The SOHO newsletter is published monthly. Letters to the Editor are welcomed. Articles and or photographs of interest to SOHO members and friends are most enthusiastically encouraged!

From the Boardroom

The following reports were discussed at the August Board of Directors meeting:

The July minutes were approved.

Sally Johns gave the Treasurer's report on the 4th of July event. It was suggested that the picnic be made an annual event.

Ideas on the newsletter's improvement were suggested. A savings of $66 per month was made from a simple paper change.

Joe Jones moved and Mary Dell Worthington seconded that the donations received for the Temple Beth Israel be given to purchase the "Living Light". Motion was approved. Excess monies will go to the Temple's general fund.

Bandstand donations and design were discussed.

Bruce Herms reported on the successful trip to Los Angeles to see the musical Evita and a tour of Heritage Square in Pasadena.

A theater night for the Board of Directors at Old Town Opera House was discussed.

Joe Jones reported on California Heritage Tours. A complete report will be given at the September meeting.

The project area committee, the Horton Hotel, the Bradley Building, Santa Fe Depot, Mission Beach Roller Coaster, and the Rowing Club were also discussed.

Joe Jones reported the nominations from the nominating committee.

POETRY AND MUSIC SERIES SCHEDULED

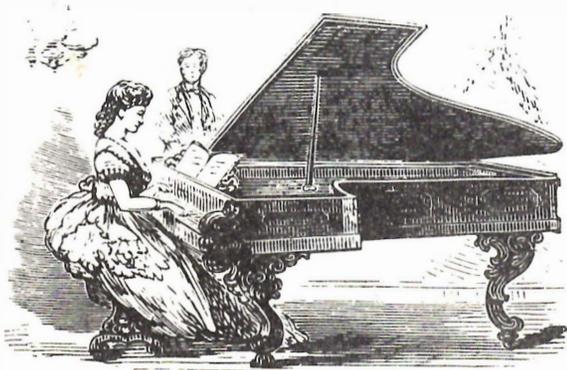

The San Diego Historical Society hosts a series of free Sunday afternoon concerts and poetry readings each month in the Music Room of the Jesse Shepard House, the Villa Montezuma, a restored Victorian house museum located at 1925 "K" Street.

The concert series, sponsored by the Music Performance Trust Fund and the Historical Society, is offered the first Sunday of each month at 3 p.m. Performances by small, local ensembles incorporate a variety of musical styles, reflecting the spirit and unique history of the Jesse Shepard House.

Featured poets from the San Diego area offer dramatic presentations of their works the second Sunday of each month from 2 to 3 p.m. with a reception following. The readings showcase the talent and versatility of local poets.

Senlis Cottage Needs Volunteers!

By Claire Kaplan

At the risk of being a prime candidate for the title of "Nag of the Year," here I am, at it again. With this burning-yearning to relay my thoughts to you, please take heed and hark (by all means do hark) and hear how much we need you and your able assistance at the Senlis Cottage right here in Heritage Park. We're crying help and we're saying please. We've all worked so hard to achieve our goal, to have SOHO's House, and now that it's here, proud as a peacock, help us keep it alive and well.

The staffers are doing a great job, but we need more docents; we always need more. YOU always respond to my pleas, you know who YOU are, so do I. Come on, bail me out; I've painted myself into a corner again! Please come to my rescue, my faithful and true, with liberty and justice for all, and malice toward none.

It's alright if you can't be a once-a-week "staffer". Try every other week, or how about once a month? This can be your home for a day (rent free) and you don't have to do windows. BETTY SMITH has kindly offered assistance in recruiting and scheduling and can be reached at 449-0968. (I hope I'm reaching you.)

We recently introduced a program for the Senlis Volunteers in the form of quarterly get-togethers as sociable training sessions. Plans are being formulated for our third meeting to be held at the Point Loma home of our Card Chairman,

Lee Douglas, an early SOHO member. Our first get-together in April was in the Mission Hills residence of volunteer Alice Rowe, who also opened her lovely home for our Walking Tour of Mission Hills.

Our second meeting was at laughing eyes and magic hands Pat Skidmore's home. Pat, a charter member of SOHO, is a talented artist, teacher, designer, and more. We were privileged to enjoy her many talents, plus the beauty of her unique home with the gazebo boasting a roof of stained glass, the garden with stained glass gates, the winding staircase leading to the play room, plus her catering demonstration and the delicious refreshments.

