The Bricks Machine, ^{near the yard in the valley} has not been sold & I think it is nearly worthless. And the other in the yard of your town is not much better. If there is to be any improvements here, there will be an opportunity to sell them if they are of any value.

It would be better to have the bricks in town where they would be safe but I am afraid it would cost too much to haul them in as they will sell for just as much out there as in town.

Gen^l Halleck & Party when here spoke very encouragingly of the prospects of San Diego. Both Halleck & Allen said no more of Govt money would be expended at Wilmington, that what had been done there was a swindle on the government.

That our road was far better & shorter than the Los Angeles route. And Gen^l Allen said to me that this route was the route for a rail road and it would be built over this route eventually &c &c.

Well, I took a notion to get married last October, and I thank God every day of my life that I did. I am glad to say in the future, we intend to visit the friends & shall take pleasure in visiting.

Gen^l Rosecrans is here now is going out in a few days to examine the pass through the mountains for Rail road purposes.

You of course heard of the death of young Miss Robinson. The old lady appears to have taken it quite hard, she seldom goes out now.

You have also heard that A. B. Smith committed suicide by taking strychnine during an attack of Delirium Tremens.

Donohoe & family now reside in ~~the place~~ having given up business here. Business is about as dull as ever here, nothing doing at all. It is said a new Company have taken hold of the Witherby Mines and intend to work them systematically.

Oye the bye can you give me any information about the strata you found through in sinking for coal, or what evidences you had of coal - There is a party here enquiring about coal & may perhaps be induced to sink for it if the report is favorable.

Yours Truly

E. W. Moore

Dear Mother

When you receive my letter I have waited waiting for an answer that I have got quite discouraged.
Oh don't be if you know how long I am you would write if you. I am not any more contented than I was when you was here. I was hoping father would move to California but he gives up the idea although he of leaving Brooklyn. I only hope it will be a change sometimes I don't

My dear Sister

It is now some time since we have had a letter from you. I have not written, because I could not send you a cheering letter, but I find that if I must for ever I could not do so. Times are very hard with us at present, I am earning but Twenty three dollars per month. My Bamey has not returned from New York, which makes a difference of thirty-five dollars per month and I do not think she will be here before January.

Motha has nothing to do at present she had the promise of three or four but they have not kept their word with her as yet. She is very feeble in health being afflicted with rheumatism on her back.
Motha is not strong.
How is your health. Have you improved. I hope you are stronger than you were when you wrote last.
Mr. Whally I hope is well and you have a more quiet life of it.
The news from S. D. are quite cheering, if all we have be true. We sincerely hope for you have had patience. God knows to stay down there so long waiting for something to turn up. How soon I am leaving you it is hard to tell, but better late than never. Give our love to the children. This time all for us. Tell Annie to write us soon, she has kept her word with her Grandma as she promise But no matter perhaps she could not. I know writing letters is not her forte, like myself, as you will think when you see this specimen of penmanship, but no matter it is better than nothing

Kiss Annie tell her that we miss her very much and would like to see her and all the children Mother sends her love to you all, she would have written her self, but is now sick in bed, hardly able to sit, with the Rheumatism I hope she will be better in a few days. Give our love to Frank, tell him we have not had a paper for some time.

Good-bye,

Sunday evening

Dear Uncle Tom

I received your letter particularly was glad indeed to hear that my letter was satisfactory to you

I had a letter from Bob Thursday he said he thought he would be in New York about the middle of the week it seems as if he had been away such a long time to day is Sunday and it is very lonely out here in the country so I thought I would pass away some of ^{the} time by writing you in the evening in N.Y. we had quite a shower here this morning Uncle Sam will soon be done he does not want the carpet - he will be down after the fourth Dixie is coming out here to board the rest of the summer

How is your Wife and children in Frank at home it is too bad Uncle Tom that you have to be separated from your family so long Jennie is home from New Brunswick Lily is very much pleased with her brother's Ma'am may tell Uncle Tom to care for some boys when is Mrs Young going to Europe what would she do with out you you have been a most valued friend to her I hope you will hear from ^{her} Bob in a few I have had no correspondents that not mine of any account - but I am getting tired of the country I think I will get back to it before long the children and love and all the rest of the family send their love it is very warm here to day I have not any thing else of any importance to write my paper is very scarce with love and thanks I remain your little friend Mr Bob

I have just received a postal card from you to Bob he has not been here in over a month and I have not heard from him in over a week when was his postal card dated I am afraid something has happened him I suppose it is in reference to that money Uncle Tom has with him a little longer for my sake you will be sure to get it. do not let Uncle know anything about - Bob has had very bad luck & our boys say

I ever come here when I see you I will tell you why I think a great deal of you & love you and for my sake be patient & answer them I want to hear from you: you know I have borrowed money from you and I always pay you children and love Baby says he wants to see his Tony & hope you are well be sure and write all our well hoping that this will be favorable to you

Dear Niece

Your welcome letter arrived in due time. I was glad to hear you were well and expect to stay longer in New York you ought to make a good long visit you come so seldom.

There has been a great many changes since you were here last but few improvements I think.
Grandma remains about the same I don't think I have seen her for four years. although I often hear about her. Does she intend to travel with Aunt Harriet when she returns to the country.
I have Uncle Hens. is out of business but I suppose it will not be far long, as he will not like spending money and making noise

Do you hear any thing about Hattie getting married?

When you write home again give my love to Aunt Anna and the children. I have often wondered why she did not answer my letter that I wrote soon after she got home.

I have got moved and mostly settled for the winter and will be ready to see you any time you can come, and will try and make you enjoy your visit.
Although there is not much to offer you in the way of amusements as Putnam is rather a slow place but we will do our best. I must close with love to you and regards from my husband (Hoping) to see you soon. I remain inst. received, and if you it was welcome. I am sorry I can not inform you of the receipt of your first letter, but I have not received it, and do not expect to, now. I would where it can be, I do not think it could have reached Park Ridge or why would I not get it the same as others. I hardly think anyone outside of the family, would take one letter from the P. O. but I can not tell. I am sorry it is lost however especially, as you seem to attach so much importance to it. Do you know, Frank, that ever since I heard from you, I have been puzzling my brain, trying to think what that letter could contain, which could be so excusively for me. but I give it up, and unless you write it over again or tell me verbally, I am afraid I am destined never to know.

