My dear Sir,
New York, January 18th 1833.
You last stated the 14th of December was received the 20th. I want you the 20th and of the decision, informing you, in the letter, that I had that day sent you through the Messrs Telegraph Company, $1000, to be paid immediately. I think from that the Company, notifying them and that you got the money, making you to have a good time. Nevertheless, as soon as you are in satisfaction of it you. I have been working very patiently for a letter from you in answer to mine of the 20th, as I suppose you must certainly have written to me immediately after the holidays informing me of the happy time which I believe you must have had. I think the letter must have been delayed by the slow packets or the slow mail packets. I expect to hear from you soon, but, as you will be coming to hear from me, I cannot begin to feel wasting, till I see her from you, and promise to write again after I receive your next letter. I have, to a little more, by to send you, having someone come from Mr. Ridgway - I did not get so much as I expected - only $85 - Quaker to send $100 from him to enable me to refund the money. The amount which he may have from for my help, but I could not do so, I send you a list of my orders for $200 which I had ordered. I wish I could send you more, but cannot. I know you must require money very much, I have already more still you are so successful, to provide yourself afterwards. Do take care of what I send and let it be spent for yourself comfort as I hope you are better and not in pressing in health. I think you will come out all right, and after having passed through the ordeal, every thing being that you have been going on last of it you are very glad you are very glad.

you to have some success, by the death and attention, to your comfort and health I wish I hope the children have been your I hope you are as well, and as well as too you to do any thing to be quiet you - help in the least.
I have not spent a very pleasant time during the holidays - I made a few calls in New York and Boston Thursday day and spent the evening at The Regent, where, the same as last year, there was a large gathering of the little girls and a celebration of the on the Christmas Eve. The dinner was given - the weather, since the first of the year, has been very disagreeable and for a portion of the time rather even the thermometer being Sunday & Monday on one less degree below zero. I have seen open houses to sleep about one cannot day show suppose any further as well was busy to answer yet soon said - He appeared indignant about it and perhaps I may have been too, more than I intended.

Observations I make this evening of conversation with the said are the same as I told you that you would never be the said - I found out afterwards that the reason she refused was because she thought I did not wish to contact her. I feel much hurt that she should think I would really refuse to do every thing for her, that I was altogether unwilling to do such understanding on the part of her friends that I was very sorry for it - that nothing would have given me more pleasure than to have assisted her that it was my intention and wish to do so - and I began of her to let me come to help her to come - how of the sincerity of my intentions - whether she generally permitted me to see the objects with the day when I should come, whether she last Friday afternoon when I went to help her in her shop down from the shop. I expect that it has been doing to that manner who are accustomed to have her own justice happy - I know that you would be more pleased with of the our health part of what she has in - After all the rest, she spoke of leaving me to come to see with her, but as she has said nothing about it since going to her father's I am sure of my own the quarrels at the time of her - which perhaps is because of the fact. I have not your letter stated to change my present quarters unless I do - but she says to return to my own house in San Diego when I come back to be a prudent friend with you and the children than any other in the world - I go down to the said Community and the children - may be too or than her with our grace that of her enough to the children to whom they live to enjoy she has a most comfortable house, she generally permitting any number of men by an opportunity as on the other does no difference except for and saying - the country: what is it really doing and the political interests of the business in this particular organization what it has achieved, but what is the business and its aims?

John Brown things are going on in the country - much better even than before going to France - I don't just much go on business, now at all of course - though that traded to ~~interests~~ ^{interests} ~~are~~ ^{are} always present and I think that Brown keeps our things better than any one I ever knew either off or on stage - He writes much like a trader his appearances in public, but his business keeps them in a much better light than they otherwise can do to gain a living.
I wonder you do not write to Brown in answer to the letter and to thank him for the present he sends you - I have expected my business to you before that you had not done so - and as you like signs writing I presume you must have done nothing for not doing so. He gives over otherwise to you, more regards to enquire about you and often says how high by the world he can give you. He says must certainly know that I think that you have not written to him - Why not also?

The friends you might come to New York on my return to California, or within at about fifteen days and when would you be more welcome or as comfortable as at your country? You need not feel friends of his.
I think that I can more from him than I do for you - I should very highly if you could induce Leonard to have been there in an order and I would like to see him in any way in my journey. I have been of Brown little as before. He has done the return, but not so much as I should like to have been brought a number of instructions on the part of a rather the country.
He asks if we see any day of Brown study with them I have been that I was engaged in making out some accounts. He says of Brown not he would like to see to help the way of them they answer - I suppose that I should perhaps have to do. He says no matter if to do that a division of the portion of the property of the estate may be made and I may have something to show you to say next spring, etc, but whatever to say more emphatically for a division regarding the remainder -

Will you and the children be present and wishing yourselves as much as you can under the circumstances in Windsor you are present. Will you and your family have and dear children - Papa thinks you all, night and day, ever enough, for William to come when he may return home by sea.
Hope that if you will be long - but will that will be, it is impossible for me to stay - the children are, perhaps, as fine - than the world be no other punishment with us like that it may and be long and shall be right wishing - than whatever you do the most to do - I shall conclude to be long of course of being right wishing you - than you are doing - John you are staying at the house of the house standing that you have not received the interest on the money on at the 1st of to come to the house. I do not regret that so much as ^{with} you should have been any substantial standing in a cabin to the matter but as that has been given expenses and finally reached this country at of you and I am so become a member of the house as well -

Now regarding my last matter, which will interest you more than any thing else I can possibly write about as my actions have appeared upon it - some or later - Nothing definite has been done for some days past & things have remained in state good some to a prospect of a compromise being reached, upon the completion where better things immediately - The other evidence is given up to the situation the other part of the case and not including the property left upon the estate of purchasing the an amount for the remainder of the case. As the Government, but the most to give up the whole of the property, according to the law and equity - The law says the husband accumulates anything and has nothing on hand - The Court will believe and never vice - Precedents require an amount of $5000 for annuity - Law saying no more than $1000 which is more than she has expenses during any one year for her self - If this amount can be better satisfied by the annuity, must not be taken into the wife's debt and funding for the property will be considered and she was the child must advise the court - The wife has no account and should she not do so, or should if appear that she did spend more than her share in the property the excess will be directed to the settlement even though it should exceed in her not receiving a share more from the estate. The wife has to abide by it if she has the house the life interest should decide that she is not to receive and is entitled to the interest of the real estate and that no division of the same could be made to the wife the law will have to be by it -

The Court now commenced in regard to the real estate and effect in no way the decision of the Court is in regard to the husband's property and the wife therefrom - For this the Court of course upon the accounting the division of the husband's property will be by the Court.

In case just read the law is in favor that provides the arrangement of the debt can be carried into effect if it is shown that yet, but should the Court be convinced it will take account probably in money and has no doubt that it will be very easy for the to pay as in the Court's case.
The accounting before the Court for the interest of the husband's property will be considered again in a few days and brought before a Judge hereinafter

My Dear Wife,

In consequence of the snow storm I was prevented from going to the Post Office yesterday afternoon to mail the letter which I had written and intended to send. I got Edmund Moran the young man attending to Mr. Ridgway's office, and ^{who} lives in Brooklyn, to stop at Mary Gitt's on his way over this morning, and the result of which is that he has brought me your letter of the 16th inst, mailed the 8th which came to hand yesterday - it having been out ten days coming.

I am very glad indeed to hear from you and the children again and that you all enjoyed yourselves so much during the holidays, particularly at the Christmas Free Party given by the "Clavel Social Club."

You are wrong to suppose that I have grown indifferent about writing to you or that I intentionally cut them short for 3 or 4 pages to 3 or 4 - as you will must have found out on receipt of the letter subsequent to that of the 20th December written the 29th December and which you must have received a few days after you had received your last of the 6th January - besides ~~the letter~~ ^{the letter} ~~which~~ ^{is} as long the portion of this letter written yesterday, before the receipt of yours this morning, is longer than an ~~most~~ of those written by you.

I do not consider that the extreme length of a letter amounts to anything, but the spirit in which it may be written, though containing only a few lines in your letters and always welcome to me be they short or long, and do should never be to you. I am not always in the humor to write long letters but be concise it to be a duty to write something even though not more than a few pages or lines. I would not wish to tax you with writing long letters unless you were well and to do so, and I do not suppose you would wish to tax and, unless I was in the humor to do so.

It was certainly a great disappoint-but how and how - or at least a harvest on - but I had no money then - I was as much as I ever do to get the money.

I am glad you receive some few presents and that you were not forgotten even by the humble and insignificant as Robert Murray who gave you the cup. and that through the gift of money from Mrs. Talbot you were able to drink my health and spend a season

I do not think I will have any trouble with my exertions after visiting patients, as long - surely they will not get angry by any long travels as I hope to be a sea voyager soon. but I should say of the health of our increasing population just as I have seen them with undisturbed spirits and freedom and with I think daily increasing I have heard matters are, I think in rather a bad way. but we can't see what shall may be a few years before the end of the world.
My health is perhaps worse I have not made a long train - I thought of going to Oreathu rather early. I should much rather must. I'm not I think been able to return home by any means as I have made very early returns to all - I have not the idea of returning here the last time must - the rest of I remember; and when this day came and I found that the withheld a state of my affairs I was not from making the same - I think my very travels, how I felt very much better and since you have found the day of which you were free on the first day of January - I am this day but so and so in time from at even. Do not I will delay, showing long from a nally necessary - after such a satisfactory arrangement of my affairs to answer at nothing will keep me here a single day Convincing - or see the room in New York for that matter. You seem to think that I delay coming in for account on your say - that when you write me I must come return to New York on the 15th I have then that you cannot give me of leaving for as long "Blackhead's" to our "Tune" - You must be very patient indeed & few have mercy on you as to the great job of present government to his. "Blackhead" doesn't for you suggest General Howard, but in any other way - He will think I will accept you "to disagree" The every day of your conversation ~~in the case of "Blackhead's"~~ than longer than I can help in "Blackhead's" Blackhead's in down to "Blackhead's" - I I can prevent it by a "Blackhead's" I think you great detail to be in my opinion also, but it is no greater than necessary to be you. Do my own little work about "Blackhead's" necessarily but show greater activity than you men in your ideas on these no doubt but not "Blackhead's" to mine. You have answered you the "Blackhead's" - which I have nobody who could you and - All will be right as "Blackhead's" a mile - and about it.

The reports which you have had about people say that they do not think about to our back effect giving the most as to could you to enter how the idea of obtaining a diploma as I think with you that not that you not I would have just grounds for an action - All this, I hope it is for you and as I am doubtful and that not gives the matter you will be about our movements towards all this.

I am glad to hear that you will be from the W. M. Telegraph & our that it will in the wish of mine just this days before "Blackhead's" expecting you to buy presents for the children & our making presents "Blackhead's" in many various ways.

I think from your advertisement of things that you must certainly have had a highly pleasant time and I am glad of it for you both and for the sake of the children - I am sorry however that George did not get a present but I hope he will certainly have a good one as soon as I am able to give it. I think very much when I read the letters about about it to any other. I expect to get your the whole all that I can. I am sure that the money on hand will be divided at once and the profits of the year in three equal parts to all the partners. The bank's holding was adequate and very good just now, may be better in the Spring. But if they are not I suppose not. I expect to use much longer than then as I have regard all of our profits to operate with. I expect that I shall have enough to run at least $10,000 but will keep my eye on the matter and if I find it necessary I shall amount I shall receive. In any event it will be enough to make up much more than I expect. Now we have seen our things through our little book and I am sure that we are ready to do anything from our part.

I must now close to a dear friend. I see you have the honey bees returned. The 14th will come to mind in the 18th.

I will tell you of it at once. at the time I will tell you the present of the articles in reference to the 15th of Boston. you see how good

My dear friend,

It's been a long time since I have received your last welcome letter, and I must confess I have been very busy, in not having answered it long before this. But not willingly as I assure you. You and yours are often in my thoughts, and there are none of my absent friends I should more sorely desire to see than your worthy ones.

We have passed through a great deal of trouble financially, since I last heard from you. Doubtless you have heard of my husband's business troubles.

the neighborhood could tell me where the storm is now over and our little

My husband's failure was inevitable from a depression at the time in the stock-market. But now he is free again, having been successful in business during the last few months, and I feel of better cheer, so I can write.

You can well understand why I did not write before, for of course I did not have time - and took his case of my little one upon me, as well as that of my own, having his dismy friends.

We are all well thank God.

My dear Husband.

I wish you a Happy New Year, but fully expected from what Mrs. Morse and Capt. Triloy told me of your business that you would be with us on New Year's day. I am disappointed, and can say no more except, that when you wrote Mrs. Corinne would return to New York on the 16th, I knew then that you would not think of leaving her so soon, your "Betrotted", to come to me. But your business flag I suppose, and I must be content to drag out the weary days, or find consolation in some other quarter which I do not think I will do get available, although "I'm about to give today" that I received an ~~notification~~ notification the telegraph office in New York, that there was some money there for Frank's total, 4990 in currency which I received and handed to me, Franky, as it came one to know two days before the New Year set in, with it, I bought a few presents - for the children, and some bread, and ham - as three dollars left. It made us all feel quite comfortable. I am also in receipt of a letter from you dated the 21st Dec, for which I thank you, your letters are always welcome, although you cut them very short of late, from 30 or 40 pages to 3 or 4, quite an abridgement, but you have no doubt or make pleasantly and and I am content. The pennies to make the things which I was obliged to take part so as to ensure success, for which I have been feeling badly ever since, but what's the odds, as long as the children think they had a good time. I got up a stamp for the Santa Clara for them with the mark you lent them and Corinne's Pink Domino, which has been spoken together with a pair of pearl sleeve buttons for 50 cts I bought him, he was well pleased, but said he would rather it had all been a violin.

He is now trying to make himself a violin, its looks pretty well, but not just the thing exactly. I got three presents, a set of mats Violet made me, a Sackey Case to perfume my clothes in the drawing, and a Silver Cup

My Dear Papa

It is so long since I have written to you that I must write you a letter today. We are all well at home and hope you are the same. We all passed a very pleasant New Year. There was a dance. Violet sends her love to you and says she will write a letter to you today. Old town is growing worse and worse every day. everybody is going away from here. I hope you will be home pretty soon for I want to see you very much. The River came down a few weeks ago. It has been raining very hard and that is what made the River come down. I still go to school and I am learning very fast. This is a very short letter but as it is very dull here there is nothing to talk about so I must leave of now. With much love and many kisses I remain

New York, Feby 10 - 1845.

My Dear Wife,

Yours of the 2nd ult. just reached this 9th came to hand last evening, making good time considering the season. Enclosed in it I found a letter from Mr King- good and one from Mrs Pratts. I regret not being able to give Mrs P the information she desires, not having heard anything from Chalmers West in regard to her matters though I have written to him for information. He will however write to her to relieve her mind. I have forwarded Mrs P's letter to you and regret that misfortune has overtaken them and rejoice that they are recovering from it.

I am very glad to hear from you dear Ann and that you and the children are in good health. No of good cheer. I do not think that you will have to wait much longer before you will be in more comfortable circumstances, (My mother having signed an agreement, to which I assent,) there is a prospect of all differences being settled and my getting some money soon. I enclose you a copy of it. In a few

The Highway will have the same character, to be signed by the demagogue, making a double row of street funds on hand and be then as above the handling of it. I intend to send you down money - according to the agreement in consideration of the children being after an amity of $1000, the same quantity is to be done during the maternal life, this is to be understood in our country and transfer to them as tenants in common all property not our substance belonging to the estate, and all property not our substance belonging to the or standing in the name, (then than the amity and his debt, being all spent and finished and such property as is the object of this and papers of every description relating thereto. I believe the payment of the amity the children and wife a covenant with their mother and give a mortgage on the estate of property as security for the same and purchase payments. Money - besides the interest of the estate mortgage) amounting to $1000 due a debt the 1st of May next) are set apart for the purchase of U.S. Government or U.S. State or City Bonds, to be deposited in some Bank Company, as a standing fund to be drawn upon in case of the failure of

with from $1003 interest on of the children or estate of their mother's name the amount or than specified than they and in case they fail or refuse to repay the amount. At the last Company if will be done from New York at a place certificate. As the case shall be well being to the education of the child then from the date of any time. The mother's property may be set or divided amongst the children without interfering with the arrangements made. But the time are not good for selling assets as a present. The purchase of the property that may be done will be done and the eight intermediate years ordered otherwise each to do with them as they wish when to be or not. We have the right to sell the estate at any time subject to the mortgage of $1000 or more for the security of the amity or in any way at any time purchase from some individual Company an amount of $1000 more (which would include the cost from $1000 up to $1000) and divide the proceeds of $1000 at as well as the $1000 in trust Company - do regard we do not see it as if it were not to be done by the amity and if may purchase

It is better for us now to buy it even after the property is sold on account of the advanced age of mother - in which case we will get in the end our full share of the property - though we must remain out of eight thousand dollars (two thousand each) and contribute individually about $100 each per annum till her death. I am inclined to think that this will be the best way - it will be taking the share we may make or lose money by it - depending upon the length of time she survives in any of the insurance Companies. It is profitable to pay an annuity of $200 for five or six thousand dollars down - why may not we save this sum?
It will take six or seven years to exhaust six thousand dollars with the accumulating interest - She may not live so long and she may live longer - this no one can tell.

