable service under existing law.

The evidence in this claim clearly shows that claimant was injured while actually engaged in the defense of his flag and country against its enemies. Under such circumstances, your committee are of the opinion that justice demands that he be placed on the pension roll, which act of justice will be in line of established precedent.

Therefore your committee make favorable report and recommend that the bill do pass.

Mr. KILGORE. Mr. Speaker, I do not understand that a member of a militia company is entitled to any pension at all.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Not having been mustered into the States service, he would not be entitled to pension.

Mr. KILGORE. There is no general law under which the members of a militia regiment can be paid pension; and I would ask if it is not going a little too far for Congress to undertake to put men who were in the militia, and who were not in the Army or in the war, on the pension rolls.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. According to the report he was in active service.

Mr. KILGORE. I heard the reading of the report.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. And the report states that he received his injuries while in actual service of the Government.

Mr. KILGORE. In actual service in the militia.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. He was in a militia organization, but in the active service of the Government of the United States.

Mr. SAWYER. Mr. Speaker, I will explain that it has been the practice of the Committee on Invalid Pensions to report favorably in the cases of members of the Missouri militia where they have served and been injured while engaged in active service in the field; and as I understand the reading of the report that was the case here. This man was in the actual service of the United States.

Mr. CHEADLE. That has been the general practice.

Mr. KILGORE. How much does this bill carry?

Mr. SAWYER. It would be subject to the provisions and limitations of the pension laws.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. He will receive a pension according to the degree of disability.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading; and being engrossed, it was accordingly read the third time, and passed.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The hour in which bills upon the Private Calendar were to be called up in regular order has expired, and without objection the Chair will recognize gentlemen on either side alternately.

Mr. SAWYER. Before that is done, Mr. Speaker, I move to reconsider the several votes by which the various bills were passed, and also move that the motion to reconsider be laid on the table.

The latter motion was agreed to.

MARY C. RINGGOLD.

Mr. SAWYER. I call up for consideration at the present time the bill (H. R. 12120) to increase the pension of Mary Condy Ringgold, mother of George H. Ringgold, late lieutenant colonel and deputy paymaster general United States Army.

The bill was read, as follows:

Bell enacted, etc., That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay to Mary Condy Ringgold, mother of George H. Ringgold, late lieutenant colonel and deputy paymaster general United States Army, a pension at the rate of $30 per month instead of the pension she is now receiving.

The report (by Mr. SAWYER) was read, as follows:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 12120) granting a pension to Mary C. Ringgold, submit the following report:

The beneficiary is the widow of George H. Ringgold, late Lieutenant colonel and deputy paymaster general, United States Army.

Colonel Ringgold graduated at West Point in the same class with General Rosecrans, was appointed an additional paymaster in 1861, was promoted deputy paymaster general, with the rank of lieutenant colonel, United States Army, in May, 1862, and was chief paymaster, Department of the Pacific from 1861 to April 4, 1864, when he died.

The beneficiary is now his widow, sixty-two years of age, in feeble health, and is absolutely without any means of support except her pension of $30 per month, which she is now receiving, and the earnings from her own labor.

She has two daughters (her only children), both unmarried. The younger is in delicate health and is supported by her mother.

Mrs. Ringgold has also an invalid sister supported by her and her older daughter. She has no relative to whom she can look for her support in her old age.

Colonel Ringgold was a Southern man by birth, and when the civil war broke out he was stationed at San Francisco, Cal. General Albert S. Johnston was then stationed at this place, in command of the Department of the Pacific.

As is well known, there was a large element in the population of that State that favored the secession of that State, and plans were being laid, with the knowledge and under the advice of General Johnston, to secure that result. Suddenly General Johnston was relieved of his command and General Sumner appointed in his place, and the efforts to secure the secession of California were thwarted, and that State, and perhaps Oregon, were saved to the Union.

