To Hannah Town Crane

In every joy there is a pain.
As sharp as rose a thorn is;
But shall the brightest rose we see Beneath a cloud it borne:

By rain and dew and smiles of day
The earth is made more bright:
And clearer are the twinkling stars That gem the darkest night.

Then let me fold my hands in prayer And take the bitter cup.
Then shall I see the angel hand And with the angels sup.

Dear Sir.

I saw Mr McCahill and have seen your letter. He went with me to see the Surrogate, and unfortunately found him out - Mr McC was going to Cuba, the absence two weeks, but said he would try to see Mr H. this evening before his departure. I think the decision can be expedited Mr McC, being quite interested from of the Surrogate; but probably nothing can be known from him until early in April -

As soon as I hear anything will let you know. - Meantime do nothing. I have not been able to be of more service to you.
I am dear Sir.

Yours truly

Dear Sir,

I am going to Springfield by the 4.15 P.M. boat. I leave you some change. Will be at my room, between 8 and 9 P.M. & would like to see you.

Meantime, please call on Madame Mears and find out from her what amount of deduction she made in bill, if she will take $100. or even $130. (Should you cannot get her to say less) & tell her I shall send by you tomorrow a cheque in settlement without the further intervention of lawyers. Tell her I may come to see her, but had to go to the country today & that I have no ill-will towards her, or her school, & that all the trouble was occasioned by her Collector who it seems was her own son. Please do this this P.M.

Monday, Nov. 2/74

In the name of God, Amen.

I, Edward T. Young, of the City of New-York, by occupation a tea broker, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, but in view of the uncertainty of life, do make publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all other and former wills by me made.

First

I give devise and bequeath all of my property both real and personal, of whatsoever consisting and wheresoever situate, to my executrix and executors hereinafter named: To have and to hold the same unto them, the survivors and survivor of them and their successors.

In Trust nevertheless to and for the following uses and purposes, that is to say: I authorize and direct my said executrix and executors to convert into money my real estate, and such of my personal property as may not at the time of my decease consist of money or securities, by sale or otherwise, either at public or private sale, at such time or times, for such price or prices and upon such terms as they my said executrix and executors and the survivors or survivor of them may deem best, receive the proceeds thereof and invest the same in good bond and mortgage or bonds and mortgages, or unencumbered real estate in the City of New-York, or in other good and safe securities, receive the interest, dividends, income and profits thereof for and during the life of my said wife and pay over such interest, dividends, income and profits to my said wife for and during her life for her own support and for the support, maintenance and education of my children, subject however to the provisions hereinafter contained.

Upon the death of my said wife I give devise and bequeath all the said residue and remainder of my property to my children then living and to the descendants of such of them as may have died leaving lawful issue per stirpes and not per capita, share and share alike. But in case all my children should die before the death of my said wife or before the termination of the trust as hereinafter provided without leaving lawful issue, then upon the death of my said wife I give and bequeath to my niece Nellie Warner, her executors, administrators and assigns Five Thousand Dollars of said residue and remainder of my property and the balance of said residue and remainder I give devise and bequeath to my father Thomas Young his heirs executors administrators and assigns forever.

Second. Should my youngest child however, or in case of his death the survivors or survivor of them reach the age of twenty five years during the life time of my said wife the trust hereinbefore created shall terminate upon my said youngest child or in case of his death the survivors or survivor of them so reaching the age of twenty five years notwithstanding my said wife may then be living and thereupon and in that case I revoke all the provisions hereinbefore contained and give devise and bequeath all the said residue and remainder of my property to my said wife and to my child or children then living and to the descendants of such of them as may have died leaving lawful issue per stirpes and not per capita share and share alike.

Third. In case either or any of my children should die before the termination of the said trust either by the death of my said wife or otherwise without leaving lawful issue, his her or their share or shares shall go to the survivors or survivor of them and the descendants of such of them as may have died leaving lawful issue per stirpes and not per capita share and share alike.

Fourth. The provisions in this will contained in favor of my wife Corinne Young are in lieu of dower.

Fifth. I hereby authorize and empower my said executrix and executors and the survivors and survivor of them to sign and execute acknowledge and deliver all such conveyances, leases, bills of sale and instruments under seal or otherwise as they may deem proper or that may be necessary to carry any of the provisions herein contained into effect.

Sixth. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my beloved wife Corinne Young executrix and my friends William E. Curtis, counsellor at law and C. C. Reynolds, merchant, and B. Maverick lithographer of the City of New York, executors of this my will.

In Witness whereof, I the said Edward T. Young have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal, at the City of New-York, the Twenty — day of April, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy four.

In the presence of

Be it known that the foregoing instrument consisting of this and the one preceding half sheet was at the date thereof, subscribed, sealed, published and declared by the said Edward T. Young the testator therein named, as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

LEASE.

H. Austice & Co., Stationers, 22 Nassau St., N.Y.

This Indenture, made the Seventeenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy four Between Edward T. Young of the City of New York of the first part and Helen L. Le Blanc of said City of the second part Witnesseth, That the said party of the first part hath letten and by these presents doth grant, demise, and to farm let, unto the said party of the second part, the dwelling house situated on the Southerly side of Twenty Ninth Street, and known by street number Four (4) East Twenty Ninth Street in the City of New York; (together with the Furniture therein contained which is more particularly described in Schedules, hereto annexed, marked A & B. The parties of the first part reserve the right to remove any or all the furniture & other articles enumerated in said Schedule B at any time after the expiration of the first years and the party of the second part hereby consents to the removal of the same) with the appurtenances, for the term of One Year from the First day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy four at the yearly rent or sum of Three Thousand Dollars, payable monthly in advance, also the Excise Certificate for 1874 in regard thereto with the consent of the said party of the second part to a continuation or renewal of this Lease at an agreed rent, and upon the same terms and conditions in all respects for the further period of One Year after the expiration, viz: from the first day of May 1875 to the first day of May 1876 if desired by the said party of the first part upon giving three months notice in writing of the intention so to do to the said party of the first part. The said rent to be paid in equal monthly payments. $3250 in advance. And it is agreed that if any rent shall be due and unpaid, or if default shall be made in any of the covenants herein contained, then it shall be lawful for the said party of the first part to re-enter the said premises and the same to have again, to re-possess and enjoy.

And the said party of the second part doth covenant to pay unto the said party of the first part the said yearly rent as herein specified.

And the said party of the second part doth further covenant, that she will not assign this lease, nor the term hereby granted, or any part thereof, nor let or underlet the same, nor make any alterations therein without the written consent of the said party of the first part, or his agent, under penalty of forfeiture and damages, and also that she will not occupy or use the said premises, or any part thereof, nor permit the same or any part thereof to be used or occupied for any purpose other than for a strictly respectable dwelling house, under the like penalty: and also that she will permit the said party of the first part, to enter the said premises at all reasonable hours during the day time to inspect the condition thereof; and on and after the first day of February next preceding the expiration of the term hereby granted, she agrees to allow a notice "For Sale" or "Let" to be affixed on a conspicuous part in front of said house, and remain so affixed, without molestation, and will show said premises at all reasonable hours during the day time to any person wishing to purchase or hire the same— And it is understood that the party of the second part, have the privilege of renting the rooms furnished, or for Physician or Dentist office.

And that at the expiration of the said term the said party — of the second part will quit and surrender the premises hereby demised, in as good state and condition as reasonable use and wear thereof will permit, damages by the elements excepted. It being understood that during the meantime the said party of the second part shall keep the interior of said premises, and the furniture in good repair; and the said Landlord shall keep the exterior of said premises in repair; and in case of total destruction of the furniture, by any cause, other than the elements, she agrees to replace the same, or make compensation therefor to the said party of the first part.

And the said party of the first part doth covenant that the said party of the second part, on paying the said yearly rent, and performing the covenants aforesaid, shall and may peaceably and quietly have, hold and enjoy the said demised premises for the term aforesaid. And it is further agreed that simultaneously, with the payment of the first months rent, the said party of the second part, shall pay and deposit in the hands of the said party of the first part the sum of Three hundred and twenty five dollars ($325.) as security for the future payment of the said rents, and if said rents shall be punctually paid, interest shall be allowed her on the amount so deposited. In Witness whereof, the said parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

New York, September 6th, 1876.

Dear Sister Corinne,

You have embarked upon a most perilous adventure, seeking in foreign lands, alone, among Strangers, to retrieve your fallen fortune — without husband, brother or friend to advise, counsel or defend you in the extremity of need. Till now, you have been under the protection of a kind husband and in the society of dear and friends; and, though, you may have experienced some cares, yet you were conscious of being with those, who were ever ready to shun and alleviate them.

Having depended so much upon others, may it not be reasonably conjectured, that, sometimes, you will be sorely tried and your inexperience put to the severest test? I almost tremble with anxiety, dear Sister, for your safety and welfare! That such a sweet delicate flower, as your own dear self, should be exposed, unprotected, to the rude, contaminating blasts of an unprincipled world, is really too bad!

You are still young, very beautiful, highly gifted by nature, refined and accomplished by may you vividly, but not in overwrought with the view to flatter. The conception is ancous one of your own dear self, sister, to my appreciation of your real worth, impressions derived during several years an intimate acquaintance.

You possess those indispensable qualities, inher to you from your dear mother, energy, perseveran and determination, that will certainly be pres tive of the most favorable results— which, I trust be the case, without your being compelled to as any particularly active part, to make it a success, but should this become necessary to bowed down with disappointment, I would recommend you not to shrink from the responsibility of the situation, fought, though it may likely be, with ~~considerable~~ ~~any~~ anxiety & danger expressed to you.

To do in the event of this contingency, that you will require to use the greatest caution

Dear Sister Corinne,

You have embarked upon a most perilous adventure, setting in foreign lands, alone, among strangers, to pursue your fortune without husband, brother or friend to advise, counsel and defend you in the extremity of need. Till now, you have been under the protection of a kind husband and in the society of cultured friends; and, though you may have experienced some cares, yet you were conscious of being with those, who were ever ready to share and alleviate them.

Having depended so much upon others, may it not be reasonably conjectured, that, sometimes, you will be sorely tried and your inexperience subject to vexations? I almost tremble with anxiety, dear sister, for your safety and welfare! That such a sweet delicate flower, as your own dear self, should be exposed, unprotected, to the rude, contaminating blasts of an unprincipled world, is really too bad!

education. One of earth's precious jewels, a gem of purest ray, unsullied and sparkling - this rose in the sunshine of happiness and affluence: - indeed, a fairy queen, the noblest and best of womankind.

Your amiability and sweetness of disposition - your kindness and generosity of heart - and, above all, your purity and innocence of soul - are qualities that naturally attract strangers, attach friends, and cause those who have the honor of your intimacy, not only to esteem, but to love you.

You may, sometimes, have wondered, why you were the occasion of so many involuntary expressions of distinction on the part of others, and the object of such genial admiration: Simply, because you are a combination of so much that is excellent and extraordinary, with such rarity, or seeming to know what are your rare gifts and loveliness.

I portray you vividly, but not in overwrought colors with the view to flatter. The conception is a spontaneous one of your own dear self, sister, according to my appreciation of your real worth, and the impressions derived during several years past of an intimate acquaintance.

You possess those indescribable qualities, inherited by you from your dear mother - energy, firmness and determination, that will certainly be productive of the most favorable results - which I trust will be the case, without your being compelled to assume any particularly active part, to make it a grand success, but should this become necessary - to give it éclat and ~~notoriety~~ certainty - rather than fail in your undertaking - to live and die bowed down with disappointment, I would recommend you not to shrink from the performance of the distasteful, though it were likely to be, with ~~considerable~~ amount of danger exposed to you.

And in the event of this contingency, that you will require to use the greatest caution and circumspection in regard to yourself your conduct &c.

You are not to be presumed that you are sufficiently acquainted with the theatrical professions - its surroundings &c, to be able to form any definite ideas what it really is.

As the prima donna of an opera you will probably receive the most liberal applause and adulation of associating friends; but this may be sometimes lish mind, captivated by your brandy, as well as the pow-of your intellect, who will seek to enthrall you in their nares: Shower upon you valuable and alluring gifts, accompanied with gilt-edged expressions of flattery clothed in the most agreable language conceivable, this would nevertheless unconsciously lead down path of your forlorn and cyprian condition. I must particularly caution you against the seductive arts of such as these; and of the recipient of their bounty, not by word or look contribute to their dishonorable intentions, but ever remain one of the few bright unsullied stars of the profession which you have espoused.

You will necessarily be obliged to go behind the scenes and there find some of the vilest and most degraded characters, with whom you will be brought in contact and compelled for the time being to associate ~~more or less~~ with. Not that they are all so.
There are many honorable men and virtuous women who adorn the profession, though the majority of them unfortunately for you are not so.

It does not imply that you should be intimate with any of these characters but treat all with civility, do as not to incur their enmity, halitude or dissuasion of your determined in the pursuit of their parts at rehearsal or on the stage.

As regards your self dear Libbie I have no apprehension. Believing your constancy to virtue to be as immovable as the Rock of Ages, and would stake my salvation both here and hereafter that you will emerge from the ordeal with a mind as pure and vir-tuous as you from infant as ~~then are now~~ when. The diamond accidentally dropped to the ground becomes sullied, but shines again with all its natural brilliancy upon removal of the dust which tarnishes it. Should you though you may have to associate for a time with those who are vastly your inferiors, morally, socially and in every other respect, yet it does not follow that you must necessarily become contaminated any more than by commingling with the heterogeneous mass of people to be met with in every day life.

So long as you have a proper regard for yourself, attend your duties, keeping aloof from those with whom you must for a time associate, and engaging neither their companionship or friendship you will escape the invidious insinuations of uncharitable persons, be honored and respected by the world and esteemed more the less by those who rally as your friends.

I have sketched things rather roughly, perhaps over-drawn the picture, but better to do this that you may more clearly understand than by candle-lit shew of false delicacy, you should be left in doubt. I sincerely hope and pray that you may never experience the reality of what I have in my own person had to say attempted to portray. Heaven forbid that ever should! Things may not be as horrible as terrible as sometimes they are made to appear. Your own good sense of propriety, natural modesty and religious principles, will dictate to you what is most fitting and right in the event of the quick and dark approach of temptation which I trust may never be your's. Should you will have no difficulty in warding off the attack. May success attend upon your endeavours and [illegible] reward your [illegible] by a safe return home - and in the society of your family surrounded by original friends - may you enjoy very many years of undoyed happiness.

I shall then be still residing in California, the land of my adoption, enjoying with Anna and children the [illegible] of a more delightful and [illegible] climate.

your journey, rejoicing during absence at the good wishes of at least one of your friends, who loves you and would cheerfully give the strength of his right arm that success attend you and on your return be restored to your home and friends crowned with laurels.

You are greatly depressed in spirits at the absence of suitable encouragement from your intimate friends, many of whom disapprove of your contemplated voyage to Europe because of the extreme loneliness of your situation during your protracted absence from home. They are however entirely disinterested, deeply interested in your welfare, entertain for you the best of wishes and would not willingly inflict upon you a moments pain. They think only for your personal safety without reflecting how much unhappiness their opposition might make on the part of you. This want of consideration is cruelty and the cause of your present suffering.

You are engaged in the laudable undertaking of turning to advantage the remaining accomplishments with which you are gifted, in order to relieve if possible your fallen fortunes, whose rejection the consideration for which you are greatly to be commended.

but few ladies accustomed to the luxury of wealth, suddenly reduced to humble circumstances have the courage to do what you propose. You possess the ability but the determination which will probably ensure your success: and should you fail it will not be for the want of energy on your part. Your friends appreciate your talents, and realize what you are capable of performing. The production of "Argenta", the inspiration of your musical genius, alone, is a convincing proof to them of this.

You propose turning this and of this ornament to valuable account and have been reliably informed that you can best do this with every probability of success by bringing it out in Europe. Should you wish to bring it out there, to learn of and establish reputation which will ensure its favorable reception here this country. This necessarily obliges you to go abroad. and having determined to do so you have to set upon the accomplishment of your project. Your husband has given his consent and willingly furnished to carry you with the means. Whom can you depend upon to assist and what more is required to complete your arrangements? Why do you longer hesitate or postpone. Why become suddenly nervous and depressed in feelings? Simply because some of your friends object and discourage your contemplated tour. The certainty is very unkind of them. You are of a gentle and diffident nature and encouragement and approval of friends seeming to receive which you are entitled, and which you have become amiable, and willing to engage to do anything which would please them. You are too gentle and diffident for your happiness. It is encouragement which you require to inspire you hope and ensure you success. The preceding was written with the intention of handing to you on the eve of your departure when you first contemplated going to Europe. I have since re-read it over and now hesitate to enclose it to you fearing that you may think that I have too far transcended the bounds of consistency in permitting myself to have written perhaps in case you declining declining. However the desk gadding to I have determined to give you the letter & allow you to do as you may deem best.

friend older than yourself, in whom you reposed confidence, and who would be to you a counsellor and inseparable companion, (Miss Maverick for instance,) no possible or decent objections could have been made. I feel very sad that you have thus gone alone but your dear Sister, be of good cheer! I shall think of you continually, many, many times, and my anxiety for you will only be relieved by constantly hearing of your safety. My prayers will be of any avail for your protection, until you again set foot upon your native shore, you shall have them, with my continual warmest best wishes for your welfare. But, dear you may imagine really my sorrow, over whom I had the least control. I should certainly have remonstrated against your going. I spoke thus to your husband before your departure, but he reasoned, that upon the score of economy, and realizing how very much you need upon going, having set your heart upon following the bent of your inclinations, with his usual leniency & good you whatever and his power he could not possibly refuse your wish. Reluctantly I coincided with his views, and as the time to see you chased for yourself, sir Paul and queen, sir Thomas "Bosheia"! God Speed you on your coming to the haven of your destination!

The few intimate friends who seem a sprig'ra of your going, disliked as much as your husband and myself, the peculiar circumstances of your position and the possible dilemma in which you will most likely find yourself on your arrival in Europe, almost unprotected, without a single single intimate friend; but, all seem to think, that, since determined upon it is ordained for the best, and that, perhaps by, good will results therefrom.

It will not take long to determine your fortune or success. If failure I expect to hear of your return soon, possibly in the course of two or three months hence, by next time, I may be in California, unable to welcome you home again, tired of roaming the world over and willing to settle quietly down. If success - upon our bitter will have been gratified. All your friends will rejoice, but none more heartily, than your devoted brother.

I shall not discouraged you attempt, dear Sister, to make the Opera of "Augusta" a most brilliant success, which it surely be, and deserves having confidence in your bravery and talent. That you will participate in the sunshine of the conservatoire

Do you remember the occasion, when recounting to you some of my many grievances, the unkind treatment received at the hands of my brother-in-law, how fully you expressed your sympathy of heart, and, with the tenderest possible feelings of kindness, assured me that you would be a sister to me, dealing the promise with an affectionate kiss? Upon hearing and trust that your good sense will cause you to see the propriety of your husband's wishes and that you will act with diligence and caution uninfluenced and unbiased by the opinion of any one other than that of your husband who has the right to give it and which he is worthy of your regard.

I did not intend to make this so great a communication but as you gave me an opportunity to explain to you some things when you misinterpreted them which is right or wrong, according to your husbands wishes, I was the only alternative left me.

I hope dear Sister you will read and ponder upon it at least and I have said any thing to wound your feelings believe me it does not from the pure love I have that you may clearly see and conscientiously decide for or upon duty.

With any most kindest regards even though I remain in the affliction and you that have my most earnest prayers for your happiness I remain for

Dear Sir

I enclosed Telegram of 28th due to Am Exchange at Bruxelles and Paris, the 24th inst., directed to the care of U. S. Legation Secretary de la Reine Bruxelles, Belgium, and instructed you to cable me upon receiving it to write more fully soon. Have not since been in receipt of any money by Steamer 28th but today I expect have you provided me with funds & purchase a small draft. Yesterday Rosenbaum called & left 16th Francs & found written in the most despondent mood, but as you cabled to Banks 20th he was not kept much longer in suspense. I hope upon receipt of this you will be found in Bruxelles and that the encouragement of the second & the audition was all that you desired. Dear Mrs Young yesterday to Edwin Booth's had. She had written previously the enclosed letter to you to withdraw, & say in case of not being able to write more, that in the event of the audition being a perfect success, and you should believe it necessary to remain there during the Spring for you to telegraph him and she will join you as soon as possible, but that if you be brought out without her for you has well. She would prefer remaining in New York in his studio & Lyceum Nos 9 East 30th Avenue she & boarding having very comfortable rooms a large parlor & bedroom on each story the back parlor & dining room and a large bedroom on the 3rd story for the two to occupy. The weather is most unfavorable & disagreeable days & nights. Have not made up your mind to return to Europe or not. Saturday and Thursday Evenings Edwin has played for the Judah benefit & Friday evening to one of the largest houses of the season. Mrs Booth's [illegible]

Arthur Lee with Parsons, which he did. The King - the jury requiring £25 in Court for one month - Judge White will arrange for at the end of the month, the 2nd Dec. - White gave me blank notices to fill up to parties owing interest or to become due before the end of the year which I did and mailed to them - Buckingham [illegible] with Mart, said nothing could be done with suits on as being an unprofessional property, but in case he hear of anything could resort it. Delivered letter declared by you to D. Casanova, for his father to sign, next day he returned it wishing to alter out the number of acres and as envelope to him by Mrs Whitlock". I made the change and returned it them - yesterday he called at office during my absence (attending the sale of my property which brought only $500 and for a few years ago $20.000!) Offered that he would call again to day - I have also seen the messrs Bauldo in regard to signing the agreement for the sale of their property, and expect Mr A. C. Stewart from Baltimore in Court to call to day - I think that I will be able to get both these agreements signed though I may make some concessions to do so and with the Bauldos consideration - as they think the price altogether too low and the terms too high. They are evidently anxious to sell - that is some of them and - I understand fully your views in regard to the agreements with Casanova and the Bauldos, and intend to the best possible even though I may have to make large concessions to them but shall not coerce any anxiety to do so - The agreements between you and Mr Wells are exchanged - several days ago - he expressed himself as [illegible] only - but I have heard nothing from him with regard to Mr Roach going to see the premises though I have addressed him a note - I suppose as usual the Dutch is with Roach business preventing him - At present time the negociations pending with Daniels are encouraging - with fair prospect of favorable results - but until done dispute am unwilling to make any statement to say nothing to raise your expectations. This morning he withdrew his offer for the property as per last reduced to writing - viz $50.000 cash offer for the property $50.000. but should any dispute offer be made will telegraph you.

Since writing the above Harold has been to see me and says he has not been able to arrange for Roaches going out to Spring Hurst - Also D. Casanova has showed me a letter written by his father which he wished to send with you to Mary, to get him your signature to modify or cancel if any objection or agreement which you would be willing to accept. He was to receive $20.000 provided that was satisfactory to him. agreed to Powell's name, which left the business through you, and time to the 12th day of November next when going to Cuba. I read me objection and told him to make memorandum in english and get his father to sign it and bring it with the memorandum which he has promised to do when his father signs it. Objected to get this agreement signed by Colonel as well as Natalie. Mr Jackson may be now signed in Cuba by 14 March. I have not managed with Mr Hutchinson when the Friday previous to your leaving - had not examined your account and invited me to dine & sending him tickets days. Paid Cavitor for Sept & Oct $10 and found him for future payment to Patterson. Paid gas bill $3.95 Received 1/2 of statement which I drew up with Mr. Co and Mr. Hart. - Received from Mrs Dennis 36 English P.C. stamps in payment of bill Rumsey. The letter written by you to Mr. and to Hasbrouck and Tompkins Sunday Hosken received Stopped subscription to Freeman's Journal since Feb last $1.00. Letter & Circulars from Rumsey & Co. Drew Thursday $35 paid $1.00 for Rumsey. Hart called for stamps for - and to say that his friend Mr Gannon. Asked him if was that Lee was off. as far as he could Mr Lee concerned as how were their connections. Looked him if he could tell yours B.G. he said he might - Asked him what you wanted $40.00 but did not suppose G would give it. Asked him to write or telegraph and what G. might say about the Bermuda and that I would write or telegraph you. I have written Judge White requesting him to pay $65 when he receives from Smith to Mary & remit you. and furnished him with the memorandum concerning the bonds and mortgage so that he may furnish the deed of the bonds to Mr Lee & Hendrickson - I have enclosed with our bonds to Mr Lee & he is now at Phila. expected back before the end of the week. Dear Sir

I enclosed letters of credit to American Bankers at Bruxelles and Paris, the 24th inst. directed to the care of S. A. Roosevelt Esqr. 6 Rue de la Reine, Bruxelles, Belgium, and wish you had written to me immediately on your arrival. Perhaps my letter may not have reached you by Steamer 28th but today I expect has given me a draft for £100 to your order at usual date. Yesterday Rosenbaum called & left £16 to your credit with me. The 20th he was in high spirits. I hope upon receipt of this you will be found in Bruxelles and that the engagement for the Concert & the audition will all have been a success. Should Mrs Young not be ready to deliver the letter to her. She had written previously the enclosed letter to you but wished me to say in case of her being a bad correspondent, that in the event of the audition being a perfect success, and you should believe it necessary to secure the Soprano you are to telegraph to her and she will join you as soon as possible, but that if it can be brought out without her presence as well she would prefer remaining in New York in her present lodgings 130 West 23rd St. Mrs Easton is doing nothing, having only one pupil & she would take a large parlor & bedroom on the 3rd floor for Mrs Thurlow and the young ladies. The weather was most unfavorable for crossing the day after you left & on Wednesday & Thursday quite a few were sea sick. Yesterday, and Thursday the 30th Board ran from White Star Pier 45 North River. Yesterday, and Thursday was a fine day & I walked up to Mrs Easton's & found her much improved in health. She was at dinner with Mrs Thurlow & the long and Cooking were in Consequence of so much Company and Commotion. Said he again yesterday when Adrienne left him. Mrs M was with him a Good Crying out to take a walk and she was Cooking and feeling much better so that in the Course of a few days it may be hoped she will be all right & praying to Heaven to amend him & us with. My Children are well. We keep every Room in the House Boarders, and she is Going to see nobody as you would Cloud Mirah perhaps might Come for a little while to Keeping House. Which I am very ready to do and shall prove by Conducting the Family Economically & willing to do and Act as you would by Conducting the Family as you would. She is indeed a Woman of Good Sense and of whom you may justly Rest proud & She wished me to express to you and her other friends when she received and to have them to Come & See her. I am having little opportunity for writing her as Company Keeping me Constantly Busy but will do all in my power to Comply with your request. Dear Madam,

I shall leave early Tuesday for Philadelphia and shall return on the 11th to be present Saturday, & called last evening to see you on business, but you confined me an instance. I may as well inform you planning that it is impossible for me to call between the hours you have named I & 3 pm, as I may either leave during the day, at least for a few weeks to come, without intimation to you, & to be home during my absence from the City. This the day when I came away, a very important arrangement with Commerce, called upon to close expressly to arrange the contract for the sale of the property with Mr Hasack, which by Mr Young myself to realize several thousand dollars, but through entirely in consequence of Mr Dorsey with extraordinary efforts succeeded in opening the negotiation and obtaining a contract so that Mr Barnard may proceed at once to purchase the flour which he promised me he would do by the last day of this month.