A great many papers have to be signed before all the arrangements are completed. Understand that they are all about completed - the mortgage on the house it will be ready to send to Henry probably tomorrow. I don't know by the order of the Court to get my share of the Cash on hand, (but before the Mortgage lots or Bonds must be sold, the mortgage from Henry must have been returned, the understanding being that neither is not to be decided to any of the property here - besides before a sale of the property can be made, Henry and his wife and you will have to find a piece of attorney to come over to sign for him and the deed of his wife and yours - It will take some time yet before everything can be settled up - and as the real estate market is very sketchy I may not want it if it can be done.

But as the probability is that the price of real estate will be no better in a year from than to five years, I am considering whether it would not be better to sell at once, ~~to sell~~ instead of waiting and taking the chances of improvement.
The money which I will receive now, after paying law and other expenses, is not as much as I would wish it to be - to pay debts and make us comfortable in our present necessities - It will take the whole of it and we will be without a dollar of income. I think of the justice, should he have and the price each should demand here on any other severe demands. I have more. I have seen from June to eight hundred ~~two~~ ^{three} and the interest of what I have from 1/2 to 1/3 I see more the use might be here by any party. I cannot see what it is but by the slow, more, but it will require some ^{one} ~~one~~ the property of the children also has Soona. God knows I long to return and see you longer than I can possibly keep.

Febry 13. 1875. I commenced this several days ago I will now finish it briefly and write again more fully in a day or so in answer to yours of the 7th 20th of last month at which time I enclosed you a Post Office order for $20.00 payable to Mrs Thomas Whaley or Anna C. Whaley. I have forgotten which, but I suppose you will get it all the same.

I sent Frank the 3rd of February the "California Calendars" being a new system of arithmetic which I wish him to study and teach to the children as it is very ready and useful, much more so than that which we were taught at School. On the 5th I sent Frank Santons.

Printing Circular giving the prices of many things in reference to his business, which I think will be interesting to him. Let me know what he thinks of the Printing Press on the outside cover. With such an aid he could do more than all the business of San Diego. I sent Mr Moore to day a Post Office order for $23.85. Out of proceeds of sale of house, enclosing it in a letter to him and requesting him to pay City, County and State tax on Block 489 (belonging to Eastward before which he gave the mortgage to Capt. Mearns,) ad valorem at "Minturn" for the years 1873 & 1874, which I hope he will pay for me and save any additional costs.

The agreement is signed by my mother and the children - Mr. McGregor (representing Harry) and all necessary papers bearing out the provision are either made or being made out - Those necessary for you and Harry & his wife will be forwarded probably by Messrs. Fargo & Co. Express, to sign. I think quite likely some day next week the records for the destruction of the East in favor and the carrying out of the purposes of the government will be made and that the people themselves of their own accord I will meet you down here for your interests and will also see that you are making enough money for me to keep from as soon as I can possibly. The other thing that may be done in longer time is the immediate disposition of the property, but as the funds are expended by me for carrying on the work, I do not think it likely that I will be able to do this. I have only one to see but not at any great sacrifice but in seeing to see I have them a few months as I must have more money than coming from immediate by the amount of the new news more or less much more than I expect. I have not yet and I must not be satisfied. It may be I shall not be able to pay as much as I could do to keep my pocket any other like it. I have not seen for the week. I do suppose the thing that I have you know to be the matter have I got to see this. On a few days the weather was more so and I have more like going the rounds than I have down lately. The attention I have has engaged my thoughts to the end of the day of money every thing else and has covered our entire mind for the last time or few weeks, more so than at any other time. I have not seen the settlement would be made by the advances made to day in affairs of been a long and hence fight, and I

I contended for. My mother doubtless feels very sore against me, but no doubt years of her life she will have nothing further to bother her. She will be a thou-after it. I did speak of sending a copy of the agreement but do so now.

part of this letter.

I see John very frequently. He and our good friend. He generally stays with me when in town, though sometimes at Liza's. He has been in town for three days past. He was together at his daughter's last evening (He returns here this afternoon

Monday to complete signing papers which are to be sent to California) and to letter but have not the time now. I hope you will take good care of yourself and that on my return home, which I believe will be soon, to find you and the children all in good health to enjoy the many things which it is my intention to take with me. Remember me to friends, kiss all the children for me and believe me as ever your fond and devoted husband.

July 25th 1873-

My dear husband-

I am in receipt of yours of the 10th & 13th. Am delighted to hear that things are coming to a head, and that you will be able to return soon to us, as God knows it is time you did come home to have some rest of mind and body. It has been a long and tiresome fight, both for you and us all, but perhaps it is all for the best. I cannot see that trouble is all for the best, but they say that everything that goes wrong in this world is productive of some good sometime.

you seem to think that I have not been as patient

I cannot see that I have well and are anxious to see

The Rail Road is gone up

I received the P. Office order the money, may I thank, it always comes in good time.

You must begin to feel as if you were nearing home now, and your mother must have a great and head dress, and gorgeous pins you sent in the trunk, and yellow tatted an string, and loins all sent to us by you, and a small mask for 25¢. she looked very well, and was very much complimented in both papers. Frank went as a little green horn Irishman and looked and acted like Charles to perfection, he won the second prize. The boatman who I lent to an intimate friend of Frank's. He had a jolly time of it, and I staid in bed all day next day so as not to get sick. Mr Chuteood came up to see me hopping mad because we went in Lent, but I told him it was a national holiday, and not a feast.

New York, Friday 27th 1875

My dear Wife,

Your welcome letter of the 5th inst, came to hand the 20th. I am very glad to hear that you and all are well, and hope you will continue so - also to hear that the P.O. order for $200. came safely to hand.

My matters are progressing towards a final settlement. The papers for you & Henry to sign will be ready to send in a few days when I will write more definitely. I have been paid a small portion of the money coming to me at the present time - the balance I hope to receive by the time the papers are sent -

I have been able to pay off some of my indebtedness here, and have sent to Frank a telegraphic order for $50⁰⁰ to day - for the purpose of paying the taxes on Goodwin's stock No 4000 advanced for sale for City tax for 73 15 Dollars, $4000

 " " 74 15 - 368 $823
 County State 73-74 5 - 3.12
 " " 74-75 5 - 218 5.30
 What for City Com of 30th Nov 1873 City tax advanced for Octog 18. County State for Octog 25. 1873.
 I wish you were to pay these taxes for me, but my letter may not have reached you in time, and as I had the money I thought I would send them to the money and beg you to send them to me. As the case was to be considered from day to day for three weeks I hope I hope to see you in the money in time before the judge is to see to see. I thought but should I have been able, and any thing can be done by returning it at once, I think will not to be done. My trust will be as told you - the balance of the $50, after paying the tax, I thought I should use for you. I was under the impression that I had paid the taxes on the property for 73 as well as for 74 - still might be if included in my list of property and this be added as distinguished to the tax on city. It would be as well therefore to let the city bills to see if I have paid it and also to examine the tax bills under my name and amongst the tax bills to see if it is marked "paid" - should you find it bills or find it marked "paid" then will be no necessity of paying the bills again but the matter please to examine the matter for me - and in case I find a bill to have paid the money, I think can be returned.

 I would like to see to the $50 that I I enclose herewith a list of bills and the $50 for $50 or payable to the order of the Queen E. Whaley, for you to use at once as you see and I will be able to send or bring you more soon.
 I have had a good deal of trouble in my way or that, but will not worry you property to be sold and a final division takes place except that what is necessary to secure the annuity is not this.

If I decide upon the ^{latter} first arrangement it is a sufficient amount so that you and Mr. Morse may settle my bills. It may be necessary to make some compromise to enable us to retain something to live with till such time as the property can be sold.

But concerning this see nothing at present more than the words. It is a very bad time indeed to dispose of real estate now - in a month or two we can judge what will be for the best - to sell them or wait an indefinite time for an improvement in things.
Probably by the time the papers are returned from California we shall be able to judge.

If I decide upon the former it will not be many days after the receipt of my money before I am on the way with it home - I shall remain here only long enough to post up the few things I wish to be probated, not wait till the papers are returned.

Signed by you and Henry leaving a power of attorney to transact all my business with John. I might not then be compelled to return him again and would be willing to take the chance on it.

I am sick and tired of being here and require rest and freedom from the great worriment of mind to which I have been sorely afflicted during the past two years.
I have seen none of my Cousins but once since I last wrote you. The children were then well & I intended going to see them again soon. I have not yet seen my Cousins Francis. The fact of the matter is owing to the bad weather and the manner in which I have been distressed I have not felt like going anywhere much. When you and I have been together considerably during the past two months - I was at his house from Saturday the 1st to Sunday the 2nd last.
His wife and family are well - He left for home this afternoon & will be here again Wednesday the 10th tomorrow Sunday - I am going to dine with my friend Puffin and will read to his little ones the letters sent by Violet and Lillie. I am glad to receive their letters. I have for them as well as for the others two handsome Chromos each.

I hope that the children are all kindly Obedient to you, and take care that you do not overfatigue yourself with work. Your time next week I will go to see the Youngs and deliver your message to Thomas the Bible are well - Two then last evening with John. They wish me always to send them love to wife - I have heard in reply to Mrs Ringgold. She is anxious to know something concerning her husband's property. Will you ask Mr Fattane to please request Chalmers Scott to inform her if he has done or expects to do anything with it. Her address is Mrs Col G. H. Ringgold. Aiken. South Carolina. I must now close my dear wife - With much love to you and the children and a full round of kisses, and with the expectation of seeing you all soon I remain as ever -

My Dear Mrs.

Since writing to you Feb 27th, and enclosing P.O. order for $20. and sending ^{you} $20. by telegraph - I sent March 1st ^{news} papers to Frank; March 5th, telegram to you for Power of Attorney, and one to Henry to come over and immediately, bringing with him wife's Power of Attorney; March 6th, telegram from you informing me that Power of Attorney had been sent. March 10th, letter from you, enclosing one for Corinne; March 12th, telegram again to Henry to answer the one sent you on the 5th. March 14th, telegram from Henry, who was ~~then~~ ^{Mar 10th} ~~can~~ ^{can} traveled informing me, in answer to mine of the 5th, that he would leave for New York the first of May: (This telegram was delayed being sent to my address owing to some mistake in the telegraph office, though received the 10th.)

The Bankers refused me the money for telegrams (and this is the) March. He is accused of of Attorney from your and your letter of the 17th The telegrams from there being under a factory to and as it would require my returning there much longer than I wish, and to another effect is agreed to have my letter paid up, as I write at present, I got John to make my needs negotiate to Henry yesterday the following:
"Settlement between children and my wife. Some referred immediately or you will be coming, London." I think Mr will fetch him, specially, when takes he will be necessary. I am meeting for an answer from him which I have probably been to know that of course or to inserted nothing. It is also not possible in a matter for them. My papers were to send to him to begin or the settlement may be made with him. With the three children being himself of the arrangements in Italy, by order and the proceeding just after I had left off or to speak his words with for the others in which case, the amount will be good for amount, neither retaining the share for the balance of your letter for him to send in to the arrangement in Italy, but it is not possible to begin in him, and the other arrangements necessary.

At last the in the time to have the papers of about two ago for you and Henry and his wife to sign - as I informed you when I was in one of my letters. I expected, certainly, they would have been sent to me by of Dr. B. but this was not. It is a delay, I think the of the of the month. I am certain of it to you for a piece of attorney to my friends John to mortgage estate in 1803. I will stand, and to Henry does in place of The papers, and to Henry to send in immediately bringing up the papers to send one has to expect the papers for him. This was done by the arrangement. To save the time which had been lost and seeing to the probability of Henry and my friends ing the papers to send to sign them with but especially, which, by letter would require considerable time - or he is in complete ignorance of all this: has transferred for some time past - besides it was thought that as he would ^{visit to} come on to receive his money, he might as well do so at once as to wait - Besides as all this property will likely be sold soon he might as well be here to attend to his interest and arrange for many other things. His presence it was thought would facilitate the settlement of matters, with the other, better than it could be done away by an attorney getting for him ^{Had he stayed as expected, he would have} been ^{for and a things arranged as this.}

The words "February first" in my telegram, seem to have puzzled you - It is hard for one in a telegram to express clearly in a few words. On the first part I said "all property deeded children to in form you that it belonged to them - (The deeds bearing date as of the 1st Febry then I quoted you to send John back to ~~draw~~ mortgage down & null the February first. "Securing annuity -"

The property having been deeded to the children would inform you that I had an equal interest, and, according to the laws of New York, you had a dower in it, and to secure it then her annuity it was necessary for you to mortgage the dower, and that the mortgage was of the date of Feb'y 11th. Some time past you wrote to the executor of the Power of Attorney to John which should be dated ~~some~~ ~~time after~~ on the day or some time after the execution of the mortgage. I calculated it would most likely be dated some time after the execution of the mortgage of February 1st - most likely at some date after the receipt of the telegram sent March 5th. The law is very particular here respecting the right of the wife giving a power of attorney to any one to mortgage her dower, ~~in property~~ or to convey her dower in property - Such an instrument is of no use to mortgage dower or convey dower in property to be mortgaged or conveyed, it can one, be given to property which has been or is about to be mortgaged or conveyed by the husband, particularly descending the property mortgaging himself or conveying the wife's interest.

Of course not get through the power of attorney, to the wife to know of the mortgage sent by you to John with the mortgage to mortgage your share to secure to mother the advance. I presume that it will be sufficient to prevent John from making any charge in the mortgage in the mortgage book of the mortgage perfectly. He will see that you have on the mortgage book of the mortgage telegram, with the full contents of the telegram about it. I have tried to secure John's consent to the loan concerning with me in the mortgage. A power of attorney cannot be given by the wife for any contingencies or expected mortgages or conveyances of the mortgage. Under the mortgage must have been made and agreed to, or actually about to be made to be entered in the mortgage in the mortgage book. I presume over a power of attorney of the wife of the mortgage, but I do not know of sufficient evidence of the mortgage of the mortgage. I have the mortgage

The answer to the mortgage book by your to Henry. It seems strange indeed. I have been much to think of the etc. I was in hope that you would see something definite before I should see this. I have not yet in the time of the mortgage, but I see to a mortgage on the mortgage, this mortgage and you are not. I have given you, and I about as I have given Henry, or about the same John's mortgage, I believe to be the same.
I have a question that is upon you about, more than I can do for the etc. I have had a great deal of trouble, and I the mortgage must have been made and perfected enough to drive me distracted, without telling you of them, and even ^{the} ~~the~~ in the end and I shall be on my the children, all the unhappiness I have experienced during the past two years.

I cannot answer particularly your letters, the last two received, but appreciate fully their content.
I am glad to hear that you and the children had so much enjoyment at the masquerade ball. I delivered your letter to Cousin the day received the 10th inst.
She was much pleased to get Quaker's letter from you and says that she will answer it soon. She has her troubles, as well as others. Mr Young has not recovered properly yet, and a long way from being out of his difficulties. I have seen them both since the 10th. The fact is I have had a great deal on my mind, much to be read to and think about. The weather too,

I did not answer your "honey" letter, because I had expected you here soon afterwards.

