being marked and numbered as per margin, and to be delivered in like order and condition (the dangers of the seas and elements excepted,) at the steamer's tackle at her anchorage in said Port of San Diego unto A. S. Anderson or to the lighters belonging to the said Port of San Diego. The goods to be at the owner's risk as soon as unhooked from said steamer's tackle, and to be delivered and received, without regard to weather, immediately on arrival of the steamer, on payment of freight at the rate of Twenty per ton, with one per cent. prime and average.

In Witness Whereof, the master or purser of said steamer hath signed these bills of lading, all of this tenor and date, one of which being accomplished, the others to stand void. On obtaining the owner's, lighterman's, or drayman's receipt for said goods, this bill of lading to be cancelled.

Dated in San Francisco, the thirteenth day of December 1866