I am sorry to hear your search for employment has been so unsuccessful. but you must not be discouraged, try and look on the bright side of everything, although I know it is hard to do so sometimes.
I know I often find it so, for there are many things in my life which I would have so different if I only could. I often indulge in a fit of the "blues" I can tell you when I think how little, how very little pleasure I have in this world compared to what other young girls have. Here I am wasting all the best years of my life in this dull country place where I have no friends, deprived from all the advantages of society which both of my sisters enjoyed before they were married and what is worse nothing better to look forward to. But so it is, and I must make the best of it, I suppose, for there is no other as I am, at a loss for you when you have been absent a long time I have to look at your likeness I read in the papers that Laguerre the inventor of taking likenesses is dead, 78 years of age a native of France his memory will be well perpetuated no doubt. I received a letter from Mr Hassel to day saying, I had an opportunity to leave C. S. to a person who occupies the upper part - but I shall inform that I am not willing to do so under circumstances. How has the Hang-toten house this year worth $200 as you know there is not any ice house he paid the water tax and is to do all repairs I hope you will be here so as to attend to improve that property another year as it does not pay an interest the papers say property is up as high as it was in '30 a good time to sell in 27 I think we will see to Thomas I wish you could get a windfall one of these days and own home as I do not surely think Anna would consent to go to Cal - without you, I am not fearful that you participate in any extravagance therefore you must eventually succeed I fear that you may expose yourself to danger at the time of fire I conjure you to be careful care for yourself least you may sustain an injury to your person what would I do to read of any disaster befalling you after your merciful preservation, I know you do not covet, I hope you will stop to consider how you would suffer in a distant land should any accident occur I set and think of all misfort. which you know is very natural for me to do. Your very short letter dated Jan 14th has been received forwarded by Miss Lanny ~~has been received~~ Sylvester wrote that the young man said Miss L. sent it, You know you wrote that you often put them in a package answer all my inquiries in this letter with promptness I am to answer yours it appears to me ^{though} it would facilitate your return if I write you a long letter

John and family send love and good wishes to you as they have nothing further to offer and shall be happy to see you anove more should you decide to return to San Francisco I should feel very bad to see you go again but they contemplate unhappiness. a gentle man of H. H. has lost his son at Cal. the father bewails his of such occurrences then I feel all his own story!

Thomas & his wife received my letter mailed on 20th of June & spoke likewise once from Anna and then Mathew. I have not yet gained if she left Ledyard out with him but as Anna has become satisfied I shall care ^{no about it} more.
I cannot realize it to be a fact or that Anna was possessed of so small a ^{share} of stability like Paul & Mrs. A. & some - we greeted each other with a kiss when & last visit to her house received me so civil as possible quite a change & what had I done I but expect them, for your sake now all is at an end for a time - at all events they have no claim on me where as they might have - I found a friend in one - Mrs. L., & should you are a rich woman I say, you I came not to talk of my riches, or your poverty I came to consult about your daughter leaving for Gal. I think Anna was pleased with what her mother said to me - I told Anna that you had made a grand mistake in saying you was willing to join him in California contrary to your Mother's consent.

What a great deal of writing this subject has caused all to little purpose I invited him to come and stay a while but I always thought Anne not like one I could soon have taken a fancy to her I think Anne said she

Charles Man, my dear little wife, you will return with the full determination of loving me as fondly as ever and free from the jealousy, which, unfounded as it is, has been troubling in your bosom so long, having perceived your trials and you trust a man to me is wrong to be about me, as you trust a man being what you do were possible,

I would like to dissuade your mind of some of the false notions you entertain, but how that can be done, after refusing to hear my often repeated appeals; to which you give no audience, I am at a loss to know. I told you just before leaving home, that you had my free permission and that it was my earnest desire, that you should question the parties you suspect, if ever I did anything more I took other liberties with them, when absent, than you had consented to, in your presence. and as for having had any connection with any or the other of them, this I verily swear had. I hope you will satisfy yourself about those matters while you have the opportunity during your absence; and on your return do me the justice, that you believe what I have told you.

is an end to all confidence, at least between you and me, and you must continue to think and act as you have long done, and both of us be condemned to a sad miserable life, as a consequence of your perverseness. God knows, I would like to have you love, and have it given long and hard to regain it, by constant coaxing and pitting, and in return have received only your contempt and hatred - constant re-fugnance and detestation - that now, I am about tired of it and resolved upon striving to regain that which you so persistently refuse, no longer. No all and above all other women, I pray and beseech of you, and beto me, what you were formerly, loving and confiding, and you will find in to hear you speak well of ^{our} my boy you will come off an honest man amidst all misfortunes which I take Hansel you was foreman of & if he said with a smile well tho' is a smart man I am sorry matters have turned out as they have I then told him you often wrote that you did not care to come home while you could pay off all your indebtedness to your friends so my son try for your Mother save up funds to do so, that I may expect you home suppose you write to Smith gaining his mind and his demand he may be induced to lessen his demands at all events it can do us harm Mr. H. asked if you was in business I said deck as you told me to say but you had a good pay and hoped to do better soon write how Mr.

Hinton's health is — I have not heard of Palmer of late did not see him as I intended May God protect us all your affectionate Mother Rachel Whalley

I do not intend to have two basements a back kitchen front cellar a tea room a bath and water closet second story 2 parlours a 3^d room single for conservatory second floor a large narrow hall bed room no 3^d room back over the conservatory having 22 feet about the same as the rest of the house the lot of that will leave me a fine yard and garden for grape vines. I have not seen the builder do writing or views on the subject. What! you was he to assist but I must endeavour to profit by your returns all I care as your business is so good in San Diego. I hope and pray you will succeed in getting a (pile) of but a small one when all is paid, do inform me how you have settled with Justice if you have paid him — Mr. Steggs is anxious to give thanks you must be a good man to be chosen foreman of good jury as he said that a dream of pleasure passed over my mind

Now you are anxious to come home, all very good I would be exceedingly glad to have you come and would be willing to pay your passage home in a economical way, we will say second cabin, if that will do I should not come this winter, you speak of my taking care of your family, I feel as though I must do something for my poor aimless boy, I have thought much of him of late, you will agree to all I say as you know I have but little, on hand you would think but little of it therefore I can do but little, I could not make any offer of care to Frank's son, as I am not able to take care of myself so I cannot do much for my grand children, as I tell them there is ten of them here they all go to school John to Public & to private I am glad Frank's teacher will admit John to keep at school, do let him stay there. John is in the baker business with a young man he knows I do not know what interest he gets from it, I do not like it for him - but he agreed while I was away he like yourself must be the judge. do as you please I may have a house by Spring if I live I have a fine girl for my house keeper John says if you can come and make his house your home while you stay if you will in Sattipia he is generous man I tell you Frank's ^{plain} how matters stand, suppose you was to come and any thing should happen only think to you

How sad it would be your wife would say I had encouraged you to leave at the stormy season I am truly sorry that you did not follow my advice 18 months ago, I begin to feel a great wish to be quiet as you may suppose, at my time of life, so I wish to move and be quiet all children are noisy you know now I do not wish you to think hard of me for willing plain to you as I say I am willing to pay a passage to and through here and back for the sake of seeing you once more but still you always want to be extra that will not do at these times I tell you so you can still see what you think of my proposition and I must do good for all but I trust you will do better than to come home at present I have been pretty to my children not to trouble them for the least thing which is considerable. The times are difficult so what I would have to pay for gold only think you will write on the receipt of this. Good buy my dear child. With love to all

By your Mother R. Whaley.