You sold at a very good price, but I am sorry to hear that the market is overstocked, for if that is the case you may well ask the question "what are we going to do with our crop this year?" Do you think it can be shipped to Europe at a profit. I have written to Howard to look into the matter there.

I presume judging from my experience that is considerable risk of leakage in shipment of shrouded money by sea.

And could Sterling must be checked by the Bank and to go through safely.

Since the consolidation of the Pacific Mail & Co & the Union & Central Pacific R.R. Co they have greatly advanced freights and he would doubt that you obtain the new freight from the Steamship & W.R. Co.

I think the supply will create a greater demand for money, here before it has been difficult to obtain the article even at the highest prices of 40 to 60 cents, but now the dealers will be anxious to show it out & I have no doubt the consumption will greatly increase. Our people of course will run to sell at very much lower prices, and then in that case very much less will be received as only those who thoroughly understand the business will be able to make it profitable.

What does Shigency think of taking a car-load now?

I send you a daily train containing list of perfect rods at low rates.

I paid on the Certificate which long before I received your letter, knowing you wanted to save it of course.
Consequently in trying to settle a large debt at Memphis hold in Mission Valley, but as he wants to get some ready money in the trade

They have a judgment against him. He talks of moving down on to his ranch. He told me he had lost most of his cattle during these bad years.

I think he is renting out the grazing on his ranch, and it ought to pay him well as cattle ranches are in demand now owing to our "no fence laws".

Chrys. Wisler told me they were offered $22,000. for the 2 league ranch of Santa Rosa. It adjoins Guadalupe on the West but is not a first class ranch.

Ocas, of San Ysidro, lies in "Habeas Corpus". A Commission appointed by the Govt. of Mexico is expected here this summer to settle titles in Lower Cal.

I only intended to say a word or two, as I think you will be on your way here before this reaches you perhaps and I was very glad to hear that your business was so near a happy close.

My dear Anna.

Dated April 5. 1855. I have just received your your ever lasting complaint that I have not written to you for some time. do you stand on ceremony with me? dont you know - that my fingers are swollen & stiff with old age & that very soon I will not be able to write at all? There you are in San-Diego, four of you, all able to write better than I can & not one of you will take the trouble to write to a poor old Granny who will be, on the 7th June next 92 years old! we were anxiously waiting to hear from you but we are now glad that you feel well. Amelia is not very well; that arrangement three times per week ^{in Oakland} fatigues her more much & she begins to complain of fatigue & the hills. poor girl! all summer nothing to do & nothing but trouble & in winter nothing but fatigue! & now that I cannot help her as I use to do, I am pronounced it is too much for her as she has scholars in the City who would come to me if we did not live on the hill & that would be leave Amelia very much.

 This ^{is} the first ^{winter} that I have no scholars since we are in N. H. The Ladies tell me we would come to Wane but the hill is too formidable. (How another trouble!) We are obliged to move. The Landlady wants her house to come & live in it herself. So we will all have to dislodge by the 1st of Sept comes in a bad time for us as Amelia has no time to look for a place we intended to move this Summer when Amelia would have time to look around The family we hire our Rooms from wish us to go with them, but we are not very anxious as man & wife don't agree & it makes it very unpleasant for us. However, if we can't do any better we will have to go & run the risk to move again.
 We have not heard from our poor dear even the telling them where she was going.

Mr & Mrs D. came to us to know if we knew where she had gone, but we knew

I don't like to see you looking about it. as we had not seen her for a great while. he wanted to know us because that ^{she} had gone off with him but I told him that I had not believed it. that I had a better opinion of him than to think she would do such things. then, took his case, gave him that on it, & said you see that she is not the person of an account of that sort!
 My opinion of him is that he is an old bruter & she is not to be thought they ought to be ashamed of themselves.

My dear mother she saw in the News paper that Mr. Laphy was married again! we read a very bad report ^{per} about this

Read first to yourself

New York April 15th 1842

My Dear Wife,

I wrote you the 26th March in an ever to view of the 4th meeting the Power of lettence received the 27th 1842. I have been daily expecting to hear from you and have been over to Brooklyn day after day in hope of getting a letter. I suppose the reason you have not written is because you expected me to be for this I might have been on my way home.

I must write you a few lines without waiting long for a letter from you to inform your mind how I am with concerning me, and in the course of a few days I should hear from you I will write again more fully.

The same day I telegraphed to you for the power of attorney, I telegraphed to Henry to come on immediately and bring with him a power from his wife to loan one being to begin papers - I did not hear from him till the 14th of August the telegram was dated the 10th, for some reason or other it was delayed. He was then in San Francisco. He said he had to return home and would leave for home ^{Monday} 1st Sept. He says I should inquire if telegraphed him on the 10th if another man of the 5th had received it or another. On the 18th nothing telegraphed to him by Sam or I did receive any answer of telegraphed to his wife on the 24th, but received no answer - both times and money received - It had been my object to have him come on to complete the arrangement with mother, thus to save him trouble. Send me the papers on to him instead of Eadsen. But I was deterred in my object and finally on the 2nd of March the papers were sent to him and his wife to sign with full information of all that has transpired in more than a year past - and requesting them to telegraph on receipt of the papers that he and wife had signed them and when he would leave for New York, asking him to come on immediately as it was impossible for me to receive anything from home than a letter, was all - That is the last I heard of it. His money, he might as well do so all over instead of what was the money I had besides it never being the whole sum (and he is all over of our money on his side - that is he did not expect to see he got his money - the arrangement I signed with mother she did receive the money with them of them leaving him to make any matter when I had left off or to send the reports back to our old place. But that if I could be seen for them to present us the arrangement is. The papers are sent to him from the 2nd of March. He has been kind and kindly and to day I should have received a letter from him, but none has come and I should not be surprised if he did not send any at all. Perhaps that is the reason for that from him by the coming of them, perhaps he answers, which will be about the 15th or 20th of the month. It is indeed too bad, after I have had so much trouble to be kept waiting on his account perhaps because he begrudges a few dollars to send a telegram. "But he does come or send the papers on signature, the agreement is not complete and I cannot get all the money coming to me from the sale of the property. I have received some on account, I will not say how much, nor what manner. Sufficient for you at present but to know that I have had a great deal of trouble, more than ever before experienced with. I have been crushed by disappointment almost to the earth and my troubles at times have been almost more than I could bear and but for you and the children and the hope of seeing you again one of these days I would have put an end to my existence.

All will be right I believe but when or how soon is more than I can tell. Had Henry come on when I telegraphed him the 11th of March all would be right with me now, and I might be speeding my way homeward.

For several days past I have been busy buying many things for you and the children and if I can do nothing more at present I am determined that you and the children shall have a comfortable outfit in the way of clothing. I have about completed all the purchases and I think some time the first part of next week I shall be able to get the trunk or case off and it will be a bundle and contain many beautiful presents and useful things for you and the children. It has been a great pleasure to my mind making the collection and directed my mind to some extent from the great trouble which I have. I cannot even mention all the things, but will send you a complete list of all of them when I have shipped the trunk or case. I exceedingly say that you will receive the dresses, curls, & trunk to ~~send~~ a bag, Harriet's garter George a ~~black~~ harmonicon, Peter the doll with patterns and little Model dishes.

as these things are all over I am sure you will be well pleased to receive the copy of the elaborate of our paper copy. I know he will accept it well.

Do not stay to any one that I have any business in partnership - and perhaps for the present I will be as well not to make any more any one that I am depending on for anything. I have my reasons for the present. I wish to present to you will be sure to you but may at some future time, perhaps in my next letter. I am yours & think of you how immediately feeling every thing you as I do - then I think perhaps I will be to be sure - I have to be sure the best - then I think of you I am sure to receive and I will be grateful to receive by I am sure will be well pleased to receive the
accept it well.

might have been better. I have not seen any body or been any other lately - I have a most miserable life and shall be glad when I can be in contact.

John I have to see the situation will be like the present and other things I am sure to be sure to be sure I have more money to see how long things

I am about to miss this.
Nothing from Henry today.
With love from your mother and Suzanne that affectionate brother.

I find the things purchased since then enough to fill a large basket.
As to day I intend to take the be out with my five cups of cream milk, writing a long letter to my mother and to the world for everything.

[The following text is extremely faint and largely illegible due to fading and bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. It appears to be a continuation of the handwritten notes.]

New York, April 23. 1875.

My Dear Wife,

I wrote you the 17th enclosing 10^{lbs} of Parcels of effects shipped on that day overland. On the 29th I received your letter of the 6th which was most welcome, relieving my mind of much anxiety. As I had supposed you had not written because you were expecting an answer. I am very glad to hear that you were all so well, and looking forward with pleasure to my return and the trunk of things to relieve the monotony of the winter. I may be able to make my appearance. You seem to think that I may be detained here several months longer in consequence of what I had written in a letter of the 20th of March. I do not believe that it will be, at least. I hope that such will not be the case. I wrote that Henry had telegraphed that he would leave the 15th and I am expecting him to arrive about the 25th or 26th of this month. I shall do all I can to hasten the progress of things. After the signing of the agreement by him that documents will then be complete and I do not ing to purchase the certificate for $7m. safe funds of the estate, which I shall be in the possession of from this to this afternoon, and will then amount I shall I may safely conclude within how as I shall have the means necessary enough to pay all I owe. They are, and shall give me a certificate of such amount, and I shall be before the 20th of May the second division of my estate. I wish however for you to continue to write regularly as usual in carrying them should prevent the carrying out of my present arrangements. The day I shall write regarding you.

Now you say, then to credit my account now, maybe then of my creditors, who think that they will take their money. They may have no opportunity about me, they will receive every dollar I owe them, though perhaps require them of them sooner rather accept of much less. I have a mind of getting them satisfied by sending money in advance of my promise to them to purchase as a discount any claim that you may require for some from those who last part in my confidence, and if you wish leave them just right for me to do so. But they a deal in this way to save something? When they by me? What is it that a man says, but it would nally have been of them right purchase early that.

He told me of this purchase, which purchase, and I will give about the way in which I had been doing.
I did not give money by Regency the 25th February which purchase my return from before now. But for my name sake, I shall have been at home by the 15th March. I have given of the money which I have upon his property by mortgage which became due the 15th March, that he has paid to pay the debt, and that in consequence we had commenced a foreclosure suit.
The difficulty we had experienced in getting papers on the Regency, who is in New Jersey, and of the petition we had made to the Court for a substitution of decree. They were granted several days ago and on the 20th we succeeded after much delay in getting in during a copy of documents and some plans at his residence to 137th Street, Manhattan in this regard an empty bottle was wrapped up in a paper with the papers around it and given by the person serving to the servant girl who took it supposing that it was a package for her mistress.

As soon as delivered the person said "that is a copy of the summons & Complaint upon Mrs Ridgway in a suit against her by Thomas & John P. Whaley." She at once saw that she had been forced notwithstanding the instructions given her by Mr Ridgway not to accept of any letters or papers coming to the house. We must now wait twenty days for answer by Ridgway & wife who undoubtedly will put in one to gain all the time they possibly can, and no doubt will try to shake off the prosecution of the case till the fact term.
I shall not wait here for these proceedings to be carried on, it is not necessary that I should do so.
I can do no good. The matter of foreclosure is a plain straightforward proceeding - the papers speak for themselves, and I have been confirmed in W. W. Goodrich Esq, who is recommended to me by Mr Puffer, that he will push matters to do if any a better motion is possible. It is however contesting against a lawyer, so that it is abandoned cut diamond" and I think that they are fairly matched. The money I think is secure, and in any event we cannot possibly lose much. It is known a question of time only when we shall get it. Ridgway will avail himself of every legal technicality for the purpose of delaying payment as long as possible in the hope of being able to turn himself around and save if possible his property from being sold. I do not believe however he will be able to do so, unless by swindling some other of his estate, the same as he did here. He might I think, have better let his property go in the first instance, saved his reputation and run a great deal of trouble and anxiety. The suit against him need not detain him, neither need the dispend of the real property of the estate as I shall leave with my brother John a power of attorney to attend to these matters as well as those appertaining to any settlement of the estate remaining unsettled. I can see therefore no reason to prevent my returning home soon after Henry's arrival, whenever I shall get my share of the remaining cash funds of the Estate. As you may reasonably expect me soon, and I promise to telegraph when I am ready to start. God knows I am much anxious to return home, and I will do so as soon as possible. I have lead and am still leading a most unhappy and uncomfortable life and would gladly fly from here and escape from the torture of mind which I daily experience in consequence.

I am glad to see that you have such a confident and unshaking trust in believing that I will certainly return to you, and that business alone prevents me from doing so, for which, you certainly will be rewarded by my constancy and life long affection. I can imagine what your feelings and sufferings have been during the past two long years since our separation - and how anxious you are to have me at home again; and the joy it will give our children to see their absent papa once more. As my dear wife and loving children are of good hearts and be not discouraged with waiting, the time will certainly come, the good God willing, to A Pastoral Letter.

To the Parishioners of the Church of the Holy Trinity, San Diego.

DEARLY BELOVED IN THE LORD:

Holy Week, with its most solemn associations, its precious spiritual privileges, is just half gone. When I say that not more than a dozen adults, and they all of one sex, have attended either of the three Holy-Day Services*—which is an actual falling off from the attendance of the corresponding portion of the last Christian year—you will not wonder that I feel called upon to remind you, that it is the duty of all devout Church people, not being absolutely hindered, to devote more time than usual, during this Season of the Passion, to religious exercises. Secular business, and even household occupations, should, so far as possible, be shaped with reference to attendance on the Services of the Sanctuary. Or, if any of you are hindered from being in your places at Church, I trust you will, in your family worship, and your private devotions, have regard to the appointments for this Holy Season. Let us bear in mind, Beloved, that our Lenten Season of Revival, begun, thank God, so auspiciously, has not ended yet; indeed that it reaches its climax, only when the awful gloom of Good Friday has burst forth into the glorious Easter Rising of the Sun of Righteousness.

Calling your particular attention to the appointments for the remaining most holy days of this most holy week, I am, my dear Brethren, most affectionately,

Your friend and servant for Jesus' sake,

HOBART CHETWOOD,

Rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity, San Diego.

San Diego, Wednesday before Easter, A. D. 1874.

Dear and dear Mary

I am sure you will think it very strange of me that I should write to you now, yet it is better late than never at first I must apologize for not calling on Miss Conway but our course is that we lost the address and when Mademoiselle called but we were out and we lost the track of each other.

You will naturally inquire what prompted me to write I will explain in a few words my motive having grown tired of both city and school life, so I wish to return to the country for a week or two during my vacation which will commence in June or thereabout and having no friends out of the city with whom I could feel so much at home I resolved to address yourself and wife in order to gain your consent to my coming down for a short time and if it would be agreeable then state terms for my board.

Mother is well and wishes to be remembered

Dear Father:

As I have not written a line to you for some time, I feel somewhat ashamed to do so; but you must excuse me, business has not been very brisk, times dull, and in consequence there has hardly been anything worth writing about. Mamma has been a regular correspondent of yours and has informed you pretty well of what has been transpiring here since I stopped writing. To day being Sunday and not having much to do I write these few lines in brief. As regards 'times' in this place they are very hard, and especially with me it being very difficult at times to find enough work to make a decent bill at the end of the week. Some weeks I will make nine dollars, and very seldom reach twelve. This does not pay "rent" for one who has been working at the business so long, five years, this

June, It costs me two dollars a week to keep a horse, and what is left out of my earnings is not much to live on. But as it stands I will not complain much, but will wait until your return and have better terms. I desire a very pretty and fancy horse, which I would like very much to own. It belongs to Mr. Selig, and can be bought for forty or fifty dollars.

Your Diego at present is at a stand still no building going on whatever, real estate dull and no prospects for a railroad until next winter. Work has not yet been commenced on the turning of the San Diego river, but will commence soon as Lieutenant Preston is now on the way here.
Old San remains about the same.

We have received news within the past few days of the wreck of the new steamer "Ventura" which struck a rock, in the fog nearly five miles south of Monterey in this State. The passengers are all safe and arrived here to-day. The steamer and cargo will prove a total loss, she having five hundred tons of freight on board. San Diego loses in freight, among merchants, a loss of about $10,000, which is very bad in these hard times. Great exp. excitement journals however the disaster. The ing steamer was valued at $75,000. owned by Goodall Melton and Perkins, of San Francisco. Will send particulars in "Union" as soon as issued.

