

22 Aug 1844

New York

Rebeck Whaley To Thomas Whaley

(no address)

Rachel T. Thomas

New York, Aug 22^d 1844

Aug 22, 1844

In answer to Thomas's letter of

May 10, 1844

All July 10, 1844

ry welcome letter on 24 of July anxiety, I was thankful to l at Havre, your destined port, and the preservation of your health during your voyage, all combined to create feeling of the most grateful kind for the welfare and happiness of my child who is at such a great distance, from the care of a Mother who has the interest of her children much at heart- Thomas now will you be thrown on your own responsibility, I hope you consider your situation, and consult providence and discretion on all occasions at the expense of your Gratifications.-Tis; my wish you should think of me frequently and my last admonitions; I hope you feel as happy as you did when you wrote to me, I will proceed to inform you of all the particulars, I sent a letter to you near to the 1st of July as I could not wait any longer, with a full detail of circumstances as they occurred after your departure You no doubt will be very much, Surprised at our Removal from Mrs. U to ease your mind, we at GrandfatherIs where I shall remain untill Brother comes from W. or he writes that he wants to come home, Very much I shall resume keeping house *(Upside down)(Ask (Monsieur for the favour of a copy of some writing he had composed Miss Devereaux told me about it)

I was at Mrs. U 9 weeks, I cannot rely on friendship alone again, without keeping a bright lookout, or must you. We are well and happy at present and so we are all the different family, Father has had a Tumor on his breast, tis quite well we were fearful of it at first.-I expect H will be pleased to heare from you

Rachel Whaley to Thomas Whaley
(no address)

New York, Aug 22^d 1844

My Absent Son,

I recieved your very welcome letter on 24 of July h wich was a salutary relief to my anxiety, I was thankful to Almighty God for You safe arrival at Havre, your destined port, and the preservation of your health during your voyage, all combined to create feeling of the most grateful kind for the welfare and happiness of my child who is at such a great distance, from the care of a Mother who has the interest of her children much at heart- Thomas now will you be thrown on your own responsibility, I hope you consider your situation, and consult providence and discrecion on all occasions at the expense of your Gratifications.-Tis; my wish you should think of me frequently and my last admonitions; I hope you feel as happy as you did when you wrote to me, I will proceed to inform you od all the particulars, I sent a letter to you near to the 1st of july as I could not wait any longer, with a full detail of circumstances as they occured after your departure You no doubt will be very much, Surprised at our removal from Mrs. U to ease your mind , we at GrandfatherIs where I shall remain untill Brother comes from W. or he writes that he wants to come home, Very much I shall resume keeping house *(Upside down)(Ask (Monsieur for the favour of a copy of some writing he had composed Miss Devereaux told me about it) I was at Mrs. U 9 weeks, I cannot rely on friendship alone again, without keeping a bright lookout, or must you. We are well and happy at present and so we are all the different family, Father has had a Tumor on his breast, tis quite well we were fearful of it at first.-I expect H will be pleased to heare from you

he was quite alarmed at your silence he will be home, I must say home, in a few weeks John has not written me a line since he left me I know of not any reason. Yes as you write I have felt the loss of my own home, I hope it will be for your improvement you write that it will be, then I will be happy and say my prayers have been heard some parts of your letter gave me infinite pleasure and satisfaction. When I read of your intention to leave the side of your Protector I was surprised, and more so as I read to find it was by his persuasion, in a distant land and just from a long voyage how I wished I could remonstrate with you, and in such a exposed place as Paris it has given me much uneasiness; did I not tell you not to leave Mons house until you had become acquainted with the custom of the country. Do consider all things Marsell has collected No.3 rent I have lent Hen $50 until he returns home as he wanted make a good purchase Ere he came home Mr B has a bill of 100 he ^{Budy} will send it to him in two weeks which will enable H to purchase largely, Henry has had several attacks of the ague he wants me to come to W to live, I think I should not like the Place, I will wait till We all meet again if! the Lords will be done, I often think how very valuable we were to each other, and how little we were apprised of it- Time produces great changes! I hope Harriot will take your good advice I have seen Harris only once he promised to call again he has been very sick and our leaving the city-I wrote a note to inform him of your safe arrival and your intention to write to him I wrote from Newark wishing him to inform me when he recieved a letter from you I am waiting for one with all patience from you M Palmer came up to See Grandfather on Saturday I told him what you wrote he asked for your address Mr Palmer dined with us after which he paid Aunt Lynar a visit