Wm had gone to Florida he may stay all winter he is in a new situation. Sister is well and pret

Mr. Montgomery was here yesterday with three of his son looks well & Mr.
Montgomery in San Francisco doing tolerable well with some exceptions the next day when he will return, I have not heard any news of Pattee since he absconded with the Pastore he has deviated from upright conduct. We will have the Vault soon to when I am gone will be well some considerable to us when he comes, I hope you will take good care of your health or be quite careful how you enter into business. Richard Ship sails for California the first of next month to practice physic Dr. Ship as I have written to you before. I hope there is a letter on way for me from you while I hope you will not fail to get this I wrote you that John has a mother daughter on the 10th of march his wife is very smart last account - God John says Mother's name is Thomas. I wish he was home he might get something to do; I will write you all particular about house and time but I have no home its dead at present, but I live in strong hopes. I was glad to see that you had relinquished the Idea of going to the mines I did not wish you to do so as you never did forget your Mother R. Whaley

I may see many of your old friends there and you may depend I will direct them your best circumstances as you desire it. Many people are glad to be able to make their fortunes, I hope they will not be disappointed. I shall you a full detail. I hope sister will be more attentive in future as read your communication. I am sorry you have cause to complain I hope you will not have further reason. I cannot tell why she does so I presume she thinks she has great cause to extend to her, you must forgive her, she is your sister April 28th I shall mail this in a day or two, it bears no tolerable well I shall go to expire a day or two as I have written the first part of my letter we are going to look at a house to purchase to day for me or sister to Mr McComedid not like our searches of the 27th but I expect to hear from him soon he pays $3,500. for the lot I owe $1,400. on Mortgage which leaves me $2,100. for a house; what do you say is it good calculation in my how I wish you was here to help but John will do the best he can I presume to another good buy be very careful how you decide small occasions and not favour others to your own disadvantage May the Lord bless and protect us all is your Mother's prayer &c

I have to say your Aunt. is still very poorly Dr. has but little hope of her a very obstinate case of Dysentery and inflammation of the bowels we all feel sad indeed O my!
The Penarr Steam has come up from Guantanamo another one in from Grey Town the Henry so far I shall hear to day for certain the vessel may be in the lower Bay. I am feeling very sad you may well know for my lost sister - 19 Aug I have no tidings of Glen so far I may get a letter but I fear I may not, I will tell you in my next - sister is very poorly. I have little hope for her I feel very much excited with all things I tell you

John J. Carroll is in Brooklyn in consequence of having been he is about the same Aug. 30th

I hope you have smit with employment & fome going I like so far away I had not felt well as I could wish since Glen's been here help is difficult to get; I think to give up keeping house another year to trouble some. Glen says he is long for your money, some fortunes and hope you will soon be reinstated in some lucrative business I trust it will be the case with Speed. Glen is much improved in all respects poor fellow we are all pretty well thank money and hope your family are the same, Dear love to all. Aunt Bony sets up a little while.
I will write again soon and inform you all particulars I have been very busy since the time. My regards to Mores & family. hope he is doing well. All joins me in love to you and We have disposed of the Pt Lot to Salomon for $3,300. He thinks it is good I hope we may get a good price for B, way, we shall have to get it summed cost $20, or 30. He will see to it he fore he goes, his son is sick, rather better I shall be very sorry to see him go away he is well I hope the sales will be ere he goes it is in the agents hands, I hope all will be satisfied as it is done for the best. Salom offers 35,000 we think it not enough, we may get 40,000 John says 50,000 I hope we may it will all it is worth they say a nice property each one ought to take good care of what they get and not fool it away. Hen, will be carefull of his part I hope all will be wise by that time I cannot think of off Carbowing any more to bad or to think off with his own arms every!

about ten days since ~~so~~ Miss D., writes you see how people drop of like leaves in Autumn. — Miss Devereux sends their best remembrances to you when I write at all times, the winter has set in very cold for the first 4 days I wish I was in such a climate as you speak of I am happy to hear that the Rail road is to be in operation in your part of the world I am going up to Johns as soon as the weather is more moderate he would have done well if Grant had paid him they have had some work for Peter Cooper as you know he is erecting a very large building for public purposes but money matters are so tight, as people say so you are wells of considering all things

Good buy my dear Love and May God bless you is the prayer of your,

Thomas. I think I shall be more pleased and think I have a chill to care for now that I do have care of her over the mind. I do not wish to depend on other people but when I have some of my own they will feel a greater interest and I can ask questions as I please and how I please and in my own way as I see them I will try to get and my children understand how to appreciate that whether or whether they say they are wrong therefore I will

When guided by my own feelings concerning my children & your if I knew what to say for the best with respect to your going to the I do not feel willing to consent to your going as I think you will understand business in San Francisco that you can work under the I feel persuaded you may get sick there what would you feel that people are all self and cannot help you I think you had better remain and attend to business affairs and let Francisco go the money giving each other half of the proceeds I shall have but little peace of mind until I hear from you have you had any

In continuation of of Sept 19 - I shall expect a long letter I hope it will be of great use to me, as I donot disregard good council, I do not wonder that you express your indignant disapprobation at the cause of my trouble could I think from one moment that you would recoid to come home, I would not have told you of the affair. I could, soon remove but what would that effect if it would only allay my disappointed feelings I would do so all I can do is to ask myself if I have sufficient grounds for to disapprove of their conduct if I decide that I have be steadiest to my own way should I admit of a pers to come in to guide and dictate what am to do if they do not deal about set others to act No I will exelcimelessly against such proccedings, when I have been deiced I am constantly on the look out and that you know will fait to give satisfaction if differible not I am the same now as I was two years ago I have done well for my daughter he has had the benefit how can I give to her without her partner share it this I expected best I asked only good treatment in return here I receive, I say I have not a word and can prove it not case I do shen silent is all the stand much is his own light I can tell you I do not say he de best here or do I think he pays her as much attention as I thought he would on many occasions as I consider him a selfish man. I do not expect him either to ^{be} praise what she does, or say how smart she is, it would be very strange if I did not find some reason to be thankful for such a wife as she makes. I wish he had such a wife as Helen. I would not give up to him as she does, but you know she cannot do so well.

