The San Diego Gills

Join SOHO in rediscovering the interesting, innovative work of the early San Diego architect, Irving Gill. Don't miss this tour of important Gill homes, built between 1898 and 1917, in the Hillcrest and Uptown area of San Diego.

Sat. July 19, 10<sup>to</sup> 4

Tickets: $5.00 - available at the Klauber House,
3060 Sixth Avenue

Several houses will be open for viewing, including the Klauber House on Sixth and over 35 Gill buildings in the area may be viewed along the route.

There will be a photo display of other Gill buildings from different areas of the city, as well as other historical period photographs.

For your enjoyment, entertainment and refreshments will be offered in the garden setting of one of the homes.

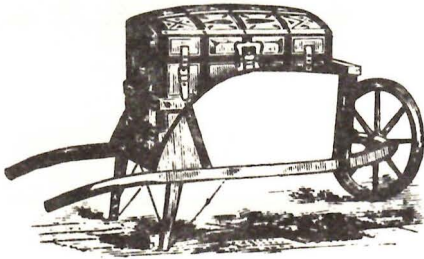

Two double-decker buses will be on hand for shuttling around the neighborhood, or you may walk, cycle or drive.

Come and spend a delightful, intriguing day celebrating the works of one of San Diego's most historically significant architects. Join us in viewing the San Diego Gills - a fond look backward into the California of yesteryear!

TO BENEFIT SOHO

the art collector

4151 Taylor Street

San Diego, California 92103

The intent in presenting such a show is to assemble quality works that reflect the early happenings in American everyday life. The most imaginative interpretations will be selected for this show. The exhibit is a fund raising event for SOHO's local projects. All work in the exhibit and sale will be original and done by artists residing in the area from Los Angeles to the Mexican border.

PLEASE NOTE: This is an exhibition and SALE. Proceeds to benefit SOHO! There will be a champagne reception opening the show on Sunday July 27, 12-5 pm. Everyone is welcome.

news and notes

HOUSE MOVING - Kathy and Lee Brown, 4th generation owners of a 1905 vintage house located at 2442 Union Street are having their home moved to Pt. Loma. The house is now being prepared for a target moving date of July 8 or 9.

SAN DIEGO GUIDE - Be sure to look for the latest 1975 edition of the San Diego Guide at your favorite magazine stand. There is a 5 page chapter on SOHO in this issue of 21,000 printing.

AWARD - SOHO as received its second award in it's short history. This time we have been recognized by the San Diego Historical Site Board for our efforts in saving the Sherman-Gilbert House. President Bill Cartwright accepted the award for SOHO on TV Channel 15 on June 10.

HELP WANTED - SOHO requires the services of a graphic artist to help with the production of the monthly newsletter and other events as they are scheduled. This is a volunteer position, very part-time, with an enormous amount of self-satisfaction as pay. Call Bill Cartwright at 232-6611 ex 229 if you are interested.

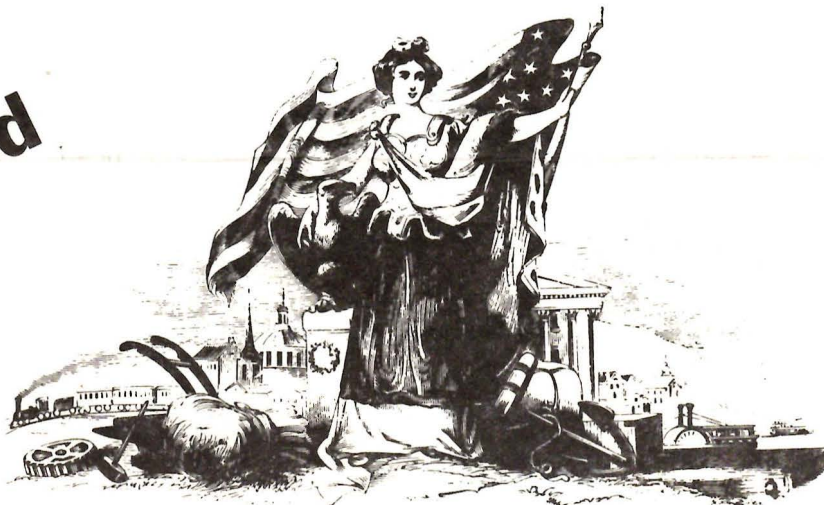

RED REST AND RED ROOST - The City Council voted 7-0 to allow a demolition permit to be granted to the owner of the property. Unless Tony Ciani of COVE and SOHO can find a buyer for the property, the cottages will be demolished for another conceret blight on our community called a luxury condo!

ROWING CLUB - Historical designation hearing set for July 11 at the San Diego Historical Site Board meeting. See calendar on Page 2 for time and place. This will be the first major step in saving the club on site.

GARAGE SALE - items are still being collected for the on-going regular SOHO garage sales They are very profitable for us, so please continue to donate any unnecessary items you may have. Just leave items on the front porch at 3821 First Avenue any time or call Bill Cartwright for pick-up. 232-6611 ex 229.