This was before the days of telegraphs and railroads across the continent. The part that Colonel Ringgold had in securing this important result will fully appear in the accompanying letter from General W. C. Kibbe, then and for several years thereafter adjutant general of that State:

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 26, 1890.

MY DEAR MADAM: I have great pleasure in stating to you, in connection with your request that I see the Hon. Mr. SAWYER, of New York, that there is a matter of unwritten history which may avail you in the legislation you are seeking from Congress. It is this, namely: Early in 1861—say about the 29th of March—while adjutant general of California, being on business for my State, I received a joint letter from two very dear and loyal friends in San Francisco stating that plans were on foot and nearing completion for the secession of California from the Union, in which Oregon would join, giving me full particulars of the same and stating that the writers, being of Southern birth, had been approached with impunity, the plotters not dreaming but that a simple request was all that would be required to enlist my friends in this bold and promising scheme.

But, to their great disgust and disappointment, one of them replied, "I was

JE NE CHAÎNE RIEN, MARIE EST AVEC MOI!

MARIE :

Tu hésites, ma pauvre brobli, les forces paraissent te manquer; mais vois donc, il n'y a plus que ce pont à passer. La nuit qui tombe te fait peur peut-être, la vue de ce torrent rapide, image de la vie qui s'ensuit, te glace d'effroi. Cependant tout meurt, ici plus d'ombrage, plus d'herbes vertes. Encore un pas... deux pas... et tu verras briller l'éternelle aurore, et je te conduirai aux délicieux pâturages d'un monde nouveau, où la verdure et les fleurs ne se dérisent plus.

L'AME :

O Marie ! aidez-moi, s'il vous plaît, dans ces derniers moments si difficiles à la nature. Quand il n'y aura plus qu'un pas... deux pas... à faire, prenez-moi dans vos bras; et si mes lèvres, et si mon cœur déjà engourdis par la mort, ne peuvent plus dire un mot à Dieu, faites un acte d'amour, chargez-vous de parler pour moi...

Sous les yeux de Marie j'affronte le danger.
Ses bras me sont ouverts : qui pourrait m'ébranler!...

MARIE :

Tu l'es un peu trop éloignée, pauvre bêche ; vois le loup qui ne s'est point retiré encore : il regarde tout effrayé ; il craint, mais il espère. Si je n'eusse été là, il t'aurait dévorée peut-être. Comme tu voilà toute hale-tante, et hors d'haleine ! Viens, reprends place avec tes sœurs qui reposent en paix, et ne t'écarte plus du berceau.

L'ÂME :

O MARIE ! soyez aussi ma Bergère : protégez-moi contre ce loup rugissant, qui rôde sans cesse autour de ma pauvre âme. Si jamais je veux m'éloigner, appelez-moi, et votre douce voix me retiendra dans le devoir.

Je vous suivrai partout, Mère de mon Sauveur, Et vous me conduirez près de mon bon Pasteur.

My dear Mrs Whaley

Mr Morse has offered to be the bearer of a letter to you, and I avail myself of the opportunity of informing you somewhat as to the movements of "the Major" since his farewell day in old San Diego - Mr Whaley must have found me dry and good for nothing when he came on board to say good by, but the fact of the matter is, I was dull & triste, and my mind a little abstracted, all of which your dear kind soul ~~that you are~~, will duly explain to him. Our voyage up was a perfectly smooth one - I went up to Los Angeles and spent two days there - Of the human creatures there I saw nothing, and although the country looked green & refreshing and the grape season was just coming in, I did nothing but make comparisons between it and my old home, (too much to the prejudice of the former) to suffer me to enjoy even what was worth enjoying in the city of the Angels - I can not describe to you the contrast between the soft balmy climate out of which I had just come, and the raw blustery foggy exception I met with in San Francisco - I was cold up to my knees - nay up to my very heart, which I much fear will loose all its genialness unless kind fats shall show up to me a prospective visit to the dear old spot once more - But I must not deal in the dolefuls any longer - you will not thank me for a letter which, filled only with sentiments of regret, forgets that its business is to cheer your spirit with some of the sunshine that ought to gather about such a metropolis as San Francisco - Well, I suppose it has its advantages - but I do assure you that I feel lost here. I feel the need of my old habits - of my daily routine - the sight of the adobes - the Plaza - the Cheap Cash store - and all the old familiar faces - to say nothing of South Park, which had somehow or other ~~had~~ managed to worm itself into my affections & make me feel when I had to go away from it, as if it was ~~really~~ my home -