At our last quarterly meeting the account of Mr Dorsey appears very much, as I expected, against him entirely owing to his not having made any purchases of flour, but I am in hopes that the account will be considerably reduced again by the next quarterly meeting, when I shall be able to send you a more satisfactory account.

Should you wish to see me before I leave about anything, you will please write me by the [illegible] Post, and if you have any commissions, I will send a package for the Miss Shipleys, provided I receive them by the 15th or 16th day of next month.

I am glad to hear that you are well.

I expect to meet my son Frank at Philadelphia, and [illegible]

Dear Friend.

Your letter of the 2nd from Dunnsborough and telegram from Nuyelles of the 8th came duly to hand and were delivered to Mrs. Y as addressed. She is very much encouraged with the success you are making.

Mrs Y has given me $90 to buy a diaph with, which with the $100 previously sent will make nearly the thousand francs telegraphed for.

I have had several interviews with Daniels about sale of mortgages, but nothing has as yet resulted from them. He was at office to day - said two of the parties had been out to see the property was in hopes to get the affair out in a day or two. He thinks you are a fool of the negotiation but I am not so sanguine as to any favorable result until I know as etc. I am keeping them pressing a to the necessity. In case I am not come able to do anything Judge White will take up Horse in Hart's Patrick. The Judge does not believe that Clark make the sale without your guarantee which would be equal to raising the money on your note. I am pressing the sale with Daniels and shall not delay my efforts till I know the result one way or other.

I have seen Hockenbury and requested him to write who has all information necessary to make Settlement. I do not think he will give up the papers until after on ab 15th next. Judge Taylor will make Settlement and which note because due, if not able to pay, to get an extension.

The agreement with Cavender has been signed and the matter is in Hazlewood hands. He has not been able to get back out, expects however to do it Monday next. The agreement with Bartlett also pending, with prospect of claims to a late day. Then adjourned out again to the morning.

Kellett made settlement to Nov 14th Sent our check $137 to the sisters which pays them in full.
Mr Church paid Conan rent of

Dear Friend,

The Gazette Contract was signed yesterday by Genl. Wilkinson, and I am daily expecting the arrival of the Commissioners appointed to make the Treaty, but until they arrive nothing can be done. I have written to Mr. Livingston requesting him to send me a Letter of introduction to Governor Blount which I will forward to you. Mr. Hamilton has left Town for Albany, and will not return for a week. Mr. Hamilton's absence has prevented me from seeing Mr. Randolph, but I have written him requesting an interview, and I shall have an opportunity of conversing with him on the subject of your Mission. I am sorry that you had determined to take him from Philadelphia, as I think you would be able to go on to the Treaty, and should it be necessary, I have no doubt Mr. Hamilton would be willing to go out with you. He is at present engaged in settling his accounts with the Treasury, but I think he will be able to finish them in a few days. I have not seen Mr. Randolph since I received your letter, but I am told he is much engaged in preparing for the Session of Congress which will commence on the 22d inst. I hope you will be able to get on to the Treaty, as I am sure your presence there will be of great service to the part in preventing the agreement and Mr Smith's being paid, as however have to attend to. I will however be sanguine that I shall arrange about with Garrard, nothing may prevent this.

Mr Young, of Hewer & Co, Newgate St called to see you yesterday. Explained to him your absence from the City and endeavoured to obtain the use of your office during his stay in the City, and that Mr Pastorini would attend to any business intended for you. He said he would call again to see Mr Pastorini, or write, & should on his return. The business was finally done. Nothing done at last. He says Mr B. assured him that he is doing anything either for him or against him.

Miss Young writes me word in confidence that she has composed a new piece "The Three Kisses" in three parts — "The Kiss at Morn" "The Kiss at Noon" and "The Kiss at Eve". The words are by Mr Crouch, but are to be published, I believe, as her own. And she begs to receive some money from me. She asks for Mr Frank and me, but will have her piano, could not dine at on again not being asked to do so.

Received a notice from the Marine Bank yesterday that your account was overdrawn £23. I sent the Bank Pass Book & made up. This morning it was returned paying all checks drawn previous to drawing cheque for your favor £15. 7s. I went to Bank in explanation and was informed that a check made by you was presented yesterday morning through the Bank for £23 and as the account was only £15. 7s. it returned unpaid. I am very sorry to disturb the tranquility in your check book which shews the balance after paying cheque drawn in favor of Lord Bagot, to be £8. 2s. 8d. but no doubt there must be some error which at my request shall be examined. I left the Bank minus with the feeling last evening, by reason of the unfortunate of having the overdraft made Mott St was purchased by the Rutgers Mansion Co. at auction for $11,100, which is about one half what they have offered us for it some years ago. We considered the sale a lucky sacrifice, though a good price for the old house.

We leave here the 25th October. In the afternoon I borrowed fifteen hundred dollars which I sent home for by telegraph. We started the morning of the 26th and arrived in Philadelphia about noon of the 27th with Aunt Hannah. We dressed, and went with him immediately to the Centennial Grounds, as well as the 10th, the closing day. We were much pleased but would have been more so had we arrived earlier as we have seen more. Saturday the 28th we went to Sharon Hill to see the dear children. Found Annie and Frank and dear Florence looking well. The children are very happy. Aunt Hannah with us. Introduced us to the other sisters and Lady Jane. Mamie's first visit to Sharon Hill.

On Monday we left Sharon Hill for Chester. Found Mr. Pusey and Mr. Pusey's daughter Mrs. Hannah Pusey and Mr. Pusey's son Mr. Pusey and Mr. Pusey's daughter Mrs.

balance in Bank
With regards

New York June 21st 1876.

Edward G. Young Esq—

Dear Friend,

I wrote you on Steamer Saturday, detailing to you all that had transpired up to that time, I have very little additional to communicate since then, but as Mrs Young has given me a letter to enclose to you, I send it to—

Judge White told me on Wednesday that he would pay the check for $250 in the hands of M. T. Davis & Co. We went there immediately, and presumed they have the money, which accounts that matter, leaving the balance in the bank just as it was, $15.44. The balance with $8.33 cts the Church has paid to E. A. Weedon Esq $250

I have examined the Check Book and find the Correct balance to be the same as made by the Bank and have noted in the Check

Both how the mistake occurred in the hurry and confusion of your going away, the evening proved at the office. The amount of the check drawn on the preceding page was carried forward as the balance instead of having been deducted from the balance and the difference of course produced the correct balance. I explained to them how matters had occurred. That you had given the check to Mr Davies in Liverpool believing that you had more than enough funds to your credit at the bank to meet it. That I was unwilling at once upon such a trifling occasion to disturb Mr Davies and to mention to him that there had been any difficulty in the case of the check as you would feel greatly mortified to have him to know the circumstance.

Mrs Lewis has received from Miss Collier from Blackheath the 5th Hundred pounds which was the sum stipulated. I was with them afternoon and she had to sign upon receipt which I think is highly encouraging. We hope for her sake that it will be a grand success. She seems to have set her heart upon it, and whatever the result may be, she will be a sufferer to the extent of very great indeed. We agree in wishing her good luck, but think that we entertaining her she may be able to serve you in other ways. She will move in crowded spheres & may thus obtain for you the best possible connections. She is a woman of great good sense & unexceptionable character & her opinion on any matter of business is worthy of attention. She thinks it would be best for you to remain in Liverpool & that the Spanish affair will be a good thing for you. She thinks that it would be best for you to remain in Liverpool & that the Spanish affair will be a good thing for you. She thinks that it would be best for you to remain in Liverpool & that the Spanish affair will be a good thing for you.

My dear Friend,

I have nothing particularly important to communicate since last writing to you the 21st inst. but am desirous to give what news including—

Judge White took an assignment of Mr. Ogden from Hart having him $1100 on the 24th. The day previous Hart called at the Office for a Number of Tea and to find out what new mistake him the Judge owned in favor of the mortgage having secured you to do so— I then asked him if he thought he could get your property to Canada. He said he might that he would see him in the course of a few days and in case of an offer he would endeavour to do me, but that you must be ready to accept it— Told him to get offer and if

to assistance by mail or telegraph. Nothing has been done with Canada. I have also given him up, though he has not yet said that he can do nothing with them. Roswell calls to see me occasionally. He expects to get Roach out next Sunday. I have impressed upon him the importance of selling your property, in case he can not the Mississippi R.R. and should he make anything like a reasonable offer, to report it - that you cannot accept of it. I have found the old check book and am making an examination of the fraudulent matter - but should I not complete the affair the 25th of next month, must let it go. Your Cousin and subscribed Commissioner. On the 26th, received your letter from Mayfield of the 12th enclosing mine of 2 friendships but there was no letter for me and drew against the Western Union Co, which you must have forgotten to enclose - As requested, I delivered your letter to Mrs Ide who was much pleased, wishes that she had gone with you - though she believes that she has served you more by remaining to answer matters in your absence. The Auditor's office will no doubt close the 23d, she has been expecting a telegram from you. And not having received it, her disappointment has been very great to her - she has become exceedingly nervous from excitement and worry - One single word "Success-ful" would make her perfectly happy. Do not be disappointed such has been the case for the last two days. Just to have been otherwise, when known to the women make the wonder-ful effort to understand his complete - He frequently asks me what I think of the result of the "Auditor" whether I shall succeed or not. Tell him I believe I shall succeed, but I have a doubt but what I will succeed - Then, why does not Edward telegraph to me? I reply probably he is with his friends and unable to do so. Now, take this thing - go down there at once, get all the money you can and send it by cable to him at once as the poor dear man may be without money and made to feel mortified accordingly

Stranger. I left the Hague - [illegible] and sent you on the 24th a copie [illegible] taken through Belmont's leg to Paris for Bussell 300 francs addressed "Edward Bridge, Rue Quincampoix Le Gabion, Marseilles" which I hope you have received and returned you per want of undoubtedly ere now to defray the expence of the Auditorship had great trouble to get this borrowed as small an amount at first they refused but shewing them a memo of the contract our Rotterdam Cash Dr they consented to make the remittance, but said I must not ask the favor again for as our dealings may be probably send you more before the end of the week - Pleased if all can [illegible] either by draft or cash as shall not worth you to be without funds -

We daily remind about not receiving a letter from you as you promised us the one to us, to write us the 15th instant give [illegible] news of the Coming Auditor

First lady composer of Old & New World

Corinne Young composer of an Opera

"Ongenta" libretto changed to

"Le Dernier des Mohicans"

Brussels Gazette. Aug 29 1877.

THE NEW OPERA : — We are gratified in being able to announce the arrival in Brussels of Mrs Corinne Young, of New-York ; the talented composer of the attractive American opera that we have already had the pleasure of partly hearing. The public audition of some of the principal airs took place last year in Brussels, at the salle of the Grande Harmonie, before the Corps Diplomatique; the chief members of the Conservatoire ; the representatives of the leading Press besides a select and fashionable assemblage including numerous connoisseurs amongst the highly critical musical circles of the capital. The exquisite melodies of Mrs Young on that occasion, were most enthusiastically appreciated, and after the conclusion of the performance, His Excellency the Turkish Ambassador, in behalf of the diplomatic body conveyed through His Excellency the Hon. Ayres P. Merrill, the American Minister, the expression of their best thanks to the brilliant lady-composer, and their assurance of the complete success, in the future, she so well merited in the unique role she had undertaken as a lady composer of operatic music. This gifted musician is the very first who has entered the lists in a field of art hitherto exclusively occupied by the other sex, of whom also, but comparatively few have succeeded in reaching the highest pinnacle of renown and triumph in sublimer conceptions of harmony. We understand that Mrs Young has, with her husband, taken up her residence at 28, Rue Montoyer, where she will complete the changes in such parts of the music of the opera, rendered necessary in consequence of the substitution of the libretto of « Le Dernier des Mohicans » for Mrs Young's original story of « Ougerita ». Our readers will remember the thrilling Indian tale of « the Last of the Mohicans » by the celebrated American author, the late Fenimore Cooper, whose narrative has now furnished the popular journalist, M. Alexandre Bouvier, of Paris, with the ground-work of the text of this musical composition. We learn that under its altered title, « Le Dernier des Mohicans », the opera will come out at the Alcazar Royal next November ; and great interest is already naturally excited regarding this work in the musical and theatrical circles of Brussels. The director of the Alcazar in Brussels, M. Humbert, has secured the representation of the American opera, by the first lady composer in the Old and New World.

WAUX-HALL AU PARC: Concerts every evening at 8 o'clock, by the splendid orchestra of La Monnaie, 85 performers, under the direction MM. Jos. Dupont and Th. Warnots. Admission 1 Franc, children 75 ctimes. The most agreeable and fashionable evening resort in Brussels. An extraordinary performance of choice selections of music will take place to morrow-night.

I have nothing more to do with the mailed if no arrangements be made before the expiration of present extension.

Cabled you at the request of Mrs Y. the 26th inst "Young Rumble Coming. Command"

With the expiration of young Rumble within the next two weeks, and that she may prepare herself. Mrs Y. has returned to the city and is now at the Hotel Royal Cor 5th Ave & 59th St fronting Reservoir Square. She has pleasant comfortable rooms at reasonable rates. She may go by the Bothnia leaving the 6th August. She would prefer this steamer only on account of being a better boat & less motion she may go by the German steamer leaving before or after the Bothnia.

I shall be glad on her account when she has gone. She will be happier and free from care and worries which during some months past has considerably upset her. She has requested me to make her a detailed account of money received and expended by her. That you may see where all the money has gone to. She tells her that I can render account of the money paid her, and only of a portion of the amount expended. That I would do so as soon as I am able and that I'll send her the account for the balance due. The account would be a history of it. I did not suppose she would require any such statement, had a good few memorandum at the time which I collected and paid her the money, but for privately I kept a note of all transactions in my diary — and from it, though with considerable labor and reading over carefully I am able to make out the account. She fears that you will think she has been extravagant and spent a great deal too much money. I tell her she don't think so, having spent a great deal less than formerly and just as she thought you had been at home to spend the means. One thing certain you wife is a great deal more economical than formerly that is to say she allows the value of money and considers before spending it. She says she sends the documents so as to be able to explain every thing to you as she knows you would want to know. She thinks to go and see her, but I would your coming I tell her I am provided with the documents as soon as I am able. That as soon as complete possible for me to make it from the time you left her disposition — and in rendering it — you must certainly give your wife the credit in being considerable of a financier — having kept them running at home — you dissipated abroad and in stead of incurring more debts having considerably diminished those you left behind besides having money enough with economy to take care of all for several months to come.

Do think to read over your preceding letter.
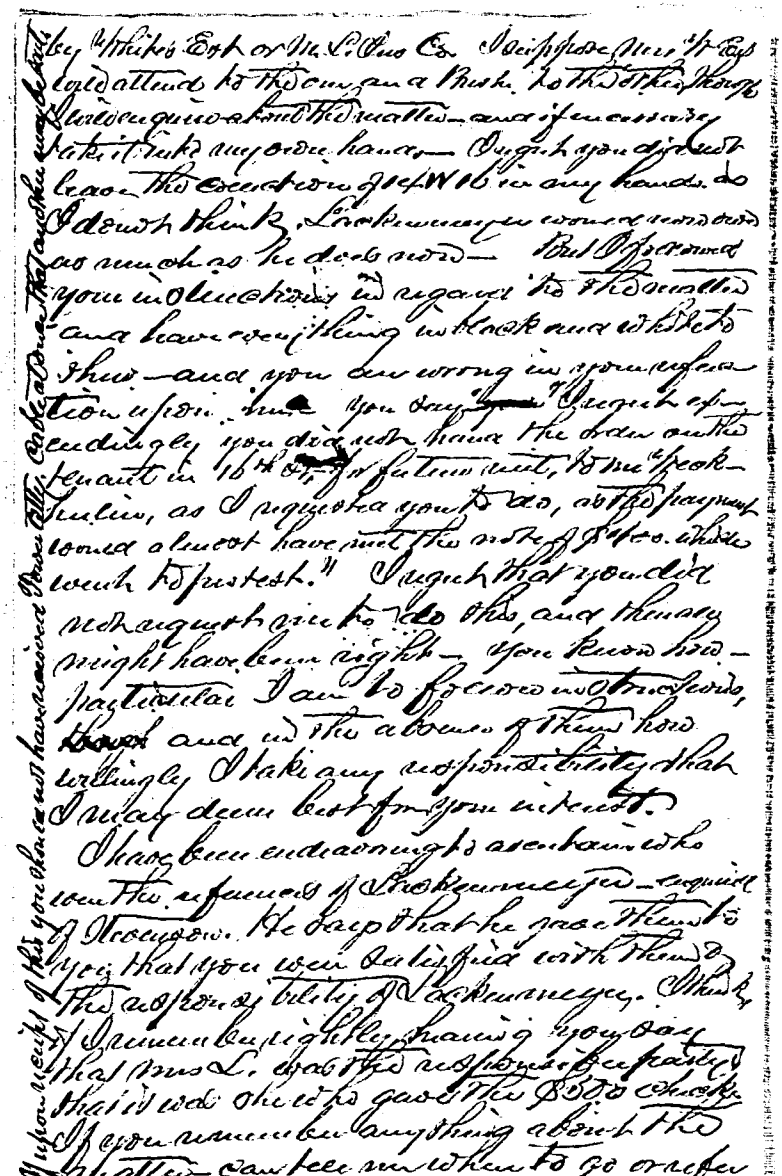
Mr Jennings gave his opinion and says she has managed better during your absence than you could have done had you been here. I received a letter from Daniels will be a way. I hope you can manage to write me by any means or process or letters in the office. I will enquire into the matter. It appears he was at one time proprietor of the St James Hotel corner B'way & 27th St but when he immediately before I was over two or three years ago I do not know — I am informed that he owns a hotel at Brighton Staten Island — which cost him $75.000, worth to day he owes Jacoba Dey $35.000 but that I was not entirely under his control now, his father-in-law having a $12.000 judge Bixbe says unless his estate will be proved insolvent I can not prove the matter. I believe they obtained judgment — I thought you would not like to and I thought you would do as you know concerning him, as I am entirely ignorant of the I have been informed by Steven matter between him & Steven — I got nothing from Hey respecting him in case of suing the house & will speak about it. Mr J. Munk thinks it best to put the matter in hands. You Cable from Paris to Robert Ellmslie and Sumner was received — "Contract signed at Brussels to-morrow" — Pray give because Sumner was Rumsey. The Jay office can't work not authorized to act — away before 9 o'clock — I hope the Shipping will be profitable — Merely this to prepare you for a letter Dec — I am short of change to-day — and I want to take the Friends to Steven because I have got no money to go.



Mrs. B. I would be advised by you to return home soon, just having intimacies and books Mrs G. Comfortably, to look after your affairs: and having arranged them satisfactorily you would be free to engage in some kind of business, or return again to Europe. I have done all I could possibly for you to your best interest the same as though they were my own. You may be inclined to censure me for some things I have done but when you return and understand the difficulties which I have had to encounter, you will think differently. I have only to refer you to Reynolds, Brooks, Madeiros &

I have done prospects in view and as soon as Mrs G. leaves I shall invest & take them return home. Though I have nothing to engage my attention with. I have to commence the world with scarcely a dollar. This Added quite despair.

therefore after expressing a wish to hear from April 2nd 1867

Dear Mind. I have just thought of my promise to write by the Steamer which will leave Tomorrow to relieve your mind concerning your darling Louis. Thank God he is better, though far from being well. His sickness is the effects of malaria contracted whilst at Whitestone and probably will not result in anything serious, though it will be some time before he will recover entirely. Your wife's mind is relieved from the agony & anxiety which she felt on his account. He is still suspected fits of delirium which comes about every other day or night.

To day he has been tolerably easy. When I saw Mrs. G. at 4 pm Noon to day she said probably he would have another attack.
Do not feel worried on account of open door at evening.
Mrs G was in bitter spirits concerning him. Thinks she has been for the past few days more that the doctors knew what to prescribe with him and they can give him the assurance that he will recover. The case of Lackemeyer came up before the court yesterday morning. Judgment was rendered against him but a stay of issuing dispossessing warrant had till Thursday morning. If he pays the $100 dem he can remain, otherwise will be just out — I think he will prosper to pay a portion and arrange for balance — but I have written instructions from me if not to accept less than the whole amount and shall only hope that he will not pay as the wishes to get possession of premises and all the furniture being as the way to raise immediately the money to send you for the success of his opera. It will be a great sacrifice but one she is willing to make rather than lose all hope of bringing out her opera whereby she hopes to remove this and all other losses. I do not blame her for the course she has decided upon, as she does all things entirely and for the best. A draft is pending for the £900 with directions you were draw a judgment for the amount and if the man be responsible, the money will be recovered and paid over to Mr Mathews. I have advised him to take it for fear he might be able to get from Jackson any thing, but as in taking any thing, that would destroy the effect of the dispossessing warrant and be attended with delay in commencing the proceedings, postponing the time indefinitely of obtaining possession and having a sale of the furniture, and defeating the object which he had of raising money for the success of the Suit &c, therefore she has come to the determination not to accept any thing less than the whole amount, which if he pays will go to the Society to retain possession — though in case he does not pay $200 due the 6th April in advance he will be liable again to other proceedings against him. He is in a tight place — he must pay all costs and then regularly afterwards, or his wife may. who will to dispossess that she may sell the furniture. She is driving hard a bargain with them to raise money by delaying or pawning the diamonds, was down here to day for this purpose but the Jews she got were so very low she could get nothing upon them and the Jews to make the Diamonds upon the furniture, rather than part with the diamonds for

6. almost nothing — I hope to be in a position to assist him before the end of the week, but she does not wish to accept of more money from me leaving and to be able to pay me back. But her immediate demands for money to pay you an Ds very unpleasant for the success of the opera & shall insist upon her to accept of it. Be assured the money from whatever source it may come will be sent to you at once. Certainly every thing cannot fail. What together with Louis DeKnees and his anxiety to procure money she is induced almost wild. She says she believes she were go crazy, if things do not take a turn for the better

The house is in the hands of Skourdon & Sheldon for Sale at $33.000 — Any less, reasonable offer will be accepted — 14 W 16th will be put in the hands of some broker, should I go out to visit my friends.

You will please excuse paper, as that I could get at this hour of the night — but for any pressing I should ask have written. I expect my family about the 20.

Yours in haste

It is said that it did not adopt the name of "Evangeline" for the opera as a mere American opera bouffe by that name in 3 acts has made its appearance. Libretto by Oliver Goodwin, music by Edward E. Rice. Bounded cloth $2.00. Louis P. Goullaud Publisher 88 Tremont St. Boston. It was copyrighted by Oliver Ditson Nov. in 1876. It was by accident we heard it. We took at New Bedford some time ago, said a song, "Come to me quickly, My Darling," from the American opera bouffe Evangeline — in a Minstrel show. Miss G. thought before we had been appreciating our own land. After considerable we quadrupled it and a list of all the pieces of the opera. The song is not set to any of Mason's airs — but the words suggested to the tune of the Star Spangled Banner. We do not think much of the air of the song and has not been any number of times heard.