she says he is not Aron, thinks him proud and rather imperious, he said he would write a letter for you to some Gent in London he then left for the 4 ! Oclock cars, he wished his best regards presented to Mons, I have not heard or seen heard from Anson we have been very much confined since you left when H comes we will take some jaunts.(in between these lines)(Harriotte would like you to get her a silk dress let it be hansome not light but rich) (You speak of Harriotte getting married, do not form any connection yourself unbecoming)(I am to go to NY on Monday to see to send your papers I will get a Pilot Rolston to transact the business he has 2's on young Gentleman.)

I cauled on Miss Devereaux they were very anxious for you both I have writen to them of you safe arival , I am ignorant if Capt Chase has returned, I should be very much pleased to see him- At night when I retire I frequently wonder where you can be, when I behold the Sun rise, I say the one Sun, rises for us Both. Thomas my most ardent desire is that you should always preform under a good principle and reason with yourself with respect to their correctness I am cirtain you are capable if you take the trouble, you must apply yourself to Study, and look well how you are prevailed upon, and do not depreciate in goodness, or my disappointment will be great indeed. - As I wrote in my last I wrote not remain so long in Paris, I thought if you could fall in with Edwar Cooper and go to jermamy, or some other place, I suppose you will communicate all your intentions in your Next. I wrote you a full detail of our law affairs F says it is a Very complicated piece of work and say we had better settle some way even if we lost by it, I have not seen Van Namee since the middle of June I do not like or will you if, you have recieved my letter, I directed it for you at Mallette I will write again soon as I want a letter evry 2 or 3 weeks-I intend sending you $60 or 70 I wish you to be Economical, of corse I wish you to be very comfortable but not lavish, I expect you will remain with Mr. Desneufbourgs while in Paris, if you go to London call on Mr. George P. Putnam in Petenostee Row you must introduce yourself- When you write direct your letters to the care Wm M Pye Corner of Delancy & Cannon Sts for me.-Miss Lawrence has not called upon us when we are settled Hen can call wish your respects, I should be pleased to see her. I will call on Miss Devereaux when I go to town, I shall have considerable to do when Hen comes as I have not any house in view, I feel very anxious when I think of my Furniture and H is loseing all her Music for which I am very sorry, I am happy that you take a lively interest in your Only Sister welfare You must present mine and Mariotte Salutations to Monsieur M and family and Desneufbourgs likewise who I often think of I saw a Gent on Board Steam Boat look very like him and it appeared to that he, must know something of you, I looked at him quite involuntary his manner his respectful deportment all conspired to me think of you and him, at length he left as on Boat arived at Ny-. (upside down) (Your letter was fine and full each person ...I think you will not be able to read it.) (I have Swarts due bill I have not see Mr --Parsons I will doe the best I can with him I am looking for a letter from you and Henry I send to the Post office each day I want to hear if he has the draft I expect the time is good to purchase.(I expect Mr Mallet is quite fat ask him if he intends to return)with you)

The most Beautiful Season is now approaching I hope we shall all enjoy ourselves as we have a great many Blessings amid our many troubles, Mariotte must take some little excusion with H I may go, she enjoys good health at present, has been makeing up some linen for E, thus you see she will be very useful to us all. I must commence to make for you soon I wish I had a snug cottage by my and one of you had a store that we could keep a horse and carriage I do not want to waulk all my life I suppose you will say come to France I read in the papers as though there was considerable disturbance in France be careful what you say and do not commit yourself I must commend to the protection of the Almighty and recieve this from your Affectionate Mother R Whaley