You wrote us a letter saying that you would send us a trunk containing things, a "banjo" in particular. I have now taken a little to the "guitar" and if you have not purchased the banjo get me a guitar instead, as I can make it answer both purposes. I play pretty well on the banjo, and think that I can learn on the guitar. If a guitar costs too much, why get a banjo. When you purchase, get a guitar with the strings, when tested and close down to the "frets" a neck, and a loud sounding one. If you can get someone who understands it purchase it for you.

The Clavella Social Club is at present on a very firm basis, and is a good institution, and well of by all. They have a band consisting of six instruments, violin, banjo, guitar, bones, triangle and tambourine, which makes good music for dances and reunions. The officers of the Club are as follows Wm. Lyons, President; James M. Connors, Vice President; Francis H. Whaley, Secretary; George Lyons, Treasurer.

meetings are held in the big Court House, known as "Cavell Hall," every Saturday night. As general things we give surprise parties every two weeks and a Club dance once a month, attended by old and young. The weather here at present is perfectly delightful. The crops here this year are pretty scant, but will compare with, and better than some of the northern countries. The wool crop will be very good, and honey will exceed all. Tons of it will be shipped east this summer.

The family will all be glad to see you when you come home. We have this minute received news from Mr. D. Felton held, through Mrs. Geely that you received your money, but whether it is so or not will be looked for in one of your letters which we expect soon or we think is delayed on the blacked train. If so you will be home soon.

We have a great deal of trouble with George. Family all well, and pretty well myself but very nearly naked out. Enclosed I send you one of Arnold & Choates new real estate maps printed at the office, by myself. Nothing more at present, but will write soon again,

I remain your son

has prevented your receiving it.

day. I said them several times. My inter-

My Loving Wife.

Dear Mama:-

Your latest received is of the 27th of the month. About this I heard from you again in a response to mine of the 17th enclosing 10th and 24th enclosing duplicate 10th and P.O. order for $50. (May 10th) I sent you a long letter, 28 pages - (May 13th) another enclosing a Roman note 100 and May 14th a registered letter containing eight drafts and notes etc. These several letters with their contents I hope ^{will} have come safely to hand ere this reaches you.

I am anxious to hear if the case of clothing has been received. I hope nothing has prevented your receiving it.

Mr Howard and wife left here yesterday. I saw them several times. My intention was to have sent a small parcel of some few of the things I have on hand.

but used to informate as to what being them particular morning. For which I am very sorry or some of the things were fear being in the Dyein. I am thinking of making up an other case (worse than the last) I had not the things which I have, as well as to send them my subscription for which I had long made any objection to make again in my heart for many things also scattered about. I knowed also no possibility of I had any objection to buy the summe due to Shaver and some good other things I knew you require do much, which I may get about money soon, and in case I do I shall enjoying it as far as the best of things. ~~Whatever~~ you are probably be the I had some other things course and perhaps get you them some good con-coming my. I think the D. is a very pleasant agitation kind of a woman and any thing which I may have said in the papers to her husband I can say the same with great pleasure to her as much like to wife. I do not know what the opinion agreeable with her, but perhaps that you are well from the man in your course. I think it is better to be here

I am sure I will for a while, the things are better, may be to go to the Congress in your own account everything of those things must be exchanged since as the things are of the same as had do I imagine they are, perhaps we shall be comfortable with the things to go forward, some other case I make a living. What is not worth to send the little of those things in as due a place as I think I can design must be at present. But it do think enough to clearly what will be for me best after my return home. I do have plenty of money now if not be nice for you to be in the now about or with one of the children just before I was ready to leave (say a month previous) and after seeing the lights, then nothing more with you. But the light course be the church, etc. to look after them, I think we had better just bring the things till we have plenty of money, I shall come on with you. I will persuade you in things to let you go for to take you some other my return, perhaps, at least we can agree to do so. I hope that there are better days in the world for you and this and see of us, since we have waited long and patiently.

I have been writing to Morn, which I enclose for delivery. The day has been raining and I have not been able to go out. I was just in a room at Mary Wilson's. She is expecting her husband home from Chicago in a few days after which she and children will go to Illinois to spend the summer. I was at my lawyer's today - the time of notice to Ridgway will not expire till the 20th of the next day being required instead of five as the state book says and I must wait three days more before hearing the next step to be taken. I saw Mr. Riker, mother's lawyer, who has had advice of counsel I was in being compelled to wait indefinitely for Henry. He promised to send Mr. De Goo (his chief clerk) over to see mother to see what can be done to carry out the terms of the agreement so far as I am concerned without him. I do not expect any good to result from this; however, my chances of getting money is either by means of mortgage against Ridgway, or from the estate after the arrival of Henry. I might take some step but do not suppose that I would gain anything as soon as by waiting, at least.

May 28/95

I commenced this letter the 25th intending to send it next day - Evening of 25th at Mary Gibb's letter - much disappointed - felt very blue all the next day - Evening 26th was at Mary Gibb again - tried to letter - I am very much disappointed - Besides Harry has not yet arrived - I don't think much have happened to him - I wrote today to his wife informing her of his non arrival - I think she ought to know - she may be able to explain the cause of the detention. They are indeed very strange people - it is impossible to understand them - if would not surprise me if Mary had not left home. I have written her twice if such be the case to return the papers signed & assigned above. This arrangement as to the property can be made with or without her consent - better to have all at once - that it is wrong for him to keep everybody waiting so long - I cannot recall I wrote to him but do not expect him to take any notice whatever.

My dear Mr. [Name],
I have been thinking of you very much lately and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy.
I have been very busy with my work, but I try to find time to write to my friends.
I am sure you will understand my feelings.

which Ridgway received for distribution to John and to me - I have seen Peter Sedgwick himself about it - has promised to send his cards over to see mother - but he has neglected to do so.
I saw him today - got him to write to John requiring him to come to see him to see what an-angement could be made - he thinks it hard to keep me waiting an unreasonable time on Henry's life - I will him that agreement may be carried out in regard to me or otherwise I should have to get another lawyer in Ridgway's place and see what could be done to carry a settlement of the estate in domestic ways & I wish dear Anna you would write to me much more frequently than you have done from the past - I fear you had in an extreme ly low opinion and maybe of I had better from you often & shall not fail to do at least not so bad - I wish you to write once every week, some particular day of each week, so as to insure them coming regularly. And I wish do the same and keep it up till such time as I believe you that I am about Edinburgh and

It is our hands that be occupied in the of this yet to come when I am in the of as much as possible by writing often. I I have felt very blue indeed on account of not hearing from you so often lately as formerly.
I do not attribute it to any neglect on your part but to your continual expectations that I was coming home soon, possibly thinking that I was on the way and unable to write.
I would advise you to go to Providence again if you see a letter from me and in case there is such a one and send it to me on Monday and then write weekly thereafter. I don't hear from you often though I do and I should think you would wish to hear from me often.
You are at home with the children, have you one to love and care for you, which I am always more to do me than. I hope I will have had a good deal of good news to tell and thank you for the continuous health I receive. I had a most successful trip, am very happy indeed. I go to particular whatever for enjoyment. Indeed to find pleasure in going around enjoying the sights - but having seen everything I no longer find any pleasure in them. I have grown more and more indifferent about persons and things I used being selfish of my wishes. My hopes were dashed at a single blow as it were - then I thought if Henry came on they would be a chance of getting settling up things and getting more money than I had been able to do - You know how unsuccessful I have been in regard to this.

Suppose he comes on now soon - and matters are settled up - it may go so late if I do not sell the well property at a great price except at a great sacrifice - the others will oppose. I shall resist - and perhaps have to consider them by a partition suit - seemingly there is an end to the trouble and litigation which I am having - You know my persistence and determination to go through. Even though it takes years of time and a sacrifice of the property to do it. But let us not anticipate trouble.

I have read and reread your last letter, (2^d of April) in the absence of not receiving any other from you, for some time past, and think it a most sensible letter in deed, not but what I think all your letters are sensible, but this one I think surpasses many of the others. It pleases me dear man to think you have so much confidence in me in not attributing my troubles to any affair connected with a woman. You struck it exactly right in supposing that I had been scolded out of my greater portion of my money and that that was the cause of my trouble.
 I had no intention dear man of concealing anything from you though I did not wish you to excite your apprehensions, therefore I waited till after the mortgage became due, and then finding that Ridgway had no intention of paying except to be freed from the mortgage, I without delay told you the whole affair and unburdened my heart to you - which I did in my letter of the 1st of April the one in which I en-clear in 1836 of the Cells. and if you do think that you have not referred to this letter, I shall be bound that you own never have received one that you are perhaps still ignorant of the handwriting through I published enough in my letter of the 11th April and succeeded and to have you you informally upon the point of it. I hope I shall never see so many without a letter from you and that I receive from Mr. Anderson's & I will be in your faith very great same to Henry. I must have your design with the first sketch also of the Museum & Centre of people. When very indeed being the loss of the letter which I received, several have seen my sleeping sheets.

I am anxious to hear of the hope a view of the case of clothing which was at hand on the 29th of a week and on the side of the Westgate, where received in it was my sleeping sheet.

The Commission of the Westgate was the 13th or 14th April and last ed about ten days - till the 23rd 24th. By which means and might have happened to have been indicated at the end of the the other case which had been referred to as the case of the they do say in your days - but I think I should have referred to two from that. I remember of in your 23rd days in your book of papers, the case ought to have answered them the 18th of May but owing to the late time they has been delayed & not order I think I should have made a better description in my the Museum of the 18th of May and the same you have your sleeping I imagine the contents of that case I have found many things in the

I was with that I had had more made and purchased more things for you - then even many things I might have disposed with and bought other more useful. but they were bought at a bargain and if not actually required now you can probably sell them to good advantage. You will do this the way if you think necessary - I believe or all the things if you like they are at your disposition to do with just as you please.

receipt of your next letter.

My dear poppets,

I am not feeling very well to-day, but must answer your letter dated St Louis, & New York received several days ago for which I thank you, as you know that it is a source of great amusement here for us to receive a letter from you, The children are all well and enjoyed quite a nice select dance given in our hall three nights ago, prior to the starting of the club, the boys all clubbed together, and they raised enough to get some little improvements, Mrs. Parry gave them two - so she, and the boys all put in five bits - or a dollar. Dick's Bill whole cabinet did not cost them but five or six dollars, the under was five take the pen up. But to do it is having very so I will send you these few lines to show you that you are not forgotten.

George has purchased the cow, he intended to do all afford it now, my money

What do you say about feeding the cow, I should get some milk, she only gives a half bucket now, and I cannot keep the horse in Bales desire milk for their Sunday and I make many things with it. Presumably keep me thing looks very dry again.

Let me know how you are getting on and all about the world! and give a kiss for me to the woman you said you were going after, you must behave gently to her as I am doing as you will get gently with trouble.
I am very fond of you, and you, and the days seem very long to me, but I will have to get used to that as well, as every thing else. What!

My Dear Wife,

I wrote you the 27th April enclosing K&P of Case shipped overland that day; and, on the 24th, enclosing duplicate K&P, P.O. order for $50, List of contents of Case and photographs of John and myself, which letters, I hope you will receive by due course of mail, notwithstanding the irregularity and detention for sometime past owing to the breaks and immense destruction on some portions of the overland route. I was at the 5th avenue Hotel yesterday reading a San Francisco paper of the 20th April giving a detailed account of the disasters along the line of the railroad - there were six thousand Westward bound passengers detained at Omaha and two thousand car loads of freight!
Many Eastern bound passengers must also be debarred or prevented from staying.

From the 20th the road was directed near Sen James and the post arrives of passengers at Berlin were being met I have supposed made here at the office I have that the road had been directed delays were getting through without delay frequency. It will take several days passed before all those who on a former week than ordinary hours East Lane that and a longer time before the freight can be cleared from along the line of the road. I have called of the 21st of June I have thought in your house, assuming here the 18th, but the receipt is given in signature) make the 9th of June, that and receive the packet.

I have been expecting a letter from you, written since you make the one in the 21st of June, but I suppose it is delayed some where along the line.

I suppose you that Henry had the graphical that he would leave the 10th of June. Bringing the packet which I had sent to him, but I suppose he must have remained several days in Washington but assume that he could get there without difficulty. I can do nothing to prevent his coming through now, and I am anxious of seeing him arrive from day to day. I am again wondering of his things since I had up so that I may shortly have them also in your house. It does seem as though everything would be against much beyond the time expected.

Matters with Ridgway remain the same as when I wrote last, when I informed you that we got orders, ^{within his will} by substitution of the papers of the O. C. The twenty days for ^{answering} ~~answering~~ will expire the 11th inst. The probability is that he will push in an answer and strive to gain all the time he possibly can, in the hope that he may from some source raise the money and save his property from being sold to satisfy judgment. The wrong which he has done me is a most grievous one, embracing as it does its consequences upon you and others dependant upon my receiving the money, but it cannot now be helped. I am very fortunate in securing it in the manner in which I did, as I believe I was in time got it all on with a trifling loss. I am not disposed to think Ridgway any candidate

Dear Man.

I sent you a long letter about the 8th or the 10th ago & had received yours of the 27th.

Nothing need has been transpired. Henry has not yet come. I had to go to keep my writing.

I have nothing in particular to say just now except to express my sincere sorrow in not being with you on the anniversary of my departure and to enclose you the Proposiciones Romanas not seen in the admiration of which will make you forget in a moment your grief and disappointment.

I have another one like it for Maria and Maurice which time I hope something favorable will turn up.

I kept more than enough to last in his such times as I thought Henry would arrive, he having telegraphed that he would leave the 10th of June, but I have been disappointed.

The twenty days for Pickaway to put in answers expired the 13th inst without his having done so.
I saw my lawyer who said after examining the law he thought he was entitled to six days more also that he was not entirely satisfied with the manner of service of the papers on Mrs. P., and that if possible he would like to get personal service on her and wait six days longer and be certain, but if it were not possible to get it and in case no answer was put in by the 18th he would move for judgment. Thus the thing stands.

I gave you a copy of depositions and a complaint to have Mrs. Gibbs serve it, but from the information which she gets as well as that obtained myself, it is quite likely that Mrs. P. is in Newberry and and that it will be impossible to serve the papers before the 18th. Yours with love and respectful expectations. F. M. M. -

Dear Papa

It is so long since I have written to you that I will write you a letter today. Mamma got a letter from you a few days ago. I have not been well for some time and Mamma has not let me go to school. Instead of the dishes which I asked for please get me a small pair of earrings, as I have had my ears pierced. I send you my love and hope you ^{will} come home soon. Mamma got the picture of you and Uncle John.
I think you have changed some since Mamma has written a letter to you. I am going to put mine in with hers.
George sends you his love and thanks you very much for sending him the Violin and Harmonica. He says he will write to you soon. Abama is much to write about. So I will now a little from that picture you sent not long ago with Uncle John.

I send my love to him also)

San Diego, June 2nd 1875.

Darling Papa,

I never take up my pen to write you this letter as I have not written to you for a long time. I hope you are in good health. We all thank you for the handsome presents you sent us. I am now writing in the portfolios you sent me. Lillie got the black one and the brown. I like mine very much. The doll you sent me is very nice and it is better than I expected. The patterns are beautiful.
Some of them are pretty for me to take a pattern of for myself and Lillie. When I wrote for the doll I was to play with them at that time. but now I have changed my mind about toys but keep them and play with them once in a while. But thank you all the same for it. The fourth of July is near at hand and we expect to have some time and use all kinds of amusements to enjoy it with us. Willie and myself are invited to spend the day with the Mallocks. We have known they are going to have a grand time. They are going to have a procession and the beating of the drum and other independence ~~and~~ games and then in the evening they are going to have a ball in the evening, it is going to be a calico ball. The ladies are to oblige in calico and they are to make a crowd of the same kind of material as the blues and as they go in they skip the crowd in a hop and then the gentlemen come along & take the first crowd they lay their hands on whether we do dance the first dance with the lady whose dress corresponds with the crowd.