I must keep up my dignity and will be pendent of all circumstances. I trust I shall never have reason to find fault with any one for unkind behaviour too. all I ask of her as well as the rest after she comes into the family I will go or send for her when father is gone and observe her disposition. I hope she is good & kinder but enough of distress and trouble.
I wish to nothing done about the fault yet as J. has been full of misgivings of late - I know I trust you will not brood over any thing of the matter as do not wish to give you just live up as it will not suffer my self to be unkind of one but assured at present I love one hopes to love to see you again. you did not say one word of Anna in your two or three last letters or if you intended to send for her as you had made use of your mind to do, I might speak to her on the subject she might have come to see more frequently if she had been pleased to have seen her our daughter she feels bad about you as you have been gone so long I begin to feel as though you might come home this January

As a few weeks ago I was not well I sent for my physician a man of first rate repute by long experience I stated your complaint to him, told him you had the best Dr. Sam^l H^l I could afford, he replied if there was not any thing malignant in the case but that was for your Dr^r to decide I asked him

My Dr^r name is Culbert a man Montgomery Dr^r near G.O.

Some weeks ago I was not well I went for my physician a man of first rate repute by long experience I stated your complaint to him, told him you had the best Dr. San, if he would attend, he replied if there was not any thing malignant in the case but that was for you Dr. to decide I asked him

Why Dr. name is Cullen or man Montague is if such complements could be carried, he said again if there is no malignancy attending he said there must be good Dr in San I asked him if you would have better aid in city - he said he could ^{not} say, unless he had a full statement from your Dr of their examination. He said if he could counsell refer or aid, in any way, as all must be done with great cautions he would be willing to do all he could.

I told him it was a stricture in the anus - he thought at first it was in the, urinary passage, I told him No.
I hope, I have stated the affair correct, write me word if I have done right, no harm so far I asked for information, My Dr would not advise a moment without your Dr advice even if you had better come to city, unless your Dr advised it could.

Dr told ^{him} your Dr did advise you to do so - he said all must done with the utmost care I told him, I would write you, what he said, as I wished be very careful in all I would say. I told him you had recovered from an abscess, in the neck, which had proved very long standing, and ran constantly, reducing you much at length the matter assumed a more healthy appearance, I interrogated ^{him} if there had any thing to do with the ~~other~~ ^{complaints} he said he thought not (was silently

Thomas as opportunity affords I will communicate full being Sunday Sept I left Tobin on the 2^d inst. in company with Mr. Wood and family to join your sister in 15. attendance in the morning and I am tired of leading such a wretched life. The weather is pleasant and American wealth out. I was to have called on Mr. W. I have been waiting for him to call on me. I am afraid he is very busy from time to time. I hope for your success as you write so they are encouraging. I cannot say when I shall go to Memphis as this will not settle about 15th going there, but of course I shall go this fall on the affairs. I want to attend to my sister's company then I will make the effort. I have promised to see Mr. W. when I may draw any conclusions which I hope will be favorable I would have went to N. Y. ere this but the weather is so warm and you know I am afraid to travel alone as I have not been accustomed to it but some favorable opportunity may offer if sister does not go I feel very sensible that I have given up my right to a fair degree but these things

Thomas do write to your brother your exact intentions towards him, as soon as possible so that he may know whom to depend upon I do not wish him to suppose you have treated him unkind as he appeared so elated with your proposition he has long wished to do something better if you can assist your brother do not let the opportunity pass by as we all need assistance at times do not forget your brother then he has a nice little family of children who he is much devoted too and labours hard to provide for them all this is to be considered therefore Thomas as a parent I want you to help your brother all that lies in your power I have copied your letter and written to him as it is very brief he may say I have omitted a part but I was as particular as I could be as I felt for his disappoi there is nothing of it transpiring here that I am now boarding in a private family and very comfortably situated. Mrs Hughes the lady with whom I am boarding, is a dear kind creature kind and affectionate as a sister would be, I know I would be pleased with her I have known her since I came to California. Mr Clements told me she was in town stopping at the International Hotel I am delighted to think that I am not there, for I detest him. I will tell you about his niece Mrs Woods, when I see

Thomas in consequence of your many kind letters, I have really forgotten some circumstances.
 No doubt you have read the papers of the Royal Palace that is to be erected in St. James London Sutton in St. James. John was coming from Smith, he is recovered from a severe illness Inson said he was about to leave for his brother Inson's brother Henry he is making arrangements to appear & leave for pay on Monday 15th for on a fragment of the property - a roadway which they are opening in the street. I saw the thing may look for another day. I saw the Washington. I think he is chosen one of the governors of the film's honor, he is in the about you & hope you will have in your power very soon to send a certificate to your creditors even if it is not a certificate. Thomas I am to write from the point for my portrait tomorrow Mr. Spence wrote me that you are sending his best regards & hopes you will be fortunate to make a great deal of money. Our pictures were very good, I told him you had written to me recommending that I should employ his Thomas Mrs. Hicks called on me to see the price of our lot in the street. She said the lots were selling for $1000. I told her we would not take that price as we were not obliged to sell. I am to see her again as they intend building up a tenement house and they fear our making will fall as it is.

I shall send you some more letters by the next day. I shall be glad to hear from you. I shall be glad to hear from you. I shall be glad to hear from you.

Nov 10th
Thomas, do listen I have taken on sitting for my portrait give me my sister's address you know we made the arrangement years ago. I shall be dressed in black velvet or satin purple & carb, he says, we will have some pictures John is highly pleased, to day Harriet heard that Tom goes to Baltimore Fall 870 - per fear as the house here is taken & will may next week thousands of remaining here. I will that Tom will continue to write & will say not as I will direct the Post master to keep them if any change takes I received your letter last Saturday afternoon the next day being Sunday I had no chance to give Anna here on Monday I mailed a note to Anna at 9 o'clock in writing her to come and spend a few days with me I had a letter for her from you, I had to be the cause I looked for her all day to day she may be rich I hope not but I must learn I will write you in particulars in this letter before the Mail Closes which will be on the 29th inst. Nov 19th Thomas I have been up to see Anna to day I had an opportunity to speak to her she says she had promised you to come whenever you saw her I had a little talk to Mrs L who said she did not will to be a bar to her child's happiness, still she would consider the matter over I told her I must close my letter she says she will write to you I was quite as moderate as I expected says she would not hesitate a moment if you was here. I see soon for then Anna is to come & will stay Saturday & Sunday then I can tell you what to think of her Bonilla and her daughter had just gone a fine little woman has two fine boys I would say I like the look of all your children all boys but is first note looking white fellow I have him by me as I will take them all for grand ma who will be glad to take them on her lap for the first time my blessing upon them If you think best be disclosed do so I was godmother to 7 true girls - little Billy H son has a nice voice for singing songs Melly Gray. Hally on Rachel Henriette cannot sing as good I wish she could, not one of your children has any voice Mary is harmony Muelle John has a piano he is a good father good thing my dear child may gods grant that we shall meet and that the time is not far distant as you say - Your affectionate Mother B. Whaley