I was in this great city four & twenty hours before I found any body that I knew - Magree was out of town Old Parrott had gone home - it being after office hours before I got into the street, after the usual process of getting on "something to wear" - and every one else that I thought ought to be around, was somehow or other out off the ways - The following day about night, as Paddy might express it - Boston Ames called - I was out and did not see him till next day afterward - He appears to be busy about many things as was said of the worldly Martha, and I have seen very little of him - of course one of the matters that occupies him is getting his likeness taken - photograph is the word this time - I dined on Friday with Mr Parrott - and on Sunday with Mr Cassidy - Mrs Doyle was there, just returned from the country - I have not seen Mrs Wyse - She is staying at the Presidio and as I have considerable time before the steamer leaves, I shall have to give ^{madam} ~~her~~ ~~the~~ go by ~~mail~~ after her departure - I called to see Mrs Badarous the evening after my arrival - She and the doctor are well, and were as usual very kind & polite to me - I do not think there is any one in the world of whom Mrs Badarous thinks more highly than of yourself - I told her you had intended writing by me, but time had slipped away faster than you thought, and that must make your place with her for the present - I told her all about little Mannie, and as she has a little girl herself I can see no objection of making her jealous - You ought to write to her, for she is quite sincere I believe in her affection for you - The steamer reached here yesterday & brought among others your old acquaintance Bonny castle, bound for Oregon - I have not yet seen him - I much fear from what I can gather from some of the officers who have just arrived that I am to be sent to the States - Major Beall now in Texas is, they say, to be relieved by Col Coffey who leaves here in perhaps a month - after which Beall will come out, and start me eastward - This will take some four or five months, during which time I hope to be able to pay you a visit, and say good by again to San Diego - My present intention is to come down on the boat of the 20th of September, & unless something quite unforeseen should occur I shall do so - I wish you could have heard the music at the Cathedral on Sunday, it was grand - Nothing takes hold of one so perfectly and absolutely, and fills up my whole soul so entirely as music - For it speaks the language of every passion and emotion - and there is no mood in which the mind may find itself, that has not its own particular musical ~~language~~, attendant, that harmonizes & thoroughly sympathises with it - But I am discouraging - I commenced telling you about the Cathedral & I ended by preaching on music - We old fellows can't help growing a little prosy - I have not been to a single place of public amusement since I arrived here - there are three places where theatricals are done up every night, but somehow or other I don't care to go - the truth is I am annoyed by the uncertainty of my position - I would like to know that I was to remain here but to be left in this dubious way is not at all to my liking - Do my dear Madame take compassion on me and tell me all about San Diego - I especially about the inmates of South Park - Tom, Franky & Annie & some little about yourself too if quite convenient -

I had letters from my daughter - & her grandmother - who tells me Antone took the gold medal & Crown of white roses & the highest honors of his Class - I hope you received a letter from your Mama - mind & tell me how she likes the picture - May joy ever rest with you -

Most truly your friend,

I fear you'll find my letter J. P. Briggwood

San Diego September 21st 1858.

