

1919

2019

SAN DIEGO & ARIZONA RAILWAY CENTENNIAL CELEBRATIONS

Food, Music & Fun for the Entire Family!

On Nov. 15, 1919, San Diego businessman John D. Spreckels drove a Gold Spike completing America's last link to the challenging transcontinental rail system.

Sat, Sept 7, 2019

Groundbreaking Festival

Special train rides, guest lecturers book/video signings, face painting
hay rides, picnic tables & playground

1907 Groundbreaking
Reenactment!

Fri, Nov 1, 2019

100th Anniversary Gala Dinner

At the John D. Spreckels
Center, Coronado, CA

Sat, Nov 16, 2019

Centennial Celebration Day

Centennial train rides, miniature steam train, vintage cars, commemorative program, & souvenirs

1919 Gold Spike
Reenactment!

Campo Railroad Park and Museum

Sponsored by Pacific Southwest Railway Museum Association

Details and more information at PSRM.org/Centennial