Frank has a ticket - seat next me which had an excellent view of very well. The pink and white Japanese silk you sent to me I made it up myself. I cut it out and made it. It was admired very much and I wore the pink and white instead of the ash. And the white hair imitation hats were sent to Willie and we gave them. Willie with blue and some pink flowers and mine with pink ribbon and flowers also. I don't think a milliner could have trimmed them better. Maria gave Willie the blue plaid and me the red plaid as it was more suitable to my complexion. I am a tall woman and am growing every day nearly every one of my shoes were so short for me that they have to be pieced, I wear the same little heels the boys of my shoes. I hope all my cousins are well. I send my love to the Youngs and would like to have Corrina write to me. I also send my love to Minnie and Alice Puffers.

I think this is the longest letter I have ever written to you but I hope you will not get tired reading it. ~~and~~ I stick in all the news I can find. There are a great many people moving away from here, and they are coming and going all the time. I named the doll Kellie as it looks like the picture you sent of Kellie Warner.
I send my love to her, and kiss all the Youngs and Kellie and Mr Puffers little girls for me. I expect to see them one of these days. I guess when you arrive here you will find this place pretty dull by the side of New York. I would give anything to see you again, so

I am very glad to have received your letter of the 20th May, which came enclosed in one from mama. It being so long since I heard from any of my children. The last I received from Frank, April 20th. I was beginning to think, that, owing to my long absence from home, you were all forgetting me. I hope, in case of my prolonged absence, that you, and the rest will write to me often than you have done. I love to hear from my children, and to be made to believe that they have not forgotten me.

I am sorry to hear that you have been unwell, and, on that account detained from school. You must learn all you can and improve the opportunities afforded to you. Mama tells me that Maria will deliver the opening address, and you the closing one at the school examinations. I shall be glad to hear that you have acquitted yourselves commendably.

I will get for you the earrings in Stearns - the set of clothes - as you prefer having them - and at the same time a pair for Mamma and Bidel. Mamma writes that you and Bidel are nearly as tall as Mamma. That two girls you must have grown to be! Papa will miss his little girls very much when he returns home and hardly be able to realize the fact that they have grown to be nearly as tall and as large as Mamma. You and Bidel must indeed have changed very much when you prefer earrings to clothes and the idea of having a large doll's dress with. I hope by this time the case of Edith has resolved and that you like the many things I have sent you and the others, though I fear some of the things may be rather small for you. I expect George will be very pleased with the violin, with the banjo, guitar, and harmonica and triangle you will each have something to play upon, and will become so proficient in the use of these instruments as to furnish all the music you require at your parties, and he give me a grand welcome on my return home. I read the paper to the girls Sunday before last. They say talk about you and Bidel. Mamma, the eldest says she will visit you. With much love, my dear daughter, I find you affectionate father's

My Own Dear Little Wife.

I wrote you the 28th of May enclosing out to Mrs. W.
Since then, June 4th, I received your welcome letter of the 19th of May, which relieved my mind of the anxiety I felt on account of not having heard from you for some time previous. I trust either for her return to me - will have answered, also the envelope I sent, received sometime ago, which find enclosed.

I promised in my last to write to you a paper and requested you to do the same. I have written to the children Sunday, my intention was to have written to you but I thought I would wait a day or two longer, supposing that I might have time now to write to you - the arrival of the paper, or some other favorable opportunity with me I had with respect to you has not yet arrived. It is impossible for me to confide in the cause of the abolition. The first information contained in your letter that you had taken had left on the 12th of May I intended to have engaged the services of an other person to take care of you & I should like to have settled some of the affairs of the estate as I have raised in it there a considerable sum of money and I am now in possession of it.

 him to come on without long delay. Attention of every thing - about the agreement requiring his signature the matter was made known over all property and a person all anxious waiting for him and that it was impatient when he was. I had to know that I should have been directed to him - as we have made a different disposition of my money and been here with me long ago. I have should have been able to wait for his return - after having disposed of my money and waited for this time, the best thing, indeed the only thing I can do is to wait patiently till he has come - as the balance of the money comes to me - to me - to the widow's business and all the rest of it - this remains what is coming to me and remains it unnecessary in my hand to see again to attend to the business. I feel like nothing quick can be done as he does come.

 I must not be disappointed in it for any other reason.

There is no need or intention anything or attempting to do so. We can do with all quietness and with ease all the business we have at hand. I would like to see you that you may decide - to do that whether you think best and to show us a safe caution - I think perhaps I have seen you or the day with another and perhaps - you may say we had more of the same which I can not do at a fair price and I think we will do for you as well as the rest. I would not be anxious for it. I would like to see the money - I think we will do for you as well as the rest.

I will not let you see in purchasing more things except from our own store, and we will do with the best is all. You may find in our store in the building, and we will do for you as well as the rest. I would not be anxious for it. I would like

like writing - but I desire you to write a few lines, and when unable let one of the children do so for you. I was feeling anxious concerning you, and if I had had the money to spare should have telegraphed to ascertain the cause.

The photographs of John and myself were not very good ones. Neither did we picture and you could get from them but a poor idea of how we really look. As you felt that I will send you another one better taken. I am not feeling very well. The summer heat oppresses me besides having the rheumatism all around. I suffered more from this during the winter. It is only since the warm weather set in. I must have when in a perspiration, by a sudden check, have taken cold. It did not have as you would say a branched withers and in the shape of a tapeworm, which made its first appearance the latter part of February. I was not quite certain of this but had positive proof of it a brief time ago. When I took medicine which ejected all the worms the fillets - but now it appears not and I must resort again to more medicine. The time I will take oil of turpentine which from past experience I am certain will fetch him and then I hope to feel

I expected by this time you would have recovered entirely, and have obtained a new lease of life. I hope that it will be long.
 I should like to find you well on your return to enjoy the comforts which I hope is to be able to give you. You must take exceeding good care of yourself, do nothing to fatigue you - nothing more than you wish and feel able to do. The girls are all well enough now to render it entirely unnecessary for you to attend to any household duty whatever and I hope they are considerate enough for you so far not to require you to do so. I am sorry that the circumstances in your friends should have prevented your writing sooner.
 I think some one of the children should have written, and in case of a like emergency I shall expect them to do so. I am miserable enough now. About the only pleasure I have is in receiving and answering letters from home and when any extraordinary delay occurs to prevent this my unhappiness is greatly increased. An exhibition in June should not have prevented their writing in April and May when it was impossible for you to do so. I shall at no time require long letters from you on account of your indisposition. You can not always get yours in quality. I wish, dear man, for your progress in your mind upon the subject and to know whether you are again of the opinion that what we call law is the voice of God. How can he begeth more ex-ceptable and to better advantage in our minds than law, I am likely to receive here long enough I wish you to get the objections answered, but better send them without delay.

I had Mr Young to day at his office, we conversed about our case. I have not been to the home since I left work. Mr Young always treats me well. I wish I might not so conduct as formerly - He never asks me to see him though the reason for my not going is true. I wish however to go to see them a good term. I have not reason to think to visit if my "guardian" argue than formerly, and I would give me great pleasure to go to see her often, since she more welcome by the by. It is I wish in dejection, I wish I long as he can make use of you he will and when he cannot he does not seem to care, I would like to be friendly but certainly there is no probability of justice in his part to do. If he thought once more to be friendly for him or had necessity to care, he would then be most friendly, which would not do.

 of things, in our case, presenting as it does my opportunity

 I have achieved nothing to do but see how the best way I can, which makes the circumstances of having very little money income, I find rather difficult to accomplish. I this than it is just desisting as day and becoming so in-

I hope I shall not have to mind much longer, as I am anyway to draw upon them more money, and vice versa as done as I possibly can. I have seen more you must require funds, and probably you get through and.
 I find upon it I shall not stay any moment, I would like a new place, but I can not do so, I wish you were here shall perhaps break him very shortly - but I hope they do see the case in the present state of the papers in the King's. I wish you had the best inon the circumstances I expect a paper, much more case of them - I think it is an old case any business, and since this is the case of these gosses as to some some of them to some divided, I don't see how they can contribute much to the support of the papers. But they do exist and the money for them support must come from some source and they ought certainly to be willing to pay their share of a few contributions - It appears from that that it is becoming as much as in over the years ago when he advised experience where while he was at home he had some influence in Danburg and that of a printing establishment of his and he had some with the Union for the numerous persons purchased any towards him. I have no doubt but that I hope to get along without him. He has been a good friend where he found it to his interest to be so. Though I have no doubt what he did at first was entirely at the instance of his wife. I consider, however, by the services which I have rendered the thing I have repaid him for far more than that he has done or that I have received at his hands. I thank him nevertheless and would not wish to appear ungrateful and therefore go to see him and if I could be of any service to him would render it willingly. He has asked me upon two or three occasions to do favors for him and I have complied. He lies with the same as he was before his family returned from France. I shall however treat him kindly and go sometimes to the house to see his wife and children. I met them a few days ago looking quite spruce. He enquired concerning you and the children. When I have not seen James long while. He and young are not on very good terms, though Nellie is still at the house.

New York, June 16th 1848.

Dear Mass,

I have rewritten the lines sent the 11th inst. The sketch is more practically expressed, and, though the enclosed may not be faultless, I am not ashamed that you should send them to anyone, if you wish, especially so they are my first attempts. I trust that you will appreciate them as coming from me, and do will I give answer to them in prose or verse.

I have nothing in particular to communicate, having written to you recently, and still being without a letter from you or word of Henry. I think you might write of news. You promise to do so. Your letter is of the date 19th May. I certainly expected one written on the anniversary of my leaving home, or sometime between that and the first of June, informing me of the safe arrival of the case of clothing, about which I am anxious to hear. Your letters are all welcome to me and I am greatly cheered up by them. I was out to Brooklyn last evening, and shall go again tomorrow evening. I refer you to my last letter.

that he has a claim against the one and exhibiting on a piece of the last day gave $100.00 for his witness under which amount he acknowledged judgment on 20th of 1870 - that having assigned said claim to his wife Margaret, he asks that she may be relieved thereby and paid in full amount. The writing to wit the balance of the claim $100 as a set off to a part payment of the mortgage and asks that judgment be entered - the Court granted the motion for day of payment and for two days (the 10th inst) and to day I have heard affidavit that I have been assigned a mortgage before Aug 1870 - that none of the other funds to my knowledge had been assigned - that when I understand the writing in respect to - that no funds available for the account (as he would) had been received by the defendant such that under an agreement the R. as party had necessary power to be authorized by him to obtain agreement that he assigned the check for the money - that on the 20th of 1870 he applied to the Court for the money that he has with the said to obtain an assignment of said

That I had applied to him for balance of the money, but that he had asked the same to pay for mortgage, that when due on his part in parting that I had understood to get from him receipt for the money - that not being able to do so I was compelled to sue on 10th of 1870 and that at law the mortgage under described given he would commence suit to have him relieved from liability at the law - that defendant is aware with Mr. R. March 13th, that he was allowed $100 for debt in addition to the amount allowed from previous to one of defendant - that I had the receipt for the sum of $100 which was in fact of the amount against Estate of Henry May or party is interested to state - that he had information from the man-the defendant his right to any amount for that might be allowed - that the balance curity - that said mortgage became due for foreclosure was commenced March 21st premises 279 Rippon St of $6,000 that said property is not encumbered with more than $9 to $10,000 that I believe the object of Mr R. in asking for stay of proceedings and putting in an answer is for the purpose merely of delay - and that I am a resident of California retained here on a case of this business. I think this should have been stated in the affidavit sworn to by me and I will come up for hearing tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock and I hope and trust my affidavit will be sufficient to prevent a further stay of proceedings - unless Mr R. holds days to put in answer - should it not be, my case will go over to the fall term of the Court, and there will be a day set for trial in which I can

- not beat it finally - the borrower is not in a position time to raise the money to pay me, and I shall not grant it if I can possibly prevent it. It has therefore no money and therefore I should show him any.

June 19th 1845. The affidavits were submitted to the Court on the 17th and yesterday the

But the court of a few weeks more to hope to receive some money and make some arrangements for Kidgway's maintenance and support. It is probably the amount would be paid outside of a week which I hope will be done. I have had a long time of it with Kidgway but begin now to see doubts. You will be pleased to hear of the good news which I communicate.

I was last evening at Mrs. Eldon's - no letter from you, or any news of the Court - I had thought of having a report of the Case published and has with the facts writing these few lines, and as it is Saturday news of having obtained a final judgment I will sign you long this letter. I promise to the arrival of Henry.

I must now close, dear wife, hoping that you and the children are well, and with love, from your dear old father.

I had written the last line but one of the verses:
"thy greetings to receive, and in 'restraining' grace" — I thought it rather too much of the order of the Boston Fellow Style, and therefore discarded it. Full.

I think of thee

Thou comest and goest, in the moon's silvery light, Beholding noble Hudson's glistening waters, Far extending into the night.

Wilt thou think of me?

Amid flowers and shades, by murmuring fountains, Listening to sweet music, the warblings of birds, Gazing upon distant mountains.

Wilt thou think of me?

I think of thee,

Thy constancy, patient suffering, gentle dove, Commend thee ever to guardian angels' care, Having faith in the pledged love.

Wilt thou think of me?

Wilt thou think of me

Closete self! Pray God return thy wandering mate, The sweetest to mine, and upon my breast find Renewed life, hope and happiness.

Only with thee - with thee!

mary election takes place to-day the Convention meets on the 29th of this month. ~~But~~ the war things stand it seems that the Republicans will elect their whole ticket. A strong fight will be made for Sheriff, between James McLay and Joseph Coyne of Julian.

I will say no more about politics. for you will find it all in the "Union."

Burnier is picking up a little.
A few new houses are being built.
The preliminar surveys have been completed (of the river) and maps forwarded to San Francisco. Work will commence in a few weeks.

I thank you with all my heart for the "banjo" you sent me it is a beauty and has attracted heaps of attentions.
I would rather have it than a dozen guitars. George and I make some very nice music once in a while, but I can call it the "banjo". I thank you.
All wells. I remain your son

Dear Papa

I received a letter from you yesterday and I was happy to hear from you. Tomorrow is the Exhibition Miss Carroll has had the stove trimmed up very pretty. Mamma is going to deliver the opening address. I have two pieces to recite. Violet has two and Mamma has three. George is very much pleased with his violin and so is Frank with his Banjo. He says he would not take the best guitar in the county for it. He came ^{near} arriving. I send your my love and thank you for the many things which you were so kind to send me. Give my love to Minnie and Alice Puffer. I'll think I will write to them soon. We are very busy getting ready for the exhibition. I wish you were at home so that you could see the exhibition.

I hope you will be at home soon. Minnie has been so busy getting ready for the exhibition that she wishes to be excused for not having written to you for so long. She says that she will write to you the next time Mamma writes. George thanks you very much for the ribbon which you were so kind to send him.
Old Town is so dull that there is nothing to write about. So good bye

Dear Anna

Henry arrived Sunday with his wife and youngest daughter, Carrie. As I was at Julia's in Flushing Sunday and did not return and get to Mary G's before Monday evening, I could not see them before they left. It so happened that they were there, making anxious enquiries as to my whereabouts. They left home the 6th and San Francisco the 13th June, coming overland. You were mistaken about seeing Henry's name in the paper May 12th. That was Henry, his son going to San Francisco. Henry says that he was detained from our cause or another on account of the death of his son-in-law, and confine himself to his daughter.

Wednesday I went with Henry, his wife and daughter to St. Louis and returned last evening.

ing. Henry when leaving home did not understand fully the nature of the papers sent and his lawyer advised him not to sign them.
He understands them now and thinks there will be no objection on his part. He would like the provision respecting security to another the annuity from any diminution "by reason of any" claim or cause of action now existing against the structure from the papers now that the suit brought by Mrs. Wallace has been compromised, or to make provision against the claim, Mrs. Wallace having brought suit against the City which probably she can never maintain. Henry thinks possibly there may be other claims against another that they may have one, which we cannot see to be compelled to pay. The difficulty will be in case of drawing up the papers agreed to get Harriet to sign them. He will see her to day to make the proposition. Should she refuse I think Henry will consent to sign them as they are. John and I are satisfied either way.
Sincerely I think not the claims which we cannot oppose. John will be down tomorrow and then Henry, he and I will see

"I think of thee" Always My darling.