Friend Major,

Your second friendly letter came welcome. To tell to day, I have very little time to write and my wife has been busy writing home and to Mr Kellogg having received news from him to day. He was in New York. Spoke of leaving in the steamer or movement. My left mother has received the portrait and is much pleased with it. I am disappointed in making a commitment to this steamer having collected very little since the last only enough to pay you on account of your board and my keeping account rentable. I expected Covarrubias would have paid me but he is void of all principle. Just now some of them are pushing him pretty hard and every thing that can be is attached. I also expected money from Burton but he hasn't yet paid although he promised to do so before going to S. F.

I think well of your proposition of going to Santa Rosa better than of the S. J. business. You will get all the information you can for me before you come and then we will see - circle upon something: As for remaining here much longer is quite out of the question. I wish to decide upon some business locality as soon as possible. Sell everything available here and put out. I know I can get all the credit I want in & off paper. Being I can't do the business to warrant it, but the first place is to decide where to go.

Doyle leaves us on the steamer. He will inform you in regard to Walter. I made him a proposition to day which he received rather favorably and will take under consideration while he is absent and let me know further on his return.

I stated to him that I would probably leave here in two or three months what I was disposed to rent my house reasonable rather than leave it unoccupied.

He said he what do you consider reasonable? I told him $100.00 per month the same as he had offered a year ago, and that if he wanted it I would fix it off immediately that it would cost from $1200 to $1500. To lath and plaster and paint it inside and out and put everything in first rate order - I think it likely he will enter into the agreement upon his return and that I may make arrangements to advance the whole amount or a portion of the rent at least to enable me to furnish this would be a great lift to me besides being able to make something elsewhere in business. I delivered your message to Pendleton & Moeg. I enclose you a note from Morse respecting Rose's safety which I have heard nothing from the Colorado River as yet and give up all hope from that quarter. You will get all the information respecting Santa Rosa and the Red River. Mr. Raymond has determined to accept $300. in cash and a mortgage on all my real estate (excepting house & lot) for $100.00 pay in one yr 10% per an int in payment of all I owe him which is doing all that lies in my power -

There were lots of letters for you in the P. O. which have been forwarded by mail.
My Dr and Green Jr. are very well and fully recovered. That you did not come and therefore hope the more to see you next summer and till then you have their best regards. The baby has been pretty sick and is still unwell, sufficiently so every day. Hoping to see you soon I remain

Friend Major,

Your favor 2nd inst is to hand We are very sorry not to have had the pleasure of seeing you this boat. Expected you soon and had dinner upon quadruped for you in the upper part of our house which are at your disposal whatever you may want. Hope of advised decided to take the station at San Francisco and send for your family and then we should still have the pleasure of seeing you. The probability is that ~~do~~ there will be obliged to leave him and settle in the northern part of the state if nothing advantages turns up before now and spring. The pay for remaining here this winter owing to the unpleasantness of moving during the inclement season unless a favorable offer presents itself to go north. The troops may again be stationed here ~~soon~~ and, if I can get the sutlership I would desire nothing better the law having been so altered as to demand the sutler his money at the pay table, but in no case can the sutler insist a deduction for more than $5.00 per month of his pay under forfeiture of his office. Should you hear of any troops being stationed here I know you use your influence to get me the position. but should you happen to be stationed here things will continue very dull and I shall be obliged to seek my fortune some where else. when business is pretty thin. The difficulty will be to find such a place after which I have no doubt of succeeding, having friends enough in San Francisco who will give me all the assistance I may ask.

You will please get me all the information concerning Santa Rosa or any other place where I would be likely to do well. I have not been able to get any news out of people as yet being too busy.

I am anxious for our business arrangements I have no doubt when we meet we can settle accelalifactory. I enclose you a letter from Mr. H. also one from Capt. Moulton. He was anxious to send a pay slip but could find no blank I don't exactly know the purport of his letter but I proposed he should give me an order on you for the amount of his bill. He said this may not quite do much owing to him but that he would understand you I believe for you to return him a blank and to retain $40. and some cents from the amount of his pay. You will please let me know the amount when you get it that I may give him credit for this amount. I can get nothing out of Coorsburg as yet. He still makes promises - Enclose you an order on J. J. Lucy for the amount of his late bill which you will please present. I send you my check for fifty dollars which is all I can do this boat. We have had a terrible tornado which has done considerable damage and I sustained very the blowing away of my sky light. The comet shining brighter than ever thought we are left still in the dark never day.