Friend Young,

I wrote the 2nd inst enclosing letter of introduction for you from Gen. Authon to Wm Beardsley U.S. Cruiser General at Cairo and respecting a conversation with Mr Vandoli in reference to the Egyptian Claims and that he was to see Mrs Young Sunday after which he would be able to decide. I did not see Mrs Y before yesterday and communicated him that things would be managed as I should by it. To day I saw him. He said he would like you to attend to the matter but did not see how he could arrange to receive $450 or $500 necessary unless you could run a draft on him at 60 or 90 days. He said he would write to you and probably send the papers, though he would like to know the channel through which you were intending to operate, and if he could facilitate things to advantage he could do. I left him your address Care American Legation, Brussels as well as your Cobe address "Young" Brussels - so that he might communicate with you, which he said he would probably do by Saturday Steamer.

He wished me to call again in the course of a few days when he would give me more definite information so that I may decide to run the office.

I have addressed a note to Arthur Sequeira of Thos Cook & Son telling him that you were the Editor for Young Men the one to Brearsley - called at his office to day, but his Secretary said no -

Passing days business is very dull - nothing doing - and in spite of new Postage Laws selling for 2 & good.

The Commercial Advertiser of Thurs 2nd had article in about Epsom, copied from Brussels paper - Mrs G will take pleasure send it to you -

Mrs G did not go to Phila Sat as she intended - I suppose she did not wish to open the money package to send it to you -

Got an International Postal Order to day from the P.M. New York for transmission to Switzerland which reads: The Receipt W.Y. Sept 17 from Mrs Edward T. Young the sum of $15. U.S. Currency, the value of which in U.S. gold and Swiss money the P.M. at N.Y. will transmit to Swiss Post Dept for payment to Edward T. Young Care American Legation Brussels. Belgium - Signed by P.M. -

The receipt according to instructions I am to keep and advise you that the money has been sent, and that payment of same will be effected "by a Postal Order issued by the Money Order Office at Basle which may not be received by you as soon as the Letter" As this is a new thing to me and may be to you all am not particular in explaining - I did not suppose I could purchase draft for so small an amount and hearing of this way have adopted the manner as I to be as safe as Postal Order in U.S. Mrs G will probably send you small amount in this way from time to time -

I agree with you again in a few days after Reaching Mrs. S. in San Francisco— Mrs. S. will probably detail particulars by her conversation with Mr. Shargo he seems well pleased with his visit and did not know but he intended to spend the Whole of Sunday afternoon with him— She had also some conversation in reference to his account against you & professes himself busy in different about it and no thought it might be very easily arranged provided upon Obtaining the proper disposition towards him. There is no doubt in my mind for some reason or other he became piqued towards you and therefore brought the immediate Suit for counsel fees which he has— On his return with a little feeling you will be able to arrange amicably with him but the Mortgage must again be extended— With regards Yours Truly

Wm Lucas

Newyork. Jany 12/1877.

Edward Young

Inclose you B/L and invoices of Ribbon Rumm Goods Shipped per Steamer Switzerland which I suppose left here the 10th inst? She is a very slow sailer indeed. having been from the 8th dec To Jany 5th coming from Antwerp To newyork, which was the cause of delay in shipment. I hope you will receive the things soon, all right and satisfactory. The invoice at 15 ℅ amounting To $247.89 is the one by which the things were cleared at custom house and To which dawane, I went To see the Belgium Consul, He said he had nothing To do with the matter. On arrival of the steamer at Antwerp you will require some one To pay the freight and To receive the case, to whom you write and the B/L. But you can ascertain best in Brussels what is best to be done, than I can inform you. The 119 Doz R.R. sent since are on hand at the office with exception of about one dozen odds and ends — the high £1. 5/. is the lowest for which they give a B/L.

The case measure 2.6 x 2.4 x 1.3 = 7 ft 3 inches measurement and weight probably between three and four hundred pounds. I had it made expressly and strapped — and as it is one inch stuff there is no fear of its breaking —

Miss Young has given me a letter to enclose to you. She says she has sent you four or five letters lately and not having got an answer she fears you may not have received them.

On the 4th I sent you an International P.O. order for $15.00. which you will receive notice of through the P.O. at Basle, Switzerland. I gave your address care of American Legation, Brussels, Belgium. I forgot to mention that the number of the order was 9465. I dont know that it is necessary to send the number. To day by the same means, to same address I send you $10. The number of the order 9511. Grey is not able to send you much, yet she seems determined to keep you good in a small way.

Nothing particular has transpired since last writing — I have no dispute to answer from Mandibi — Two days ago I wrote to him to learn his intentions in regard to sending you funds documents &c — and advised him if not able to send the funds at present to send the papers and authority to collect claim, as I inferred from what you had written you were almost certain of success and if you had the authority you might be able to raise the money suggesting that you might be able to use his draft at 60 or 90 days - (He had postponed doing this as a financial interest) I told him I was anxious to know, as in the event of your prolonged absence abroad, I wished to sell the office - I expected an immediate answer to this note, and hoped to have been able to write something definite, but he told Frank, my son, that he would attend to the matter in a day or two. Have not heard from him yet -

I wrote Daniels last week that unless the autos were used by Wednesday this week for him to return maps, papers &c as I expected to return to California soon, and I wished so far as I had any connection with attending to any business for you to close up matters

Yesterday I got a note from him dated the 10th. that probably the autos were used and he would be one in regard to return the 11th weather permitting -

so I wrote a letter to him stating that if he would appoint any time to meet me at his office or at yours I would do so provided the mortgages were really owed that though I was sick abed at present yet I might be able to bundle up sufficiently to go out.

I do hope that those outgo are owed. It will be a great relief to you to pay off pressing bills. interest and taxes on 29th St. But until I see the money paid I shall place no reliance upon it. You can form no idea of the stringency of the times - things have changed very much during the short time you have been away —

I can give you no information as to whether int on 29th St house has been paid. as the matter is in Whites hands and I suppose he will attend to it.

I said Phillips, Cockcroft & Bushnell recently, days the only letter of introduction you wished for was to Mr Beard's legal Cards.

I did not know but that there were others, as in your letter to me you spoke of receiving several letters from that source; therefore, I enquired to know if there were any others—

I will attend to things as far as I am able— for several days past I have been abed— and am writing this now sitting on my back— I am better— and hope to be about again soon— Mrs Young, good dear soul, has done what she could to make me comfortable— and with Frank to help me I have been able to attend to things nearly as well as though up and around

I hope dear friend you will meet with success— think in regard to the opera there can be no doubt— you may as well give it your attention as you can there is nothing under to make it a success— there is no business doing and if you were here you would constantly be repulsed

Yours Sincerely Thos Whaley

New York. January D - 1877.

Ed F. Young Esq.

Dear Friend.

I have not written for some time past (Dec 12th was my last.) owing, as you informed me that you would probably leave about the 15th Dec, but from the tenor of your letter of the 13th Dec I judged differently and have positively that you had not left on receiving your telegram of the ~~Saturday~~ 26th Dec, received the same day informing that the States would pay the expense of bringing over the opera. Which I was overcome with speechless joy on receiving this dispatch - feeling that the success of the opera was established beyond a doubt & highly complimented at the agreement made between being relieved of the responsibility of raising money to any considerable amount for the opera.

I have nothing particular to communicate since last writing. It seems impossible to dispose of the bonds at Springfield at any price. Things were bad enough, but much worse since the election. and when they are in power enough-ible to tell. Hassan has not been able to do anything with Riad, not yet having succeeded to get at the bottom of the property. I do not think you could be of any possible use in negociating the sale of the Bar-rells & Casanova properties. People may be willing to deal, but not so easy to find buyers, even at estimates by Lord Iveagh.

I have got one letter for you from Collector Custom to Mr Beardsley, U. S. Con Agt at Cairo - but as you mention in ~~me~~ your letter to me that I could probably get several letters from H. I have addressed him a note asking him if there are any additional letters, and should I get more will forward them. I delivered your letter to Mauricio three days ago. and on the 30th Dec called to see him if he had any communication for you to communicate, as in case of your prolonged absence you wishing me to conduct the affair. (Previous to seeing him I had arranged for an interview between him and Mauricio, thinking that as you had written to him about the matter in your letter to him of Dec 15th he might be able to facilitate the matter with Mauricio.) He had been to see him, but as them was no time left he did not find him in.) Mauricio replied that he could not better affairs during New Y. and after learning the nature of the business he would decide. I told him I did not know of the business myself to, but that I thought you expected a favorable reply and that you were steadily making preparation to that end, several letters from high U. S. Officials having been received at the office which I had forwarded to you by mail. (This was a lie having yet received only the one letter from Gen Authen to U. S. Con Gen at Cairo which I had not yet sent.) I told the business related to a claim of his clients against the Egyptian Government for a large amount due since 1862. that he had been at work upon it for several years, and that at one time you had it in charge for him. that it might be pressed immediately before the 4th March, as then new officials coming into office would necessitate a delay of some day evening at least — I shall be as soon as favorable for doing all at present —

I did not see Mr Hubard nor inform him of the business, but Abbé had mentioned it. I remember you having spoken three years ago in reference to Mrs Eppsian claim — also that one of the Tellers was at the office was to the U. S. Court at Cairo. He remarked that probably you would require one to U. S. Officer at Alexandria — though perhaps Washington to officiate at Cairo would undoubtedly suffice you this —

I think from what I can judge of Mrs the importance of writing you with this communication at once and will forward you the necessary papers and the money required to enable you to prosecute it —

I arranged for his meeting Mrs & on Monday Dec 31 at 11 am. not specifying her and requested him fully in regard to the conversation I had with Mr so that she might talk understandingly with him.

Yesterday Saml & I dined at the Hotel, learned from Emily that

Mrs J has gone in the morning to Thos Ks to the children and intends to return to day. I also that Mr H has arrived to his Family. Mrs Ky mother will be with us this day. but as we have had a very good Storm. I fear she may have been prevented from returning as early as she expected and have therefore postponed going to Bishops till the evening – and indeed I think the result of the interview between him and Mr Ks shall not go to us him to bear his answer tomorrow. I suppose I have heard – and may be by that time I shall receive other letters from Great Arthur – when I will write to you again.

The Rebbeca Nancies has not yet been stopped owing to the non arrival of the Steamer which was to have left Le Havre. I suppose I shall be able to get off about the 10th – in any event by that opportunity. I am sorry for the delay as you will doubt expect that I was stopped per Steamer of the 1 6th Dec but that was impossible as the books were not received from Newark in time —

Hamilton was not induced to extend time but White induced him to do so for 30 days — He has furnished me with statement of money received for sale of Yellowstone property and money expended from that source and given me copies of the papers which he had received from Peterson — I have got every thing together in relation to the settlement of this account that I can find in the office or amongst your old papers and as far as I am able to determine the items charged are correct, but there are many that I know nothing about which you may be able to explain and more upon him or when ever you return there will be need of difficulty about arranging it satisfactorily — Hamilton making up an account that you will understand agrees probably in the main with that furnished by Hamilton — leaving only the matter of Commissions to be arranged One day in connection with Hamilton

He did not propose to charge the items charged for Commissions but that he was open to compromise and the consideration of any offer you might make for an amicable settlement.

Miss Gordon has written to you and inclosed an article published in the Daily Graphic of Dec 29. written I observe by "Judge from the Signal of St George", by Crouch which is highly complimentary to him — The name of the opera is known to be known as "Evangeline" — which I think a great improvement on that of "Augusta" and which will do much to make it a success. She is willing to go to Europe but does not see when the money necessary is to come from as she will require considerable to move in the society in which she will be thrown. She will require at least one thousand dollars to start with — She says that if you will do for both you and her to borrow as it would be impossible to raise any funds — I think she wishes you to return home before she leaves and to remain here to attend to the selling off of your business — as if both were away if would look bad — Mrs Long, the Q Rides is meeting with good sale — She must order 500 more to be printed — and expects to realize after article about £75. per month.

Rattle is still a slow coach, always behind though constantly pressed — At present he owes on ofy book rent £139 — I have not yet arranged with him for the Diary rent wishing to see May & to know how the matters parties.

I trust my affairs will be arranged soon though I shall not leave immediately perhaps for two or three weeks after and in case the road is blockaded will remain long.
Should you go to Egypt I may not see you again. I will attend to everything faithfully as long as I am here and in case of leaving before your return leave things in proper shape — Should I not be able to rent the office, in case of you being detained, I will pay Lall both and postpone matters until your return. I shall not have been alone during your absence in the City since Mrs G. the Boys, and Cook & Peggy quartered on charge of Robinson — Have to thanks Johnnie will not stop [illegible] when you come back — but I shall precede you a few hours — and if I [illegible]

I was disappointed when I wrote you last, enclosing B/L and invoice of the Ribbon Remnants & Laces shipped per Str Burgomaster to Antwerp the 28th inst. I am not feeling much better, this being the first day I have been around. My Son Frank has assisted me during my illness so that nothing has been neglected in our business. I enclose you duplicate B/L and invoice same as those already sent. You will have to pass B/L to Comm. in Antwerp to pay freight, receive the goods, pay duty &c. But you will learn what is necessary to be done at Brussels.
The invoice 2245.89 Frs is the one I wrote to you by which the Ribbons cleared at the Custom house. The Laces I hope will be handed to the agents of the

I am not feeling very well.
I should not have undertaken such work to go to Brabant to see Daniels the afternoon who has written that he must talk with me regarding the case of the negro. I wish to ascertain if he wants them or not — about how the matter was decided another day or other. If needed I have seen them — but not much does rate than we talked of before you left.
It is unfortunately necessary something there be done, and if this negro cannot be acquitted be a sufficient good and one not if to you me in a indirect way and — I have not seen negro yet for a long time — but was told must have gotten bad there after the has again befriended the negro with

Saunders— I suggested for him to write him to come this evening and have the thing settled up by all parties— The 30 days application obtained by Judge White will be up the 18th of this month— I want him to ascertain from Fredk the intentions about drawing upon the money & document in favour to the Egyptian Claim— I wrote to him several days ago— and called by Frank— He said he would call me word in a day or two— This morning I sent him again to enquire if there was an answer for me— Saunders said he would like to see me— Frank said I was to come to this office, though I might be found at yours— He replied that he would communicate with me before the end of the day— Have had nothing from him yet— I am waiting for Frank to return when I shall go to see Saunders— and should hear nothing from Saunders direct, or through me I will call on him Friday morning—

My last letter from you of the date 10th Dec— last I saw, is dated by the 9 the 15th Dec.— When Frank Dashiell last She informed him that She had wrote a letter from you lately— Thinks the U. S. Courts or Commissioners have advised you to make terms with Commodore Stanly which he thought just & reasonable, though the sum out of the proceeds was not so much as had been offered, yet he believes in the end would be more advantageous to you— She would have told Frank more probably, but soon on coming in he terminated the visit. Thanks Dick would buy him to day requesting him, to send him upon Either to read, & Jim anxious to know what success you are making with the Yankees— I believe that I will pay Dashiell for telling him the Ribbon Business was over though I don't wish to discourage you in regard to it. You did not write for the electrolytic, wonder how you manage to Count any of them. I think thankful would express that such was the result of getting them from Cincinnati & Kentucky— Will it not be well for us to see into the reasons that are such— Shall not being paid? Should you manufacture— you had better adopt the plan my brother Stephen offers an assignment of the tools and during understanding the Stylistically of Commodore Stanly making the Barbels, I am Chairman that is for the easiest and cheapest method—

Yours sincerely, J. Mann Wilcox, Secretary

Dear Friend,

I took your letter of the 26 January to Mrs Young this afternoon. She has received the one written by you a few days previously — Seemed delighted with the prospects & thanks for the success of her Husband — She send by cable in a few days the £200 you ask, having read down Thursday to Dr Nelson — Send you P.O. order no 9652 for £10 — in her name — but as they wished in mine or someone else's, as you wish I have not done Wednesday. Dr Nelson he write and because of prospects by this steamer, as promised

Mrs G. Elsa[illegible] of my dedicating list of Brides at present — says it will bother you endlessly — I know enough, when you shall have the money, however I send account of as few which I think most likely you will with to pay and a few checks, so that if you should have funds you can encourage with some of them.

Mrs G — intends visiting Tex September as the best season to bring out her Opera — tells them may —

You will excuse writing & the shortness of this letter having left my sticks at the office Can write from the Grand Hotel. Dear Lillie, but must ask entirely accurate, during a Continent trudging and any case which is anything but agreeable Dear Howells says, they com-fined to his quarters, but improving — As sends you his regards Howells has also been ordered, but recovered now — No chance to discuss things with Real estate at present not like after a decision upon the presidential contest — things still uncertain — and one cannot positively say who will be our next president though the probability is that Hayes will be — answer to this will lessen your chances for a Consulship — but should then be and you are as fortunate as I hope — consider me engaged as your Secretary. My prospects are anything but encouraging

I shall have little money coming to me from my Father's estate and the prospect of Lou Seale getting his R.R. thro' through this Congress very doubtful—As an evidence in the tea trade there are not as many teas being sold at auction — Howell says things in this line look better.
Judge White has been confined to bed for Sometime past.
I can not say positively, but do not think interest of E. 29 thousand has been paid — Hayes entertainly not without Democratic assistance Spaeth wrote that he would pay $87 and has deducted $87.62 on the 26th With my best wishes for your health and prosperity, from yours Sincerely H. R. Howell

New York. Feby 27th 1847.

Friend Young.

You will hear with Sorrow of the death of your old friend Judge Peter B. Porter which took place yesterday at 3 P.M. from Medical of pneumonia after an illness of about three weeks. About a week or ten days ago he was considered very ill indeed, and despaired of. When the report was that he was much better getting along finely.

Yesterday afternoon calling upon Mrs Young. Thought I would go to see how Reubell was having been confined to the room with rheumatism for several weeks. He was complaining of a pain in his side being very restless. Said his bowels had not been open and he felt like dozing - Do Reubell remain long. On going to rise from Chairman to take his leave Mrs Porter, as I passed the Judge thought I would go up for a moment to enquire how he was, Found him of his being worse after the favorable report I had heard, and was much surprised at Dr Hosack to find a card attached to the bell pull requesting persons not to go to the door below - which I was told by Mrs Porter was to the distress found it. Mr Pillow & Gaylord were in the Hall. Mr P said the Judge was very low indeed, but did not think that he apprehended death so soon - Felt very sorry indeed - Passed a few words in

Jewell, and left them at the Lords for Mrs G. that she might be appraised of the Lord's Death of the Judge.

She had been talking about him but a short time previous and she supposed he was dead instead of Mr. Emery expecting him to be dead.

Mrs G. in a few days she had purchased the notes to send him, but learning that he died only a short time after she received any note informing her he was dead, she would return to the house and then saw Reynolds & Felton. She was feeling very badly in consequence of the death of the Judge. Knowing as she must the unsettled nature of your accounts with him and they condoled her by tendering her their assistance.

Mrs G. does not wish you to become alarmed on account of the death of the Judge or to hurry home for this reason do as she believes if necessary for anything to be done that she cannot perform now with friends without you can do when you return you might be able to do well you know.

She believes friends will serve him readily for his sake alone than they would for her sake you know.

You will send the power and papers which you will find in the drawer her Betty will show you. Every body likes her and will do for her.

She has paid $100 on a/c interest to £29 and is stuck to be able to pay the balance soon.

On the 25th she sent in my name to you Com American Legation Brussels postage

3. Pp Geo. no 9724 and cypher to come you may do so—
The more do as the can just as by for you and probably be able to accomplish more for you as any man though you were here—do do not be at all worried about things or think of returning home at present & so long as you can work to advantage for the Remedy the Opera on the conclusion of the Egyptian Claim. Business very dull indeed, nothing whatever of any requirements doing in it and were you there situated as you are really I do not believe you could make much or anything—

Count Apponyi Hon. Portonio was very ready to furnish the Samples of teas as you requested. I gave him a memorandum of them on the receipt of your letter of the 6th instant & left a memo: on his desk that the Chevalier Jerzykowski would be away at 4 pm. Up to 12 he had not yet been to or had been if any appointments were in connection obtaining the Samples I wrote you—He went out and brought in four small Samples— I said "Why that!" "Those Ottoman—
"They should be the Samples"— He said "Oh "Yeah enough" "Then was instructed to leave so I made up the Packages and sent my son Frank over to Jersey City with a note to Mr Junker & Mr Hunter and requesting him to take Charge of them for me—They are addressed "Samples—Tea!" Edward

4th The Jam dampers weigh perhaps by a little more than a pound ea the smallest round ones with the flat. Can any there be not wanted at Bentley enough to write them as it is to come to sup with you—

Mrs Young receiving your letter of the 7th and a newspaper the 10th the day I got from you. Had you been going on the 8th Court Days with the Bench the day high ly delighted.

Mad[e]le B. has given up the house, & pays £220 per month. Glad he has been to buy the carpet & had it for £250 and new carpet for the parlor. Had a letter from Mr Mackay return answer 18th March. Hope to hear very soon. Three pounds, Shillings we should have to consider what is for the best. If we have any to consider what is for the best. Authority would do to lose as good a tenant. Authority would quiet and extraordinary and unpaid— think an demand for the 3 pounds you enquire Can do nothing with the Furniture hope he will to new occupant so do to pay Rates and Taxes if not possible will buy to arrange to leave them remaining dark room for you— Failing in this will have to store it or sell it auction— will tell what is for the best and nothing without the advice of Mrs Y.

Glad Mrs Mackenzie to day— has Cupboards put on inventory the nothing to claim them Cannot from her that the rent had not been paid— this was an oversight of the Judge— Not claim about it— a day was appointed when Mackenzie was to be at his office to meet Mackenzie who was to pay the rent. but the

5. Jury Judge was taken sick and in consequence the case remained unpaid — Mrs Dudley her husband was to pay the amount but had been notified by the landlord that unless he paid it as soon as he came down he might expect the worst to do. That he should attend to my professional business as soon as the Judge's illness was over. Both Mr Stockholm and Mr Potts and made the matter definitely arranged. The talk about the whole matter has been in Stockholm and going down Judge Wade as he promised to do and arrange a settlement of account.

I placed all the papers in the Judge hands and gave him every information and explained it had been arranged and that Stockholm was the party collecting the rent until one day I asked the Judge if he had arranged with Stockholm he said no — When asked him if he had collected any rent, he said no — Since then arrangements for collecting has been pending which but for the former death would have been done.

I do not consider myself to blame with the matter having occurred upon my absence and but for a notice of protest of the $400 note. I should have thought the settlement had been made, the matter locked and filed and paid. Tonight

I have enquired from the Judge, but do not mean to annoy him with these details, & the only reason I can assign for not having asked him. Of course I will be endeavour to see him before you attend Court. Thus far what occurs to me at present concerning it.

I have signed & sealed the Custom House matter, wherein you are surety, on a bond for John Carruthers - Sum insured under £29.55. Should there be any trouble about the recall. Query the information to Mr Pastons who enclosed it & to whom to shape the answer be paid and refused you. The response duly sent.

Dayles Bay Works today offering to take your rents & collect them. Implies that you will be detained. Thought of sending down & that on your return you could arrange with them.

Have carefully read & frequently & attentively have now all rights noted but impression being that all your property was mortgage and that by deeds can be done you do not. Glad him that was not to take your instructions & perfectly would justify clear and that you could pay off your overdraft and have Forty or Fifty Thousand clear. Does the man thought might [illegible] require and perfect deeds and to address me down from Saturday to [illegible]

That owing to the dullness of the times, like a great many others having a large amount of real estate, it was impossible to realize from it at present, but as soon as times improved a bit you would be able to realize and pay and therefore to be under no apprehension as to getting the amount due them. They may wish sooner, better, but this can not appear to be before—

Chase holds a mark of glossing over and some little lying but keeps on in good humor and tells funny stories.

Chase says Hall he says nothing can be done with the Commissioner that he will not pay you the amount he paid before for the remaining portion of your land, that when you can dispose of it at such a reasonable price he will entertain the idea of buying. I asked him what he called a reasonable price—well said he from fifteen to eighteen thousand dollars. Now Hall it appears certainly to be better for you to sell for any such price as this than to appear not like to upon any such offer as this to you. The bottom does seem to be fast against all every thing. Good every Knows what will be the result. The affair from Crowley can only undoubtedly end, it does look as though there would be

8 in declaring Hayes president. Already certain democrats begin to talk very boldly & threateningly even Hendricks thinking that he is ready to take up arms - It is hoped now that things have progressed so far that Hayes will be allowed to take care of his own. The democrats will have a fellow chance now from now & will do so by those chances in his favor

Mrs Young-wife to Joseph A. O'Donohue. And he has been to see her. But she is pulling out the wrong drawer and you must stand for Republicans if you want to win any politics for yourself and you had better work through Mizelle the American member who you say will do it for you - answer as through your friends here. No doubt Mrs Young can accomplish much for you and I shall urge her to do so through Hon. Reprod Philetus Arthur Murphy & Chase up Alexander more than I have as - Hon Rep to report you only & Mr Chase up Alexander and with the Chairman upon such papers as you have up to please exclude. Thanking you for favor from you & yours truly W. H. Hall

Received New York March 5th 1847 from Thomas Whaley Eleven 00/100 dollars, being one half the day collected and received by him from Owen O'Rourke, (the smith occupier of lot 116 at Springhouse, formerly belonging to Con Mullen) being for six months interest on his bond and mortgage, ending February 28th 1847. which amount I promise to account for to the estate of John H. White deceased, should Probate thereof be required to do so.