No 5 10 31 you do not accommodate the soon you think you will never must come while your health permit as it may be of infinite service to you besides you will be with your near and dear friends all this I must say least I may see the time I wished I had I hope your investment in land is good and will enable you to make a good part of the sum 30,000 that you may send the some of your departure. I can come to you that is certain. I would sell that property in San Francisco as soon as I could get a good return as people hold on too long to make a good profit. It gives me great pleasure to hear of the boys go they is a fine boy I think a great deal of them very handsome boy I expect that he will be as far as his kindred is concerned which is just what we may expect

I wish he had his $500 - with interest & I will write again to him, he is disabled which makes me feel sad for him, poor fellow he forgets his mother & our business entirely all be attended to if you have sent funds to enough has told John will pay all back rent on interest as he makes use of your lot in his business but he will tell all about as he means right in all respects that reason that your deed was not recorded is that the owner Judge Morse did not approve of the power that you gave to Smith I heard what he said, I told him it was all right then he said Mr I must go again before a commissioner John called at his office in town I often not being able to find a settlement such out of town so that Judge said send it out to Thomas then it is a long story of bitter experience

you had your deed which you had publicly it looked like down in the legal way I will tell you old Aunt all you day look to Aunt of any thing to let you no comfort but call on me I often give but a few dollar note it will be well spent she is quite a smart considering her age of which any is pretty comfortable will take the children off their hands I wish to come with your letter contain when he is tired of gathering things I would begin to think of all was I you and be very careful of all your affairs John said I would you like such a house as his there in I have one now for sale $3500 with what you think of my building do not help me waiting so long I wish let them be short and page for a long time now anxious as I am feeling very anxious

I frequently speak of my poor dog that is separate away with other observations, he may not take it as freedom, he is disposed to be jealous, does not take care to pick up after him, some days are without I can see the washing of his face, I wish he was the kind lady I've rather been referred to, he is to let you with, why do I remain with these I am perfectly separate in all respects, I am waiting to see what they will do, his dog is not really go away may be a chance he should see you, as he will know, I do not wish it or do, I think he does but time will bring forth all things, your hopes you, I understand a little as Gloria has been to his, offered no doubt he was very polite to her makes me want to see her will, go to it with her her, matter explained, he may not have had a word but I must go that thought I have written her two notes and was there last, but no matter if he may not have received them I will inform you of the result and at your request have arranged to come and spend a week with one of our most kind friends, she not like it, I paid her attention, your, my, my God bless our friends to you, I thought you Kathie W. H. G.

I hope you have settled with the French writers, you next, which you will with my love to those as your choice

I have heard from Newark this week that you are all well, I shall write on the 6th of next month if able, I hope to hear from you soon if your letters come regularly to hand, please to hear you receive some at times one cause to rejoice to learn that you will soon have a question to pay of your responsibilities how happy I shall be do God you and prosper, let the result be what it may, if among wishes to join as ardently, as you desire her to come she will not defer your proffered offers, as nothing could be better, as you are situated I hope you will have fortitude to survive all changes if any should occur I would not tell you all these little affairs but I think you ought to know something of matters and operations I cannot think but the Mother must feel well pleased with your proposals to her child, they are so very honorable and kind in their nature, no doubt they would be best pleased to have the care to deal with I told Anna that I intended to keep a strict account of all I spent of the cash, as you required me to be as economical as I could I wish Anna would come and remain a while with me what is your aim to be her husband's mother and only think of the great advantage she is to reap from me I wish her well in as much as you have chosen here was your share I would do as I pleased now I wish to please you both as far as in my power, if any thing is convenient it must be then, Mother had it been a stage day I would went up, as they may, not have received my note, do not take any detail, I have written correct as when I call all I hope will be done I should you may rely that the money will be well taken care of that you have placed in my hands, as I can make out without it you know, I intend to pay the debt with the 20 on 30 dramas for Ann the rest my paper & heat - chemise & new Perine's stockings gowns and all things she may require, I do not see what they have now to do but may God continue her health, your Mother Rachel Whaley Tomorrow I shall go to Mr. Steggs who frequently inquires about you & took my own liberty to show him I will tell him what is the lowest he will ask for a copy of it. The person who had it, I am willing to pay half and you have the other half I should hope with it I should go to the best of my power to see the reason of your objection will be right. It is a most beautiful day to say the least of my coming to you to see you all I think I should be much pleased with all the ^{particulars} of your case I begin to desire you should get what you want for this year at least. I will try to register all my papers and look forward with a heart full of hope for the future. I should I should like to see you something about the funds when I had conversation with you I will say as little as possible to her. I have an idea that she is of a weak disposition You remarked that you thought Anne would come if her mother would be present. She said one day that she could not come if her mother was not willing. I told her you thought she might feel inclined. She said that was under stand when you went away not to do so without her mother's consent, but your wishes could. I told Anne I thought it strange that my letters were received by you and not hers, I asked who made her letters, she said a friend. I said I generally take mine myself, she replied I do not doubt but mine goes direct. I asked what date did you write, she said I was a bad way to the state, I said I was full when I write, as I do so, 5th & 6th of each month, as I think it may be of some comfort to her to hear of us I wonder that she was so little more at what I told her. I invited Anne to spend some time with us, as Mr. W. is absent and Mrs. Harwell alone, she appeared to have little objection, but for you I will look on my affair I do not like like and ask her again to come as I am willing to pay her a visitation for your sake I should indeed have told her going as you say if the matter was opposed to it but she said she thought she could not go if her mother was in her consent. I said Anne you must do as I did when the first attempt was to come, his staff was pain I backed out and gave up she laughed and said that is not my way if I say I will do a thing I do on that ground I think she ought to be left and doing to prepare, I will learn to measure if possible I think she is wrong to give an extra trouble.

 am what matter you do for news from home to me it is a serious labour to receive a kind letter, I trust some of the best would take up the consence if I should buy it, while I trust that will not be at present John will be here to morrow perhaps with his papers, well I shall not have any addition of the present to my four grand stock, I am pleased that Sister has not any of present as she will have a better chance to go about and see. We met Mrs Wright in the Street looks pale, I have not seen any of them to know if Wright has returned, I expect to see Mrs Clark

I hardly know how to write the afflictive news to you. Henry the poor sufferer expired to day which is Saturday, Oh! Rachel, ^{you} can form no idea what your sister Abner's heart has had to bear this last two weeks, for my part I have been as much tried as I ever was, his agony the last night, beyond all description, I cannot write much at this time I was meaning to send you better intelligence but it is a hard trial, send word to William and Minny, the funeral will take place Monday morning 9 o'clock, send a letter soon if you do not come, our love to you

I am writing to you to tell you that I am well and hope you are the same.
I have been thinking of you very much and wondering how you are getting on.
I hope you are happy and healthy.
I have been very busy lately but I will try to write to you more often.
I love you very much and hope you love me too.
I will be home soon and we can talk again.
I am your

Dear pop.
Arrived here last-evening all safe, found all well here. Sent you a note from Colton. I write now to let you know that the trunk is at the Depot at New Town.
Enclosed find check for the same, so that you can remove it.