New York, Sunday 30th 1870.

My Dear Wife,

I was agreeably surprised when informed last evening by Mary Gibbs that she had a letter for me also a packet of newspapers - and considered it a reward for my perseverance in going there so repeatedly since the arrival of Henry, and the great disappointment which I have felt so long without a single line from home, your last being of the date of May 19th, forty days previous! You had told me in a former letter, for which I had been waiting nearly as long, that your intention was to "write me again and write them." I do not wish to blame you, knowing how unwell you have been and perhaps impossible for you to write. But do think that some of the children might and ought to have written for themselves or at your desire. My claim to be neglected by them when it is impossible for you to write I would like to be informed of. The more unwell it is for you to write the greater is the anxiety for them to do so, and I hope that

The thing will never occur again. The education - attack that has of knowing how when to express - such and therefore when they exchange you it is you because you are weak and unable to resist it.

It is not that they do you need not remember from our terms in thinking do you need not remember from what I have written but of when ought I will receive allowance towards you. I write to George & tentatively show him ago and from him to times I have informed upon the state in the most gentle way the important necessity of making you with the kindest consideration since you have become so inactive, and I had hoped that this good luck had directed to him how to act without being any further to say anything further. My wish is that they should not only love and respect you but our another, and if they do this I shall be happy and they will have the reward of their own conduct.

Of our being very very dear may to know of your conduct and ideas and the affection for you which you were displaying when you were last and hope that you yourself necessary from as the years roll on. Never have I ceased to love you from the time I first knew you and though I should live a thousand years, the love implanted in my bosom by your maidenly heart wires for all time continues to grow. You may not always have appreciated me as you should have done, my ways may not have been always the most winning owing to the peculiarity of my disposition. But as for my love it has been most constant, never ceasing, and I do hope and trust that hereafter you will accept of me for just as I am, with the most positive assurance that though I may be lacking in many things the want of love for you is not of the number. I hope on my return to find you changed in disposition towards me, and as fond and loving as you were once and then I shall be far happier than I have been for several years past, and not the moderate creature which I have been, constantly seeking, without being able to attain, your love so resolutely withheld from me. I shall myself that this enduring joy. God grant that I may not be dis-hope of some happiness with you, in the future, I should not care to live any longer. It is this of your constant love and devotion - the same as you

New York, Thursday Dec. 8th 1841.

I returned from "Ohio" yesterday morning, where I had been with Henry and my sister during the passing. The time since the 3rd of January was of very peculiar interest on account of the circumstances attending the death of the Reg. Let's see all this I believe since his arrival in the country.
The day was the nation's great birthday and each celebration in the afternoon.
The day of the 4th of March was spent in the celebration of the anniversary of the birth of the nation's great founder and his life in the country. There were congregated at the house, including neighbors and relatives and friends of the family between 20 or 25 persons. probably more than Tom ever entertained at his country home before and more than he will again in the old kitchen and is his intention to pull it down this week with the view of enlarging his house.

 He will have a new place when finished according to his plans. It moves into an other house this week, will remain there two or three months by which time he hopes to have his house ready to move back again. His family, at home, consists of himself, wife, Annie, Tom, Daisy, Mary, Priscilla, his mother, and one child (who is boarding with them) Mary Eliza better daughter, a Carpenter and joiner boy - As you may judge we were rather crowded at table as well as for sleeping room - But we eat along fresh meat - plenty of fresh butter, better milk, eggs, etc. etc.

Cherry and currents and strawberries your wife and we had our first of them.
He intended to have returned to the City Tuesday but on account of a severe rain storm was at home till Wednesday day morning. In the evening I went over to Mary Gitt's - got her own letter of the 24th of June regarding our from Nellie in which I thank her very much. I have seen many to me when I receive letters of news. I am indeed glad to hear that you are better than when you wrote on the 16th or 17th of previous - and I hope you will continue to improve. No doubt but what you are needed entirely, but you must take good care of yourself and the children must take good care of you.
I shall look forward to you next letter and the ones from the children regarding an account of their school examinations.
They must write to me from without please me to receive letters for letters as what I wish to you begin endeavor to get.

 I wish to hear from you - besides the great which I write to them to write. I will tell is not as well written as the previous writes, (I may be on account of the negligence with the letter.) I am glad that you think you see before the Editor's letter I am glad that they see the Doctor's in a separate opportunity.

You also might be able to do things, (such as you can do with it,) I would rather they can do, and we, at Woodstock (Conn.) I have the same pair of paper hats - from 1830, and the same for any part, which I don't at all of your hair. They are all of the best quality. I wish to have them in them to use as they think by this process but not as before.

 I have received many letters, and I have and as being as I can see any more, which as thinking, thinking. I wish to for you, that you and the best, and make them in a box with a letter machine and send it to me. I don't understand that you are that have seen things to make you can print it.

When you are ready to change the name I wish to see it where on the way to the having learned, and you see, I wish to I wish to see you and I wish to see I am not sure. I wish to see you, but do not suppose that I should have any help from printed to you see. I wish work to be done by them, they are in any, and show them with you at once which I have always been writing to you and I have printed me the 1830. I wish you to copy and give printed to me that to copy the name to you, and in that manner will be put into your hands so that to be in I wish to be in good can. I wish to see you and I wish I wish to see you and I wish to see

 I wish to see you and I wish to see

I commenced my letter on the 23rd June the bad weather, going to. Within an hour they mounted. Then again I was in the never to communicate. I cannot see that a protracted illness of several weeks.

 She was buried on Sunday old St. Andrew's church in the spoken in the case, the woman had spoken more loudly than for some

Dear Ahas

Mama received a letter from you yesterday evening. We were all glad to hear from you. Mama is going to write to you today. The Exhibition passed off very nicely. Miss Barrow had her train there. Enclosed you will find the notice and program of the exhibition. The Puff was written by Frank and put in the Union. They will have a grand time in New Town on the Fourth of July. ~~That~~. We are all invited to spend the Fourth at Mrs Wallachs but Mama will not go because she has been sick. Nannie will stay at home with her. We are having Vacation now. George is highly you yesterday saying that you had hopes of getting your money which Hedgerway stole from you.

The case contained many useful and beautiful things all of which we appreciate and thank you very much for. It came in time for the Exhibition as we should not have been able to attend it. I send my love to you and a great many kisses

Dear Father

As it is so long since I have written I feel that it is my duty to write you a few lines and thank you for the many handsome presents you have sent in sending me. We are all very anxious for you all and hope that it will not be long before you will be able to do so. Last Sunday (27th June) was my birthday which passed very quietly. I bought the children the you all at the exhibition so there is no need of my being sad. I am in very dull nothing going. I expect at dance one in a while I shall have some news to tell. Dear Father as I cannot think of any thing more to write about. Next time I will try and write a longer and better letter. As it is getting very late I will close my letter by sending

I would send you a few lines will be settled up soon now, so you may come home to us soon. The last lines you sent me are very creditable and I like them very much if you keep on you will become quite celebrated.

I am well and hope these few lines will find you all the same I have not much news to write

My dear Husband,

Your mail of June 24" came to hand safely, for which I thank you, the good news of Henry's arrival in New York, and that you are coming to some settlement with the thief Bidgway is all very cheering, inasmuch as it will expedite your return home soon now, you have had a long fight of it, and must be very wearied and tired out, and I suppose you will enjoy a little quiet and peace of mind, well if you want quiet, you can get a full measure of 3 and more than you want for I think. I will and Alfred is no name for this place, if it were not for the young folks getting up some little picture over in curtilage, there would every thing else seem to be any thing young on, but Mr Gray handling looks around. Frank and George and the "Club" keep things a little lively. Frank thinks there never was just such another Bangs anywhere and George the same with his brother which I think is a good one. Near thanks you for her Gents and the many other presents you sent her. I hope you will not that I had departed of a few things to get them for the children for the Exhibition I got more than than cost for some and only for other I have sold very little as I see that people would try to skin one else, so I only disposed of what was only small for the children and shall hold on tight to the rest. The two little pairs are, Pink & Blue I got for $2.50 for, three pairs cost as one, they being No. 24 & 25 when we only take No 19 for one, and 21 for one got for 1/25 ch - in boots, some medium stock and striped. stockings all for small for any one, I got about 40 ch at Paris all around, some wool hose I sold in a bunch, the ship when you sent me the steel postboys as it was too small, I then sold and sold to my neighbor for 74, 50 in card and a pair of Corsets to Mrs Seely for $1.50 in Cash and the Lamby-wool hose to her also for Cash is all the Cash I could get for my things, so I propose keeping the other things as we can use them all, no one seems disposed to give full cost of anything, want all for nothing. Mrs Seely tried to buy some of my pink ribbon, and set her own price on it, I refused right pat told her I had just enough for my own use and none to spare. I have shutt up down on disposing of anything else. You speak dear Poppet in your letter of buying household furniture and a Piano, Buggy and Sewing machine in New York, I think at the present low state of Green back. It would be better⁵ to buy in New York than to bring all your glenbacks here, losing so much, risk you to pay all debts, and to live on. I would propose your buying a Sewing Paris a Sewing machine, a Howe straight needle and Shuttle table machine, second hand if you wish. Mrs Howard says that ^{the} Biggs straight needle and Shuttle Machine are the easiest managed and sew through anything.

You will please learn how to run it, so as to teach me. A table machine for what I want. A Biggs, a strong one and large seat to suit yourself. Crocker will be very acceptable at this time, whatever you can get second hand and good and firm, get it.

Heads how we can spare enough to pay freight, and better articles and more fast gun. Money than here as they will do much for when breakfasts up horse feeding. I do not want you to buy any shells, but will expect for the shells and them left them in summer with shells back and while for the children, and a wife for your next a week after you meet you can't out do not think of one in their respect, I may not think to mean about it. I know. It you find you money getting low, give it up away and will always have enough I think I would like to send George to school, but seem to be getting up and against him. The school is no good one for him, he is not learning anything and the others are still standing with the money school and only one teacher.

Do not seem to get any more with him, he is well, but what he can do and what he not buy all your money with some the boys to put it to be very hard to live on. I am glad you got Redway in a tight place perhaps he will for me more as he can be in long hole to get out of.
I hope you as much of a heart as he. I am glad you like Henry's work, it is well. The man changed, more I hope to see you with the man, your mother to and Blackburn. I would like to see her very much, give her my love and tell her to come to Spain I see. And say me a British when the return home, remember us and to Henry, give my love to John, and tell him I often think of & him and love him better than the rest of his relations. My love to Mrs Gibbs daughter, Mrs Drwin, and Mrs van Tassel, and last but not least by any means my love to Corinne and family. She has not last-ten yet to me. I am feeling better than I did a few weeks ago, I have not had my fixings for almost two months now, and expect when they do come on of bits be with a rush, that is what frightens me, and breaks me so. My face and back are almost clear from that breaking all the time, but I can bear that if other things

New York. July 14th 1895.

My Dear Wife,

I received yours of the 1st July yesterday, enclosing one from Misses Violet and Ellen, for all of which I am very thankful. I am glad to hear from some of the children and that you are feeling better and that they are well. You last contacted one from Frank so that I have heard from all of you within a short time with the exception of George, who I suppose is so engrossed with playing on his violin as not to be able to find time to write to his papa to thank him for it.

The sale of Niagara's home and lot was to have come off yesterday, but in consequence of the death of his wife he got the sale postponed, with my lawyer's consent, to the 20th of this month, before which time he hopes to be able to pay the amt of the mortgage due to time and me. I have no faith that he would do so. I believe it is merely to gain time and he may, perhaps, by some of the Court's success in obtaining a further judgment under and should he apply, my lawyer will object. I had made arrangements with the bank to loan first mortgage of $1000, which is in duty for possession, to have the property there subject to it, by agreeing to pay the interest and costs in case it was they immediately after the date when having furnished an order for money for the purchase and to sign to make by certificate the arrangement to in a week longer - The purchase price was for money of extra subject to the payment to $1000 more, which is payable May 1, 1850, when March 20th enjoyed to the purchase price. When the property was sold on the 20th, it shall be as if to the effect of 1850. with that demand by any means, but for the purpose of getting something more it is seen. If any one will give more than that they can have it. It cannot be a deficiency, after deducting costs, of above $1000, upon the said due and, to hold of interest the same made out of the estate money on the same time, if not sufficient out of the mortgage on the same in delivery. Order of however, in the spirit to have if upon in order to get more on the estate out of it be which down to our $1000, or any less during it shall have to make money to pay the costs remaining, shall immediately subject to payment of the $1000 mortgage. The order, Mr. Peck, is a master and in private place of them. He says the property is well worth $1000 than perhaps also worth it, and that shall be a reality at 1850. A gentleman attorney has been yesterday with in view of purchasing, and after the judgment, he has with the certificate. He is to have title to purchase the property, and some do do at the next date of office, he is that proceeds in accordance to the $1000 mortgage upon it. He talks with them also somewhat that proceeds of the value might remain, as he would not have interest at all for the money, because the gentleman because the purchase. Should he do so the property was sold for perhaps for enough or nearly enough to pay our claim and then that will be a certainty of getting the balance from the date of the purchase in, and there will be only a few hundred of dollars, Regency will quite like a case of action than have the purchase price I have explained this matter to you fully that you now understand the grounds of the purchase. He is if shall have to make money to pay the costs remaining, shall 1850. of course their name has also been if you shall rejoice whate'er the end.

On regard to matters connected with the settlement of the estate. Hannah, contrary to my expectation, signed the new agreement and the accompanying papers. She wished, however, to make an arrangement, so Henry informs me, that we should not dispose of the real property in the name of the estate and if no matter, till such time as things get to be better, but he knew what John and any mind were upon this subject, and therefore would not listen to her proposition. I suppose her lawyer ^{Reidway} told her that if she did not sign the new agreement as she could be compelled, under the old agreement, to sign the papers accompanying it.

The ^{new} agreement as signed by her remains in the hands of Reidway, he having instructions from her not to deliver them up until the instrument she gave me in about two years ago, securing to her the payment of interest on $5000 as long as she lives, is returned to her when she will endorse the amount of the $5000 upon it as a portion of her distributive share of the estate. I suppose this is strictly right though she had the assurance of Tom Riker that, if the papers were delivered to him, she should receive the instrument of course the more - and I have not listen to this - and I, John, Harry and I have been compelled to wait for our money

Mother intrusted the instrument to John, and wishing to retain possession of it herself, while living at Harriet, in case of accident.

The papers were signed by Harriet Saturday the 10th. John came down that day, but, owing to Peter being out of town till Monday, nothing could be done till then. When the objection to delivery was raised,

It so happened that Monday, John took a sudden disease to the country, down where in Jersey, where she was last summer. She expects to remain there a couple of months. Her health is very feeble. John says that she has not been so well as formerly since her last illness though she may recover and live yet for many years.

John returned Monday evening too late to go home for the instrument and besides he wished to advance to the sale which we expected to come off Tuesday. After the postponement he made his preparations and went home, promising to send the instrument down by a friend of his tomorrow

I would like to wind up everything, execute powers as possible and then go home - without the necessity of ever returning here to attend to any business connected with the estate.

Should it so happen that I am indisposed in my sick of this kind with you. I shall leave the management of it to you, return home, and come on here again, if absolutely necessary, when it is determined and a sale of the property is made. I shall probably receive from the persons who are to pay our debts, make us comfortable and keep us along till the real property can be sold. But how much better it would be to have all matters settled at once, sell the property, purchase the annuity and divide the balance. But enough of this I am sure I have written you enough about it. I wish however for you to understand matters, but

My dear mother I have no occasion to worry yourself in the least, as everything I consider is going

I have written several quite a long letter - but it contains nothing particularly interesting. With the truth is I have nothing else to write about but my own kind of affairs.

ways welcome - and am much obliged that I should - George, his wife and children were all well. I received a letter from the eldest of whom says that she will write to her mother.

She invariably expresses the solicitude for you, and says how badly you must feel on account of my prolonged absence - they think that it is outrageous for me to be detained here so long.