Esquire Edwards Augs.!

Edward P. Young Esq.

Dear Sir -

Yours of the 16th inst came to hand yesterday. I took it to Mrs. H. to read and found that she had received mine written the 15th. She is in great distress owing to the severe illness of Louis for more than a week past and fears that the many Doctors - Drs. Bell & Mayer & Lewis being sick she could not get them to attend to Louis but she recommended Dr Grant as a safe physician - He has been attending the child without being able to do anything or seeming to know what ails & threatens him - To day I recommended her to call in another doctor - to which she consented. I went to and Dr Mayer, not succeeding he had kindly & friendly received to attend to & get him to recommend some doctor as a consulting physician with Dr Grant. Fortunately Dr M was fortunately better though he had not been out for two weeks. I yet had to induce him to go out once, but it was too late in the afternoon. He promised to visit Dr Grant tomorrow at 11 am and I hope their consultation will result favorably for the dear little sufferer. It is not known what is the matter with him. His head is out of his mind & constant pain of the temple and back is covered with boils & sores. The Doctor says he has lost much blood. This is a great mistake to what should be added to the many things which have had to bear - and I often & often pray that God will strengthen & support me & enable me to bear all things as the many things which press upon me.

May 4th Sent on last evening appl last letter to me with the one to Belle and Mary. I have not had time consider them as fully to consult with Reynolds & Jane therefore am not prepared to give any advice to Sa rah as to the practicability of the plan but I do not expect any favorable result therefrom — Your creditors very kindly take 10% for the 50% which ought not be asked for today for more than 25% cash or at most $100 — though by refusing your offer they might ultimately get less —

Reynolds Bear is very much embarrassed, therefore you can expect no aid whatever from him — and he may be obliged to engage in some business. I doubt if he could undertake the management and settlement of yours, which he should do immediately would occupy nearly the whole of his time — Oh yes do you keep me constantly busy for months past — and then are some things which I ought to attend to which I found impossible to attend to for want of time —

You may not think I have done much or busy appreciate it, but I doubt if for money you will find any one to do more than I have done without preaching. But must have been a work of friendship out of regard to the goodness of your dear wife, who I have willingly served and shall continue to serve for a new Bugis and if I succeed in reading them aright I take her on the other side of the bay with me against the bringing out her opera. I shall be very happy to pay for all that I have done for you and I think it do [illegible] of Mrs. Y. will [illegible] to Mr Reynolds or other men with [illegible] having enough of his own. But whatever she thinks best to be done I will attend to arrange and at the proper time she may ask him to excuse the [illegible], under your promise of [illegible] to carry it into effect

I got the [illegible] for 20 days from the 26th from Sandoe— arranged some days ago for him to see Mrs. G. but owing to her sickness he was not able to do so. He was to have seen her last evening and perhaps did.

He says he is having Cards of the Egyptian Claim made out & forwarded to you. I think that he can do it & the papers when sent back and look as no man could lie as you think he has & not to.
Mrs. G. is trying to get Con. Buckley through Philadelphia & may have to plead the amnesty against her selling lands for him, but she is a good deal down and cries at nothing & needs a little with sympathy & your copy &c. I do not send passport, but request some evening that that you may see what you can & was best possible.
I enclose a letter from [illegible] on Brother also one from Mrs. G. which I am sending letter you by day when I can. I can write by Supplement but may now close working & send and shall hear from you. Yours Sincerely Thos. Hall

My dear Mr Whitby

I hope been thinking over & I have come to the conclusion that I will not be able to go to N.Y. on Saturday as I have a bad cold and feel very poorly in health. I know that you have done every thing for me and I thank you also Mr Cobb from my heart for your kindness I dont feel able to sing and when I do so I wish to do Justice to you and your Kind friend Mr Hasselt

I will call on the Dr when he returns. If any thing should happen to make my Opinion a favorable one I will give counsel to my own I am not really strong and would never stay by it result and Darkness unless I did Justice to my talent I have great faith in my singing and wish them to know when I can do justice to your wife not to disappoint any one friend and that you will appreciate my motives are with more thanks than I can express I remain

My Dear Friend.

Mrs Young requests me to write you by the mail leaving tomorrow but having a willing mind I have not much to communicate.

I am in receipt of yours of the 11th inst with enclosures to Mrs Y. Crouch, Burke, all of which I have delivered. the ones to Hall and McCurdy I am of opinion, as being unclaimed, Our Garrison not right being about to attend to business, and the town having been deserted.

You are to answers concerning the delivery of the letters, such time has ago to Cary Lee and Gibbes. I consulted again with Burke who assures me to be doing. and he thinks it unadvisable. I then handed them to Mr Y. who assured them to Raymond and he was of the same opinion. both confirming my own in regard to the matter. Do not blame me in not delivering them they remain now in the hands of Mrs G. The house 14th St 16th St is at last rented for $1200 per year from August 1st and first month $100 paid in advance.

Reynolds signed lease as your attorney May 1st. Ohise handed the lease and money to Burke who was red Hookhelms Attorneys, Benedict Taft & Benedict, pay'd over to them first of Nov. and if anything have Reynolds make an assignment of the lease so that they may collect the future rent to become due to you accordingly. He will also if possible make settlement with Hemsley and bring G. if they can be induced to take Springhurst Bro.

There is no chance of arranging by note with Saunders Kenny & Mother, as they are not drawing as they worked, and I fear little chance of arranging by giving them Bro. We suppose they will be willing to accept of Bro. but Kenny who is no longer in the concern and not altogether friendly disposed towards Saunders, or towards you either, requires $125.

The time of extension expired today Mrs G. wants to have time extended by your return which might be in dispute with your new client they would not consent. Burke declined asking for a further extension, basing on a former occasion promised, not to do so. Asked for ten days promising not to ask for another extension. Agreed five days so that if no settlement is made the action must go on. I think by Wednesday at 10 o'clock Burke will go for the $125 if necessary rather than have suit. They will get judgment against you for a considerable amount, certainly more than half what they claim, and to satisfy it with costs will end in the month as previous. Take it things take many on behalf of the

Inspecty to satisfy the claim - Dan

THE WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH COMPANY.

ALL MONEY TRANSFERS MADE BY THIS COMPANY SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

For the accommodation of travellers and others, in emergencies, and incidentally to facilitate its own business, THE WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH COMPANY will make transfers of money, in small amounts, containing no fractions of a dollar, between a limited number of its offices.

Such transfers will be made upon the following terms and conditions, viz:

To cover clerical and incidental services, a charge will be made of one per cent. on all sums of $25 or over, and for smaller amounts such charge will be 25 cents in each case.

As the usual telegraphic service necessary for each transfer exceeds two telegrams of 15 words each, a further charge will be made for this service of a sum not exceeding double the tolls on a single message of 15 words between the transfer places.

Payment of the sums transferred will be made at the principal office of the Telegraph Company at the point designated, upon satisfactory evidence of the personal identity of the payee. The sending of a telegram requesting transfer of money to its sender will not be sufficient evidence of his identity with the payee of such transfer.

In case payment is not made to the payee within 48 hours after receipt of the transfer message by the Manager of the paying office (exclusive of Sundays and holidays), the transfer will be cancelled and the amount thereof refunded to the sender on application at the receiving office, and in such case the amount received for services and tolls will be retained by the Telegraph Company.

THE WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH COMPANY.

ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one half the regular rate is charged in addition. It is agreed between the sender of the following message and this Company, that said Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any UNREPEATED message, whether happening by negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any REPEATED message beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same, unless specially insured; nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages.

And this Company is hereby made the agents of the sender, without liability, to forward any message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

Corrections in the transmission of messages to any point on the lines of this Company, can be secured by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz.: 1 one per cent. for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and 1 two per cent. for any greater distance. No employee of the Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

The Company will not be liable for damages in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after sending the message.

Edward E. Young Esq.,

Dear Sir:—

I hope to return to California soon, and must therefor request you to settle with me for Services rendered.

You will find me matter on a easy negociation as I shall ask only what is reasonable.

Your treatment the other day was uncalled for, and but a poor requital for my devotion to your affairs. I am willing to overlook this, however, believing that you must on reflection, have regretted the severity of your hasty and ungentlemanly language to me.

If agreeable and convenient you may appoint I will meet you at your rooms, and, in a friendly way, discuss the value of my claim, and arrange in some satisfactory manner for its payment.

As regards the balance of the loan to Mrs Ny:- which you have promised to pay in Paris, if you can do so immediately, or within a few days you will enable me to [redacted] relieve a suffering & distressed family, and greatly oblige,

Yours Truly,
Fred Schaeffer.

Dear Sir. I met your friend young a few days before we left Newark and told him to say you a few lines to you but having had time to look for it. I am now located as above and prepared to offer you my services. My business will be of the same kind which many sons of Newark and other American towns. Now you can do me and your self good service if you will at your leisure and me the address of any of your old friends in California who are likely to need my assistance, among others I remember you having spoken of the Salmon packing and Canning parties who had removed their works to Alaska owing to the short supply now to be had on the Columbia River. My firm Goddard & Co are prepared to handle any and all sorts of produce and for all articles in the Produce & Provision trade they have a constant demand. I expect to go home during the summer when I shall hope to have the pleasure of meeting you meantime don't forget me and whenever you can put in a word for me and the house I represent please do so as occasion

I called to see them parties in Nassau at 11.00 and altho the note from you came to late am obliged to you all the same. When I mention the fact that Mesgrs were awarded by the Board Commissioners the contract for supplying Paris with Beef Pork Flour &c after the Government had had in competition with all the other bids tendered you will see you are not sure - you can form an idea of their standing. In short if any of your California friends desire to be represented here in their Corps any thing to bring or take letters must be in hand for if anything is beyond a question as to they are prepared to advance to any extent to all first class Yankee Please make kind regards to your brother. Must close this for this Evening. Send an age of the black mare in hand. Can't say that I like the Peggy and suddenly always. The little ones are quite well. Trusting you are well and doing well, and hoping soon to hear from you I am truly Yours

Jos Tilly

P.S. I note an friend Francis a few days since and to day home and well. I would be pleased to see you at any time you have opportunity to call at the Office on Kearny St. you know.

Friend Tom,

I cannot let the year go out without writing you a letter, to try and draw an answer. I received my last letter from you May 25th, and I am sure I have written twice since. Some time in July I wrote you that I could not find Young at his office, I have called again, and again, and left my card. For the past four months I have not been near him, but I find from friends in the trade that he is doing very little. Shall I return the note to you or will you put it into the hands of some Lawyer? Talking of Lawyers puts me in mind that about two months ago Mrs. Goodrich sent to my office to know your address. I gave the boy one of your cards, and fully intended to write home (Goodrich) but I have heard from you, but it has rested my mind. I am now living in the State of New Jersey, I moved last April to Bloomfield N.J. and will try the air for One year. If my Wife enjoys better health we will remain, otherwise I think we will return to Brooklyn. I rented my house furnished, to Smith, and hired my present home furnished with a difference in my favor of $400. I am still at 47 Pearl Street, and have no idea of leaving there, but may have to close up on account of the Rail Roads taking our business from us. Last year we done a very heavy trade, and after paying a salary of $32.000.00 to our friends, we made more money than ever before. This year we have the lowest profits for ten. Mrs. Lord often asks if I have heard from you, she is now 92 years old, and quite as well as when you saw her last. We are all in good, or I should say, most of us are enjoying good health; my wife still has those long headaches, lasting two or three days, and Mrs Lord has her poor days. Will is now a California horse in the dry goods business. His firm is Murphy Grant & Co. We hear they are a large concern. Herman still goes to school at Bloomfield, as does also the two girls (Minnie & Alice). I met Arthur Oakley for the first time since you and myself called upon him in New York some years ago. Last Saturday, he is also living in New Jersey, and we crossed the ferry together. We had a good time talking over old times. He asked after you, and if you had the Feather Bed yet. Write me all about yourself and family. Give lots of love to your daughters from mine, and remember both my wife and self to Your good Lady.

Yours affectionately Old Friend

George

Dear Mrs. Whaley,

Your letter dated Feby 22d just to hand, and not having letter paper convenient, take this, please excuse it. I heard of the death of my old friend "Tom" through my son who was in Sacramento last January and read the death in a paper he took up in the reading room of the Y. M. C. A. Soon after that a paper from San Diego reached me with an obituary on my old friend Tom which I supposed came from Frank's. My dear Mrs. Whaley, my wife, daughters, and self often talk about you and your family, You have our deep sympathy. Tom was dear to all of us we passed some very pleasant times together.

In regard to Mr. Young. I enclose an obituary and will add that upon enquiry at his late office I found that he was worth nothing, just "living from hand to mouth" I will also enclose a "General Release" and slip from one of dear Tom's letters, showing his kind heart even to one who had not acted well with him, and his generosity to my daughters.

Hoping to hear from you soon again, and with kind regards to Miss Lillie, I remain your sincere friend

Geo. D. Puffer

P.S. I tried at different times to make some settlement with Young but it was no use. P.

Friend Jon

Yours of October safe to hand, yesterday, and late in the afternoon Mr Young called upon me, after I had written once, called twice, and left my card each time. He said that in talking with his wife, he found she had paid you $250. ~~dollars~~ for services, and he did not feel like paying any more, I told him of the letter I received from you in the morning, and in it you said if the thirty was not paid to withdraw the offer. He then said, well I will give you $25. seeing that I was angry he took out his pocket-book and filled up a check for thirty dollars, which I thought best to accept, for I think he is a great scamp. I then asked him what he would give for the other note you held, and he said "not one cent over twenty five dollars". He began to tell me about his wife calling upon a Mr. Hall, and that she proved to his satisfaction some sharp work on your part; I told him I was your friend, and did not want to hear of matters outside of the business he called to arrange. I will enclose the money order and hope you will be satisfied with my settlement, although I did not follow up your directions. Please excuse haste as I am busy, and have just time to forward the order with these few lines.

Yours Truly.

I saw Hamilton yesterday. He is not desirous to advance any more money for the Egyptian Claim, having just over $2000 in it already. But he says he will have the papers prepared and send them as soon as possible, probably by next Wednesday Steamer, and for me to write you to that effect. He sends besides the papers, power of attorney for you to ask for him, and letters of instructions, the terms of which he will work you to accept. Though he says he does not see how you are to accomplish anything before the 4th March. He says the reason he has waited so long is because he did not know the channels through which you proposed working, that of the Rums and approval of them, probably the money required might be forthcoming – but not Rumsing – is not willing to take any further risk – Dair If I had been home sooner that you were willing to undertake the matter on your own ofc he would have given some decisive answer and had sent the papers long ago – I told him before I knew whether he declined or refused to send the money I was not at liberty to inform him otherwise – that I had been waiting hearing the views and the money and papers – But as he had declined to send the money and I was at liberty to tell him. He says he has to send to Albany and to Washington to get additional papers – that he thinks they will be ready Wednesday next for me to come in again Tuesday. He has again removed the Rums to put in another 30 days from the 14th inst – this done at request of White – Through the same day on a letter to Mr G he has appeared at 60 days – Other Rums were to be no more in dilling with Daniels' your ofc in Rumsey column

I have a judgment from Daniels who has a recovery to be $8.012.25 nutgo at 10% discount giving you $6.810.42 Cash – He wish to arrange to pay

Friend Young.

I sent you Swiss International P.O. Order No. 9551. Dated 23. 1877 for $10.00 and to day through Belmont & Co by Cable 235 francs, addressed E.T. Young Care American Legation Brussells. I send the english P.O. Stamps need for P. Rumsey as woman in England. I was wrong in saying that White had paid out on Mortgage E.29 - it is not paid but the £192.0.0 M.L. Ins Co is paid. I met him Barnes this morning stating he had been White coming before Court and would be here again soon. So far nothing done. met on Barnes D. afternoon when the Clerk D. J. says I am in a hurry & would write more. Saw Mrs G. yesterday. all well She had been D. Phelps. Children well. D. Sprat at Hanley this morning - not in - could learn nothing about papers, whether sent or not - will see him again & inform you. He said when I said him last that he was at work and intended D. send them - I have done all that is possible D. further the matter and you intend to guess. Have been unwell some time past have not yet entirely recovered, yet able D. be around. My affairs are tied up in a day or two. but I shall not leave here I have arranged things prudently for you - leaving them in best hopes I can - and do for any you all that I can - I shall expect hearing before you return or here after. I will write longer letter and fuller particulars when I see Collins. Good D. E. S. Young Esq

Dear Friend.

I have this day sent a Sears International Pedal Cider, No 9557. for $10.00, addressed Edward S. Young. Care of American Legation, Brussels. Belgium. from Mrs Bonnie Young.

I expect also to send you to day or within a day or two about $100.00 c/ by Cable if Mrs G. can possibly raise the money.

I wrote you Saturday. something about the effected case of the ships by Lamata. Since then I have seen Mr. L. D. Co. they say for White to make the application to the Court & direct for a withdrawal of a portion of the ships, praying for them the same as heretofore and so forth. I spoke to White, and he sent a note to Daniels which unexpected him in direct communication with White to arrange the matter and ask the favor him to introduce his principal to him. The judge has not yet conducted to the Oak Days he was on what arrangement can be made with the Bros Co - after interviewing Daniels. There is an evident reluctance on his part for the reason that he holds the notes from Hall for which he paid $1100. all of which he will have to give up except a note of about $150 — 10 days there is some equity in these notes over and above the $1100 which he now holds as security for the monies which he has advanced upon, and in case of allowing these notes to be used, making an assignment of them, he will have no security whatever for what he has advanced upon. Should the arrangement be made with Bros Co as I hope, paying them $575 of the notes and have by them paying the Judge $1100 due on the Hall notes and the note due to Bros Co and to him of the present time there will be in cash some $2000 - I propose to the Judge to pay Stearns Hall & Oliver Days $100 and some the big note pressing - I can keep us 29th inst yet - but when I come he speaks to the sale of the notes because it worries Collier terribly. I said then Judge do as you please you yourself all that are up - once upon a time Stearns urged Judge during this time with the sale of the notes - this is then brought to the door of the and he weakened at once - so that I then he was content to the sale and do what done to you in with the money - and to arrange a portion of which has been lost to pursuit to about $500 from the sale of the Oak - If the Oak were go through, yet and endangered - It is almost to you to realize these sums -

Dear Pet. 10 am — Received your letter

Mrs [illegible] directed his remarks chiefly to you and his remarks always required considerable to be done – Mrs G– does not think much in order to make much or any considerable day she does not say how she will be able to live – She tells him that an enemy down every body is making concessions and that she will have to do the same – that she cannot afford Maria 8 to pay more rent than she now is with – that she will have to reduce it when Maria 8 goes out and Betsy to does what she retains a good servant, does her own cooking and probably a laundress occasionally which a new servant will require She says she will consult Dr Bowditch and request me to do so but as to her views what determination to come to at the end of the week.
You will certainly consider a quarter of a hundred hard and now that the family wages has changed position, she is obliging to live more economically probably than ever before in her life – She is anxious to not to incur any more bills and to lessen as far as possible those on hand. She seems to be much much to over any body anything – does seem to me that if you had influence upon the Judge of your circuit two years ago when you much rather pushed your leading case off to than to have incurred more than the extraordinary effort which within the past ten days secured hundreds of dollars upon which the court to you and the balance as soon to pay interest leading him without dollar to get anything for himself. The money apparently has gone but a guarantee remains paying everything. When Mr Clarke knew very little $200 interest and at least two years taxes to be paid to him he recommended strongly and would almost be glad undertaking for him and said that you would have to come home to look after the prop ty. Dr Nelson has given his authority to purchase a home for you and I am managing the matter for him has made an advantageous & finale receiving official endorsed check which will be given back to him on every day advisable to the Doctor and probably the Commissioners decision will be known to pay the balance of the interest. The Clerk the Judge before he took his oath to pay the balance of the interest provided the principal sum $200 or $300. and he may have promised him to do so. I do not think the Judge is much inclined to advance your mortgage money, believing the mortgages interest hands inadequate for that already advanced He may be it is not in his power to do so.

The Endowment C. came two ago with a pro application for the use of taxes 94 E. 29 I gave it to the Judge. He said he did not see how it was possible for him to pay besides the interest was unpaid. Said Mr Young was certainly low hearted, the land forced and it would be a good thing for least $10000. He said that you had pro ised to pay the November last to which pay ing the interest - but that you should take everything. He said he would see him or write to him. Think he could pay pay and it is probable the cause of his selling down and a heavy what she can borrow of the interest but she will have to pay a great deal more to pay the balance and at least one grand ball to start by the 1st of—

I have not yet got my money but I have promised her when I get it I will redeem her cross & necklace in the hands of the Quaker & give her an opportunity of displaying them at a ball provided she will enable her to pay interest & keep on her hands besides paying off the most pressing debts—

I don't suppose you will care to see it but the Ruin I have written you so much in this letter. She cannot think it was needlessly troubling you—as probably it will—but I think you ought to know—otherwise don't blame me—

Ah! the Ribbon Ruin is producing something—I am going to call in those thousand out—& one guinea more to pay for those they have—

Dear Friend

I have not time to write a long letter and do so now to inform you that on the 15th inst. I sent you by Cable through Belmont & Co. 1162 pounds Can American Legations. Business which I hope you have already received. Have not received response to Cable you last letter received by me Y. She says she does not know she can possibly send you anymore. She has also given me £200 to pay on acct of int due on 4 Es 29th Feb. leaving due a balance of £325. which she will endeavor to pay. I have charged Mrs. Lord does for her. The Judge is very sick indeed with pneumonia, and am allowed to see him. Mrs Y. has paid due on Office furniture £4.00 also £25 pound balance rent 18 E. 23. Storage on things at Mancels heading Box one of the things on Storage Rent to Dr. Nelson - which is very fortunate indeed just at the present time. She need to sell the furniture in house 4 E. 29 - checked to get £50. or $4,000, but when he comes to see it he says he prefers buying rent. He is about purchasing a house, but does not wish to give more than $20,000 in a good location and I think quite likely he will get it. Madame Le B has refused to take house at Dam rent, as by a considerable reduction says she must have a new front, parlor carpeted &c. She has not paid two months rent, and confesses her father and self do know about the end of March Rents have fallen or rather we have very much by 1st May. Landlord demands an both housing out.

Little expects to rent two rooms Dr Hall for $250 or under not remain. Mad Le B. & Mrs a fully furnished house on 34th St. for $2000 per Ann. I don't think Mad Le B. will be willing to pay the most more than $225 and require parlor carpet. Better to retain her present tenant than rent for a less rent to a new one with the chance of not paying and leaving house empty.
You must make concession on rent, therefore better to do so to her decide in case she leaves considerable repairs of house, and painting will have to be made besides painting which will probably cost several hundred dollars — You know how it is when tenant moves out

New York May 9. 77.

Edward C. Young Esq
Dear Friend.

I wrote you a long letter last Saturday but was too late to get it off before Wednesday's mail – adding thereto a few lines and promising to write again by tomorrow, Saturday's mail more particularly. Last Monday Mrs Y. was taken off as I explained to her. The provisions of your affairs, but especially in relation to L.E. 29th St. She realizes the importance of doing something the most important being the repayment of interest and taxes. She has got over the effects of the past few days occasioned by the death of our good old friend Judge Thelaid the disclosures I deemed it necessary to make to her regarding your affairs, and was cross examined about with the full determination of rectifying things immediately as far as she is able. First we went to the Mutual Life Ins Co

Mrs H. wrote about $10 or $15 myself – and the 2500 Bonds as security for same – learned that the President was in California saw Mr Crawford, the 2nd Vice President, who made personal examination as to the situation of his property. Said that the matter had been before the Board, and consequently beyond his control, but if she would make statement and request in writing for postponement of payment of taxes, it would come up for consideration before the Board, Wednesday, & recommended her, if possible, be for addressing the board, she could pay the balance of the Dec interest, they would more likely consider favorably the matter in regard to postponement of taxes. She succeeded in doing this paying interest and additional interest in full to Dec 1st 65. She then prepared her letter, which the next morning I handed, Jews, to Mr Crawford, at the same time informing him that the interest was fully paid up to date that Jews had interviewed with Mr G. he had spoken to Mr McCreery, who was acquainted with you, and that as member of the Board he would use his influence to obtain the delay of payment of taxes, which Mr G. had asked for. Mr Crawford said that as that the interest was paid, he thought there would be no doubt of the application being granted and for me to call in a day or two. I should have called to day, but the matter have prevented me from doing so I read the long letter which I intended to have sent last Saturday to Mr G. who approved of the proposition, therein contained for the settlement of your affairs. The sale of Springhurst - paying off the incumbrance of five hours - the most pressing debts &c as detailed to you. The information that Reynolds had informed her that this was the best course to pursue - and Mrs Bixby in a long conversation with her, recommended the same thing. - That pursuit she would leave the management of your affairs in Mr Brooks hands, until she can hear from you your views. As your business was entire ly with Judge White, he knows very little in regard to your matters and says the must wait for a few days. His absence as the Budget will be addressed to probably and some one authorized to attend to make the connection therewith. The writer was made over ten years ago, on the eve of the Budget departure to Europe, and a life office to the only executor married.