Do take some medicine once in a while say castor oil

Brother Thomas, Mother has committed the same error she did the last time in leaving me room to write when you receive the money , you must try to get an opportunity to send me my dress as I shall need it much in a few months as I have no silk dress at this time , if cannot send it you must send word so as I can get it here but I should rather have it from France it must be dark & rich changeable colors with a small figure 14 or 15 yards I told you last how to make it up in a skirt and two long shawls, perhaps you can send it by one of the Captains wives. I have had no opportunity to be talkative with Harris nor no other young gentleman as I do not have much to do with the young people now days but I hope such times will not last always. I have not seen Charlotte but I sent her word in a note to A.M. Brown that as you said about in I think that I shall not be sorry when E comes home as I want very much to go to housekeeping and see my old friends again. You seem very much worried about my getting married if that is to be he will be walking along one of these days I hope that he will be a pretty clever fellow I will go to see Miss Bushnell when we return to New York which I hope will be shortly You say that I must write you all the news since you left, I have not much of that at present but hope times will be changed before long. When F comes I want to go out and see about New York as there are many things that I never saw. Today it rains and looks very gloomy in the country Harris said that he would bring me a snap of France 0 but I have not seen sight of him since he has been very sick the last I heard I will write more the next time--from your sister Harriet

[illegible]

[illegible]

Rachel Whaley to Thomas Whaley
(no address)

New York, Aug 22^d 1844

My Absent Son,

I recieved your very welcome letter on 24 of July
h wich was a salutary relief to my anxiety, I was thankful to Almighty God for You safe arrival at Havre, your destined port,
and the preservation of your health during your voyage, all
combined to create feeling of the most grateful kind for the welfare and happiness of my child who is at such a great distance, from the care of a Mother who has the interest of her children much at heart- Thomas now will you be thrown on your own responsibility, I hope you consider your situation, and consult providence and discesion on all occasions at the expense of your Gratifications.-Tis; my wish you should think of me frequently and my last admonisitions; I hope you feel as happy
as you did when you wrote to me, I will proceed to inform you od all the particulars, I sent a letter to you near to the 10# of july as I could not wait any longer, with a full detail of circumstances as they occured after your departure You no doubt will be very much, Surprised at our Removal from Mrs. U to ease your mind , we at Grandfather's where I shall remain untill Brother comes from W. or he writes that he wants to come home,
Very much I shall resume keeping house *(Upside down)(Ask (Monsieur for the favour of a ccopy of some writing he had composed Miss Devereaux told me about it)
I was at Mrs. U 9 weeks, I cannot rely on friendship alone again, without keeping a bright lookout, or must you. We are well and happy at present and so we are all the different family, Father
has had a Tumor on his breast, tis quite well we were fearful
of it at first.-I expect H will be pleased to heare from you

he was quite alarmed at your silence he will be home, I must say home, in a few weeks John has not written me a line since he left me I know of not any reason. Yes as you write I have felt the loss of my own home, I hope it will be for your improvement you write that it will be, then I will be happy and say my prayers have been heard some parts of your letter gave me infinite pleasure and satisfaction. When I read of your intention to leave the side of your Protector I was surprised, and more so as I read to find it was by his persuasion, in a distant land and just from a long voyage how I wished I could remonstrate with you, and in such a exposed place as Paris it has given me much uneasiness; did I not tell you not to leave Mons house untill you had become acquainted with the custom of the country. Do consider all things; Harsell has collected No.3 rent I have lent Hen $50 untill he returns home as he wanted make a good purchase Ere he came home Mr B has a bill of 100 he ^{Budy} will send it to him in two weeks which will enable H to purchase largely, Henry has had several attacks of the ague he wants me to come to W to live, I think I should not like the Place, I will wait till We all meet again if! the Lords will be done, I often think how very valuable we were to each other, and how little we were apprised of it- Time produces great changes! I hope Harriot will take your good advice I have seen Harris only once he promised to call again he has been very sick and our leaving the city-I wrote a note to inform him of your safe arrival and your intention to write to him I wrote from Newark wishing him to inform me when he recieved a letter from you I am waiting for one with all patience from you M Palmer came up to See Grandfather on Saturday I told him what you wrote he asked for your address Mr Palmer dined with us after which he paid Aunt Lynar a visit

she says he is not Aron, thinks him proud and rather imperious, he said he would write a letter for you to some Gent in London he then left for the 4 ! Oclock cars, he wished his best regards presented to Mons, I have not heard or seen heard from Anson we have been very much confined since you left when H comes we will take some jaunts. (in between these lines) (Harriotte would like you to get her a silk dress let it be handsome not light but rich) (You speak of Harriotte getting married, do not form any connection yourself unbecoming) (I am to go to NY: on Monday to see to send your papers I will get $ Pilot Rolston to transact the business he has 2's on young Gentleman.)