Will leave to-morrow Friday for San Diego, have a through ticket from Colton, so can lay over as long as we please. Have not seen Cane yet. All send love to you and George. A. E. Whaley.

It can rain now as soon as it gets ready, and none too soon for us. George and I worked hard to complete the cistern and now as it is completed we are somewhat idle. We will go after the well soon. You can see yourself that I ^{have} plenty to keep me busy, Hudson, boxes and about the house, etc. but we hope soon to have all straight and the ^{road} ~~road~~ once more clear, and I shall do all I can in this regard.

Now one thing will ~~be~~ surprise you. I have been elected a Justice of the Peace for this township, and indeed it was a surprise to me as I knew nothing about it until election day. There were four candidates in the field, I heard them all receiving 19 votes out of 22 which is pretty good for Old Town. All who know of it both here and in New at a very good name and success. The papers ~~has~~ mentioned me in great and exalted see what morning "Times" says at about time in that of Bernardino and then S. P. Not. If I had received time I would have had and battery cases making dollars out of the list. I am law and shall continue going to make my own want me to run for a this ward at the next if here I shall do so. gunning makes a big nice there is a better man to rise up in the the Eastern States and names and this is a few mented me in neat and nice articles, a short time in that office in New dollars out of the lot. I am now reading law and shall continue to do so. I am going to make my mark yet. They want me to run for City Trustee from this ward at the next City election; if here I shall do so. "A small beginning makes a big end." In California there is a better chance for a young man to rise up in the world than in the Eastern States and if the bill passes and this is a place I shall make

P.S. - You said at one time in a letter to me, also including one from Lucy, that you had something to tell me regarding her. In a subsequent letter you stated what it was - amputation. I have very often thought of this idea and indeed, when I saw her, I even thought of it; but never ventured at any time to say anything regarding it for fear of having my proposition rejected. But now that you have made mention about it, and the idea is looked upon favorably, I really hope that something may be done to alleviate the sufferings of Cora, for indeed it must be suffering for her to go about in the condition which she is in. I do not see how any danger can arise from it any more than cutting any one's arm or leg off. It will be pain and sore for a time; but after, she will greatly relieved from the terrible distress she is now laboring under, and will "have a chance at least, as you say" of seeing more of the world." I do really hope the project will prove favorably and in operations performed at an early age. There is something about Leary that very much appreciate, and far above the girls here, I must say I like. Although he is young yet young yet, (I hope she may not always be) still I do not wish her to grow suddenly old) and has plenty of time to wait, and should the operation prove well I should have no objection at all in trying to get her. I have time to wait and so has she; but I do not suppose she would care anything for a Dan. Seize haps like myself - moreover a justice a magistrate. But never mind things me in their turn and mine is coming 'ye-and-ye. The more I think of her the more I like her, although there are girls here whom I am with a great deal of I have no liking for them. I cannot tell why this is but it is so and I cannot get it out of my head. I can like a opportunity but before any permanent step is taken I must make some and this I intend to do, for the parts for such are good; then I shall make a bold attempt, and perhaps by that time all will run smooth in my favor. I have indeed shinned feelings more than I intended in it but it is the truth, still it may seem silly and premeditated, but before my parents, and old as I am, she never be ashamed to keep any thing back from them. Thus you know I feel, whether right or wrong it can be helped.

You were saying that Mrs.
Young's property is about being at hatched; then you say that the invest from the lumber discussing under, and and at least, as you say "of the world." I do really wonder how favorably and performance at an early something about being that appreciate, and far above I must say I like. Although to young yet, (I hope she may I still I do not wish her to old) and has plenty of time should the operation prove have no objection at all to her. I have time to wait i.e.; but I do not suppose anything for a day or so self - moreover on a justice etc. But never mind things time and mine is coming The more I think of her the less, although there are girls here whom I am with a great deal, still

get it out of my head. I can like and appreciate but before any permanent step is taken I must make some money, and this I intend to do, for the prospects for such are good; then I shall make a bold attempt, and probably by that time all will run smooth and in my favor. I have indeed shown my feelings more than I intended in this,
my parents, and old as I am, shall
back from them. Thus you know how I feel, whether right or wrong it cannot be helped.

You were saying that Mr.
tached; then you say that the at-Attachment may be set aside. I care it being so, why not get him to deed your property or get him to deed to me and and recognize this same as a receipt in full for the amount due you ~~the~~ services rendered. I should ~~like~~ very much to get hold of some New York property and this is your way to get your money should be willing to do it.

As I have completely matters myself out, I must close, with

and remain

Very truly
Yours

Dear Father:

As all the children have written a few lines to you, and this being your birthday, I also join in with them and do the same. I have sent to you a very long letter, and hope that you have received the same. I could not, possibly, help writing it so long. I have also sent you "Opinions" which contain very valuable information concerning the "right of way" for the railroad, of which is now the topic of conversation. I will write out for them, if they have not yet arrived. I am getting along very well with my business, and will make a success in a very short time. I hope you are well and enjoying very good health. Out here in this old "Berg" we are all well and enjoying good health. You must excuse this writing, as I am very tired, having just walked up from New Town, and the morning very warm. The children try to keep you supplied with "ten cent pieces," which they send you off and on. I will send some in as letters pretty soon. You need not look out for the printing and drawing of the houses which I spoke about, for some time yet, as I am not able to send them. I will send them soon. Give my best aspects and love to Grandmam, and all relations East. Times have not improved much. I am pretty well, but not extra. Excuse brevity of letters.

From your Son F. H. Whaley.

certainly to write to him, he is very attentive to me and deserves a letter from you. I find all friends well and all very much pleased to see me and anxious to have me stay, I am delighted to think!
I am not in a fix as they all thought I was,
and my health is so much better that I am almost afraid of returning to San Diego, for fear of a return of bad health.
Sophie was here early yesterday morning, she looks very large, and expects to be sick soon.
I would not be in her way - for all things come. This is the greatest-

with me for his health. He called to see me this morning, he looks miserable.

I hope the County will buy the house, and then you can put up a nice Cottage house till the R.R. comes.

Bar keeping is a profitable business, but so low, but as low as you can make something of it, all right.
I have enjoyed myself so much up to this time.

My mind is quiet, and my brain and memory seem to be better. So glad I am not in the family way.