Mr G had an interview with L J. Phillips regarding a consultorship for you — and concerning Col Garrison about purchasing Spring hurst. He said there was time enough, a month or six weeks hence, before any appointments would be made, but when the time came he would go on to Washington and give the matter his personal attention. In regard to Genl Garrison, he promises to do what he can, but does not approve of Mrs G. going to see him — Entirely it is as great a punishment the writer to be in order to effect a sale —

The writer wrote Dispatch Murphy and Genl Sheridan, Washington requesting to use his influence with Genl Sherman the brother of Senator Sherman who was most most likely the Secretary of the Treasury, with the President to obtain the an appropriation for you— besides the use brought influence to bear from Col Allen Bellow, O'Donoghue &c. I have addressed him also to see Saunders to explain all you wrote to him in your last letter about Egyptian Claim and have him to place you in possession of all papers connected therewith and to use whatever influence he may have in procuring the Consulship at Cairo— but I do not mention this to any one and to do all possible I hardly believe it possible for him to accomplish the that object purpose— I write and him however, to the fullest extent of my ability, and have postponed my return to California, indefinitely, for this purpose.

We are also trying to effect a sale of Spring Hill with Roach. Saturday last expected to return from Washington— Mr Hanover will ascertain at what hour he is to be found at his office, when Mr Yerrill go with

Hosmer and myself to see him and help to be able to get him out to see the Property on Sunday next — mrs G. going with us to make it more agreeable and would an offer be made upon which Scottifield get at once — Mrs G. is almost confident of success, but thinks the Jack should be more determined than ever to see the Commissioners and direct his Counsel against him being deeply impressed with the importance of doing something immediately to relieve you from embarassment and to enable him to go to Europe by the end of May to bring out his Opera, which occupies so much of his thoughts, and make it a perfect success, as doubtless it will be.
Madam Le Blanc bids 2 guineas for her £29. 0s. 0d. for one year or $225 per mon. without the expense of mrs Carpets, requiring but little expense for repairs of furniture and fixings in the hall & stairs placed. Calhoun's said that at the last arrangement that could be made, and better than could have been made had any other tenant taken the premises who would have required new mrs Carpets but several hundreds of dollars of repairs, as is invariably the case.
Rents have fallen in some localities more than 30 per cent, some more and thus daily per each upon leases of last or former years, when there were leases existing — Mr Couch has started a new paper & not yet seen it — a shrewd capitalist, I believe and I hope he will succeed thereby — I hope you will write about the matter I referred to in my last, concerning the advances between you and Snyder, that as the first per term is due in June, it may be adjusted — Cecilia, the blind girl in whom mrs G. has taken so much interest without ing particularly the fact exhibited with her turns out to be, instead of a little girl a full grown woman of thirty years! My G. was at the Institution for the Blind this morning. They could do nothing, except to recommend the Institution for the Blind upon Blackwell's Island, where she may be able to obtain a permanent home, should she so desire.

Gunn & Co. write that probably you would be able to explain the balance of $29.05 due Custom House. Said Mr Phelps, an officer there, got him to make endorsement upon the receipt & the officer drew him a pass, and then delivered the same to Mr Rear, who said that proceedings for the present I had transferred who says he sent the Egyptian papers about the 4th Feby, I think, and at the same time a cable gram that he had done so. Surprising indeed that you had received neither of the two offering.

I sent you yesterday at the request

If Mrs G. The following telegram

ber. Millennial. Aboard [illegible] no answer to your letters of the 21st 22d & 26th you were beginning with the collection of rent — Jem Slack about the matter. I told him that I understood fully — and would attend to it — He said he wished kellar. Must now close, my dear

New York March 20th 1844

Edward J. Young Esq.

Dear Friend,

Yours of the 6th inst. I have, also one dated written to Mrs Y. I am glad to hear of your having succeeded in making arrangements for the manufacture of the Ribbon Rimmon and hope you will be reimbursed for the heavy outlay you have been at; and the opera is to be produced this coming fall the success of which has to be almost certain. Mrs Y. has not yet been able to raise the money which she promised by cable to pay the Librettist the $500 he required in advance. You have about $200 and will require at least $200 more for his and your current expenses. She is much troubled with the difficulty which she has in procuring money fearing the failure of her opera We have tried every means, but as each quite despair of being able to do so. and if successful will send the money at once. Difficulties are continually arising greatly complicating things; which, were you to return, would be rapidly increased as parties would become immediately more importunate and give you no peace. Better stay for you to remand when you can at present turn such sum as your affairs can be put into some shape. Mrs G. can manage certainly things better so long as you can remain away than you could were you there. The greatest of all troubles just now is the demand of the Mutual Life Ins Co that the taxes upon 4 & 29 Ld Sh shall be paid. You are trying to get an extension of time before selling Springhurst or raising money upon it or getting the mortgage upon the house increased. The Company for sometime past have been promising to have the property valued (that is the house) and if they can without detriment to this interest grant the extension they will do so. The matter is now in the hands of their appraisers I hope to receive a definite answer this afternoon. Mrs G. went to see Roach. He positively refused to buy. also to Gair & Co who also refused though he said he might let us have the idea himself. I proposed his loaning us four thousand dollars upon plot A. I thought he entertained the idea favorably. Again Mrs G went to see him. He certainly gave her encouragement said he might be able to do so and for me to call to see him the following day. When I did yesterday when he told me it was impossible to make the loan. It was a quasi disappointment when I informed Mrs G. her answer. A few days ago we thought to get a loan of $20,000 upon the house to pay off the Mut. L. Ins Co taxes &c but the brokers report it impossible. The property having been appraised by some at $25,000 and others at $30,000. He said he might perhaps get $18,000 and something over to $19,000 upon plot A 52 45/100 sqr ft Plot K 43 66/100 and Plot J. 159 4/100. I told him I would be useless, to sustain all negociations for the present not having power from you to do anything. though he might enquire what he could do in regard to increasing mtge upon the house if possible to $18000 to $20.000 but without proper from you could do nothing. Mrs G. told me to have Bush draw up power approving Mr Reynolds your attorney, you having said in your last letter to her in the event of the death of Judge White[illegible] more valuable you would not give power of attorney to any person. I enclose this power to you, giving your attorney power to mortgage or sell the whole or part of Springhurst and to join with Mrs G. in mortgaging or selling house & L29 Mott, also to foreclose mortgage &c, now you know all my instructions to Bush. I could & furnished him an old power of attorney which at one time you had given Mrs G. decided to Maverick so that he might embrace other things in it making your power to Reynolds as full as possible. I hope you will send this to me without delay to that I may deliver the Same to Mrs Reynolds, and during the meantime through brokers & private parties, Shall endeavor to negociate a loan or sale of a portion or the whole of Springhurst. but do not think a sale can probably be at the present time as probably not more than $20 000 could be obtained for the 166 acres lots, the same as the last offered Same. Hath before you left. Should a sale of the property at $30 000 or even at $25.000 would be the best thing to be done, paying off encumberances upon 48.29 ½ ac. This would give a competent income to your family, the next best thing is to mortgage a portion of Springhurst for enough to pay debts & leave a good Cash Capital. Something to go into business with. $7.500 would be sufficient for this — the next best thing is to get mortgage increased upon house to $20.000 — and if only to $18.000 — borrow the balance if necessary upon a portion of Springhurst if possible. If this cannot be done (that is the mortgage insurance upon the house) and nothing obtainable from Springhurst by sale or mortgage) the last thing we would be to place the house for sale in the hands of a broker to sell it for the best obtainable price to realize as much as possible from it — anything rather than to have the premises sold under foreclosure which would not likely sell for more than enough to satisfy the mortgage than to satisfy all the demands against it.

You will take all these things into serious consideration and now that I have determined to remain here having sent Frank to California to bring on my family who are expected about the 20th of June, you may depend upon my doing all I can to the best interest of Mrs. G. during Mr. Reynolds to carry things out that is if you do down — without such proceedings on his part of course I can do nothing or the remainder things be done without the approval of Mrs Young — Thanks been terribly worried about things owing the death of Dwight White, realizes his position fully and is trying to push up such things and to do all that is for the best and as far as I am able to serve her. I shall be pleased to do so.

It is considerably past midnight. I might write about many things, but to shew I do not increase your trouble. I have written concerning that which is most important. The securing your Homestead the freedom of Mrs Ps home and saving her something if possible. My feels very much distressed as though the way already turned into the worst. Only the success of Jim is her only hope, that should that fail she knows not what will become of her. I give her all the encouragement and hope it is possible for me to give. She also feels very badly on account of the departure of Emily — who left Wednesday

She has given her money to go to Bruxelles to see you to explain to you more fully her embarassing position than she is able to write. My wife will soon be here and able to cheer her up I hope keep her spirits from being so greatly depressed. I trust she will be able to save all the money she acquires to relieve her from her troubles but more particularly what she acquires to go to England and to bring out her sister. It is the uncertainty of this which makes her so very unhappy at the present time. I will do all in my power to aid her in any and every way.

Postmus has been out of work for two weeks past, only send you Belgian paper to see than he has done. I think I could pay for them if necessary. He thought you wanted them for your own use more than I do. Though I see him frequently.

I heard nothing about your Consulship Mr G is doing all she can. When you write you might have some hope. I hope the friendly brethren you have written will be able to serve you. You write of having written to Senator Murphy. You leave me to see me to go to him but I think that I will do so as you know that I can do any good more than to remind him of your writing to him and perhaps suggesting him to call upon Mrs G. perhaps he may take some interest in the matter.

Brussells April 9/77

Dear Comm.

There is no letter from you or Mr Whaley by this mail, and I am kept in suspence as to what has not to be done about your opera. If you can't come over in May, I fear the opera cannot be brought out this year. I fear moreover, that Mr Humbert may think I have no intention of taking the libretto, and may change his mind about bringing the opera out at all. This would be a great pity after my wasting so much time and money. — It has taken a long time, but I have succeeded in actually accomplished what I came here for, viz: — I have found a manufacturer in Paris for the Ribbon Reins, without spending any money, except for the patents, duties &c. and that is entirely finished, and very favorable results are expected in time; I found a responsible manager to bring out your opera without any expense, except for the Libretto. It will require $500 or $700, but no more, for the libretto and arranging the music to the words to put the opera fully equipped on the stage, and should the opera "take", as there is no reason to doubt, it will have quite a long run, and retrieve our misfortunes in a short time, both here in Paris, London & N. York. After pieces have to be composed, and unless You come here, it will be impossible to go on further. As explained in my last letter upon the payment of 1500 francs I could get the first act, which is entirely satisfactory to Mr. Humbert and Mr. Rosenbaum could select from your Music now here, the airs suitable to the words, and accept them, making any changes considered necessary to be made by You upon your arrival. Although You think otherwise I am sure, if You had come here in the beginning, Your opera would have been in a much better position and it would have received much greater attention and excited more interest. — and I might, before now, have established myself in the brokerage business and commission, by assisting Labor and Insurance, to make money. — My reputation about Egypt, and Consulship, may be doomed to disappointment, but You know how natural it is to grasp as it were, at even a straw, to save ourselves from sinking to the bottom. — The Egyptian matter at one time, looked very encouraging, but Mr Fremiotis' delay, hesitations, or unwillingness, has unless I get the Consulship to Cairo, knocked that on the head. Perhaps Mr Phillips, will slightly assist to get this place for me. The Consul here, Col. Wilson appears to leave for another position and I should like to be here in his place and on account of Your opera

You may be able to get this for me, as you and my friends may have enough interest in (opium) to obtain the plan. - But I suppose nothing will be known in regard to appointments abroad, for a months to come. - In the meantime I have sent for samples of the kinds of tea needed here, to compare with the English & Dutch markets as to relative cheapness. when my friends will decide about going into the tea Jobbing & importing business, for which the prospects here and in France, are very good - Just now to go into the brokerage business in New York, with my debts unsettled, my chances would be very hard. But I certainly do not wish any one to think I am staying away to avoid meeting my creditors, honestly. I am to give such portions of Springhurst as pay 40 cts, on the $ in full giving you as security for the Twenty thousand I borrowed on the home and stable, a deed for the balance, or a mortgage to secure the note of $20.000.- If Mr. Reynolds should consent to act as attorney, and manage our affairs, he could arrange this. ~~xx~~ Without the necessity going to the expense of returning to Newport, at present. I owe now for my tax indebtedness, but very little, and if this I could give Mr. R. full particulars, Mr. Wheeler will give the details of the small bills. Mr. R. could arrange the matter with Judge White's Estate, pay part of the taxes, part to Dr. Ward, and in this way it would not require much money, and he could collect the interest on the Bonds & mortgages, pay interest to Mutual Life and upon your arrival here, two thousand dollars would be quite sufficient, certainly for now, if not for twelve months, for the whole family.- The rents of the 29 to 31 st. house, & the 16 ½ Rt. would an addition to the interest coming in pay everything in New York, leaving a balance for the family. - and in a year or so, by strict economy, both from the probable success of your opera, the Ribbon Runner, and the hope that a larger may in the meantime be found for Springhurst as a whole, or in lots, at auction, - our affairs might be once more in a position to enable us to live with our darling children in a position of competence, and free from this terrible and wearing anxiety and expense and - You have already my dear Boci, exhausted all your personal means, jewels, &c &c. while you could not afford, at times the amount you got for them. Please try the plan I suggest. - See McGowan, or Pettus, or Mr White or O'Donoghue's Lawyer (Joe or Denis) instead of wearing yourself out humiliating yourself, meeting with no success just now, in selling Springhurst. But before doing this, urge the matter upon the kind hearted and honest Mr Reynolds, who perhaps with Mr Burke, also true and honorable may arrange the matter together, instead of letting our affairs go into the hands of persons in whom I have not so much confidence or whom I may not know. If Mr R and Mr B. can arrange matters, our terrible plight (not so bad after all for the times) will not be known, or generally known. - and everything will come out all right with God's blessing. It will be a great relief to my mind to know that you can accomplish what I suggest, in regard to Mr R. Mr B and if you do, for Heaven's sake send me a few words by cable, saying "All right - Coming soon", or words to that effect. - If I send you one and one 1500 francs, I can borrow it from Mr Mayer, or Pettus, and Rosenbaum to work, though it would be better, having waited so long, to send this amount by cable; because if they or either should refuse me

I could ask for their aid again. They are now excellent friends, and will render any amount of pecuniary and service and friendship, but in money matters. What humiliation! The impression conveyed in Dr. Hale's letter is very bad, but it is dictated by Jean, and everything will be right if Jean can arrange as I suggest. I am very anxious to write to Cary, Gibbs, and Clinton Bliss & Co, (the last firm is retired) as soon as I shall know that you have succeeded in making some arrangement. Meantime, while I shall hope for the Cairo Consulship or the one here, I shall go on to make arrangements for the two businesses as the other parties will furnish the money.

General Farrar of St Louis, living here for economy with his wife, daughter, two grown sons and one servant only, gave me these figures last winter as to his expenses here:—

Apartment and flour (one story, parlor, dining room, two bedrooms, one bedroom for servants, kitchen &c. per month, fully furnished. 200 francs

The table of persons for table including Claire cook &c. 360 " servants 30

laundress 10

heating stoves 600 " one hundred thirty francs per month 130 This is Very much cheaper than you could possibly live in Paris, while [illegible]

Please tell Mr. Wholey to bring my two summer silk coats from the office, call for my papers and books, and get a written answer from Mr. Pastorius to my letter, and to get the samples from Messrs. George W. Lane & Co. or Steele & Co, as their prices would be more likely to be near the market rate, than the samples of other houses. — Let them be sent at once, by the Red Star Line otherwise by the German Line, to the care of the Company at Rotterdam, to be called for there, leaving them with the purser taking a receipt from him, and directed to me. If they should be neither German, nor Red Star steamer, then send by French Line, to Havre, directed to me, care of Joseph & Mingers, 77 rue d'Isabelle, Brussells. — By the time the two business is fully investigated, something will be known in regard to the Consul-ship here or to Cairo. If Francis is during sending the papers, don't make any further effort about Cairo, but if you can do anything, thank Mr. Reynolds, Pettus, & Dougherty

McGowan, Phillips, Murphy &c — I do not think it is wise in you to write to Genl Sheridan — If you could see him, it would be different — Though Mr John M. White is a democrat he has great influence (with) if you say I requested you to see him, about getting one of the Consulate-ships here, he would no doubt exert himself in this matter —

You had not stated in any of your letters, poor Emily's illness, or the cause of her leaving — not knowing of her own ill-health. I was disposed to blame her for not coming to Brussells, and letting me know Nicholas' message — But I have just received a letter from her, giving explanations, in a most satisfactory but sad manner — She was sick for three days after arriving at Rome, had but little money, she was still very feeble, found her husband in a deplorable condition, wasted by serious illness &c — Her letter was in French, and registered, and the Photographs of Yourself and Eddie & Louis, came safely to hand — by mail — Poor Emily! I cried while reading her deeply interesting and sad letter — She detailed your sufferings and sacrifices, how kind Mr Bennett has been &c &c, and that I should never know her love for the children and you, and the pain it gave her to leave them! My eyes are filled with tears as I pen these lines — I answered her letter, and wrote her to let me know where a letter would reach her, at any time — I thanked her for her feeling (and) care of the children, sympathized with her misfortunes &c — and requested her to write me again — She said she was about writing me a letter — God bless dear Emily —

Please tell Mr Wheeler, he will not send my passport — I have made arrangements to render it unnecessary, without paying the Consul or Minister —

Eddie's photograph is beautiful, so is Louis's. His dress makes him look like a little girl — Your own large size photograph, is not nearly so good as the one in my locket — Your hair is I think, arranged unbecomingly — It does not show your forehead, which shows so beautifully in the best of likenesses — The hair down the forehead makes your head look too small, and 4/ is a miserable fashion, and I think quite unbecoming to you —

I got a copy of the Freeman's Journal in the P.O. today. I suppose it came from you — It contained one of my letters, with many errors and omissions. I was sorry it read so much more poorly, with absolute contradictions, and inaccuracies — still it gave me some consolation, and can do no harm —

There is a mail due by the White Star Steamer, tomorrow, & I may hear something from you — I have decided not to ask my friends for any money, for unless you are coming, it would do no good, and moreover I don't wish to run the risk of being refused, and lose the friendship — implicit the friendly relations now existing between us. —

I have written you about everything that has occurred to me proper to write to you, and much want to hear — The power of Attorney to Mr. Reynolds, Mr. Merritt's letter omitted, an enclosed memo, and the letter I have signed. I am delighted with the photographs, and wish the sisters would send me Emmie & Jessie — Kiss the dear children for papa, invoking God's blessing & guidance on all with much love. I am darling Annie

Darling Emma

I just rec'd your letter of 2.7 enclosed in Mr Whaley's letter of 31st and am grieved and sick at the sad accounts you send. but especially dear Laura's serious illness - I trust and pray God this will find the darling child quite well.

Darling Emma so many matters to reply to now - I feel as badly as you do - I shd not have been insane and misled as to the value of Springhill, I should have sold it long ago, paid out only the liens, but the mortgage also - You are ruining your health and shattering every cent you have got - but if Mr Reynolds will act for you, as I have explained all will be well - your mind will be relieved at once -

By the next mail I shall write to Congdon, and others, explaining matters - Mr Stevenson is to blame in recommending so strongly the two last tenants for our 16th st. house - I have nothing more to do with him - If McCabin would not take the house off your hands, sell the furniture, if you think best, rent the house, through Hamm Morgan or Lindsley or Phillips. Stevenson has had two commissions for renting that house, to two bad tenants - and shd now do so, for nothing -

Your opera cannot be called Orgenlitz - but if there was time a new libretto might be written as "Evangeline" as the one selected cannot suit, as Evangeline, but the danger is that Humbert might make different arrangements - I may decline to bring the opera out, as it is now arranged to do - December will even be a better month to show upon, as the Holidays will be a great attraction - I shall say to Humbert you are sick but will remit as soon as you are able to be about -

Your sad sick husband

The points contained in this letter from page 1 to 8, embraces my ideas as to what is best to be done, in the present state of our affairs - But if you have made no other arrangements, to Mr Bushe, & Mr Reynolds, and are what the result will be - I hope you can succeed in this and cable me - If not, I may as well return home, and do something in New York, instead of going into any slow business here, unless you come over - I have so little to do, I am tired of idleness, and anything now, under God, depends upon your efforts - You should not give up the affair as it may turn out to be your fortune, though in this matter there is no infallible certainty, but it is now to me in coming to ahead a small sum only is necessary, and I hope it won't have to be given up, for that would be equal to abandoning it

Dear Mr Whaley:

I rec'd this morning your letter of 10th inst. and my terrible state of excitement has been somewhat relieved that things though bad are not worse, & I hope everything will be arranged and concluded even better than you hope. Anything that relieves poor Mrs Young's mind, and enables her to come to Brussells soon, will be a blessing. I wrote Miss G. very fully by yesterday's mail. Rosenbaum has been sent to see me to get some money. In ten days he will have completed the arrangement of the 1st Act of Miss Young's opera, contrary to his expectation being able to complete all the songs from Mrs Young's airs, - which he thinks will be entirely satisfactory to Mr Humbert & to Mrs Young's taste. He will then go on with the second act, which Mr H. will let him have no doubt, for the pumpernickel, until Miss G's arrival. But the airs are now here will soon be exhausted, and the presence of Miss G. is of imperative necessity, or the opera cannot be finished & come out this year. My present location is 6 Passage de la Bibliotheque, opposite Billiard's Monument, on Rue Royale, overlooking the beautiful Park in front of the Palace. I have a small front room, second floor, and from my window can see the Park, and hear the music of the Strip's band which gives free concerts in the Park every afternoon. It is over a respectable café, where first class people dine. I pay 25 francs per month, getting breakfast two boiled eggs, bread & butter & coffee for one franc, and ten centimes; and dinner at 4 to 5 P.M. for 1 fr. 25 (1.25 cents), English beefsteak, fried potatoes and a half pint English ale.

I mention these financial matters to show how cheap one may live "au garçon". Of course there are many other small expenses; but except for dinners occasionally & a few francs to spend for cigars or for friends to whom I owe many kindnesses, who call on me, I have tried to save the money sent me each for the opera, until my worn clothes, Rosenbaum's dunning, washing &c. made drafts inroads upon the amount in my hands, now reduced to 600 francs. Paid Hamilton to finish the libretto, 1500 francs, leaving due 1000 francs, which can I suppose remain for some time. — Rosenbaum is getting out of employment, and is now willing, indeed very anxious to devote his whole time to Mrs Yaw's service, having nothing to do during the Summer, the theatres here being now nearly all closed. He was trying to borrow some money to go to Paris, he and his wife being in a state of destitution now. His wife was a dancer at the Renaissance. She is about 25 years, apparently, & quite pretty, a native of Bordeaux. They have two small rooms at 8 Boulevard de la Seine, near the P.O. but must move because they cannot pay the rent. Such is life! Mrs Yaw's opera just now is Ps only resource. The poor man is in the best humour since I paid him 100 francs; but he expects at least ten francs per day, to live, and more when I am able to pay him. Two dollars per day seems very little for a man of so much talent. Even Hamilton, as critic, says R. is "full of talent", "thoroughly competent", but that "it is a pity he drinks". But I know more than Hamilton does, and seldom anything but lager; and now, as a husband, (civil marriage) he is entirely very willing to devote his whole talent and best efforts at Mrs Yaw's disposal. He says he likes to work for Mrs Yaw, will give everything up for her interests. Only now he has kept his promise, and I am now quite sure everything is going on right — If Mr. Humbert is well pleased with the arrangement when completed, he will probably bring out the opera in Paris instead of here, at first — as per agreement.

There are no receptions at the palace until after New Year. The Royal family remaining in the Country palace at Laeken. The Queen is surely a great patron of music, and the girls are like the King, and it would not be at all surprising if Mrs Jenny had a special invitation to the Palace, as Wagner had from Queen Victoria. The press will be "all right" when the opera comes out, and the King & Queen will be sure to attend. — It cannot now be brought out as a "grand opera." The Alcazar is too small, the expense & duration of a new artist, such as any as prima donnas, tenors &c in the "Huguenots" "Aida" &c. would be too much. When Mrs J's music is stamped with success, and wins the public appreciation as a complete work, then the great opera House would bring out Mrs J's music, re-adapting it necessary part of her present music, adding more; but only after her reputation is established could this be done. This is what Rosenbaum said this morning, and he knows. Many people think Mrs J. is not coming at all, and it is very discouraging indeed, I being here now over six mos. when she might (had she come) have finished everything from long ago, and have host of friends — earning surely as much respect and praiseful appreciation in N.Y. which I understand, would have done better, whereas I was trying to do what I did not understand!