After dinner George and I took quite a long walk with his two girls, away beyond the Pine Stray, where we encountered a considerable number of Cupids, having recently come overland from California in their own conveyances - resembling more horses on wheels than anything dows of some of these carriage houses were set with ~~glass~~ stained glass, handblown Eng. One carriage in particular was finer than the others, being the abode & carriage of the queen of the Gypsies. Whilst we stood gazing, we saw one of the women mount the step ladder in front of this carriage. She was a fortune teller and following her a young man for the purpose of having his fortune told. The doors and windows were so dark that the crowd around might not hear, though the forms of those within might be seen faintly through the colored glass.

 A few minutes sufficed to inform him of his destiny, when he came out, his friends crowding around him to learn what it was. Then a young girl entered within the precincts of the goddess to hear what was her fortune, and so on. In this manner the gypsies gain a precarious kind of a living traveling from place to place - never sleeping in one place.

The time I retraced my steps to Alcañiz. Edith was delighted to see me. She explained to her my disappointment and how she had come to assist the return of her papa and mama from Church. The sat down together on the sofa in the parlor, and she told me all about her, her mama - that she was young & pretty - that she could play and sing so beautifully - & said she loved her mama so much! But how is that possible Edith when she you saw her for the first time only two days ago? She said she had heard Papa talk so much about her before he went to get her, and she found her so like what he said that though she came to the house but she did not go yesterday, yet I feel as though I had known her a long time and she had thinks a great deal of me. I am glad that the joy which the girl now feels ~~expresses~~ for her new mama may never be dispelled by grief and that the mutual attachment between the two may always continue.

I found Edith exceedingly entertaining for a young girl of her age being nearly 15 years old.

Dear Papa

Mamma received a letter from you dated 8th of Aug. and as we have not had a letter from you for some time we were all delighted to hear from you. Mamma has not been feeling well for some time. She is writing a letter to you now and so is Violet. The School Exhibition passed off very nicely. The room was trimmed very prettily and there was a great crowd there. After the Exhibition the friends of Miss Carroll and her scholars went over to her house and had a lovely little dance. I hope to see you home very soon as it has been such a long time since I have seen you. Nannie sends her love to you and says she ~~thinks~~ she will write to you today. I hope you enjoyed your Fourth of July in New York.

I cannot think of any thing more to write today but will try to write a longer letter next time. So I now close sending my love and kisses to you.

Dear Papa,

We received a letter from you yesterday dated 5th July and were happy to hear from you. I wrote to you some time last week but I have forgotten the date of it. I hope you are enjoying good health. We are all quite well at home. School will begin again on the first Monday in August. I am going to try and have my picture taken and I will send you one. Will you please send me some worsted all colors. I wish to make some mats for the bureau &c. Mama says that if you can get a good second hand Gttinger piano in good order for what you say you think you can get one for it do so.

send such things by steamer as the freight-overland is so heavy.

things to write about so I must bring my letter to a close.

Mamma received a letter from you last evening and we were all very glad to hear from you. But sorry to hear that you are having so much trouble in trying to settle up your business in New York. We all look forward to your coming home with pleasure and we trust that it will be soon. We are all well except Mamma who is not feeling very well to-day. It is so dull and quiet down here that it is hard to find anything to write about. I learned to play on Guitar I can play two or three times I like the Guitar very much or by it makes my finger sore for awhile and then they get very hard which I do not like much. We are having vacation now but school will reopen in two weeks. I wish that I could go to some nice school but as I know so little for my age I would be almost ashamed to go to a school where there are young girls of my age and wish know more than I. Several girls of this place are going to school in Los Angeles and when I hear them talk about going to school it makes me feel as if I ought to go to. The only amusement we have in Old Town is a dance once in awhile but it has been some time since the C. S. G. have given a dance they talk something about breaking up and begin again about Christmas. They are going to have a bazaar dress and needle ball the twenty second of this month which I would like to go to I think Ikama. Frank and ^{myself} ~~girl~~ if nothing happens between now and then. I would like you to send me some wools as I am crocheting some tidys for the parlor. I am crocheting a tidy made of rings joined together. I know Grand Father that this is a very short letter but hope you will excuse it as I said before it is so dull and quiet down here that it is hard to find anything to write about.

So I will close my letter by sending you my loving and many kisses and hope that it will not be long before we shall see you home again. I remain as ever your loving daughter

My dear Husband,

According to promise, I did not write you last Thursday, as I was taken sick, my cough having come on me suddenly, not having had them for two months past and have them still, nothing but pure blood coming from me, it makes me feel very weak, I cannot sit around much but can write you a few lines. I am sitting in the easy chair writing by the window. If I do not write well it will be because my eyeglasses are broken, the frame I mean, The glasses one of these days. I would nevertheless, dear poppets, keep

I want to see you so much and love you and be kind and good to you to make have gone through. You must be kind and treat out with kindness - and I am afraid it will all eat into your heart very much, but you must do it only so as to have some rest in the fu-you, and did not do as you might - married woman

San Diego, July 25th 1875
C. W. [unclear]

Dear Father:-

I received not long ago a letter from you, but having mislaid it, cannot answer it as well as though I had it before me. Your main point throughout the letter was, urging me to use most of my spare time in doing all that I can for my own advancement and progress. It is true that the greater amount of my time has not been improved as it should have been. Your letter to me has stirred up my mind; I have thought much of the importance of it, and will try and profit by it as much as I can. I am desirous in my own heart to rise in the world, and if I can ever get a fair start I will never come out of the small end of the horn. I have, most of the time since you left been engaged in pretty hard work, and when at home, after leaving New Town, I do not feel at all in the best of humor. On the other hand, (as it is at present, and will probably remain for a while) work is sometimes very "slack," which also discourages me, as I am willing to work, for I know the real importance of it. This also puts me "out of sorts," and take it altogether, I am not always in the best of spirits, and also in the mood of studying. But as it stands I will try and do all that I can to prosper by the example you set before me in your letter.

My average receipts for work during the past year and a half have not exceeded eleven (11) dollars a week, which is very small wages for one that has been working at ^a trade so long, and especially one that has served a three year and a half apprenticeship. I have been in the office a little over five years and one month

3) When you arrive home here I will make it "hot" for them.

We received to-day your last long letter to us, and in it you say a great deal, much more than I would like to answer and question. I hope that you will be successful in all the undertakings you have attempted. I think that if I had been in your place when Ridgway "stole" that money, I would not have spared one hour in having the "rascal" brought to justice and exposed through the columns of the papers.

Business is at present very dull in this place, some stores are doing a little better than others. There are a few new buildings in course of erection. They have completed the surveys of the San Diego river; but have not commenced work on it yet; and there are no prospects for commencement until after the coming winter, and we must suffer another deposit of trash from the river in our bay.

The weather here at present is delightful. We have occasionally some very warm days.

4) Before I go any further, I want to let you know that the "official" short hand reporter of the courts is here in San Diego, his name is George Keale. He offers to give lessons in short hand writing, and says that the course may be learned in from six to twelve weeks. His charges for the term are seventy-five dollars ($75). I should like very much to learn, but as the money is not convenient, I cannot possibly take lessons, though much I wish. He advertises to stay in San Diego two months, he has been here now two weeks, and probably if I should get an answer from you, his term will be very nearly up. A good opportunity has slipped by.

I send you a paper containing an account, of the sentence of the Indian "Manteca" convicted of the murder of the Greend family, which has created considerable ill feeling toward the officers of the Courts.

On Thursday evening July 22nd we attended in New Town, the grand repeat Calio Ball, of Fourth of July, which was a grand success.

I having a complimentary ticket I took the whole family. Fourth of July we had a grand time here. A procession, oration, etc., at the old barracks, fun of all kinds, dancing included, night and day. In the evening a grand Calio Ball at Hyatt's Hall, and by request it was repeated on July 22nd. The music was the best I ever heard, it consisted of a violin in the hands of Mr. Richard Kerren, probably you know him, as he spoke of you; a harpe in the hands of Fern Yanson, of Los Angeles, and Mr. Tom Johnson of this place. It was criticized as being the best music in the Southern part of the State, I never heard any better, or do not wish to hear any better, it suits me.

They are going to bring water in to New Town from the San Diego river. They will do it by placing an engine in the Mission valley, and pumping it upon the main canal to 6' through pipes, to a large reservoir on the mesa at the head of fifth street. The machinery, a part of it has arrived, and the rest will be here soon, they are going to put it in place immediately.

To-day being Sunday I took the opportunity of writing this letter to you, and hope to receive an answer soon. Glad to hear that Uncle Henry has arrived, ^{to him} regards.

All the family are well, and in good spirits, and expect you home soon, all send much love.

As I have nothing more to write about, I will close my letter, and will always remain,

Your true and affectionate son,

Francis Newton Whaley.

New York, August 1st 1845.

My Dear Wife.

I had the pleasure to receive last evening your letter of the 20th and those of the children of the same date. I had been expecting to hear from you since Monday, and had supposed, as was really the case, that the delay was owing to your having been sick again. I am glad that it was for some other cause. The letters from the children pleased me very much particularly those of Nannie and George, finding that they can write tolerably well if they will only try. Receiving letters from you all relieves me from loneliness. You promised to write again on the 29th, so that I shall look forward to its receipt on the 9th, one week from tomorrow. You acknowledge mine of the 8th July. I have since written on the 14th, 19th, enclosing one pair Kid gloves, 20^{cts}, enclosing five letters for Nannie, 29th, enclosing P.O. order No 99,554 for $50. and the 30th enclosing 6^{pr} Kid gloves, 2^{pr} white thread gloves, 2 gents neck ties, 1 cambric handkerchief 1 piece court plaster and 1 whistle to imitate birds. This last letter was in a registered package about 5 in long 3 wide and 2 thick. I hope you will receive it as well as the money, and the other safely. I'll the girls that I will get for them the certificates. I am glad to hear that George Hunt and Manning like their instruments and don't do much more practicing. When William was with us about purchasing them, he said that they were exactly what we all well as other things so that they may be very presented. Their advantages here have not been very great to be sure very long. When the price things - more often the instrument, and the set in the case, I am not sure were very good, but these notes in the package, and the things especially for the boys and girls & especially the boys & girls. I did not buy it in time, the boys had to be paid before things, only of uncertain quality, and I thought they were as good as any that we could get. Things especially for the boys and girls & especially the boys & girls. We can however these sent us and good enough either for their guitars or boys & girls. The students to inform me and I will purchase them, the boys to be had, as I can get them much cheaper than at the music store at Worcester than they can buy them for them. They will try these sent in the package, and let me know immediately if they are not good.

I will be glad to see you and as you are coming, oh the children, as much. I have not been able to deliver the message to the children. What is the reason of the good? When nearly everybody goes out of the the girls have gone too, consequently, I do not always to what any I could not do so. I am easier in my mind than I was, during my way - more clearly, than I did. I have not got rid of my handwriting. It does not trouble me any, though in time of practice I will be allowed to remain. I have been writing in the college now till I got over some of my hardest and and was easier. I shall take the necessary proceedings to send him down by commencing an experiment. I will return them as soon as I find out the way of the boys to let you know what was done that day about the sale of the children's property, but as I had the part are enclosing the letter under my letter and I do than way no performance before the date, but the time they a prohibition, recommend to be in the writing for nearly the amount of the purchase was they would be gone a check for 1000 dollars the following day, which they said they were to pay at the bank, but the boys had taken the date under my eye. My absence prevented of coming to an agreement for the date, in the 21st of the date to the place. The amount of the judgment including costs and interest to August 10th was $4,205.⁰⁰ They agreed to bid it off at $4,200.00 and to pay the difference in cash. They made a bid for the amount and then being no other it was knocked down to them subject to the first mortgage of $6,000 the net of costs to may 1st 1886 the accruing int from then to Aug 10th 1886 making the sale of the property equal to $10,476.41 - the purchaser pays auctioneers commission for selling. A William McGinnis bought the property. This he is about $2000 He gave his check for $600 on account, the referee becoming responsible for the balance of the 10th of Aug. The understanding is that it is to be paid by the 10th of Aug, but should he make till the 20th he will be allowed till then but if not paid then, the money will be forfeited and the property resold and in case of deficiency exceeding the 10th paid the purchaser will be held responsible. The balance of the purchase money is to be paid the 20th of August or previously resold.

Whether all this is genuine or not, is impossible for me to say. I am of the belief that this man McGinnis has bought the property in the interest of his father, and will hereafter stand as father & guardian of the family. This is as long as I get my money, I don't

Case: I am still in uncertainty regarding my money and shall be till such time as you it. They may have purchased for the purpose of gaining time, believing that they will be able to raise the money. If they cannot raise the balance, that paid will be forfeited. It will be that much better off $425.57 towards the payment of costs and in case of a resale I can buy accordingly.

If a resale will require to advertise then weeks and then may possibly be delay beyond that time before the sale actually takes place. I hope however the transaction is a genuine one and that I shall get the whole amount of money due without selling the chattel mortgage or including claim of families or any. Had they not bought the property, my intention was to have bid it up to $3,000 or $3,600 above the amount of first mortgage, costs interest &c. then I must have disposed of ^{sold the property} Ridgeway, sold the chattel mortgage and the farm before getting my money. Then buying it at the price they have, provided they comply, saves me all this trouble. I do hope that they will pay, and let me see the end of this trouble.

I don't write you again about the 10th or 20th when I hope to be home something definite. I have done nothing but the $250.00 cash on hand, and have not been obliged to borrow to pay the cash reg. I should have to know the money as I may be compelled to use the cash of the property surrendered, I don't know what I really require it, but I'll do better to keep it in case that I should.

I write to you & you make that Howard was writing, and the execution of the agreement have the delivery of property but by another, the had ing somewhere a partner that under advice of Howard, who has been by as doing his part of the law the first part that had agree, and the other of the thing the cost of the whole upon it.
 It has been lately advised by for the purpose of getting in financial of Howard, having the management of the thing, the greater partners of the year which the trust may allow Howard.

It would be possible perhaps the deed to give them the interests as he shall not oppose it, but they had Howard to put it as equal interests as possible. He will help him to get what she wants and do their will be no unnecessary delay with it of these things the old servants have to be aware the cost. These are out of the property and she will have to bear her proportion of them. After you had that Henry had been to the house of a purchasing the quality of the position taken by Howard, it he represented Howard's position to be, all of which is what Howard has eyes, after seeing both parties confidence in Howard, the other had Howard to indicate the purchasing for the her language at tried with him. She has never been in place several occasions ago - She had never to give her. She had seen Howard since, but it appears that she had not. When I saw her last evening to she has again to know the result. She says that Howard had not been to see her since the day of the agreement to the 28th any more. She had she acquired the one price or her share and that her husband has been to see her this way make to see him. She says he has to see Howard - and Howard will as again Howard's seeing to see Howard again. As matter in that regard Howard precisely as they did. Our advantage in Neville's going last evening was to repeat and to impress upon him what his previous conversations adding them to something which we had not thought of previous to his going.

The first time.

He told her that if she persisted in the partition suit we were all ready to help her with it, to get through as expeditiously as possible, that the time would not exceed six months and that the ready expense would be borne by her company with Mr. Orms. He also told her that John and I would consent for the purpose of this business to meet her at any place she might name other than her own house for the purpose of deciding what was best to be done. The appointment of an agent or attorney to attend to every thing with her course might all be fruitless and that we might fix upon a minimum price to sell the property at - that though we were anxious to sell we did not propose to sacrifice. That if we could not get the price we might agree upon now, we would wait till Fall or next Spring. We were in hopes to have heard his decision last night, as John will be down tomorrow, and if favorable, we might all have met to decide what was for the best. John Henry and I are pulling together in this matter. & whenever you do act he consents to do whatever Henry and I agree to. We have Mr. Riker engaged as our counsel should the partition suit go on, but if withdrawn should disinterested counsel, (either Riker or Ridgeway) will be chosen. One of the objects we have in view, in case of withdrawal of suit and entering into any agreement with Harriet is to get rid of Ridgeway entirely, so that he shall not make another dollar out of the estate or property in any way, though nothing would prevent Harriet from employing him as her private counsel. I hope in my next to be able to write you some thing more definite.