What am I to do? Your friend Jim may send you their greetings in return. I have no like him to say more so good bye.

Very truly

John Whedon

Major Ringgold.

Dear Friend.

I am very much pleased to receive a letter from you by this steamer, but I had much rather you had come, I had not made up my mind to see you this boat but fully expect you next. Sorry am I to hear that you are so low spirited, why is oh! you must be more of a man and take things as they ^{come}, whether good or bad and make the best of all things. I hope this letter will find my friend in good spirits and well. My dear little Annie is still very sick with a very heavy cold, and very little hopes of her recovery. She seems to be made up of nothing but phlegm Miss Hoffman is attending her and doing her best, which you know does not amount to much, but I pray I pray every night to have very little on. Spared me, and I hope the Lord Almighty - will listen to my prayer. My heart is almost broken by one thing and another and I do not know how it will all end, for the best I hope. I would like to see you very much as will seem little set times to meet again with us not Major? I hope my little one will be well by the time you come down so that I will have time to visit with you. I gave Mr Whaley the note enclosed in my letter, and let him read my letter, también. He says he hopes you will get him the littership when the company comes down and like you to use your best influence to do so, I hope you may too Major for there may be many about not knowing what to do. It is as I

Hankins & Co
No.

Your 23rd will to hand. Some time since from Mr. Hankins & Co. an other gentleman, per D.M.
With this before me, might as you desire, have dictated my last differently. Thanks for paying taxes. "Unjustly & unjustly!" Still hissing was friend Shakespeare says - Receipts and fees received - also balances of funds - All satisfactory. Again thanks -

Now regarding our other portion of your letter - You appear highly indignant. At what respecting I hardly know and don't believe you do either except you are offended at yourself. At something which you wrote in connection with a subject which you evidently admit you had no business to meddle with but which apparently persistently refused to withdraw an opportunity offers. At least said letter it need not be old nor applicable to the case - But as you have caused my attention to be directed to the matter I can not let the opportunity pass without giving an expression of my opinion which may have the effect to cause you to do things properly. You intimate the word unjustify no less than three times in your letter of the 17th inst. and if this member rightly those persons for some time past continue the same word. I understand perfectly well to what you refer, to be quiet but feeling no accountability, consider it quite unnecessary for you to discuss the propriety of my actions regarding my family & your chas-wife, undignifiedly caring nothing for those worthies whose nature all distinguished acquaintances may make.

I am well aware of the strong friendship and regard which you think you have always entertained for myself and family and therefore have it in appreciated the frank & free manner in which you expressed any more your surprise & pain over pardoning what (if an other had done ~~it~~ in Reg I should have considered highly impious) you chose to communicate such you an impudent and inconsistent act. My conversation with you probably reminded you that you might be considered un - ~~or~~ fit for judgment. And you will perceive this pernicious word, originally intended with yourself and long as I waited upon Shreve attend so far have mistaken its application as to consider it as ~~of~~ ^{ask of} into an offence which was certainly way intended to be will be given - I think you have made a memorandum out of a note I will tell - Had you been so creatures to have replied to Mrs. ^{Miss} H. and feel last letter and various others that followed after the last post entitile things would have gone smoothly enough and much unpleasant ^{troublous} attempts would have been avoided - Enough has however been said of the ~~last~~ about the matter. I am disgusted, confounded with it.