I cauled on Miss Devereaux they were very anxious for you both I have writen to them of you safe arival , I am ignorant if Capt Chase has returned, I should be very much pleased to see him- At night when I retire I frequently wonder where you can be, when I behold the Sun rise, I say the one Sun, rises for us Both. Thomas my most ardent desire is that you should always preform under a good principle and reason with yourself with respect to their correctness I am certain you are capable if you take the trouble, you must apply yourself to Study, and look well how you are prevailed upon, and do not depreciate in goodness, or my disappointment will be great indeed. - As I wrote in my last I wrote not remain so long in Paris, I thought if you could fall in with Edwar Cooper and go to jermany, or some other place, I suppose you will communicate all your intentions in your Next. I wrote you a full detail of our law affairs H says it is a Very complicated piece of work and say we had better settle some way even if we lost by it, I have not seen Van Namee since the middle of June I do not like or will you if, you have recieved my letter, I directed it for you at Mallette I will write again soon as I want a letter evry 2 or 3 weeks-I intend sending you $60 or 70 I wish you to be Economical, of corse I wish you to be very comfortable but not lavish, I expect you will remain with Mr. Desneufbourgs while in Paris, if you go to London call on Mr. George P. Putnam in Petenostee Row you must introduce yourself- When you write direct your letters to the care Wm M Pye Corner of Delancy & Cannon Sts for me.-Miss Lawrence has not called upon us when we are settled Hen can call wish your respects, I should be pleased to see her. I will call on Miss Devereaux when I go to town, I shall have considerable to do when Hen comes as I have not any house in view, I feel very anxious when I think of my Furniture and H is loseing all her Music for which I am very sorry, I am happy that you take a lively interest in your only Sister welfare You must present mine and Hariotte Salutations to Monsieur M and family and Desneufbourgs likewise who I often think of I saw a Gent on Board Steam Boat look very like him and it appeared to that he, must know something of you, I looked at him quite involuntary his manner his respectful deportment all conspired to me think of you and him, at length he left as on Boat arived at Ny-. (*upside down) (Your letter was fine and full each person ...I think you will not be able to read it.) (I have Swarts due bill I have not see Mr --Parsons I will doe the best I can with him I am looking for a letter from you and Henry I send to the Post office each day I want to hear if he has the draft I expect the time is good to purchase.(I expect Mr Mallet is quite fat ask him if he intends to return)with you)

The most Beautiful Season is now approaching I hope we shall all enjoy ourselves as we have a great many Blessings amid our many troubles, Hariotte must take some little excusion with H I may go, she enjoys good health at present, has been makeing up some linen for H, thus you see she will be very useful to us all. I must commence to make for you soon I wish I had a snug cottage by my and one of you had a store that we could keep a horse and carriage I do not want to waulk all my life I suppose you will say come to France I read in the papers as though there was considerable disturbance in France be careful what you say and do not commit yourself I must commend to the protection of the Almighty and recieve this from your

Affectionate Mother R Whaley

Do take some medicine once in a while say castor oil

Brother Thomas, Mother has committed the same error she did the last time in leaving me room to write when you receive the money , you must try to get an opportunity to send me my dress as I shall need it much in a few months as I have no silk dress at this time , if cannot send it you must send word so as I can get it here but I should rather have it from France it must be dark & rich changeable colors with a small figure 14 or 15 yards I told you last how to make it up in a skirt and two long shawls, perhaps you can send it by one of the Captains wives. I have had no opportunity to be talkative with Harris nor no other young gentleman as I do not have much to do with the young people now days but I hope such times will not last always. I have not seen Charlotte but I sent her word in a note to A.M. Brown that as you said about in I think that I shall not be sorry when H comes home as I want very much to go to housekeeping and see my old friends again. You seem very much worried about my getting married if that is to be he will be walking along one of these days I hope that he will be a pretty clever fellow I will go to see Miss Bushnell when we return to New York which I hope will be shortly You say that I must write you all the news since you left, I have not much of that at present but hope times will be changed before long. When H comes I want to go out and see about New York as there are many things that I never saw. Today it rains and looks very gloomy in the country Harris said that he would bring me a snap of France O but I have not seen sight of him since he has been very sick the last I heard

