

Campaign songs of the 70's

Campaign songs of the 70's (L.W.)

Sung by Captain Grant, H. F.
Daugherty and others, in the
Hayes & Wheeler campaign.

In the name of our Union and freedom our banner we gallantly raise,
And on it appears in bright letters the name of brave Rutherford Hayes.
Hurrah for brave Rutherford Hayes! Hurrah for brave Rutherford Hayes!
And on it appears in bright letters the name of brave Rutherford Hayes.

Hold the fort for Hayes and Wheeler while the pulses thrill,
Loyal men in solid columns answer back, "We will!"

Then dinna ye hear the slogan, and dinna ye hear the cry,
"Hurrah! Hurrah! Hurrah for Hayes and Wheeler!
Hurrah! Hurrah! We'll rally by and by."