You seem to think the offence mortal without consideration for the feelings of others - and that is enough. If it were the the full upshot of the trial. Naturally it is a part of your nature to be querulous. Perhaps you can't help it — Unfortunately it is for you — I don't always considerate matters enhanced unless you chose to be. Consider it now — it being part of my whole nature also. ~~but~~ ^{but} ~~not~~ coming in contact with fire will result produce fire — So to avoid a complication, if which you think there is any danger so much damaged, (I shall therefore leave it entirely for you to decide) don't let's consider it any more. — You need give yourself no further concern concerning ~~as~~ in regard to my affairs in San't Ringo — They are not of incalculable great importance as to trouble me much less, and they are probably of too little importance to induce regard to actions — except of the agency of them. If however you are fully determined and positively refuse to write to me, or to pay attend to anything for me. I have but ~~then~~ one favor to ask of you and that is to enquire of Mr. Gardner if he

My Dear Whaley

As you perceive I am at my journey end, I was going to say, but it was a false teague - I mean I am in the City of the angels I have found all your bill men, and dunned them - secundem artem - Leighton denies the two dollar medicine bill - but says he will pay ~~walter~~ ball ticket fee - Brinley says he has some brandy here that he is going to send to F. Amer to sell & turn over to you ^{7th} ~~precipitately~~ to satisfy your demands Gitchell will hand me the ~~7th~~ ^{6th} which I will send where he does so - Collins says Lyons owes him a sum of money and he wants it to go toward, paying his due day debt - he says he will try & let me have a part of the bill - the bill due Morse & Whaley he says he paid to Mr. Morse - So you see I am as well off as when I began - I leave for Tijon tomorrow early - and shall return here - when possibly I shall be able to make the creditors shell out - if not I will, as you directed, leave the matter to Franklin - ~~With a Buggy nor mare sold yet~~ hope soon to see you in S. Francisco

Yours very truly

G.H. Brinley

Since writing the above I have seen Collins - He says you owe him for repairing your pump and other matters - that he will pay over $22. which is the balance he owes you, if you will send him a receipt in full - I have also collected $7.⁶² from Etchell which Lewis Franklin will hand you - Brinley acknowledges the amount due, but says he has no money I flogged him awful strong, but I could get nothing from him except that had some aquadiente which he intended to convert into 5 dollar brandy by some process or other and send

The same to T.
Ames as I stated.

I reminded him of the white wine and he said he did not have it now - V.C.

Collins promised to furnish his bill against you and Lewis Franklin will get it too Collins failed to keep his appointment with me and give me his account - I return the bill Adieu Amiga mio - Very truly yours

G.H.B.

Mr. Bailey.

I am much pleased to hear of the death of our friend Mr.
Ringgold - Can I do anything further to help you in your distressing position? - Yours truly,

I have seen Collins, he is a pretty honest fellow - he says you sent your bill to him once before ~~before~~ received for £36 - but that he did not pay any thing on it - he has the receipt yet - He says he will pay you £22. which is what he owes you - He would like to have Morse pay you but if Morse cannot, you can then send a receipt in full for £22 - to any one here whom you may see fit and he will pay ~~the~~ the sum -

- I conclude I go via Lejon by land to S. Francisco - hope soon to see you there - in haste - condition

San Diego Oct 22nd 1858

Dear Major.