I will write more the next time--from your sister Harriet

Rachel Whaley to Thomas Whaley
(no address)

d
New York, Aug 22^d 1844

My Absent Son,

I recieved your very welcome letter on 24 of July
h wich was a salutary relief to my anxiety, I was thankful to Almighty God for You safe arrival at Havre, your destined port,
and the preservation of your health during your voyage, all
combined to create feeling of the most grateful kind for the welfare and happiness of my child who is at such a great distance, from the care of a Mother who has the interest of her children much at heart- Thomas now will you be thrown on your own responsibility, I hope you consider your situation, and consult providence and discrecion on all occasions at the expense
of your Gratifications.-Tis; my wish you should think of me
frequently and my last admonitions; I hope you feel as happy
as you did when you wrote to me, I will proceed to inform you of all the particulars, I sent a letter to you near to the 10th of July as I could not wait any longer, with a full detail of circumstances as they occured after your departure You no doubt will be very much, Surprised at our Removal from Mrs. U to ease your mind , we at Grandfather's where I shall remain untill Brother comes from W. or he writes that he wants to come home,
Very much I shall resume keeping house *(Upside down)(Ask (Monsieur for the favour of a copy of some writing he had composed Miss Devereaux told me about it)
I was at Mrs. U 9 weeks, I cannot rely on friendship alone again, without keeping a bright lookout, or must you. We are well and happy at present and so are all the different family; Father has had a Tumor on his breast, tis quite well we were fearful of it at first.-I expect " will be pleased to heare from you

he was quite alarmed at your silence he will be home, I must say home, in a few weeks John has not written me a line since he left me I know of not any reason. Yes as you write I have felt the loss of my own home, I hope it will be for your improvement you write that it will be, then I will be happy and say my prayers have been heard some parts of your letter gave me infinite pleasure and satisfaction. When I read of your intention to leave the side of your Protector I was surprised, and more so as I read to find it was by his persuasion, in a distant land and just from a long voyage how I wished I could remonstrate with you, and in such a exposed place as Paris it has given me much uneasiness; did I not tell you not to leave Mons house untill you had become acquainted with the custom of the country. Do consider all things Harrell has collected No.3 rent I have lent Hen $50 untill he returns home as he wanted make a good purchase Ere he came home Mr B has a bill of 100 he ^{Budy} will send it to him in two weeks which will enable H to purchase largely, Henry has had several attacks of the ague he wants me to come to W to live, I think I should not like the Place, I will wait till We all meet again if! the Lords will be done, I often think how very valuable we were to each other, and how little we were apprised of it- Time produces great changes! I hope Harriot will take your good advice I have seen Harris only once he promised to call again he has been very sick and our leaving the city-I wrote a note to inform him of your safe arrival and your intention to write to him I wrote from Newark wishing him to inform me when he received a letter from you I am waiting for one with all patience from you M Palmer came up to See Grandfather on Saturday I told him what you wrote he asked for your address Mr Palmer dined with us after which he paid Aunt Lynar a visit

she says he is not Aron, thinks him proud and rather imperious, he said he would write a letter for you to some Gent in London he then left for the 4 ! Oclock cars, he wished his best regards presented to Mons, I have not heard or seen heard from Anson we have been very much confined since you left when H comes we will take some jaunts. (in between these lines) (Harriotte would like you to get her a silk dress let it be handsome not light but rich) (You speak of Harriotte getting married, do not form any connection yourself unbecoming) (I am to go to NY on Monday to see to send your papers I will get $ Pilot Rolston to transact the business he has 2 Son young Gentleman.)

