LITTLE WILLIE.

But yesterday this glowing world seemed full Of life and beauty, light and levelness,
And now 'tis empty, cheerless, chill and sad,
So changed, so darkened by one joy the less.
My sweet, my pretty one, how couldst thou die,
With dear delicious life this world of ours,
Thou winning was thing, leaving it in gloom,
From noon to night changed in a few sad hours?

I see no beauty in the glowing sun,
Thy smile is frozen in its early Spring;
Since thy sweet voice's prattle has grown still,
The linnets' merry songs no pleasures bring.

I looked to Heaven in thy pure azure eyes,
I heard its whisper in thy pleasant tone,
But sight and ear and heart are empty now,
And like thy cradle, desolate and lone.

Is this dull earth above thy death-sealed lids, That lies between thee and our yearnings fond,
A bar eternal, or a curtain screen,
While light ineffable is bright beyond?

Give me the Faith to pierce this guise of death,
That Hope may see beyond this chilling cloud,
And Love triumphant on its tireless wings
Mount to the loved and lost who rest with God.

San Francisco,

April 13th 1863

Gentlemen,

I have carefully examined the Abstract of Messrs Gillespie & Gray of the Title of One hundred Vara Lot number Two hundred and ninety.

According to that Abstract the Title is good, save and except the following defects;

1st - Tax Certificate, issued to George Mychoff, under Tax Sale of December 22nd 1860.

2nd - Defective description in Deed from A. Goldbrough Jones to Walter Ringgold.

3rd - Mortgage from Walter Ringgold to A. Goldbrough Jones to secure payment of $11,000.

4th - Suit of Emily Casement vs. Walter Ringgold and others.

5th - Suit of Jane Phillips vs. A. Goldbrough Jones and others.

As to 1st defect; Executions are being made by Messrs Patterson & Stow as Attorneys for Walter Ringgold to procure outstanding Tax Title and with every prospect of success.

As to the 2nd defect; This is unimportant.

As to the 3rd defect; This mortgage must be released.

((As to the 4th & 5th defects; The accompanying letter from Messrs Patterson & Stow shows there will be no expenses of litigation from these sources.))

In my opinion the Suits of Emily Casement and Jane Phillips will be defeated.

Upon the whole, if Walter Ringgold is now in actual possession of the premises in question, and will give a full Warranty Deed, I advise the carrying out of the contract of purchase.

Respectfully,
Wm. McMillan

Dear Sir -

I am the possessor of your pay accounts for the months of March and April 1862 amounting to the sum of $212⁵⁰/₁₀₀. Your resignation from the Service, dated March 1st 1862, prevents to the time of either becoming due, I could not collect the money from Maj Ringgold P. M. as, doubtless ^{you expected it should} ~~was your expectation~~ at the time of receiving it from me. Learning of your resignation, I naturally expected you to call upon me to reimburse me the amount advanced, or to make some other satisfactory arrangement, but failing to do so, I instituted enquiries, to inform myself of your residence and only learned it very recently which will account for my not having sooner addressed you - Having taken so much trouble I trust you will not disappoint me in my expectations but please return these accounts of yours - They have caused me great inconvenience, having borrowed the money as you must well remember of Mason & Co, for the purpose, to accommodate you. My means are too slender not to feel a loss of this kind very heavily. I trust to your honor as a gentleman you will speedily forward the amount, which probably at the time of your departure was inconvenient for you to pay and to which circumstances alone I attribute you not having called upon me —

Dear Sir,

Will you please purchase for me a Gene Nideing Whip for a Lady, and send it to me by express.
If it cost more than the enclosed amount I will send you the balance.

There is no time at this place and it is dull enough here for a month.

Respectfully
Lawrence M. Sherman