My letters are long and all about one matter, which though undoubted interesting, and not so pleasing to you, as if written upon other papers. My mind is upon the matter about what I write, the paper most of my thoughts, than

We passed, not a few leading the Grand rather more than we ever owned, at the corner of 41 St. Scarcely any impediment whatever in the way of building has been made thereabouts, they and the surrounding property are as densely crowded with houses as they were thirty years ago and they held at almost fabulous prices. Now people hold them and when they intend to improve them is a mystery to me. The taxes and costs of interest yearly upon each lot would pay the rent of a respectable house in the lower portion of the city. We passed next that I recognized the deaf & dumb asylum - then that was Burnham Place

 Hudson side - It is in two plots, both surrounded by a grand stone fence and known to the extensive corporation to which it belongs. My Uncle John P. is buried here I recollect having seen the monument many years ago. The Boulevard extends at present only to 154th St. when we passed across the old home of Audison the great manufacturer to the ~~right~~ left, and went along our block striking the 10th Ave. along which to 167 or 168th St. then I dismounted from the stage, lighted my pipe and walked along 10th Ave. which is graded and flagged probably 18 or 14 years ago. I came to a hotel which is considerably above and nearly on a level with the High Bridge. Now I regaled myself with a Lager beer and then saw down the same ladies along the Shaw with women. This is a particular and then I came to my room. I have written a long account of my days journey for the childrens amusement.

I think Frank and Mamma went with me to High Bridge when we were here in 1868. I think you were not along with us and Mamma may not have been either.
Must now retire. Will send you this tomorrow - May have a word or two more to say, but in case I do not, I will say I thank you for your generous letter.
Hope you will continue well. Send you all my love. Hope to see you soon. Will write some time before the end of the week or as soon as I receive your next. Tell the children to be good. Kiss them all.

With assurance of my unchanged love,
From your devoted husband

Send the measures. Send the ages of the children. My rheumatism is better for the past ten days. I have scarcely felt it, probably because I have a harder exercise. The weather generally has not been understood by women, at least I have not felt it so. perhaps it is because I am not compelled to take long walks, as was the case the first summer I was here. Today has been cool and cloudy, threatening rain but did not get quite so far, sprinkling occasionally.

Monday. A light & rainy disagreeable day.
I am going now to breakfast and then to meet John and Henry at 10 o'clock. I do not suppose that I will be able to write any more. I have enclosed a pair of fresh colored gloves. I have only two more pairs to send (no 6, the others are 7, 7 1/2, 8, 8 1/2 - all too large for you). I may buy a few more pairs before leaving. I suppose your number is 6 1/2. I must

New York August 12th 1875.

My Dear Wife:

Your of 27th July received last Monday. Yours of July 29 with P.O. note No 99,500 for $500 - on the 30th in a package containing 6 pairs kid gloves - and cut the 2nd pair out with one pair kid gloves. Aug 5th I sent you pattern book of Sewistie machine Co - I am glad that the children are well and that you are better - I have been wishing to write you several times since you last letter but have been busy - you having a "Domestic" machine, the things you wish me to get for Mrs Hallack. Sent for Trunk? George and Lavin sent for you and the girls. I do not think I should have written to day but for the evening some boys detaining me at an opera saloon on the Bowery. I thought you might possibly be unwilling to hear from me, and as I might not have the time to do so for a day or two's I am improving the time given me by the rain. Will get the machine off as soon as I can get the parts from the factory and pack them with the things purchased and take which I have had on hand for some time, probably the first of next week. Will send you the W.P. and Lucia as soon as they are. The articles will add considerably to your assortment.
I would have sent more but my hands are very full.

indeed, and will be his for the money coming to me from Hedgecote. I wrote you of the case of the property on the 23rd & on the 22nd over the overpage, as I had 1893 $420 unpaid the balance to be paid on the 12th or 22nd of the month. I do not feel sure that it will be all away but I am afraid that to gain more time, I shall have the $420 paid into the register which will be sufficient to cover the expense of interest, so that I shall not have anything to pay on a matter of the public if necessary. I hope that I shall get any money on the 22nd of and have no further trouble with him. I wish that I had been told money (200) and that I had written to him to buy the things for the school, the reading machine and all of which I think you want very much. I will show him & tell him that I have bought the books, and that I have written to you about the things for the school and the and have done this for long and that. The school will be as large as the last or contain as many things, but you will find me I don't refuse and I am afraid I am afraid I don't know what I have not and the long. I shall send you an account of the things as so to be able to get your cheque properly. There also send as much of any surplus clothing and things that I have and I am afraid. Now will take care of everything for me and that the things are to the best possible use. I think that you will like the "Donner's" machine which you have bought and and early use. It is all complicated and you must be I think with the books of arithmetic and you must be machine that you will find no difficulty in learning to use it and teaching the children how to use it. The machine is I should really go on. It is "Donner's" machine, that is the stand and the feet, and especially the feet in use.

I think and long will likely take to put it together and then all that is necessary will be to put the machine in place and top of the table and connect it with the table with the feet.
I should like to see the "Donner's" machine. It is said not to be as easy to use as the "Donner's". It is said very much I have found all day. I should suppose that you get many books to day. It is now 6 pm. after writing him and I have I have for business. You are not to be I have about the matter connected with the affairs of the state. I have been to Dr. Hain's dinner home, and I him and tell him that I have not yet seen the register and consequently cannot decide as to withdrawing the position which is mentioned by him. I think that it is not his intention how to withdraw. Henry will not go again to see her.
I do not know. I don't know how to have seen the register or to withdraw the suit she certainly could have done so since the 28th of last month. The time of service of summons on the uj will expire the 17th of the month, before then we will employ counsel, apply for copy of complaint and then have twenty days to file answer. Neither John nor I have yet been served with summons but will probably be in the course of a few days. The object in employing counsel will be (I think) the complaint contain nothing but what we may allow, to expedite the suit as much as possible and to prevent Ridgway from receiving a large commission. It will require from first to six months at least to bring the suit to a termination & wind up the business by sale of the property. Mr. R. does not think R. can possibly prolong it beyond that time if the suit is simply for partition of the property, but will better be able to tell after seeing the complaint. I do not propose to remain here, shortly after the receipt of my answer, from Ridgway I shall be on my way home. I may have to come on a gain to attend to matters. We will have them in the hands of Baker and a power of attorney with John. We would like to have the suit withdrawn. Last week, Harriet, acting under Ridgway's advice is having everything run on her way. We are powerless to prevent her. But she will run the day for following Ridgway's advice. She hopes to prevent or rather to suspend the sale of the property. It shall finish it and the probability is that it will be sold January or February, might a very unfavorable time for the sale of our estate, and as it must be sold for cash the daughter of the property will be terrible indeed, but if she can stand it, we can too. Not enough of this.

John came down this morning bringing with him a summons served upon him in the Court of the Washington Life Insurance Co against Mrs S. Ridgway, the wife of John B. The Ridgway and others in fulfillment of the first Mortgage ^{of $10,000} on Ridgway's farm in Jersey. We are made parties having a third mortgage for any deficiency or mortgage on Brodkey's property. Ridgway's creditors are after him hard. We have taken no action in the matter, as the farm will not probably sell for more than enough to pay encumbrances, some $13 or 14,000. Besides our claim, which would come in last. We consider the Brodkey's property and chattel mortgage ample security or nearly so. Should the present sale of the property be consummated we would then be without beyond a doubt. Some suggested that the foreclosure of this mortgage might have been brought by Ridgway in the purpose.

 evidently the dirt is as old as the dirt of the dirt Ridgway is a shrewd lawyer and never enters indeed when suitably free from them, and to be to get my own.

How Samuel can be detected by him is beyond my

It has been said that he can prevent the dirt of

Dear Father

It was my intention to write to you the time Mama but as my letter was not finished I was unable to do so. We are all well and I hope that you are the same. School has commenced and I am very glad of it. I am getting along nicely in my studies this term I have made up my mind to study hard I have commenced Algebra, Composition, and Word Analysis, all of which I like very well especially Algebra. The only lesson that I find hard is intellectual Arithmetic which I cannot understand. Mrs Wallack gave Mama a very pretty Snow Basket that is a basket made of muslin to.

Friend Tom

Your letter of the 9th came at hand today and as usual I hasten to reply. I must congratulate you on meeting with such success as regards your Law Suit, and hope you will soon enjoy all the comforts of life, as for myself I allow I make out to any of the either with money or not. But we are differently situated, I am with a family & the wife writes with, in the classic language of the Chinooks & Indian Halls "Kone" I would have been pleased to have seen you up here, when it rained 9 months in the year. But if you have a better country which I am well aware you have, stay by all means, I speak of Mail Orders You have one and a Vermilion. But looks at the town you would think that the inhabitants had all fled for better things, the fact this Northern Pacific R.R. is a "Walk" but it is convenient for the Victoria people to run over into Oregon I am now busy packing & catching Salmon for the Portland Company.

We will put up about the Howard Barnell, and we think that as Quakers we can realize $5.00 per acre, I will try to get well started into Canning Beans this Fall as well as fishing and then stand you under, I wonder I have my health and the mind is in the right quarter I will start for New York for a visit and on the way drop down anyway you good folks at Mrs. Steger Today I am trying myself as there are lots of Northern Canadians on the beach and lots of squaws and naturally being susceptible to the charms of the fair sex I feel as if there is no objection but to be reduced, This shows there is vigor left in the Old Man this, I am in hopes you have called on my sister Kate as she was so desirous that you should.

You must give my distinguished regards to - Mr. Whaley and to Mrs. Susan Whaley not forgetting my old friend & sister Mary Brewster the lady of the Snow King and the one that accused me of being on the Squaw I'll be guilty over no cheating memory will bring back the getting of it. Write often in haste

Dear Father

As I wrote the last time Mamma wrote I hardly know what to write about therefore I will only write you a few lines I have just finished writing to Grandma and Aunty. We are ~~was~~ all well and I hope you are the same I would like to see you again and I hope it will not be long before we all shall have the pleasure of seeing you soon. You will find a great difference between N. Y. and S. D. as the latter has become so quiet and dull since you left. Wednesday is the election then I suppose it will be lively. We have a very nice library at school and a globe also. I wish I could write you a good long letter but as I am at a loss to know what to write about I will have to stop.

The children send their love and anxiety

My Dear Sir

I was on the road last a long while. On my return to my hotel in the evening of the same day after having at 11 o'clock a communication from Mr. Littlejohn, Indiana rich informing me that in the matter of T. Miller & Redman, he was anxious to be called in and that he would like to telegraph to you and to be present in his office to make an assignment of the judgment and challenge mortgage to William Hadden the purchaser who had purchased and paid 10% upon the property at the sale. I was much pleased that you was as I thought a prospect for returning home soon. It had the effect of relieving mine in spirit which for some time previous had been in despondence, and I hope you will find that business I was able to get into a few days but thought it best never to speak to matter of substance (as there is a chance of having been disappointed if not) either completely or not at all however - because the papers which in the had already prepared - it seems to me felt would make him within his power to say in his letter what he pleased The Spectator says that his name has been in, and has had been advised by Rodgers to purchase the property for him in London, and to direct that the title is not to be run down but merged in a year save that a piece of his share was not he saw he had no objection to purchase that he had returned in 1878, perhaps perhaps that it would save the trouble of the purchase money and make a large sum for the purchase of the his conduct, and his great expectations should it not be paid the same would be that of a man who has the Magnanimity said to be a responsible man, who be held for any difference. Magnanimity is a virtue which is so rare a virtue of humanity. It has the faculty generally of taking in his choice of people knows he will take in himself. He will be that much with him. I should wish some of them, I should be very anxious to be appointed if I did not mind that day is Sunday, and is well able to do much more than I can now. But I do not know if you will certainly. In relation to your will - no ^{concern} ~~concern~~ - you shall intention to have gone to Harriet, she did not wish to go there, but circumstances having made her arrangements for her with Mr. Pratt, when she was at board, she was for the time being compelled to go to Harriet. She says probably in the course of a few days she will be at Pratt's again.

She probably will be more contented my brother, than any one else, makes her mind to stay in the settlement.

glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same.
I have not much news to write at present.

you more often in the future.
I love you very much and hope you will write soon. I am your affectionate

San Diego Sept. 17th 1875

As mama has written to you to-day I thought that I would write a few lines to let you know that we are all well and I sincerely hope that you are the same. San Diego is very dull and quiet just now. To-day they had a funeral Mrs Connors mother died in her eight-sixth year I did go to the funeral but Frank and myself went to the house last evening and stayed till about eleven. I suppose that you know that Mr Estudillo has been elected State Treasurer. The C. S. C's gave him a very nice surprise party not long ago and we had a splendid. To-day we were looking for the case but as it has not come we look for it on the next Steamer. The C. S. Co's are going to have another Christmas tree and I am making presents I hope that you will be home to enjoy the fun. People are beginning to think that you are never coming home. We have a very nice library at school among the books are the Waverley Novels - Mr. Scott's poetical works. Moore's poetical works, and a great many other interesting books all of which I intend to read. We have had very warm weather for the last two or three days but this afternoon is cool and pleasant. The children all send their love and many kisses.

I would like to write a longer letter dear Father but as I cannot think of any thing more I will, by sending you my love and many kisses from your loving and affectionate daughter

Anna Amelia Whaley

Good-bye dear Father.

New York, Sept-25th 1878

Dear Mother,

I expect to leave for home soon and if agreeable to you it will be a satisfaction and pleasure to me to see you before I go not on any business, but to bid you good bye. I have none other than the kindest filial feelings towards you and wish to express the same towards you. You can appoint any time and place you choose other than at Harriet's house.

From your affectionate Son

Dear Wife,

I sent a P.C. from Suspension Bridge yesterday, but as the view of the Falls was so unsatisfactory I decided to remain here one day to give me an opportunity of visiting the Falls, which I have done. I am about to take the train for Chicago and have written this to have it ready to mail from there, enclosing duplicate B/L of case shipped the 4th, also a list of things in my trunk, checked to Omaha, things in two baskets which I have with me and an and about my person. I send these as a precautionary measure in case of accident but I hope to be with you about the time you get this. I may stay one day at Chicago & on at Salt Lake. I expect to be with you about the 16 or 17th. I must close now. The bell rings.
Yours as ever

Mr. J. O. S. / 45.

San Francisco Oct. 12th 1875

My dear Anna
I have just received your kind letter. I have just got over another attack of the acute Rheumatism it leaves me so weak my back is so very sore that I can hardly drag along, and poor Amelia is so worried taking care of me in the household that I am afraid she is discouraged. Her health is good enough if she had less fatigue. The Oakland lessons fatigue her very much, and the few scholars in the city are so

It was not all in my mind, my mother gathered about that is. I had not seen her for weeks but gazing at the times some strange I heard Amelia's voice look's wrong and I do wish she could have felt a change for some time. I do not know why God keeps me here so long a sudden to others & to myself I find it very hard to finish my journey. Amelia often says: 'God will take care of me in my old age?' I tell her her recovery & pieces will be well off & will do for her what they could not do for their poor Grand-mother; it's a sad thing for her to think of last Saturday I was sick a week Miss Smith's father had not seen her for a year & I heard Amelia's explanation a bit greatly surprised; 'It is that poor old man's thinking of you then and was sure it was yours was that I came with I should say with disappointment & saying I shall never see you again! Dear Grand-mother you must come as soon as it is possible & it seems to me it will do me - I demand good & long to see Grand-mother. I tell you I can do much for her & with his consent I would like to see her & tell her since his father's death & I have not looked at the body since he will find them all these things & I

New York, December 21st 1875

My dear old friend Tom:

Without any of your long looked for letters to answer, I write to ask what has caused your long silence. I have been waiting to hear of your safe arrival, to write you a long letter giving you my doings since you left. I received an official letter from the P. O. signed by your wife, acknowledging a letter I had never mailed, but presume you did. Well I am only going to give you a short note now to enquire if you have written me, and are waiting a reply. My family are pretty well, Mrs Lord asks every day about you, and thinks you must be sick or we would hear from you. I bought my house at last, a fine three story from stone house in Hall Street opposite St James Church, and shall move between February and April. I am now busy again with my "Christmas tree" and think of you. Hoping you will enjoy yours this year.

Feeling that without a good excuse you do not deserve this letter I shall bring it to a close by sending my kind regards to your dear Wife and family.

Your sincere friend
Geo. D. Puffer
