With reference to the note I am sorry to say, I cannot hold out the slightest prospect of success in obtaining cash for them. I regret this very much as I am well aware how much it would benefit you just at the time to commercial rates so small a sum, but I can see no help for it and we must therefore let them lay over 'till due. — As regards the speculation of Berlin I do not on consideration think it would answer in as much as I'm confident the extreme heat which it would have to encounter would render it unfit for use, and consequently a total loss again. I am not exactly in the position to run any risks, my income etc. &c. to say very circumstances and business for the past four weeks has not met the expenses. Under these circumstances I am constrained to decline the suggestion. — Wishing you every success and prosperity in your business this under-taking

Believe me

Very sincerely yours
A. Read.

P.S. Will you be so good as to let me know into whose possession you will place the Notes and other papers? —

Know all Men by these Presents, THAT I, Thomas Whaley _____
 of New York, have made, constituted, and appointed, and by these presents do make, constitute and appoint Washington Smith of the City of New York, my true and lawful attorney for me and in my name, place, and stead to collect, sue, or receive all debts, rents, dues, or money due or to become due to me and to give receipts therefor for the same; to lease or hire property for any length of time my said Attorney shall let, sell any real estate in the City of New York, in which I have any interest, or may hereafter own or be interested and to let and dispose of, to execute, renew, or amend any agreement concerning, or affecting the premises of the same; to settle all necessary stipulations, acts, and steps which may seem proper to my said Attorney concerning any such claim in equity suspending or releasing demands to the action it shall be, party or interested to defend the same in my name, and to cause to be done any such or any other thing my Attorney shall see fit; to collect in my name in real estate, stocks, or otherwise, any money belonging to me which shall come to the hands of my said Attorney.

giving and granting unto my said attorney full power and authority to do and perform all and every act and thing whatsoever requisite and necessary to be done in and about the premises, as fully, to all intents and purposes, as I might or could do if personally present, with full power of substitution and revocation, hereby ratifying and confirming all that my said attorney or his substitute shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue hereof.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the twenty-first day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty eight.
