New York,
Sir,

The passport requested has been sent to the Collector of the Customs at New-York, who will deliver it to you on receiving evidence of your citizenship.

I am, Sir, respectfully
Your Obedient Servant
J C Calhoun

I hope Mrs has visited you of late Liddy is treating her sister Sarah is living in the house with Liddy they cannot conclude with them. Simon has returned to his work, Amey's affairs not settled yet. John J. has not been on I suppose they will be a year I shall hear all when he comes the paper said $2,000 I must say L has acted very mean, I would not have thought it John very much dissatisfied with him. he is quite disgusted he & Simon has alike more or less not a cent all right to that I hope H. will get her bill $1500 thought to be $200 I does not like that. It takes residue from his son Simon. Had H. not have favoured her she would not have saved the money she did. I am sorry to say she grew more parsimonious for the last years I am sorry to say write soon so that I may know that you have rec^d this. So your letter with days

Brockton May 16-1870

Dear Mr. Lincoln

Having ^{this} evening I thought well to write a few lines on it to inform you of our welfare and happiness, as I told you in this, that I have two new sons I fear that Lima comes off 16 at June, Mary a white to come I hope it will be a most happy concern I do not know him he is a designer in a carriage factory.
I presume a smart worthy pint as John would not have permitted him to the house. perhaps John has written you of the whole affair I believe he is pretty smart ^{John} I did hear he was to give up his present business if so I hope it is for a better I want him to do well I saw my namesake yesterday she grows fine by only her teeth are coming in so very large I think she will be smart to learn I have not my one letter from you since you left.
I never saw the like what can be the reason I do not get Hew, letters or he seems to bad you must be well aware of the time it takes to transmit to bad. I want to hear from him so I sent to you that he receives and why not others to bad. I hope they escaped the small pox he did not say I hope your family are all prospering yourself also, ~~to~~
I am I, it is improving as report says my love to all.

Before this paper I was afforded to write
My father