I got a letter from the convent from dear Corinne, today, dated 6th inst. I shall write all the children in a few days — though Mrs J. could bring them all here, where education is so cheap, and where their knowledge of French, German, music &c. would be rapidly progressed during two or three years, and when they left would have so many musical advantages cheap, impossible to be had in New York — or in the United States. —

The best way for Mrs Young to reach here would be to come direct to London by the strong first class steamer the "Greece" or one of that line. Then from London by the "Baron Osy" a beautiful steamer, to Antwerp. She could make a good arrangement for the family from New York - A friend of mine brought four in family, in first cabin, whole state room, 4 berths for £30.0.0. from New York to London. This is worth investigating. I should meet Mrs Y. in London. - accompany the family to Brussels, via Ostend

I hope to hear favorably about the Regans. Then costing him seven francs for box, are good Regans. Havana big a brand, & I shall be surprised if they do not sell in lots of ten to fifty boxes, to dealers and grocers, at $6 = $7. per box. - My chinese cheroots, much known, with high duty sold @ $6. per box, even now retailing, of poor quality, at 10 cents. The "Britannicus" at 1¼ & 1½ cents each, here, ought & intend at 15 for 25 cts or 2 for 25. If they go, we can make money together. If there is money in the business, in a large way I stated in my letter to Miss Regnor's. You would report to him, to see if he thought favorably of it - so could be better to pay duties first the Regans in free store insured, before offering so that they could not be traced; to be offered there with the "Havana" brands, as many be invented. At Cuban is at the head of the establishments here, & has the identical brands used in Havana, by the different exporters and manufacturers - If Mrs Y. can get me the consulship here, or at Antwerp, we (You and I) can make money. Though my name would not be used. - If you have sent me the small lot of cigs I shall sell them readily at a profit - by a few days. I shall no doubt hear from you - I have money enough with you to

You might see Mr Cary & Mr Gibbs & other parties to accounts are over $250. explain what entirely what I propose, & tried to permit any freedom in my judgment - The lots are under $450 each, deduct 1/3 for depreciation making $300. with me Boston &c. - taxes on them are very low. - If able owned any house that property within three years. - If necessary, after you see the parties, any I shall return home within six months, when I can decide some pending matters after Mrs. Y. arrives, & personally close up matters etc. if too much to ask Mr. R. to sign, when Mr Burke and you can do preliminaries - Please read this at once to Mrs. Young, as I expect her to cable me "Returns" if I am if made in a week -

Dear Mr Wheeler:

I am in receipt of your (17-18 ult.) copious and interesting letter and I am greatly obliged for the minute details furnished, and your fidelity and services under trying circumstances will not be forgotten, if in my power to compensate you, as I desire to do, if God spares me, and I am able to do so -

I have written very fully to Mrs Jones, enclosing to her several letters, one being for you, on business matters, wishing her to read the same, and after conferring with Mr C. she may be able to advise you in the premises in carrying out my views - Be good enough, if you please, old friend, to call number, at once, or as soon as possible - I hope to hear from you, next mail, regarding the legacy claim. Meantime, while waiting here, I shall try and make some money.

I hope Mrs W. and your family are all well, and that your affairs will turn out better than you expect. And that for the years of pain and trial, you will enjoy years of pleasure and peace in the serene sunset of life. - The afternoon of our existence has already set in, and when our poor bodies sink beyond the horizon of life, let us live the same in the aurora of his glory, hoping for a glorious resurrection and an immortality of felicity.

Joan for ever and ever. - We must do right here, so far as we are able. Our children may have a happier experience, and when life without leaves, we shall be laid to rest, we shall cherish the hope, that a single flower planted over our head will testify the affectionate regard of those we may leave behind, in the Spring or Summer of their existence. - Poor Burnett's death, though not unexpected has awakened solemn thoughts. When I last heard from Tom he did not think his end was so near at hand! I wrote him about six weeks ago, which I thought a pretty and affectionate letter, and I intend to write two, (with the kindness intended) and attend on the same. - I knew Tom Burnett over 20 years, and he had many good qualities of head heart. - Peace be to his ashes!

Yours truly
C. F. Young

P.S.

I wrote my friend Mr. Rouse at the Herald office, who misunderstood in regard to "Ribbon Runners" into Mons. Rouzelin - in regard to the prospects - stating also I applied to citizens of New York, one of my own children being sick, as well as in the urgent business which delayed Mrs Young's coming, hitherto - He wrote me via Belize which I sent Mrs Young, Mine then another, which I inclose. Please return this to me after reading it to Mrs Young - The prospects of the Runners are very good, upon being encouraging. May have some money in by more than four months - Mr Rouse is a splendid accomplished Parisian, he and the Herald will be a great aid to Mrs Young's opera yet - His allusion to my sick darling Lorie is so sweet touching, & poetic that I wish Mr Young could read it - "Children, (he says) those animated flowers, like their sisters y one garden, birding under the least storm, when opposing a ray of the sun, their gaudy plume display full bright, which quite business in their colors, and diffuse a pleasant exhilarating scents perfume. Discovered their that there is exhilarating some missing of the Heavenly the Angels in Heaven, and thinking that God will not call to Him this one whom he has called near You. Amen" - My translation is not quite literal but it is substantially correct I did it on account of the kind sympathy and the interest & practical sentiments shown. - I have written the fine Gentleman, only merely mentioning that Mons. Rameau's Bill to extend the sale of Bitters Rum to the United States, under the authority now given is moved. Please have there [illegible] to Mrs. J. after you master the [illegible]

Dear old Friend:

Rec'd. your letter of 2nd April, just now. A long passage - alley - God bless you for the good news you send in regard to Louis, and your dear Jenny -

Rec'd. 686 francs. less com. as well as the previous 1442 francs. and the 1800 francs for first act of the Opera, which will be arranged by R. so far as the airs will permit, thus giving Mrs. J. less to do when she comes - I telegraphed that the Opera would probably come out in Paris instead of Brussels. There being so many Americans in Paris it's chances there would be better than here, if a success there would go everywhere, and make a fortune for poor Mrs. J. your dear children in the event of any health breaking down, and being unable to provide for them. I have explained to Mrs. J. more fully, in regard to balance to Seymour, that I need not repeat it - I have sent Rosenbaum two pens, but he must work it out, and also to Mr Norton, the vice-consul, who is very poor, 63 francs, which he promises, but probably will not pay back. He was very useful in getting information, running around with letters and invitations to the Ministers & consuls, when the Assistant came & and issues - Have had, if course, to pay him and Bois to attend to various things - I have nearly one thousand francs left - but I am in great straits for clothes, to present a decent appearance, must run a tick, but as sparingly as possible: Mr Humbert has several libretti, which he has bought, but has no music composed for them. He offers them to Mrs J. if she can compose the music, and either pay her for the music, or bring out the opera himself, pay her the composer's percentage, the music to be announced as composed by Mrs Caiman Jenny.

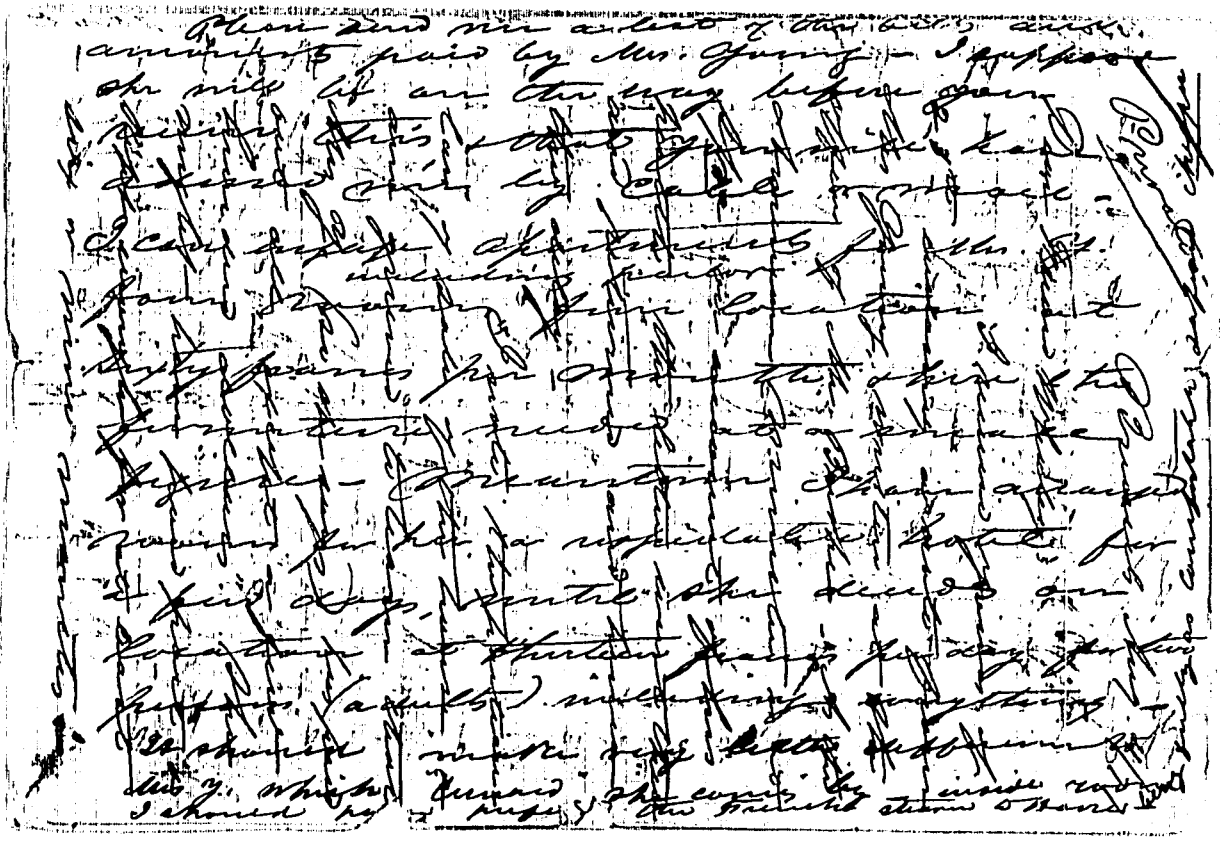
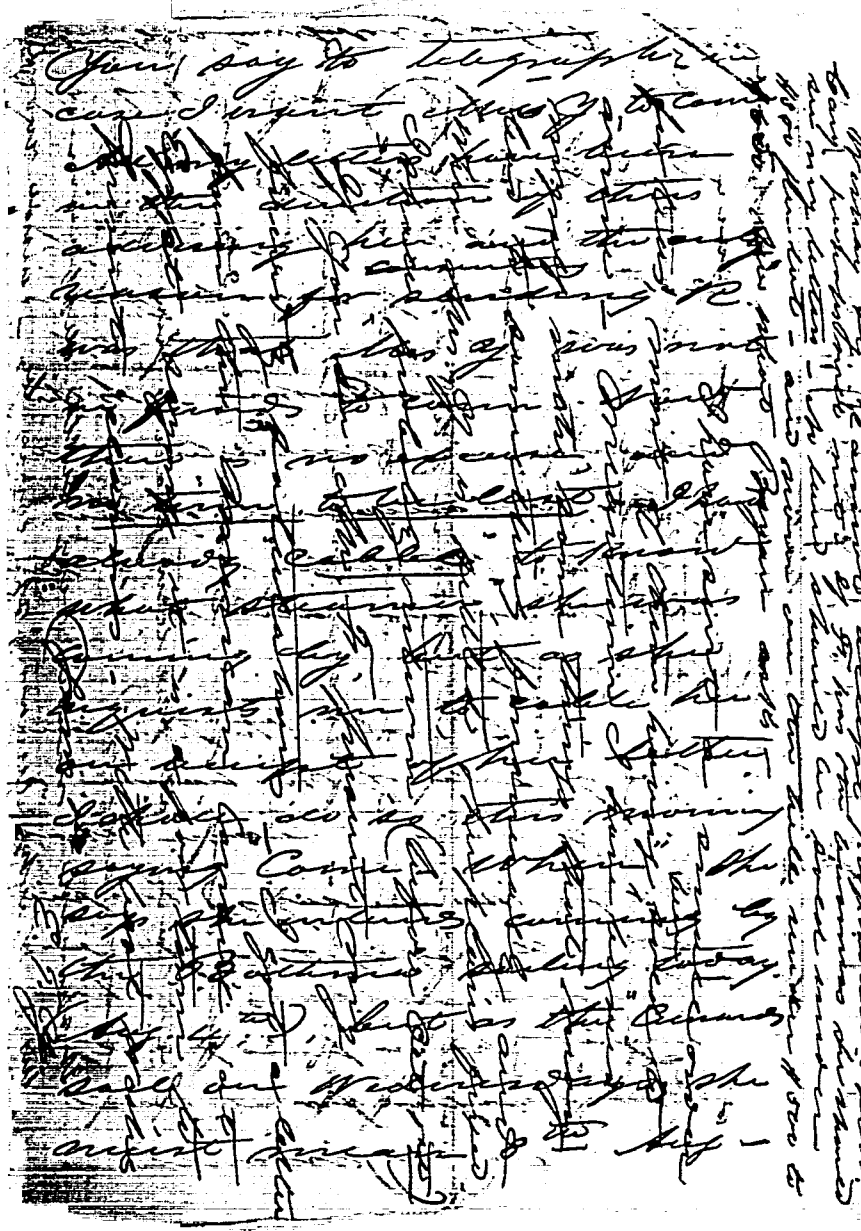
I am very sorry there is no other alternative, but to sell dear Mrs Jenny's house. Ludlow said, some time ago, that, considering the location, it would not be worth less than $32.000, and I am in hopes it would bring from some doctor, or person residing there, $35.000 or $36.000. The rate at which it is now rented does not yield 6% clear of repairs, but house property will not yield on 5 to 6%, clear, as a rule, for a long time, if ever.

I do not know but two cable Companies in N. York, the "Western Union" and the "Atlantic & Pacific". As soon as I will leave the office, the end of this month, I can leave Mrs. Jenny's address at all the Cable offices so that if I send a message by either cable, or otherwise, from here, to "Jenny, New York" it will be delivered at once to Mrs. Jenny. My address here remains the same -

There is no account of the "Arab" now 18 days out. She is only a temporary steamer. Can say nothing about the business until samples arrive. Meantime I hope through Mrs. J. to get the Consul-ship here, or to Cairo. The chances being now of a great war, the Khedive might more easily issue his bonds in the confusion that seems inevitable. I think however, Francis lost his best opportunity, and I am disgusted with him, for making such a fool of me as to make reclamations on the Telegraph Co. & Post office authorities through the American minister for "missing" documents that were never sent! I wrote so fully by the two last mails, that in regard to business matters, I am in full possession of my views. Remind Mrs J. to bring my Summer clothes, also prayer book &c. when she comes. After consigning to Mrs. J. what is left of Springhurst after giving the lot, as appraised, to all who will have claims, my mind will be easy about returning to N. York, and honorably going into business again. With many thanks for your kindness to Mrs. J. with regards to your family, also kind wishes to all, I am dear Reynolds Yours sincerely E. T. Yeaman





I sincerely hope this will come, and have this affair finished - Mr. Bonnin decided - Mr. Bonnin has not yet returned to Brussels his final arrangements in Paris not having been completed, but he is daily expected - I am in Rosenbaum about the arrangement of the first act will be brilliantly satisfactory to Mr. Bunbury that he worked one to call a satisfactory to Mrs. J. - This I declined doing - Your address - Compares with any dues - Mrs. J. appears to come will not impede action of sending P.C. and will promptly send Matters - A. to M. Burke as he has received money enough to pay the interest and instead of doing so, paid himself in full, and the securities liable to be closed out under foreclosure he has exhibited a selfishness & cowardice from Judge W. was unpardonable. I have never believed Mr. F. was dishonest, only that he charged too high. But he is more capable and shrewder than the gentle Jule B. and I had already so written to Mrs. G. and to you, - and he may arrange and extricate matters from difficulties better than any one. I fear - Mrs. G. should & I hope has, seen F. So is not necessary that she should have personal attorney with any one. I await Mrs. G's arrival & write Mr. White, also his firm on the two questions.

Yours truly
E. T. Jump

Dear Mr Whaley:

I rec'd your full letter of the 2nd to 6th inst and was very painfully impressed with the truth of its contents. I shall briefly allude to the several matters touched upon.

1st Springhurst all its immense, circumstantial estate, including roads, would sell for $35 lot, or embrace an area of about 17 acres and ought to sell if any demand existed about $2000 an acre, or say $30.000. being less than half of its actual cost today, and only 1/3 of what the best part might have been sold for. Phillips might possibly find a buyer for it though it is doubtful if anything can be done with it at present. And I fear if Mrs Young goes to see Garnier she will be only mortified by the hard and miser who is of the same stripe with Bent. If Mrs Young could induce Mr Reynolds to take charge of all our affairs giving him full power, paying him a commission of 5 per cent for paying the taxes, interest, bills, Judge White's estate and giving her sufficient money for one year in that time he might sell it in small plots or as a whole. Let her see if this can be done and it would relieve her mind at once as well as mine. I have received beautiful be certified letters from dear Emmie and darling Jessie, the latter letter being particularly interesting. Their bills should be provided for leaving them both at the Convent for at least one year. Unless something should render it desirable in the meantime to bring them to Europe, in which case I should go to New York to fetch them. Reynolds to collect rent of house, interest on B. Mo[rtgage] &c. It would give R. occupation and be economy for his own money, if he has the available funds to enable him to pay off the mortgages referred to. He has loaned Judge W. I think about $5000 and I do not know how he stands in your streets, though I fear both he and W. Pelton may be in some trouble in connection with the poor Judge's affairs. Pelton having been his bondsman for outside estates and Court of equity matters.

2nd I enclose the order in favor of W. MacRellin, omitted in my last letter. Let him accept bill, rent the house, furnished, and collect the rents until he is fully paid. If any other arrangement has been made, it may not be necessary to deliver this order.

3rd If W. R. takes charge of matters, he could rent the house direct as attorney, and settle with MacRellin.

Should anything be done with R. I shall send him all the necessary papers, made out before the Consul. If Rook should buy the property, even at $38.000. Mrs Young's house should be at once released. The payment to mortgage on the 29th ult house was obtained on account of Spring hunt as well as the proceeds of the stables in the year and part crop. on 28th ult. I enclose a note of $20.000. to the order of Mrs Young which should be secured by a mortgage on this property, should there be danger of any trouble. But if the property can be sold, or Mr. R. takes charge of matters this may be unnecessary.

3rd The rent paid to Dr. Ward having been extravagantly high, and Mrs Young's house being so nearly mortgaged for its value and unpaid taxes, and my affairs having drifted downwards so that after the borrowed money due by me has been paid to Mrs Y., Judge W., Mr. R. and B. I shall be financially exhausted, leaving my business debt to await more favorable times. The note would probably be compromised by Dr. Ward for $800. or $1000. cash, though he is a hard man and may give trouble to bring. Please ask her to call at once on Mr. Wilkinson of E. H. Ludlow & Co. and explain matters to him, and see what can be done - In the worst event, he may be willing to extend the note one year - She is not to tell him she is coming to Europe: only that I am here trying to bring out her affairs -

4th -

The money used for the Ribbon Business, as might have been employed to pay the taxes on 29th East 29th St, but the expectations from this were at the beginning encouraging. Moreover there was always a hope that Spring-hurst might be sold, and that there was no danger, my intention having been always to clear the house. But these discussions are now useless -

5th -

I suppose if you get a copy of the C. Town entry, and all particulars, and send same to H. Gunnerbo, the balance on my bond for them will be at once paid. At this distance of time and place, I cannot recall the circumstances of this business -

6th -

In regard to Snyder, it may be that I owe him the difference between $44. and $50. as there may have been some small items, the bills for which have been omitted and him the bill for $43.53 and any bills for balance cannot be found, will be settled when I return - It is a small matter, and I think shamed be called about. Square though I shall pay it, if I cannot find bills -

The blind girl, Collins, referred to, is the daughter of a woman who lived I think in Liberty St. more than twenty years ago, with her husband - She was a respectable woman. Kept boarders, and claimed to be a relative of my fathers. - I knew her family in Ireland. They were educated respectable people, once well off. - I remember being requested to become "God-father" for the little child, and completely lost sight of them, entirely lately, when the old man, Collins, lately deceased, called at 99 Water St. - told me his wife had been dead very many years, that probably owing to the poor mothers bad habits and neglect the child became blind - "Drink" is the ruin of millions. - If Mrs J. can get her into the Blind asylum it will no doubt be a great act of Charity - Mr Cassedy might help her to do this —

— 8.vo —

The Insurance policy of the "Equitable" held as collateral by Miss: Morton Bo[illegible] Letter — for $15000. the premium on which will I think be due April 20th next — You might notify the Co. to send to Mr. B Bro. for the premium when due.

This policy is worth probably $4500 cash but do not know if the Co. would now buy it — I shall write Mr. B Bro. and others, as soon as I know Mrs. G's plans, or my own — I promised to pay the interest on the premium of this policy, but if company cannot do so now — Tell Mr. Evans to Mr. B Bro. I will do so at once. — 9th

Not a word from Mrs. Fearnside — No papers, no cable — I suppose he has sent neither, or if sent, misdirected, or postage unpaid — Mrs Jenny will probably send the Murphy, and see what are the prospects, as explained in my last letter to her — and you —

10th —

The prospects are favorable for a fine business here — Two of my friends propose to put money in the business as a "Chinese - American - Belgian Tea Co", nothing only a small beginning, and gradually extending the business — We have been around among the grocers and tea samples

&c., as to price and quality, and favorably with tea &c. from England. A jobbing business, or one in original packages, for families, is only contemplated — If I stay, and can get no consulship, I shall probably go into it, ordering the teas for cash, from New York, by "Red Star Line" for the present — No definite action yet beyond saying nothing about this as present. —
11th —

Notwithstanding the mishap to one of the Antwerp steamers going into New York, the line is considered perfectly safe, and Mrs. Jenny should not hesitate coming this way when would save her so much trouble and expense —

12th —

I intend seeing Rosenbaum this evening — He has quarrelled with the manager of the Renaissance, and I do not know whether he can make up his difficulties with him so as to continue. I told him Mrs J. was to leave New York about middle of April, and he seemed to be sure on hand — I have mislaid the letter addressed to Rosenbaum, stating that I intended going to Paris tomorrow, to see if the Ribbon R. is starting off — I hope to be back next Sunday, and then expect answer to my last letter

I shall probably write Mrs. Y. from Paris – Please read this letter with documents to Mrs. Young, and leave the letter and papers in her hands. And this letter will be regarded as one written to her – as well as to you. Open from Mrs Young resp. Mary. God bless & preserve her and the dear children – Keep the contents of this letter strictly confidential – I am still, dear old, honest friend. – I hope with God's assistance, we may all soon have brighter days. – My hair is turning grey with ^ and my eyes dimmed with tears.

Very faithfully
E. F. Young

P.S. Also need of changing from Bunker, at present – Francis is an expensive lawyer. See whether he has sent the papers, and write down what suits, & upland is at allowance for one year from date. –

Edward T. Young Esq

Dear Sir,

I got the samples from J. M. Wells & Co. shipped yesterday. I called once or twice from Liverpool and never found Jones from J. M. Wells & Co who have also written to you. I received your letter of the 9th this evening & the 21st I have made extract therefrom and sent it to Cochrane & Co whom I wrote a week ago that I was in expectation of a draft and order for teas from you but I have not heard from them. Sydney sent the second letter to Berkeley from whom he & Co are expecting a despatch. I have requested him to let me know when he comes to London to ascertain if he can get the teas at the prices and quality you name — and if so I will see my friends coming for their payments & not able to do so by my next to Liverpool by the 23 June. And if I can then and the money ready & cargoes not have been sold I will be ship them by that steamer. I think it will be quite safe to your advantage to order another lot from Dent Lowe & Co or White & Co, Shaw Burleigh & Co &c — who is about to make up the Fund — I also received the samples of Pegoo yesterday the Purser Mr Kay on the Liverpool steamer very kind and accommodating in getting them ashore without duty and obliging them by express to Bristol &c. I shall be glad to hear from you again & am Dear Sir Yours truly Edward Mc Lynd Edward address as above Liverpool Edwards Mr Lynd Edward address as above Liverpool Edwards his London — I have not been able yet to do anything with them. and before I explode them I am told that I must have the consent of Lloyd upon the Copies. I will find out what is necessary to be done first. so as not to do anything liable in any way — and as soon as I am able to do anything with them I will report —

I have not time to answer your letter further the Supplement being about to close. I send Cook Sunday Herald — will attend to the Papers. Mrs M & Children were to see Mary Ann yesterday — Family are well except Mrs G — who is seemingly pulled down from worrisment. They will soon go to the Country. at last I hope they will as they require quiet and to be freed from Care for a while —

Nothing heard from the parties aboard Mary Ann — Daniels says are going right — that they may require 30 days for examination of Cargo —

I write upon the back of the Cartes I may be worth —

Yours ever Fred Lucas

New York. May 25th 1854.

