MILLIONS OF WOMEN USE CUTICURA SOAP exclusively for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and healing red, rough, and sore hands, in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammations, and chafings, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes, for ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sanative antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, and especially mothers, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. No amount of persuasion can induce those who have once used it to use any other, especially for preserving and purifying the skin, scalp, and hair of infants and children. CUTICURA SOAP combines delicate emollient properties derived from CUTICURA, the great skin cure, with the purest of cleansing ingredients and the most refreshing of flower odors. No other medicated or toilet soap ever compounded is to be compared with it for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair, and hands. No cigar or domestic toilet soap, however expensive, is compared with it for all the purposes of the toilet, and nursery. Thus it combines in ONE SOAP at One cent, viz., TWENTY-FIVE CENTS, the best skin and complexion soap, the best toilet and best baby soap in the world.

COMPLETE EXTERNAL AND INTERNAL TREATMENT FOR EVERY HUMOR $1.25, consisting of CUTICURA SOAP (2oz.), to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales and soften the delicate cuticle, CUTICURA OINTMENT (2oz.), to instantly assuage itching, inflammation, and irritation, and soothe and heal, and CUTICURA HAIRWELL (2oz.), to cool and cleanse the blood. PARTY STEWARDSHIPFOSTERING AMERICAN SHIPPING.*The Tests to Be Met by the Political Organizations Next November

The expectation in which the American people, turning from the Democratic party, entrusted power four years ago to a Republican chief magistrate and a Republican congress, has been met and satisfied. When the people then assembled at the polls, after a term of Democratic legislation and administration, business was dead, industry paralyzed and the national credit disastrously impaired. The country's capital was hidden away and its labor distressed and unemployed. — Extract from Republican National platform.

Let us see what the respective platforms say about it. Here is the voice of the Republican convention at Philadelphia:

Political parties are gigantic organizations of men formed for the purpose of administering the affairs of government on certain definite lines which the effective majority of the people lay down as just and salutary.

These parties are beholden to the people for their stewardship and deserve to be continued in power just in the proportion that their promises and policies have borne the test of time and trial. They deserve to be judged by what they have done, by the measure in which they have performed their promises and by the proved utility of their policies when applied.

By these tests should the Republican party stand or fall in the coming election.

It is in vain that attempts are made to explain away the bad times that attended the late Democratic administration, and that Bryanites would explain into nothingness the improved conditions which have followed the restoration of the Republican party and no facts to power and action, for there is no fact in existence that can not be obscured by weaving in front of it intricate and subtle webs of sophistry.

In the eyes of the incapable all the elements and all the gods contribute to their undoing, and all the elements and all the gods of human destiny conspire to make their opponents victorious and prosperous.

But sensible people know better. They know that the tree must be judged by its fruits, the workman by his work, and the political party by the condition of the country under its administration.

The reader knows, of his own knowledge, that when the election was held four years ago "business was dead, industry paralyzed, and the national credit disastrously impaired;" that the country's capital was hidden away and its labor distressed and unemployed."

Of his own knowledge the reader knows that William McKinley had scarcely taken his seat when a wave of prosperity began to come in, the manufacturing and financial centers of the east and to sweep its way across the continent, that it did sweep from shore to shore and that the whole country became prosperous.

Since the close of the civil war the United States has paid more than four billions of dollars to foreign ship owners for the carrying of American goods to foreign ports and the bringing to our own ports the goods we want that are produced elsewhere and we are now paying foreign ship owners $500,000,000 a year for that service. The voter does not have to be told that this condition ought not to exist.

Let us see what the respective platforms say about it. Here is the voice of the Republican convention at Philadelphia:

Our present dependence on foreign shipping for nine-tenths of our foreign carrying is a great loss to the industry of this country. It is also a serious danger to our trade, for its sudden withdrawal in the event of European war would seriously cripple our expanding foreign commerce. The national defense and naval efficiency of this country, moreover, supply a compelling reason for legislation which will enable us to recover our former place among the trade-carrying fleets of the world.

This is so clearly to the point that little or nothing need be added to it. It will be noticed, however, that the party is not specifically committed to the passing of a shipping subsidy bill, but only to "legislation which will enable us to recover our former place among the trade-carrying fleets of the world." That is what is wanted. If a better measure than the one pending can be devised let us have it.

But here is what Mr. Bryan's Kansas City convention has to say:

"We oppose the accumulation of a surplus to be squandered in such baseless frauds upon the taxpayers as the shipping subsidy bill, which, under its false pretense of prospering American shipbuilding, would put unarmed nations into the pockets of favorite contributors to the Republican campaign fund."

That is every word that is said in relation to the rehabilitation of the American marine and the earning by our own people for our own people of some part of the millions and billions we are paying for the uncertain service of foreign built and foreign manned vessels likely to be called off at anytime (as the British wheat carrying vessels are now called away from California ports) to engage in carrying war supplies for the country whose flag they fly.

Mr. Bryan's party proposes nothing but, true to its obstructive instincts, opposes everything in sight.

There is not now to be found a more inviting field for national enterprise than the rehabilitation of the American merchant marine and it can not be accomplished without some sort of subsidy which will stimulate American vessels to meet on terms of equality the competition from the subsidized merchant marines of other maritime countries.