I cauled on Miss Devereaux they were very anxious for you both I have writen to them of you safe arival , I am ignorant if Capt Chase has returned, I should be very much pleased to see him- At night when I retire I frequently wonder where you can be, when I behold the Sun rise, I say the one Sun, rises for us Both. Thomas my most ardent desire is that you should always preform under a good principle and reason with yourself with respect to their correctness I am certain you are capable if you take the trouble, you must apply yourself to Study, and look well how you are prevailed upon, and do not depreciate in goodness, or my disappointment will be great indeed. - As I wrote in my last I wrote not remain so long in Paris, I thought if you could fall in with Edwar Cooper and go to jermany, or some other place, I suppose you will communicate all your intentions in your Next. I wrote you a full detail of our law affairs H says it is a Very complicated piece of work and say we had better settle some way even if we lost by it, I have not seen Van Namee since the middle of June I do not like or will you if, you have recieved my letter, I directed it for you at Mallette I will

Write again soon as I want a letter evry 2 or 3 weeks-I intend sending you $60 or 70 I wish you to be Economical, of corse I wish you to be very comfortable but not lavish, I expect you will remain with Mr. Desneufbourgs while in Paris, if you go to London call on Mr. George P. Putnam in Petenostee Now you must introduce yourself- When you write direct your letters to the care Wm M Pye Corner of Delancy & Cannon Sts for me.-Miss Lawrence has not called upon us when we are settled Hen can call wish your respects, I should be pleased to see her. I will call on Miss Devereaux when I go to town, I shall have considerable to do when Hen comes as I have not any house in view, I feel very anxious when I think of my Furniture and H is loseing all her Music for which I am very sorry, I am happy that you take a lively interest in your only Sister welfare You must present mine and Mariotte Salutations to Monsieur M and family and Desneufbourgs likewise who I often think of I saw a Gent on Board Steam Boat look very like him and it appeared to that he, must know something of you, I looked at him quite involuntary his manner his respectful deportment all conspired to me think of you and him, at length he left as on Boat arived at Ny-. (upside down) (Your letter was fine and full each person ...I think you will not be able to read it.) (I have Swarts due bill I have not see Mr --Parsons I will doe the best I can with him I am looking for a letter from you and Henry I send to the Post office each day I want to hear if he has the draft I expect the time is good to purchase.(I expect Mr Mallet is quite fat ask him if he intends to return)with you)

The most Beautiful Season is now approaching I hope we shall all enjoy ourselves as we have a great many Blessings amid our many troubles, Mariotte must take some little excusion with H I may go, she enjoys good health at present, has been

makeing up some linen for E, thus you see she will be very useful to us all. I must commence to make for you soon I wish I had a snug cottage by my and one of you had a store that we could keep a horse and carriage I do not want to waulk all my life I suppose you will say come to France I read in the papers as though there was considerable disturbance in France be careful what you say and do not commit yourself I must commend to the protection of the Almighty and recieve this from your Affectionate Mother R Whaley

Do take some medicine once in a while say castor oil

Brother Thomas, Mother has committed the same error she did the last time in leaving me room to write when you receive the money , you must try to get an opportunity to send me my dress as I shall need it much in a few months as I have no silk dress at this time , if cannot send it you must send word so as I can get it here but I should rather have it from France it must be dark & rich changeable colors with a small figure 14 or 15 yards I told you last how to make it up in a skirt and two long shawls, perhaps you can send it by one of the Captains wives. I have had no opportunity to be talkative with Harris nor no other young gentleman as I do not have much to do with the young people now days but I hope such times will not last always. I have not seen Charlotte but I sent her word in a note to A.M. Brown that as you said about in I think that I shall not be sorry when E comes home as I want very much to go to housekeeping and see my old friends again. You seem very much worried about my getting married if that is to be he will be walking along one of these days I hope that he will be a pretty clever fellow I will go to see Miss Bushnell when we return to New York which I hope will be shortly You say that I must write you all the news since you left, I have not much of that at present but hope times will be changed before long. When H comes I want to go out and see about New York as there are many things that I never

saw. Today it rains and looks very gloomy in the country Harris said that he would bring me a snap of France O but I have not seen sight of him since he has been very sick the last I heard
I will write more the next time--from your sister Harriet