Friend Young.

I wrote you by last mail that I had sent per Str "Cadwallader" samples of teas put up by Wm. M White Co - that I had received the samples of cigars. and that I had inclosed an extract from your letter for the teas ordered by Mr Pastorius.

To day I received two letters from him. one from Bethlehem 22nd May inst. the other here in N.Y. 23d May. and that you may understand fully I enclose them to you. You will see there is no possibility of doing any business through him. and that you must, if you do any at all, do so directly through parties in whom you have confidence. as to prices as well. See that you understand the difference asked and what you are willing to give in any material.

I have been posting myself in regard to what is necessary in the introduction of samples of Cigars and in importing them.

Samples of Cigars cannot be imported unless quantities. Have 3000 without being subjected to detention, and as it would not do to shew those samples without the government stamp upon them I dare not to do so — Therefore I took a few them as from a each kind to Davis & Murphy. Mr M Davis they had never bought any except direct from the importer — He recommended me to go to Howard Davis. 27 Chambers St as an importer of Havana to-gars. Murphy seemed very favorably impressed with X C "Upmann". I got him to take one to try told him he could furnish them at $35. per M — I also gave him one of No 1 at $45 per M and one of No 2 at $37.50 per M in bond. If he liked them he might be induced to give me an order for several thousand. if less than he could buy the same quality from the importer.

Howard Davis liked the No 3 very much said at $35.00 per M in bond was a very cheap — He said he would not import any cigars now — that he would try one of them this evening — and that I might call tomorrow again to know the result. I also got him to take 1 of No 1 at $45.00 per M — I hope to succeed to get them information and interesting to cigar dealers through a cousin of mine who is a Custom House broker 42 Pine St — He was also a friend who is acquainted with several gentlemen in cigars Horace Mann Co. Jackson Co. Pim & Telford. These Co who will be those I wish to ascertain if anything can be done with Regan.
I have tried the samples. No 1 is a good cigar but rather strong for me — I smoked one — No 2 I don't like at all, tried two of them, burns badly way up the sides, gave Puffs one who also stated unfavorably — No 3 — I like very much they the cheapest. This appears to be the favorite of all who have tried them — I gave one to Enoch Root as he has always favored, he found to smoke it He does not think them money in importing cigars I gave Reynolds one of No 1 and one of No 3 and offered to have him the boxes you sent if he would call upon me — He does not think there is any money in importing cigars, paying the heavy duty $2.50 per M — 25% ad valorem and, seems to $ $60 per M. when the tobacco is grown here and can be made and sell as much cheaper. He thinks if there was any money in importing the

the first would have found it out. I gave the papers to B. this afternoon - and as he did not smoke either of them I am unable to give you his opinion. I met him at Bushe's office accidentally. I had received a note from B. G. Arwood requesting to see me. I did so. He said a man in his employ, Michael McCullough was owing you over $400 on B & M. which was due Dec 25th 1876 - and owing to the times being bad he was unable to pay and wished for an extension. He said he was willing to pay interest 1 yr due. I reckon I could probably be managed that I would see Mr Bushe about it and let him know though he might be required to pay a portion of the principal. This is one of the notes with the Mechanics Ins Co. I would to Bushe to get this information. He was not to tell B. G. A. to tell his man to come to his office to pay the int and that he would then try to get him to pay something on a/c. The interest money here will have to be used paying the $19200 due 1 Mch. 1. Amount on $6000 - notice of payment of which I have received. I asked him how much he had received since Mr Tis death. He said $94 - 00 from which he should deduct some costs for our [illegible] in Court against Spokanimyn & requested him to give all the Parties in a notice to pay — as I had received notice from Mr. Ross & to pay $192.50 cents Cum. 177.

I also spoke to him about fencing against the Hawleys. He said he would come of them last August to that effect at your request, but at that time was in the hands of the Mr. C. & S. Army & would be dilatory through that & [illegible] He said he [illegible] money to bring these Indictments Quash. He thinks that something should be done with the Hawleys as they refused pay interest or anything — giving as a reason that you acted in bad faith with them promising that a Catholic Church was to be built at Spring Valley Rancheria was then with Bushe — Bushe said he had received a letter from you wishing you to settle with Creditors. by giving Land &c — He asked me for a full list from Creditors — I asked him if you had told him to get it from me. He said no — then I said I do not think Mr. G would wish me to give him a free list but I refused much to Mr W and if he thinks proper to let you have it he can do so — Mr Reavis he would not take the responsibility that I must know best if you would want to furnish a full list — Both said then I might furnish a list of some of the parties and mentioned Capt Creasy Gibbs and several others — I said I might do that much of such as were most pressing, He asked me if I would assist him in making settlement I told him yes if I could be of any service — I had prepared a list of interest due on mtgs Oct 24th 76 the time the execution was placed in Whites hands for the purpose of giving W & R that he might acquire of Burke how the matter & collection of interest stood, I did not ask Reynolds to allow me the privilege to make the enquiry, He said he did not prefer to attend to your business, that he had not the time to do so, though calling on me for power to execute papers necessary to sign that as I had been attending to your business so long and was so fully conversant with it that I as your agent could request Mr B to get the information regarding the interest collected by White. I showed B the blank mortgage and compared it with one he had which was copied from the original which I gave White Oct 24. so the one I had made was unnecessary Reynolds said he would take it and I gave it to him — Both then shewed me an account of some int-est collected by White on the Md. M. Co mtgs and what he had collected since Mr Heath Both is attending to executing int only on the mtgs held by the Md Co — White's object in view is executing int on those you assigned to Hall and by him assigned to White. but you ought to know that the int upon the mtgs is being collected and if not done have some steps taken for the execution of it — Reynolds & I left the office together — though he had quite a long conversation with B at which I was not present — he had some talk to

brothers. I did so – after looking it over, he said I was quite right in not having shown it to Brother as he should not suspicion you were with him to-day. He said he could not see the object of settlement with Carey & Co. Westray & Gibbes. Asked if they were pressing you. I told him yes and not likely to. He said then why should Brother go to-day then or does Mr Young wish to settle with them. I told him I did not know except that you wished to pay your debts. Then said he why did not Mr G do this when he was here, & I should go to-day to see these parties or Mr B. I do not think any settlement could be arrived at upon the basis proposed, though if Mr Y. was here and made this offer he might get make some arrangement. Mr R. thinks that you should come home to arrange your affairs, that you can best do so – and so do I think the same – There is a great deal to be done – Charles not showing up things – everybody is very quiet just now – very little dunning indeed – but were you here it might be different I think I would do nothing with creditors as long as they are quiet and you can remain away some time as long as you can with perhaps but when any settlement is and must be made I think you had better be here as you can arrange better than any one for you — Reynolds thinks if you were here attending to business you might be able to make money and by getting an extension of time from creditors keep your head above water for a year or two when better times as to sale property, you might be able to do something and not compelled to sacrifice every thing — He told me what you wish here about furniture 14 & 16 being slaughtered for $1000 which cost $1500 and thought the estimate of value most preposterous. The sales amount to nearly $1000 through and all cash as some of the things were bought and such to make $$ — He thinks considering how all patronized the things were, and the times that they did extraordinarily well — and that you are wrong to blame your poor wife who has been in such terrible straights for money to meet expenses and to send money for your support and to defray expenses of Oscar. You know exactly the income from £29 and certainly have an idea of the expenses of the domestic school - interest and expenses of herself and children and nurse. From the income from £29 she has not been sufficient for this - and yet you have required a large amount of money for yourself and the Oscars. When and how did you expect her to get the means necessary for all this from? She has not rich friends and if she had your wife is not the woman to seek aid from her friends - even though they had money. So long as she can possibly raise any by selling or pawning any thing which she has - consequently to have done what she has you ought to know that she must have sold some things at a sacrifice and pawned others - She has indeed done wonders - made no

You should not blame her - she feels very badly about the manner you write to her when she is striving so hard for you doing what she believes is right and for the best. She deserves a great deal of credit and you should appreciate her efforts.
Some sacrifices have been made, but were absolutely necessary. The sale of furniture 14th 16. I advised her not to sell it - but she determined to do so - and now I think it was for the best - It brought all it was worth those times - but with the same amount of money any day you can repurchase the same and therefore, was it a sacrifice - It was not the furniture, but the value of it in money that she wanted, and she got it. How you can possibly estimate the cost of the furniture at $600 is more than I can understand. but cost has nothing to do with present value and as I said the furniture of 14th 16 would not bring $ 1,000 to

as I brought many £1000 including that rent away I think you should be content and not reflect quite so hard upon your wife.
She grieves very badly — broken down in spirits and health. I never saw her looking so poorly as she has for two or three weeks past. I have talked to her about going into the country for quick and rest — and think she has about decided to do so — The loan is not yet made — hangs fire for Domination — Have not seen Barnes since Monday and then he told me it was all going right that as soon as declared he would let me Know — I was then busy and did not see him. I am extremely anxious, on my life as to have this loan made her hopes are depending upon it, and I trust it may be done in the course, though I believe to keep up her spirits that shows I have something else may turn up to assist her, She is anxious about her opera — but she does not work to leave him he she has positive assurances that a contract is made and that it will be brought out without fail — She wishes to have something certain to look forward to when she knows her friend has, and to go amongst strangers with a light heart and not be much with disappointments I am anxious to return to Paris for my wife having determined not to join me here — but I do not, and methinks do I believe I shall leave [illegible] as long as Mrs G is in London — If this loan was completed then all would be right — I might return home knowing that she was happy for a time at least, as much as man can possibly make her — But I have not the heart to leave one who has been so dear a friend to me as your wife. Though I have no reasoning from my former so long absence exactly the thing — I have been expecting you to return or that she would go to Devonshire months past — this threatened postponement owing to the want of funds Cannot go away. as I am making arrangements and a thousand I have of my own to get being condemned— My wife wishes that things are effectually done in London and if I can get anything to do there that I will remain— I do not see much chance though I have not had, having been occupied with your affairs— If I had been engaged in anything I could not unfairly have served Mr. Ainsworth Kindness. I have wrongly made some discussion— But after that I ought to return home— it being now over four years and a half— I ought as well be without a wife & to be so far away. My Children are growing up and will not recognize me as their father. I am miserable and uncomfortable— I shall at least have the comforts of home and the society of my family if I cannot make anything— To write you wife something in confidence— the most embarrassing— and if you do this I will appreciate it more than coming from any one else— the children will thank you from their innocent

Mrs Young thinks you had better remain when you are till she goes over, which she will do, sooner than she wrote she would. In case she gets the money on Springhurst that you may then come here to arrange your affairs.

I saw her this morning. She is looking better, and says feeling better than she has done for two weeks past.

Reynolds called while I was there. To report his interview with Burke yesterday, and to talk about business.

Yours ever
T.H.R.

R. had not yet invested the cigars said he had been talking with a gent who never heard of segars coming from Belgium. He is not favorably impressed with the business and cannot see any money in it. Will investigate the matter and report soon.

New York June 20th 1877.

Edward F. Sloma Esq.

My dear Friend,

I have delayed writing hoping to have some good definite news to communicate in regard to the loan on Springhurst or the sale of the Park 29th Block, but I regret being unable to do so. You know the time and trouble taken for the accomplishment of this object to enable Mrs G. to relieve herself from her present embarrassment, and be present to Congress. Negotiations are still pending with several parties to effect the loan or the sale, but I much confess to having little or no hope of success. You can have no idea of the changes which have taken place in the real estate market since you left home and the present depreciated prices. The house was put into the hands of agents at $33.00 reduced to $30.00 and then to $25.00 without a single offer being made. A few days ago Mme de Blanc addressed me a note asking to know the lowest price for house & furniture existing paintings engravings & ornaments. Mrs G. said $28.000, and I wrote Mad. de B to that effect. Calling upon her afterwards to learn the result, she said the gentleman might be willing to give $26.000. I wished her to get him to make the offer that I might submit it to Mrs G. She said he would not make any offer. I then proposed seeing Mrs G. and getting her to authorize me to offer it at $25.000. She said I might do this in writing. Yesterday morning I spoke to Mrs G. She was very loath indeed to consent to the house being sold at that price. Said it might as well be sold under the hammer. I said no, as in that case it would not probably bring any more than the mortgage $15.000 taxes $2500 interest say $900, expenses of sale making $19000 and might not sell for even that. But if sold at $26.000 the difference to her would be $7.000 a clear cash gain. Mrs G finally consented, & told her she might first consult with Raywood and Crouch as you wished her to do in all important matters. But from what I could learn the house could not be sold for more than from $19.000 to $21.000. That Odenheimer took off his offer was $19.000 and that it was not worth more than $20.000: Sudlow also who had it for sale at $28.000 said it could not be sold for more than $21.000 to $22.000. Mrs De Blanc said, Mr Ritchings said it was not worth more than $20.000. The house on E. East 38th St. 3 Story brown stone high Stoop 21½ ft front to offered at $16.000 - the 4 Story brown stone high Stoop Corner Madison Ave & 28th St at 20ft front Stable in the rear to offered at $20.000 Ritchings also that if the could be sold at $25000 even with the furniture she would make an extraordinary good sale. and that I ought to the might do so and be free from her agency. Mrs G. said no that she would not consult with any one, that I might offer the house & furniture for $25.000. I wrote the letter & posted it immediately. This evening Ogden upon Mad. L. B. to know the result. She said shortly after I was shown coming before last, the gentleman waiting to speak and called and she told him of my intention to ask My L. to offer the house at £25.000 — He said he might have given that sum if it had been named in the first place instead of £28.000, but that he had been enquiring in the neighborhood and found out that the house would require considerable repairs. Did not know that he would give £26.000 in case the offer was made — besides he was called suddenly to Europe, asked to leave in the morning. That is, to day, and as My L. B. has not seen him to day, she thinks he must have gone, but in case she has not, she will communicate my offer for £25.000 — I fear there is no such good luck as of selling it at this price — and that I have had all my trouble for nothing. But having gone through various experiences of this kind lately, having them to puzzle out, I have [illegible] to the advantage mentd. I am told Sir A. B. Stuart [illegible] 26th Inst. with his recommendation ing or coming. I saw him this afternoon but he was not in the house was after him at 8 P.M. Sunday night and do I have heard nothing of him since I fear he thinks the price too high – so will see him again and see how much more than $25,000 he will give – or try to get the best offer possible though less than $25,000 –

I look upon the matter this way. It is impossible to raise money on Spring Creek or from any source – the town will be sold under foreclosure for non payment & taxes 3 months without our declaring [illegible] it to [illegible] Now if it can be sold at private sale even at a sacrifice above $15,000 it can gain be [illegible] Therefore I should recommend selling immediately if an offer can be had any when from $22 to $25.000 and when such is actually consummated. The best that men obtain here. You will think me an awful stale affairs and so it is, not in the least exaggerated. Things at the present time are not near as bad as they will be. The tendency of everything is downwards.

I have several schemes for raising money. — To raise money on Springhurst — say $8.000 on 106 Foster Lots. (This scheme was on hand at the time Raymond telegraphed to you. There seems very probability of its being accomplished but unfortunately it fell through, & everything would be right now.)

I have the same scheme in the hands of two or three parties and we will probably on Thursday to raise $3.000 upon the home and mortgage which will pay encumbrances and put it out of danger at present. We hear the result probably next Thursday. But I have very little hope of making this loan as the present mortgage of $15.000 is all that the property will stand at present valuation.

2 mortgage $106 Foster Lots at Springhurst together and second mortgage on the home for $10.000. Either property to be released upon payment of a certain amount to be fixed to prevent sale of either, and consist of a proportional part of the 106 Foster Lots being released upon payment of a proportional sum of the amount loaned.

This seems the most favorable of the schemes at the present time but I have no hope of accomplishing this. The 106 Foster Lots embrace

Pat A	52.45
" K except 4 Lots	43.66
" J " 6 "	9.94
	106.05

The difficulty is in mortgaging unimproved property, therefore the compound mortgage was suggested. Impossible to mortgage unimproved property in the city and so for Westchester 20 & 25th Ward, no one will even borrow the idea.

Jas Ellen Bryan is offering his property in plots. Should not succeed if he has cash, obliged to sell. He will have a hard time of it—

Bushy idea is that N to sell to see the house, get rid of mortgages, and to keep Springhurst clear—Thought he said it was possible to sell Springhurst it would be better to do so—Hardly believe N possible for $15,000—or even $10,000.

Wrote Garrison some time ago to know if he would buy 160 lots for $25,000 in case it could be had at that price now that it is $25,000 too much if he would make an offer

I wrote to him & it to you. I never got any reply from him. The reason has been very sick confined to the house for several weeks past. He is better now, goes out, but not to attend to any business.
Spoke Mark the other day. Said he expected to see Garrison in the evening, and if in good humor he would talk to him about Springhead. Told him to ask $25000 for the lot, and if he offered $20.000 to get it in writing. That just about you would consent to sell at that.
I have not done this upon my responsibility but under advice of Raymond & Mr G. so don't put the blame upon me for anything upon me.
Your affairs are in a terrible fix and Mrs G. is greatly distressed. Raymond Brooks Mrs G. and myself are of the opinion that something must be done, no matter the sacrifice, either in that way of mortgaging or selling. They leave me to fill the things and am ready to execute whatever first happens to be concluded. I have worked hard, am sick working but do not expect to be able to accomplish anything. simply because I am trying to accomplish what can say do impossible.

Reynolds says it is impossible to mortgage Springhurst. that he has made enemies amongst his friends.

I spoke to Bushe about making a loan on Springhurst through some of his clients. He said he would enquire of them.

I gave the notes each to Bushy also your letter to Mills Standish. I am sorry you did not do as I wished sending notes for $1000 & 1200 at 2 and 3 yrs. then there might have been a chance to settle for a thousand dollars.

Mrs Y. says she expects I will be very angry with you for sending notes for $1000 when enquired whether would with her husband if you sent note for $1200 payable in two years he might make settlement with you. Bushe will see him, get him to take the notes and arrange that when you send your note for $200 more & that withdraw suit. He thinks this is the best way. You were wrong in saying in your letter to me that I had informed you settlement might be effected for $1800. The arrangement was made with Mrs Y. and it was merely a suggestion of mine to send several notes ~~of~~ in order to do better than $1000.

I think he is an honorable man and that he would do what is perfectly right but wants to see a proper disposition of settlement on your part.

Bushe thinks better not do show the letter to Hackleton, as a personal fight he might run them in to a threat and induce him to commence proceedings. He is quick word better let him alone and go near him. He thinks you are perfectly responsible and is willing to let things run along without a doubt of receiving any dollar from you. He would take the house off your hands, but rooms upon for the whole amount of rent— The house I am sorry to say remains unrented and there will be no tenant before the end of this month quite likely none will be found till September October. I might have been applied from the 1st May to Mr Pinard the Chocolate manufacturer, a responsible party for $1000. but Mrs G. positively refused Mrs P. to let it go for less than $1400. This was the week and a week the only offer before May 1st— Three or four have offered $1200 for it. This price is fixed now at $1000 — It ought to rent for that. and there is a party looking at it who will decide tomorrow. Since the furniture is sold and everything out of the house it looks very old and the Hotel de la Judaica— The building of the new Catholic Church is to commence the 16th Oct and as it the new hospital. A five story english basement house belong ing to Mr Clark. many of [illegible] the Church to commence and the ensuing officers @ at $1200 per annum.

The interest on house $825 has not been paid. Company have sent them several notices soon will come another.

Neither has interest been paid on $6.000 $192.50. Bush has money in his hands about $90 after deducting his bill Dr Reuben, he offered to pay this to the Company but they say they prefer to receive the whole amount at once. Otis has sent notices to all owing interest on the M.L. Ins Co's mtgs, except to the Stanley Out of nine mortgagors, 4 have paid. the two Stanleys have always refused. The two Stevens and Bowen are the only remaining unpaid — Could collect from them more than enough to make up amt required to meet $192.50 —

Bush spoke to M.L. Ins Co about — them commencing proceedings against the two Hawleys. Quite likely something could be done about him to settle this question with them.

Sayles Bros with him have paid a thousand. I wrote them that I would enclose their amount to you, that probably you would send your note or make some arrangement.

Olmstead & Sheffield write for their bill $43.70/100. They say "that they must have the affair settled and with it allusion to without further delay" I write them that you were absent-electioning in Europe expected to return very shortly from from to day when. What I had no doubt but what you would pay or arrange said bill shortly on your return.

June 23. 1877

I learned this morning that the gentleman writing to purchase of E 29 for $25.00 had sailed for Europe.
So this was a good opportunity lost. Dr Whitney says the house is too far down for his practice, having wished to begin up town. The party looking at 16 & 16 who I thought might take it over said last evening that the house is too large.

Saw Hamlin yesterday afternoon about the matter and that you would probably send $250 more on account $1200 as he said he thought he would be willing to settle for. He said he would write him that he offer of $1000 as the lowest sum and should not accede to that offer. I think I heard you send $200 more but if may be able to settle for $1200 or

The prospect of the compromise loan on Spring-hurst and W. E. 29 is very good, but not certain.
Hope it may be done as it will relieve you personal embarrassment and give him to turn around, to sell the house or Springhurst to better advantage than through friends.

I am unable to do anything with Hogan have the opinion of a large mortgage house obtained through our interest friend. They wish to insert German Hogan - do not write me if it is impossible to comply with how many usefulness. Buy the best organ that can really be called such for the port. Shaw grows weary or smoked use many of the samples. They have cost you only what you paid for them in Brussels and could be the steward. So you are not much out. Samples of hair send will more than compensate you. Write us on the balance of the samples when you come to buy how what you can do. Mrs J. says she is too short of money to send the masses, do do not expect them.

You are much ashamed in consequence of poor Arnott's death & must beautifully and sufficiently expressed and I appreciate it in connection with myself and family.
Mrs J. says you can send property to Mrs J. but not directly, may be done through some one though it would be better to purchase I thank Collins not for me to try to make settlement with your creditors. I might make a model of it. Any arrangement I might make in with them would not likely be detail-factory to you. Besides they are quite hard talking to them as you perceive would excite their suspicion and they might commence proceedings, which by keeping quiet may for a time longer be depended.

Dr Ward has sent the matter of correspondence in Sandbrook hands. They have sent here to the Sheriff's office, and not wishing to walk here she can see home or make up from down other corner. They were enquiring for her in Newcastle. Others them in County.
Others if they could they would serve papers upon her. Being out the State if were accession delay. She came unexpectedly to the Merchants Office as should indeed not be found and they determine to commence foreclosure suit. She had better remain out of the State. Was reasonable great delay in my foreclosure suit against Mrs Ridgway owing to her being in Sandy.
Do you can possibly by any opportunity write Sandwich Cards.

I am strongly of the conviction that you should arrange at once to arrange your affairs before the patience of creditors is exhausted and they determine upon summary proceedings, so you may possibly be able to arrange upon more favorable terms. You may be able to get extension of time from them or to give a mortgage privately to advantage before application of defendt settlement. or in the event of their commencing proceedings either before or after your return you would be here to look after your interest and could do as much better than any friend might attend to it for you. No matter how warmly a friend might act in your behalf, being so far away and not appreciating fully the great depression in the values of everything since your departure, you would not be satisfied and certainly would think that from more favorable arrangement might have been entered into. ~~Come & take your event~~ Besides there are such responsibilities to be assumed that no one however friendly would be disposed to undertake them. A person may do for themselves as here the exigencies of the case demand as here, what they would naturally shrink from in undertaking to save another from ruin or loss you must take off your coat enter the arena and with your own bare hands take the bull by the horns and turn down you do to the bellowers for you. Things are getting worse every day. The shrinkage of values is continuing on and property of a certain class in six months or a year from now will be considerably less than at present. When an end to all this is to be, and we shall have reached bottom no one pretends to foretell. People stand aghast and afraid to invest in anything, fearing no matter however cheap it may seem now that eventually they with such any investment made.

Then am a fond thing ours, having confidence in the future, that valuables will appreciate some how in the course of the next five or ten years quickly increasing their amount in the sale of property under foreclosure and they will reap the reward of their confidence
I will not say to you positively returns or even advise you to do so - I give you the facts about things so that you may determine for yourself.
Mrs G. is opposed to your coming. Says you will be bothered to death, tells for you to remain away and have the little pleasure left of you.
But which will be wise to be bothered in the endeavor and hope of doing something which I believe you can do, & remember perfectly possible, have only to command legal expenses incurred and your perfectly satisfied ah friend Jule Lowenstein you self contrary without a dilem-Seems how a man in adversary extremity can manage his affairs, allowing he has to make great sacrifice, better than through any legal proceedings instituted against him. Generally the property is consumed in counsel fees, expenses of Court with little or nothing going to the creditors and the debtor is saddled with judgments of greatly more than the original amount of his indebtedness.