I shall not visit Peter, he I say not, he says the slightest shock may cause a relapse. He seems to think I have been very ill. Am now going to take fifteen quinine pills, to strengthen me more. I'm anxious to know the result of the Lottery. My ticket is No 181077.

Mr Dudd sent me his - to-morrow will decide it all I hope. How is Mr Battaille he never writes any more. I cannot write to him if he does not answer mine. He has written one letter to me since I left. Mrs Miles is well and about. I have not seen Ella. I cannot hunt her up. if she wished to see me, she must call on me. I must close this all the children for me and remembers me to all friends - Adios - from to Guafome (Couto's - a - b - m) and stayed three weeks it was well that - they did as Mamma was then very short of money they had a good time but Mamma and I had all the work to do which keeps us pretty busy. There papa I have told you the fee we are in so please. Come any kind of business that is offered you and once more I entreat - you do not think of coming back here but go some where else send for us and then we will try all to help along to know that - I for one will willingly do all that is and my power.

Please take my advice papers (although I am your daughter-) but I know exactly how things are here and you can not make anything here if we get the R. R. then all is right - we would then be willing to stay but about think of coming till then because all matters and my writing ⁱⁿ pencil it is now getting late - All send love and kisses hoping to hear from you soon.

As ever your

To Hattie W. H. (R. Harriet Whittless daughter)

X On the memorable occasion the celebration of your nuptials find me ~~that~~ ^{your} most heartfelt congratulations and to wish that the unalloyed happiness which you experience may be the inauguration of the new life which waits upon you to lead

On the memorable occasion the celebration of your nuptials offer you and the one to whom you are pledged your most affectionate wishes and hope that the unhappiness ^{which} ~~which~~ this day attends ~~you~~ ^{you} ~~experience~~ may be but the inauguration of ^{the} ~~the~~ ^{new} ~~new~~ long life ~~which~~ of unalloyed happiness Such as is ~~to be~~ ~~attained~~ ~~to~~ ~~you~~ which you must ~~pass~~ pass.
Do not imagine however that the path along which you must travel is one entirely strewn with roses - Spring, summer, autumn, perhaps in seasons as many as one upon which some times you ^{never} ~~will~~ ~~reach~~ concerning its lines are many jutting flags upon which some times you ^{will} ~~will~~ face and the heavy burden which you must ~~carry~~ ^{rise} and some times become oppressive ^{if} there are the pains, trials and tribulations of life against which you will unavoidably have to contend But should you remain steady fast by keeping always together and accrued by your combined abilities ^{you will} ~~you will~~ ~~compare~~ truly ^{experience} ~~the~~ ~~pain~~ which otherwise these impediments ~~to~~ ^{to you} ~~might~~ ~~occur~~ ~~if~~ ~~you~~ ~~could~~ ~~be~~ ~~kept~~ ~~from~~ ~~my~~ ~~home~~ and the peculiar ^{circumstances} ~~circumstances~~ in which I am placed - I am prevented from making any very valuable gift such as is customary for ~~our~~ ~~near~~ relations to bestow upon an occasion like the present. I desire however

Do you sometimes as a just appreciation of my love and affectionate regard for the ^{kind} attention ~~shown~~ which you have shown me during several months past. Be pleased therefore to accept from me as a ^{your} bridal present the enclosed warranty and ~~to a certain~~ ^{conveying} lot of land ^{the} ~~particulars~~ described. Situate in the ~~City of~~ ^{County of} San Diego, ~~Calif.~~ ^{Calif.} The ~~de-~~ ^{multiple} ceased, ~~remains~~ ^{is} the ~~of the~~ ^{of the} Pacific Railway - now in course of speedy construction. ~~It has for many~~ ^{It has for many} years ~~resided~~ ^{resided} at this place and it is the ~~home~~ ^{home} of my wife and children. The property at the present time may not have any definite value, but it is something real that will outlast many of the ~~hand-~~ ^{to keep} some gifts, which doubtless you will this day receive. The recipient and ~~was a~~ ^{is} ~~in a~~ ^{in a} ~~few~~ ^{few} ~~years~~ ^{years} ~~more~~ ^{more} ~~as~~ ^{as} I believe, ~~become~~ ^{become} ~~valuable~~ ^{valuable}. ~~Unassured~~

~~you to retain it as long as you can~~ ~~possibly own, that you may wish~~ ~~ask to be purchased~~ I am willing to act as your agent in attending to the ^{own paper} and at my cost to defray the expenses attending this property so long as the same shall remain in your possession.

May Heaven bless you and your husband, dear Walter and keep you ^{and yours} from all harm, is my fervent wish.
Should ^{however} misfortune befall you will ever find me ready to assist you do not hesitate to apply to me for advice - to advise you of a home ~~or~~ Should you be in want of a home or a friend you will always find both under the hospitable roof of -

Your affectionate uncle J. W. Kelley

Being that certain lot piece or parcel of land lying and situate in the County of San Diego, California described as follows:

as her sole and separate property free and discharged of and from any and all claims and liabilities of her husband.

think of mother and daughter living together for years without ever changing a single word - Harriet has a great deal to answer for in the case of this child, indeed she has no government what ever over her children - They do pretty much as they please & talk is one matter, as they choose and she never reproves them for it. All the family feel very indignant towards her and blame her very much - She says she supposed Hattie would tell her story to all the neighbours - that she would for them and tell them lies. Already the children have commenced talking, saying that Hattie had run away from home - that their mother would never allow her to enter the house again - and Harriet told Lucia who was then to assist Hattie to dress, that Hattie should never have a cent of her money, that if she was daring and came to her door she would not give her anything - and Harriet says that he would make a word and cut her off from ever having a cent of his property. All this is true for I have heard them, when I was more familiar with them than at the present time, with precise, the same sentiment, that it is all about I do not understand exactly - but there is really no good cause for the treatment she has received from her parents - it is something very trivial in itself - when she was a child - her mother asked her to do something - she refused and since that time they have not spoken, who is most to blame - the mother I should think - Harriet would to blame another for it, in having given her everything when it showed, but notwithstanding this she gave her a great deal and she looked just as sweetly in her plain attire perhaps as she would have done had she been richly dressed. She told her father Sunday morning the day and hour when the wedding would take place and asked him if he would be there to guide her away. He replied that he would be there if he was the attended, or he would and was to let her know the evening before the marriage as in case he was not then Mrs. Major would guide her away. She heard nothing from her father the evening before - and when I left the house the morning of the day of the marriage he had said nothing to her, and on her arriving at the church the first question she put to me would know if her parents would then. My & Mrs. Major stood at the door joined in the procession and proceeded up the aisle and to the altar with her, when the ceremony of the episcopal church was performed, and upon its completion the minister presented to her the prayer book out of which he had read the service. It had of course been procured by some of her friends with that view.