Your favor 14th inst Dr May wife was received yesterday. We were very glad to hear from you but sorry to learn you were in so bad spirits. Next boat hope to see you or at least to hear from you. Capt Munton seemed disappointed not to have received a reply to his last and so was Pader Alrio who had come all the way from San Francisco expecting to hear from you through Capt SS. You will please retain the amount of the order sent by the Capt & be deducted from his pay & give me credit for the amount indorsing and what it is. We are glad to hear of the safe arrival of Walter home but hope he will not think of returning to California until such time as he shall have completed his education. When you write to him send us our remembrances and best wishes. I am very glad to hear of the return shortly of Capt Maye Company to his place and shall be pleased to welcome him back to San Diego again. I have had a talk with one or two concerning the dictatorship and think it bears favorably of it. I hope you will do all you can to have the matter arranged if it be possible with the officers of the Consistory in San Francisco for the reason if left undecided upon the arrival of the Company here, my chance of getting the appointment might be diminished as there are undoubtedly some here who would be glad to get it and will use their endeavor to do so. In the way I understand the matter it is left to a board to decide upon, and in this case Sirs C & H. would constitute such board subject to the approval of their commanding officers. I believe Capt C & H. would give the preference to me over any other applicant. I believe you will therefore please arrange the matter so as to ensure the approval of Capt Hyde. I think as you say, there will be little difficulty about my getting it, and if I do I believe I shall do pretty well. The Mission is in a badly dilapidated condition so that there is every probability that the troops will be quartered at New Town. This would suit me better as it would enable ~~me~~ ^{the} do our country trade and a little whenever the steamer was in port. Should I get this appointment of Superintendent it will probably be necessary for me to go at once to San Francisco in order to get the proper advice and of course so that should you not come down next steamer I will probably see you then. Little Mandie is much better to day and there is some chance for her recovery.

I have presented you my bill to Capt Proctor. He says he has not got the money now but will pay it shortly. He has paid the amount for the ^{old} ~~old~~ ^{new} ~~new~~ ^{old} ~~old~~ ^{new} outstanding debts. I have paid the enclosed account.

My Amiga Maria

On my arrival in this metropolis on Saturday last I was happy to find your letter awaiting me - Next to the pleasure of being with ~~my~~'s friends, is to have their own written assurances that all is well with them, and that we still live in their kind remembrance - I am very glad to hear good accounts of little Maria, and that she continues to thrive - she was healthy from her birth and I doubt not she will now do well - I feel the greatest interest in her getting into the age of interesting girlhood, for she will then be such a delightful little companion for you - I anticipate a great deal of pleasure in seeing you and her in that most delightful relation of mother and daughter, when she comes to be a little older, and can sit by your side with her play things & her prattle - girls are worth a great deal more than boys to another. But I must not dwell too long on these pleasing pictures of the future, or I shall not have space to record the events of my journey after leaving Los Angeles - After placing my mare and buggy in charge of Mr. Banning, I left on the morning of the 21st on the Overland Coach for Tujon and arrived there at one o'clock that night, being only 15 hours on the road, when it had generally taken me three days to accomplish ^{the journey}. I spent two days at Tejon, making up rolls and accounts & paying off the troopers, and being entertained - The officers there are a very nice set, and the wives of Captain Davidson & Major Carleton help - the tra-I should think in no little degree to relieve the dullness of that out of the way post - I was roused from a game of cribbage with Dr Ten Broeck by the sound of the stage horn, and, with a perfectly good will to be going once more, I left out the drivers box of the great overland mail stage, & in a moment was dashing down the "Carretera de las rivas" and en route for San Francisco - In the space of 4 miles we descended some 4000 feet and you can readily imagine the change of climate - From cold wintry weather into a balmy/spring atmosphere such as San Diego knows so well - how to serve up - The valley of the Tulare, level and hard permitted us to dash on at a gait not great, till we got to Kern River though, where we grubbed rapidly, & pushed on again - we had yet 360 miles to look forward to, but I was not terrified, and after a pleasant four hours outside with the driver. It lay a fire in the toolies that made every thing as light as day, & crawled inside & slept the sleep in a state of sound health and a cheerful spirit - But I will not fatigue you with an farther detail of my journey which I accomplished without the slightest inconvenience. The Pacheco pass is however a matter to be remarked upon - 13 miles through - 5 miles to the summit & 7 down - the track only wide enough for a single vehicle and often less for a considerable distance cutting along the side of the mountain with a thousand feet of precipice above & another thousand below so that if the slightest accident should occur we were bound to go to Kingston come in a giffy - we came over the pass with lightning and in a way by no means agreeable to weak nerves - I found my friends and acquaintances as I left them - and entered on my old ways as usual - The want of funds left me but little time to do until to day - Now, the steamer having brought me a supply I am here with soldiers, some of whom I have run off in order to get a chance to write to you - I got hard letters from the states - and doubtless you will be pleased to hear that my application for an eastern station has been denied - Col Larned has informed me that he cannot give me the Detroit station because Major McLean has not been there long enough to remove him - and besides he says my services are needed to take charge of the Department on this coast - So you see I remain in California -