It is for you to take all these things into Consideration and to determine accordingly your best judgment. Certainly you can make arrangements which in the end will be of more advantage to you than through your remaining agitation. and you will retain the credit of having done the best you could.

What do you do have to make me comment? You must speak if and certainly must be coming to Chase them for your own sake and Mark & your wife and family, for in the end you succeed in saving something from the wreck. At any rate, in any event, let things be as bad, with health and strength, and possessing the business capacity which you have and your energy you can do something in the future to retrieve your losses & not wholly, at least in part.

I have left everything, yet I do not despair. I am anxious to return to California when, as in the past, I shall be able to do good. My experience for several years has been a sad one, losing everything and efforts more than four years from time to time and I told much trial. I think when I return the encouraging smiles and encouragement will give me strength and hope in renewed efforts.

But I must now close hoping with these you fully about everything. I would not exactly how much longer I may remain here, but as long as I do I shall be untiring in my efforts to which may in any way that I can serve your person. and if I shall succeed in saving a loan or sale to relieve her from the present embarrassment I shall feel myself rewarded for my efforts.

She is greatly distressed in mind and weak in body. She does long to be gay and happy as she was before.

Her heart and love is in the mountains of the Sierra and should she feel inclining, I fear that the great grief which it will cause her, will prevent her from ever being again what she was. Think for her sake, to encourage her to Camp, you ought to come home to save the means in some way. She expected to have you by the 4th July but was not to be taken to do as she thought. He had determined to send for Rosamond to spend the winter with him. She has called upon James to assist her, which as soon as done but find it impossible to do so. How much better off will she be, depending upon James for assistance, when the hour comes when she must go? Probably they will then be in no better position than they are now. But if you come you must and certainly will find the means to enable her to go, rather than have the [illegible] Jail. Suggested that she take you "Return with Rosamond". But she did not approve of this, and neither does she anything I have written pending your coming. Mrs G. takes $200 to day if possible. Yours Truly

Miss Young.

I mailed you a long letter Saturday but he take to go around to Mrs G. Harris where the town she intended to come by to the City. It contained a letter from her offering any views in regard to your returning. I sent her my letter to you and the cars and then to you. I called you up Saturday in time to be sure that they were also such Cabbages as "Young, Burnett. Heron Potter Cornell, Perrine."

I enclose you a programme of the new Opera bouffe "Evangeline" which is also being played at the 5th Ave. I was at the second night representation. Found out of those people of the music, which however did not strike me as being anything very grand and far superior to the burlesques taken for the theme theirs. I send you Sunday Herald and may send an other later by the main. The chances of procuring the loan of £1000 are but poor, but I promise no disappointment as it though I hope to Gen for Mrs G's sake it may be carried through. I send you the £250. £150 on acc Childrens Schooling and that Mrs G. might have some funds I pledged her credit for £150 for one year at £50 per annum, which was doing extremely well. No provision as yet have been made for paying interest on loans £520. I hope something may be done. Neither Raymonds or French seemingly have any money, and I have no more to advance here for I assure you I have entirely exhausted funds. I have done all in my power to assist him, with money and given my time exclusively for his benefit and yours. I have the oil pictures being at Cokaus which he has valued at and hopes to dispose for £500. Scott fancies he could dispose more to Mr Dick. let the hire be short as possible. Hopes to make settlement for £120 with the aid of Mrs G. She was quite unwell yesterday, but as I get the money on to-morrow. I hope she feels better to-day. Mrs Hackney

Dear Sister Agatha

Convent N.C. Sisters.

I write at the request of Mrs Young, to inform you that she expects to be in funds sometime next week and will pay in full the balance due on account of the Childrens schooling up to the present time.

She has been forced to part with her horses, and consequently her income will be very materially reduced. She feels the importance of the Sisterhood economy in every thing and that the dear children may remain longer under your kind supervision she will be compelled to make many personal sacrifices.

Now the fact that must every thing is cheaper now than formerly, the reasonable expectation in prices of provisions during ~~the~~ ratio ~~to be made as that to the advance for~~ the past two years ~~and~~ by a hope, that you will do as ~~favorably towards her~~ by as reasonable in your charges as possible. ~~In addition to the~~ ~~and~~ ~~to have~~ ~~deducting the~~ ~~Ole~~ Thus to the amount of reasonable board in the County with the ~~is~~ at present for 2 ~~for~~ per week for her self and two Children Total $16 per week for this and ~~during the session~~ rather more as ~~has~~ ~~and~~ wishes you if you can conveniently also to provide the Food

Be so kind as to inform Mrs Y what will be the Cost of each of the children at the next Session, and should there be any items of expense which can be dispensed with wholly or in part without serious detriment to the children learning you will please suggest the same that she may write her directions to the matron.

Ch is quite possible that she may wish to pay the whole of next Session in advance and if so please state what discount you will allow upon the bills. with the understanding that in case the should not remain in England desire to send for the children before the expiration of the Session a proportional part of the money shall be refunded.

With kind regards to the dear mother as also to yourself I remain to the dear

My Dear Friend.

I have a letter from Mr Young, which he wishes me to read to you, feeling too badly to write to you. as he says not having the heart to do so—

Sudlow & adored Dr Young with to make the settlement as arranged yesterday. requiring Recently on Saturday last for the payment of the notes endorsed year from now. So that matter is safe by it. I have the check for $100. Just to see you for a few moments. Read what I wish to be done. Mr Young has written from you powers about going the mortgage. I am sorry to trouble you but am from work. The mail which on Monday was arranged yesterday. Yours Sincerely H. Whaley

The day I was at her husband's place of business to ascertain his address intending to go over for Xmas and the invitation to which he good bye, I did not see him but heard that they were at Bay Ridge for the summer. I have not met Mrs. [illegible] since the last at Bertha's [illegible] and found Grace Dunn for the first time at your husband's office on May 7th. I said would have given him royal welcome. I extended him my hand. He said I declined to shake hands with you! I was almost dumbfounded and merely said "You have the right to do as you please." I am not aware of anything transpiring since last we met to change [illegible] our former relations. If Gus[illegible] is hand is his own and he was at liberty to shake [illegible] with me or not. I heard and noticed then never having been any particular regard [illegible] although I thought he had acted very strangely

I have thought of you my dear friend very often, almost constantly, my fervent wishes and prayers being for your prosperity and speedy return Home.

I attribute your long silence to the ~~occupation and anxiety~~ which your affairs has given you, and that you have not had the heart to write.

I frequently enquire about you, and sometimes your husband ~~or~~ would obtain such information, but this is not so satisfactory as I would be to hear more direct.

It has been my wish to return home for several months past, but it was not in my power owing to the many disappointments I experienced.

I was in a hurry with Bailey in the Custom Commissioners business & he neglected the consequence a failure I was turned adrift without a dollar.

It was time for the first time

I [illegible] urged upon Mr Young the utter inability I laboured under to pay the account of rents due from Tittle and Mr Wyck I had a order payable to his order and which upon [illegible] Tittle urged to [illegible] to Mr Clavins but he candidly owned that he [illegible] could be said and sworn was upon [illegible] Mr Young [illegible] Mr Morley Clapsaddle, [illegible] would be protest and unless [illegible] paid [illegible] days Mr Young wished to make it appear that I had [illegible]

[illegible] heard the order, having paid said [illegible] and that he was in no way responsible to me! This was a mere subterfuge on his part and I had to prove this wilfully to his detriment in [illegible] acknowledged his responsibility.
Said up as I was I could not get a dollar from him though I knew it was entirely in accord of large amounts of money [illegible] he might have paid me easily but complained that he had not enough to meet

Sometime after his expulsion, Full of Gall Jennifer 42 29 he promised to pay me, C95 only $25 – and afterwards $20.00 more.
I was told by many about Seneca and Geneva, before we left to Europe and during the absence – He said he supposed what I did was done out of friendship, and that he believed I had attended to some business for him – I told him whatever I had done for him was out of regard for him and the Kindness of an errand Boy – and that I made no charge whatever though I did expect to be remunerated for what I had done for him for nearly fifteen months, never having received a dollar from him having to support myself him and my family at home, that a friend might give an hour or a day now & then time to serve another but it was unreasonable for him to expect to pay me as many for the many months I had attended to his business – I told him as he was to return by land up to Cincinnati I did not make him any money on a/c of Devis's conduct to him. But that I would again (once more) knowledge and that he might give me his order to and pay over a large sum of money. He declined to do. Said I might return home with the assurance that immediately he would send me down the Gold but it must be settled before I left.

I said Both about the matter requested him to Dear young [illegible] of feel a settlement instead of which he wrote to him & contrary to my willingness threatened him with a suit something which I never complained of once since under no circumstances but to compromise the bastard deed.

plies rendered him for balance of the settled matter.

Jake spoke to him in reference to services rendered him before and during his absence. That he whatever I had done for you was done in consideration of your kindness He did not think I had done much for him though he believed I had attended to some errands for you. Strong to this taking possession for all that I had done - I told him, if necessary I could prove by his Colleg what I had done for him and that entitled to his consideration.

He said he supposed what I had done was out of pure friendship
I told him I had a friend might give another day about to Dine and that but that it was unnecessary for him to Reimburse that I owed a little money

[illegible] him, Dupuy - myself and Jamieson without being entitled to Reimbursement.
He said there was no use talking about this matter as he had no money, but that whenever he had he would give me Something I told him and that surprised him from the matter entirely - as he had always thought - as I was one of his friends for me, but that [illegible] for my services, I told him I loved him giving

[illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

LET US REASON TOGETHER.

It is self-evident that persons buy Lots either FOR HOMES or speculative investment, and if both objects can be attained at once, so much more desirable.

EVERYBODY SAYS

That Manhattan Island is becoming more and more expensive and less desirable each year as a residence, and already SEVENTY PER CENT. OF NEW YORK business men reside in the suburbs. It is also

ABSOLUTELY CERTAIN

that Westchester County is the only natural outlet for the overflow of New York population, and but for the inefficient means of transit would now be a continuous populous city for twenty miles. These disabilities are now certain to be removed by Three Additional Railroads, the New York, Boston, and Montreal on the west side, the Boston, Westchester, and New York on the east side, all in rapid progress, and the Portchester and Harlem Branch of the New Haven Railroad, now completed. These, together with the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad, the New York and Harlem Railroad, and the New York and New Haven Railroad, all forming connections, either by fast boats from Harlem River, with business centres, and, above all, affording

Rapid, Cheap, and Easy Access from all parts of Westchester to the Grand Central Depot; and by the GILBERT ELEVATED RAILROAD, the early completion of which is now certain, with all sections of the city, thus bringing lands in Westchester practically as near business as 42d Street is now.

PRUDENT MEN AND WOMEN

Think of it, Analyze, Compare, and Remember

The fortunes that have been made by men of forethought who bought Lots on Union Square, Central Park, and the Grand Boulevard when they were relatively just such property as is now; and remember also that so long as emigration and natural increase of population continue, that the GREAT METROPOLIS can grow only into Westchester, and that Suburban Property values must advance as population increases.

ANNEXED WESTCHESTER

THE CONCLUSION

is therefore inevitable that Westchester as a home for men of moderate means and the most desirable for speculative investment admits of no rivalry, the only question being the relative advantages of any given location and the cost.

LOOK SQUARELY AT THE FACTS.

SPRINGHURST,

now the property, and sold by order of E. T. Young, Esq., comprises 663 Lots, situated on the rolling beautiful lands between Legget's Creek and the Hunts Point Road, and the Portchester and Harlem Railroad, on the GRAND SOUTHERN BOULEVARD,

and intersected by 155th, 156th, and 157th Streets of New York City (as annexed). The property is the well-known Legget Estate, in the family for 200 years, and is in a high state of ornamental cultivation, abounding with every possible variety of fruit, shade, and ornamental trees, vines, shrubs, and evergreens; and has been handsomely laid out by streets and avenues into city lots and charming villa plots, with water-fronts and views of great variety and beauty.

Three Miles from Central Park, a few minutes' walk from PORT MORRIS, whence transit to New York business, by fast boats, is made in 40 minutes, 10 Minutes' Drive to Harlem Bridge,

Transit thence to Peck Slip, by 60 Boats to and fro daily, in about 30 minutes. 3 minutes to Harlem Bridge. By the HARLEM RIVER AND PORTCHESTER RAILROAD, and adjacent to two depots. Access to all parts of the city by will be cheap and easy. The Highland Villa Sites command lovely views of the East River and the distant Palisades of the Hudson, and their proximity to the East River and Sound affords every facility for Boating, Bathing, and Fishing.

THE BUSINESS ADVANTAGES of the location as an investment can scarcely be estimated when the Hell Gate obstructions are removed, and the vast dockage fronts are utilized for the foreign commerce of the world. Lots on the west-side, in similar locations, command from $5,000 to $15,000 each, and when Annexation equalizes prices, this property will be more accessible to Wall Street than 42d Street, and of more business value than west-side lots.

We assert without hesitation that this property is at auction on the East-Side, and the character of the present surroundings may be appreciated when we state that the neighbors are such families as Paul Spofford, Esq.; Mr. Dickey (of Brown Brothers & Co.); Col. MAP,

THE VERY FINEST EVER OFFERED

SHOWING THE LOCATION

IN THE

23rd Ward

OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK,

The Property of Edward T. Young, Esq.,

WITH

Showing Location
SPRINGHURST,
13th Ward, City of New York.
Property
EDWARD T. YOUNG, Esq.
1874.

SPRINGHURST,

(so called on account of the many Wells of fine Spring Water found on the property,) formerly known as the "LEGGETT ESTATE," having been in the Leggett Family for upwards of two hundred years, was purchased by the present owner, about nine years ago, directly from one of this family, the widow of George S. Fox, Esq.

The Situation

which the property occupies is one of the most commanding and elevated on the East River or Sound within a circuit of many miles—as may be seen by an inspection of the Topographical Map of the 23d and 24th Wards of New York, executed under the direction of the Commissioners of the Department of Public Parks. The situation affords a fine view of the Sound, East River, and a great part of New York and Brooklyn; and the natural slope of the land towards Tide Water, assures to it perfect healthfulness and freedom from malarial diseases.

Its Location

is between the Hunts Point Road and Leggetts Creek, and the road leading to the Public Dock on said Creek, and the Grand Southern Boulevard. The carriage entrances are from the Grand Southern Boulevard through 145th Street, and the Avenues opening into the Hunts Point Road.

The Distance

of this property from CENTRAL PARK is about three miles, and from HARLEM BRIDGE, in a direct line, less than two miles. It is a drive of about forty-five minutes from Madison Square, via Central Park, Harlem Bridge and the Southern Boulevard; and about forty-five minutes from Fulton Ferry, by the Morrisania Express Boats, running in connection with the Harlem River Branch of the New Haven Rail Road.

This new double track, steel railed, road, has its terminus, depot and shops, on the Harlem River, opposite 2nd Avenue; stops at Port Morris, runs through Springhurst, and has its first depot, above Harlem River, on the Hunts Point Road, about three minutes walk from this property.

Quick Transit

has thus been secured to Springhurst, from the business part of New York City, by the 36 daily trips made by the Harlem River Boats, and the 14 daily trains of the Harlem Branch of the New Haven Rail Road. Most of the City roads connect with Harlem, and the time from Harlem River to Springhurst, by the steam cars, is about six minutes.

The Advantages and Value of Springhurst for homesteads, urban and suburban, for the merchant and mechanic, are apparent, from its accessibility by steam, with so little loss of time, combined with its recognized beauty and healthfulness; as well, also, from its adaptability to manufacturing or other business purposes along its WATER FRONT on Leggetts Creek, (just out of the Sound).

As Hell Gate will soon be clear of the obstructions to navigation, which have hitherto diverted the natural movement of European commerce, we may, in the near future, expect that the East River and Sound, within the City Limits, will form the COMMERCIAL FRONT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

In anticipation of this important event, one of the Rail Road Companies has already secured land for depot purposes, &c, on the Sound, near Port Morris, convenient to Springhurst, paying $210.000 for Twenty-one Acres, chiefly of soft land.

Influenced by the same potent considerations, some of the European Steamship Companies have been negotiating for the purchase of tracts of land for docks, warehouses, etc., above the mouth of the Harlem River.

The unsold portion of this old estate was, for the first time, put into the market, in city lots and plots, last Fall, before the opening of the new rail road; and, since the 1st of January, a large number of houses have been built; and arrangements have been completed, by the purchasers of lots, for the erection of many more stores and dwellings before next Summer. A town will thus have sprung up within easy and rapid access by Rail Road, in the midst of a neighborhood which has hitherto been exclusive.

Surrounding Springhurst are the "Castello del Casanova," and the elegant residences of Messrs. Arnold, White, Hoe, Ives, Gilbert, Dickey, Spofford, Faile, Bryan, Brown and Barretto.

Some years ago, about 13 acres of the "Leggett Estate" were purchased from Mr. Young, and for this land and improvement the owner has declined an offer of $250,000. It is, consequently, evident that the price at which lots at Springhurst have been, and are now selling, (viz: $450 to $1,250, according to location) is much less than their intrinsic value.

is called to the fine plot of lots in the Northeast quarter of the tract, and to the parcel of 228 lots, adjoining the same, on the South, and separated therefrom by Spofford Avenue, running from the Hunts Point Road to Leggetts Creek. This latter parcel, embracing the site of the ancestral Leggett mansion, was always considered as the choicest part of the Estate, on account of its elevation, fine natural drainage to the salt Water Front, and its magnificent shade, fruit and ornamental trees. It needs but to be seen to have its beauty, and present and prospective value appreciated.

There are on the plot of 228 lots, a residence, gardener's house, stable, barn, and greenhouse, as well as a private dock, and boat and bathing house. These plots can now be purchased in one parcel, at a rate relatively much below the sum said to have been refused for the adjacent property; or, they will be disposed of in quantities to suit purchasers.

Either of these plots afford a site for an Educational or other Institution that cannot be excelled.

The Rapid Enhancement

in the value of lots at Springhurst, over low current rates, is inevitable, as will be seen from a brief reference to the history of suburban property, within the past few years, since the increase of Rail Road facilities:—

At Mountclair, N. J., a plot of unimproved land was purchased some years ago for $1,000, and was recently sold for $5,000.

At Passaic, N. J., one hour distant from Wall Street, 40 acres were bought in 1860 for $14,000, and now the same property is valued at $750,000!

At College Point, L. I., lots that ten years ago sold at $50 each, now readily command $1,200 to $1,500.

At Yonkers, lots of land that cost in 1863 $500, in 1873 readily commanded $3,000. And now we come to MORRISANIA.

Lots that sold in 1860 for $100, now command $1,500 each.

From 1863 to 1873, on the East side of the 3d Avenue, the changes in value for city lots, were from $300, to $6,000 each.

In 1866, residence property sold for $650 per lot, and in 1870, the same lots sold for $2,000 each.

In 1866, 4 lots were sold to a builder at $900 each, and in 1871, they were worth $4,500 each. In the same place in 1865, a block of lots brought $600 each. The same were sold again in 1870, at $3,000 each.

In 1868, 16 lots were sold at $800 each, now worth $4,000 each.

In 1866, a considerable tract, including some water frontage, was sold at $2,500 per acre, and since many lots of this parcel, have been sold at an average price of $5,000 per city lot. Even at comparatively remote as it is, eight years ago, plots of land, 100 x 100, were selling at $300, and now the same plots are actually sold for $3,000, or $750 per city lot.

These illustrations might be indefinitely multiplied, but enough has been said, to satisfy even the most skeptical that

SPRINGHURST HAS A GREAT FUTURE, and that Now is the Grand Opportunity for safe investments, and for securing residence or business property at cheap rates, by purchasing one or more of the 500 Lots remaining unsold on the MOST LIBERAL TERMS.

To accommodate persons of limited means, three monthly instalments of $50 each will be received, without interest, on lots not costing over $450; balance on Bond and Mortgage, and a warranty deed, as heretofore, given, when the last of the three payments shall have been made. The property is conveyed in all cases, to purchasers, free and clear of all incumbrances of every description

A representative of the owner will be on the ground every Thursday afternoon, weather permitting, commencing October 1st, to show the property to those desiring to purchase.

Trains leave Harlem River Depot, for Hunts Point Station, 7.00, and 9.15 a. m.; 1.00, 4.00, 4.40, 5.10, 6.45, p. m.; and Hunts Points Station for Harlem River Depot, 7.36, 8.18, 8.57, 11.04, a. m.; 3.00, 5.49, and 6.30, p. m.; connecting with Boats from, and to, Fulton Market Slip.

Application may be made to Capt. THOMAS D. NORRIS, Real Estate Agent, 3d Avenue, between 138th and 139th Streets, 23rd Ward; or to

WILLIAM H. RAYNOR, 54 PINE STREET.

R. G. MURPHY, 14 PINE STREET.

Thursday November 2nd 1876

Olmstead & Sheffield, Auctions with Number $43.01 paid at once. Saw Fred Sheffield, he was rather emphatic but when he found you had gone to Canajoharie he told. He would give out Note dated Oct 1st for $400 for three months for quarters rent due Nov 1st in exchange for one dated Cuno from Nov 1st for $400 with interest. Said he would see his lawyer Benedict Taft & Benedict, Main St. about assignment of lease & taking any & such authority to collect rents and see good & sufficient security for the payment of notes $503.12 in settlement of rent to date and $400 for the quarter due Nov 1st. Objected to allowing in the accounting $66.12 for 1/2 and rent? Should have given each obligor to account 1/2 and rent in consequence of taking so much time for plaintiff. He said he had done more than a quarter to and that he could not allow it. I think if you an away it will be safe to only arrange & though he will not give up the note at Cuno for one at Cuno. I suppose him or his lawyer to charge $10 for settlement. having you procure assignment. He says he will prosecute him sometime next week a few days from Centennial Saw A. C. Stewart, Banker Cuno Cato. Not willing to sign any agreement for a minimum price less than $200.00 and Comp for more than 5% on gross sold for. Finding this best to be done Contracts and an agreement will be drawn up accordingly & he says he will be able to give it to me before the 10th of Nov. Signed by the majority in interest and in case of sale it will be subject to amount of the minority. He wishes in meantime for Realty working to purchase to go

Block & Co respectfully. Odiel not like him when I was. I then in writing he tells I have agreement signed first. I have something separate and that probably the engagement of the party might not accrue him big money before the term of agreeing agreement. The note which Alfred Casanova gave yesterday was due on his debt to this morning. Kittelle made settlement. November rent. Sharpsmith endorsed by Kittelle 2 mos from Oct 6 due Dec 6/9 $73.50

Sharpsmith endorsed by Kittelle 2 mos from Oct 9 due Dec 9/72 139.80

Dear Mr Whaley

I am feeling Poorly and dont feel able to write you as I would like but I am very much worried that it cannot be helped I have had chills and feel very poorly I have to be up on Saturday and the Dressmaker has to look at the furniture that is left at 14 Tord Rd I think she will buy it so dont send it Mrs Hudson Le Blanc. I will be up Mr Harrell at the house at the about half past 10

I am very sorry that it cannot be done

Mrs Anna Gow

Wednesday.

Mr Wheeler

Dear Sir

Dear Sir Lobeley

I have received a letter from Sir Gary in which he tells me my affairs have been a great success but has not time to know if an offer would be made I send you these four things and hope that you will get all the money you can on them for me Sir Gary must have 600 £. I think that they will give you 870 £ and perhaps do the best you can to ~~[illegible]~~ him the money by cash on monday as he reaches me a cable at once I am for ever in distress and God only knows indeed it will end I will bring some money down to the Office when I go you will have at least 60 for me the things are cooler about here Let do the best you can Send Reply Good Friend

Louie Young

Please hurry this up

I will be down to the Office about 10 Oclock monday

Mr Whaley

Lawrenceburg Ind

I received your two kind letters and thank you many times. I do not wish to dispose of my medicine. but would like you to buy and sell my cross. (and) gold necklace the one that has the cross has the gold necklace attached to it. I will sell it for 100 and the Cross that cost me $2500 I will call for 11 hundred all the above are part of the first-rate Horse by and run: me money on my blue ruin as soon as you come by you can sell it out and out I will take $100 for it It is worth at least 175 to 200 I don't care to see the Gentlemen as it will make me feel badly buy and transact the business without me And you will greatly oblige your friend Simon Jones

Dear Sir Kelly

I do by no means like those measures for must be done I must Round money to the Jobbers by Cattle if not sale them for what they will fetch they will give and that amount I to this must obey

Your Sincere Friend
Ste Jones

I hope you are better Love this night I also send Chain for them to Come at Rent $40 in it Stock to the Chain Cost $160 I would have $100 Com

Jones

Mr Whaley

I would you kindly rent Lease for $1.30 per year and also cable Mr Young saying Rosenbaum must come. By doing this you will oblige me very much I am quite sick or would not trouble you.

after the letter I received from you last Saturday I did not understand it. I have been sick I got cold going to the Post Office Saturday in all the rain got my feet wet and have hardly been able to speak since

Your P——

Mrs Jones