Although her parents, brothers or sisters would not then, yet there were many of her relatives and friends, and those who knew of the circumstances of the case deeply sympathized with her.
The ceremony was very solemn indeed and it appeared more like a funeral than a marriage ceremony - I have seen a great deal of Mattie and though I do not approve of all she says or does, she is no worse than the other children of the family, and may be had she been treated as she should have been by her parents she would have been a very different girl. Only think of mother and daughter living together for years without ever exchanging a single word. Haniel has a great deal to answer for in the case of this child, indeed she has no government but what ever over her children. They do pretty much as they please & talk is more than she they choose and she never reproves them for it. All the family feel very indignant towards her and blame her very much. The days she says that Hattie will tell her story to all the neighbours. - that she will send for them and tell them her. Already the children have commenced talking. Saying that Hattie had ran away from home. - that their mother would never allow her to enter the house again. - and Haniel et Ola Lima who was there to assist Hattie to dress. - that Hattie should never have a cent of her money that if she would bring a bag and come to her door she would not give her anything. - and Hede says that he would make a word and cut her off from ever having a cent of his property. All this I have heard from I have heard them, when I was more familiar with them they at the present time, utter precisely the same sentiments. What it is all about I do not understand exactly - but there is really no good cause for the treatment she has received from her parents - it something very trivial in itself - when she was a child - her mother asked her to do something - she refused and since that time they have not spoken. Who is most to blame - the mother I should think - Haniel would be to blame another for it, in having given her everything from others when her marriage becomes more generally known. I would like to send her a present as you were led by the copy of the letter which I sent to her or rather delivered to her immediately after the performance of the ceremony, and I think you will approve of what I have done - and if so I request that you will at your earliest possible convenience write her a nice letter of congratulation that she may feel, through the medium of her father and mother, that she retains the love and sympathy of her relatives and connections of the family - You can send it direct to her - Mrs Isaac C. Bates, New Brunswick, N.J. or enclose it to me to hand to her - If you do this I shall be as a great favor from you and if done because you think you should, I shall think it still the more of it. He intends sending around cards and as soon as I get mine will enclose it to you. I said my mother on the occasion of the marriage, but after the message sent me by John, I did not feel at liberty to speak to her - She did not express any desire to see me - though she could not help knowing that I was present - I sat immediately in front of her. I had not seen her previously since the 8th September - She was looking remarkably well - very nicely dressed indeed - had hair pulled and an eighteen dollar hat on purchased for the occasion - She came in a carriage and had her friend Mrs Washington Smith with her, who remained that night and the next day she took an air in Prospect Park, and drove her home.

and in this way having rendered Hattie independent of her, and alienated her affections from her - but the truth is Hattie would not provide her daughter with things absolutely necessary for her to have. As an instance that is spoken of the child was not well of a delicate disposition. She required much flannel - asked her mother for them - said she did not get them when she was a girl and did not see why she should have them. The result was she did not get any from her mother and her grandmother out of compassion for the child made her own and gave it to her that Ted said and what am I to do when this is done. The grandmother said that is all I am willing to do - when you require another go to your mother for it - The result was she never got another and had to wear that old bed & wood's dress that her grandmother lent her one of her own ties she even has worn a tie she had on - I detail this to you as a sample of the way in which the child has been used or rather abused - I marked well the treatment of the mother that the neighbors she perceived that Hattie was an adopted child - I might write a great deal about Hattie but will not fill my letter entirely with an account of her - she is married now and will I think make the man whom she loves a good wife - she is perfectly happy I believe and her relations and friends rejoice that the wedding is over - she has received some presents and will receive many others from those who were present and

return him and perhaps bring you with me - I have not seen Mrs Young very lately - but hope to soon when for the last time I will deliver your request to her about working and the sending of the cross - I do not wish to become too unfortunate - Do not consider this entirely in answer to the two letters just received, I have much more to say but lack the time. I ought to be on my way to Providence or I will be late for supper and perhaps have to go without - Tell Frank I will answer his letter soon, to take things easy - not work so hard, he will be thought none the better for doing so - and get no more pay - Remember me to all friends who have been kind to you - I fully appreciate and will remember the attentions which they bestow upon you - Give my love to Mamma, Violet, Lillian and George - I hope they continue to be good children - With much love to you and wishing that you will continue well and that we will prosper for the future. I remain

Your affectionate husband of 17th I have just received a letter from my wife - she expects to start, she says if the letter has not heard from you - had nothing of you, neither the papers I sent for, to you nor the papers. Genl Derby has just been to bought all our shovels & spades (only 13) say he shall commence work on Monday 19th Received his orders by mail had to expect so soon. Move to th. 1853

Has Mr Clemens arrived in San Diego yet? I have not seen him.
Have you seen Joseph or the children since I left? The dear little things I often think of them. How does little Henry and his sweetest fionish, to his Mother well.
Tell me all the news my dear friend when you write.
I feared that you would not have received my letter before the steamer left and was afraid to expect an answer so soon and was agreeably surprised when Charles brought me your letter.
There was quite a large party here to dinner on Thanksgiving day, it seemed quite like some when friends used to meet on joyous occasions to express their kind wishes for each other's welfare, I always enjoyed such times there was so much social feeling evinced a proof that the "Spirit of Union" kind still exists.

I often long for the again Polka and other of our favorites and imagine I can hear you playing, bless your heart, you were so kind, always played for me, just to gratify me, I do not forget my best friends, your kindness to me and I hope some day to have the opportunity of reciprocating, I hope you will have a pleasant winter and that it will soon pass away that I may have the pleasure of seeing you with much love, Adieu &c.

Mrs Whaley

Dear Madam

I called on Mr Moore yesterday and he informs me that the Stonew note - The principal is secured and is perfectly good, but it may not be paid for some little time yet, though it may be and he hopes it will, within a few days.

I saw Gurner the British today, but could do nothing at all with the thick headed Dutchman.

I think if you should speak to him in a few days

March 28

it would have more influence with him,
yours truly
E. W. Morse

Moore says he knows of some suspect or two which he thinks he can show the present by some means together with some other that he has arranged in some that purpose with a view to mean sub equal to some of up to say he sent himself and the amount of the money to him in order to collect the amount of money to be raised Moore says that he can produce the amount of money to be raised.

Mr. Tho. Winney

Dear Sir. - Your favor of the 8th was duly received; and I was sorry to find the property of Judge Hyde was not placed with you. - The last time I saw the Judge was on the street, and he told me he was on his way to the Post Office expecting a letter from San Diego, as he had given them his ultimatum. -

It was only my good wishes for your success in business, that prompted me to remark, that I hoped you was making money rapidly. - Your remarks would infer as tho' you thought you was indebted to me. - You do not owe me a Cent. - All join in kind regards to you, Mrs W. & family. Sincerely Yours
