{ Office of City Clerk,
 City of San Diego. Sept 25th 1880.

This is to certify that the foregoing (in red and black ink) is a correct copy of a book on file in my office showing the grants of Public Lands of the City of San Diego, by the various officials having charge of the same, with the exception of specifying their names as grantors.

{ Witness my hand, and the Corporate
 Seal of said City the day of the date of this Certificate.
 J. W. Whaley,
 City Clerk.

I don't know who compiled the original of which this purports to be a copy, but I do know that, in the course of my examination I find there are many errors in this book and with altogether unreliable.

A large table with multiple columns and rows, mostly blank. The table is defined by a grid of lines. There is a prominent vertical line near the left side and another near the right side, creating a wide central column. The top of the table is bounded by a horizontal line. The table appears to be a ledger or a record book, but it contains no data.