I received also a long letter from Walter - he found Emmitsburg entirely a classical school, and ^{he} accordingly determined to go elsewhere - He is now at Wilmington Delaware & likes his position very much - but he says he is bound to return to California after he gets through for he is an out and out Californian and can never like the States any more - My daughter Fannie writes me that she is quite hearty again & is getting horribly fat - I hope she exaggerates for tho' I like plumpness I hate obesity - My old mother is as usual flying about - She went down to Washington the other day some business or other - She will come out with my folks next Spring - Boston Ames is married again sure enough - I made an appointment with him to go & see her but he didn't keep it - Why he did not "Dine Take?" - They were married pretty soon after she arrived - He returned by this boat - as also Gayle & his wife - I have been thinking in not calling on Mrs. Badgerow - I shall do so probably to night - Why don't you write to her? Major & Mrs. Bryce left for Oregon yesterday - I did not see them - Adios my dear friend - I hope soon to see you in this village - Write to me all of interest that you have for me - tell me when you think of coming up - Present my regards to your better half - I shall probably drop him a line to go with them - Adios - And may your heart always be at peace in the power of

My dear Whaly —

I have just the smallest possibl amt of time left to write you.
Being chock full of business with the discharged soldiers of the 6th Infy — Doyle was in the country with madam and I only got sight of him right before last I gave him your letter, but thought better to let it work than to urge things myself — I got the Oliver "muchas gracias" — Your affidavit goes per steamer on the 5th — and also inquiry about Riving — I cannot get east without I go on leave — that I shan't do — So I am a fixture in California for some time longer — When do you think of Coming up — Business is very bright here — Some 4000 people have arrived in a few days & beds are scarce — Buildings are going up in different parts of the city and prosperity seems to be spreading over the people of St. Francisco —

Adios —
Most truly yours
P. P. Murphy

Dear Major,

Yours received. Have seen Boyle Nothing can be done with him as he thinks himself very dangerous situated where he is. This will determine me to leave him sooner than expected. Nothing keeps me now but the settlement of an a/c wth Encarnacion which will not detain me long even though I get nothing much to my surprise Colarubias has paid his a/c^s which enables me to pay Mrs Kirren the balance due her for rent, and the surplus am compelled to retain for the present. Mr Henry Chapman and Phidion have arrived. Don't think she will find the town quite as pleasantly as formerly. Andrew Ains and wife did not come. I think you had better at the order from him ~~you~~ him, wait for the annual due 1st J^ly and ~~if~~ ^{if} the amount of the sum I will pay when he returns home. You know how slow they are and may be it will be some time before he pays after he comes. I do glace to hear that the prospects are so good for doing business in San Francisco, I am taking particular chance. The probability is that you will do more soon in California. So that we shall not lose you. Your expect is closing your ledger balance,

Am Dijo, Dec 22nd 1858.

Alma Major.

We did not hear from you to day May left Banks you must have written however and, that your letter must have miscarried in some way. While I am arranging all things with the view to leave next steamed across I expect to be ready to get away by that time so you will be on the look out with the probability of putting us on the wharf the next trip of the boat but don't be disappointed should we not go. Mrs. Robinson wishes me to request you to forward Mrs. Eunice's pension paper for their signature as Mrs. Eo is indebted to her for it and that is the way in which she hopes to get it. I will see what I can do. I send Lucy a kiss to the Major and, Mrs. Eo her number one. Please write.

Yours truly