To the above, we thank you all, and to the Volunteers, we thank all of you: Louise Borchert, Eileen Cross, Alice Crittenden, Mary Lou Dyke, Tom Dyke, David Goldberg, Barbara Hallen, Dorothy Haggard, Alice Rowe, Mary Sanders, Betty Smith and Ellen Smothers.

We missed you Nettie Scarry, Vel Landi, Barbara Klauschie, Jean Thomson, Dorothy Cleary, Kathleen Jennings, and Millie Murphy. Hopefully, we'll meet again in October, or maybe September, or even sooner.

Donations Make A Perfect Gift

Do you have a relative or friend who has a birthday, anniversary, or other special occasion coming up in the future? Why not give them a gift that they will truly appreciate -- a donation to one of SOHO's numerous projects. The recipient of your gift will receive a card informing them of the donation made in their honor and for what particular reason and cause. Also, their name will be published in the Reflections newsletter under the Donations column. So for that person who is so difficult to buy for and who has everything anyway, who about a gift in their name toward preservation and restoration of the Beth Israel Temple, or the numerous other projects SOHO is fighting to preserve and save, such as the Rowing Club and the Mission Bay Roller Coaster. Donations are gratefully accepted at SOHO's office, the Senlis Cottage, in Heritage Park. For further information, call 297-9327.

Gotch Urges Saving Roller Coaster

City Councilor Mike Gotch wants to save the Mission Beach Roller Coaster located at the old Belmont Park and he has asked SOHO to help. He has proposed a separate entity take over the structure, and perhaps the Plunge and Roller Rink, to restore and rehabilitate them.

There are still lots of unanswered questions as to what the City's responsibilities will be and the "how to" of saving the rollercoaster.

Interested SOHO members are urged to stand by for further details and requests for help.

Board of Directors To Meet

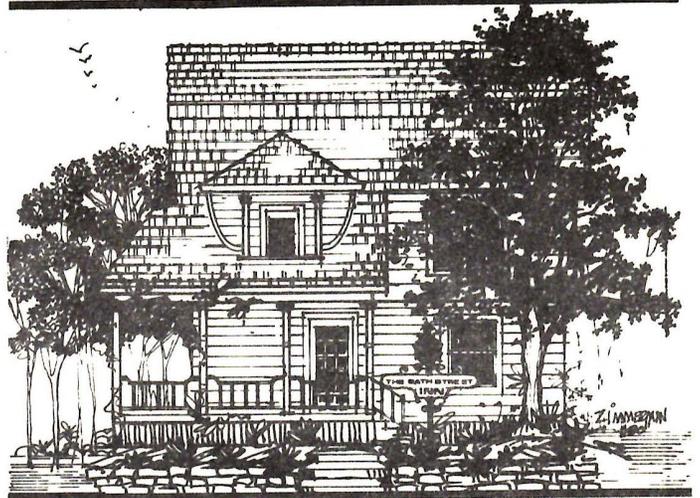

The August Board of Directors meeting will be held Tuesday, September 1, 1981 at President Carol Lindemulder's home. The meeting will promptly start at 6:00 p.m. The Mission Beach Roller Coaster and constitutional change will be on the agenda of items to be discussed. RSVP to Board members please RSVP to Carol at 295-6188.

"Bed & Breakfast" Perfect For Travelers

San Diego has its own Bed & Breakfast Inn, the Britt House, but there are dozens of charming Bed & Breakfast Inns in California, as well as on the east coast. SOHO member, Bill Munster, recently returned from Santa Barbara with wonderful reports on the Bath Street Inn.

The Bath Street Inn, located at 1720 Bath Street, Santa Barbara, 93101, is close to the heart of old Santa Barbara, and offers the traditional warmth and hospitality of a European Bed and Breakfast Inn. Once a spacious residence, it reflects the grace and elegance of the late nineteenth century brought to life, and made comfortable and convenient with twentieth century imagination.

Both seasoned enthusiasts and newcomers are happy to find the Inn conveniently located for maximum enjoyment of Santa Barbara's rich Spanish heritage, and cultural and resort activities. In the morning a leisurely continental breakfast is served in the sunny dining room, in one of the garden patios, or in their own room, for guests who prefer it.

Rates include Continental Breakfast and run $45 - $60 (double occupancy) from May 15 through October 14 and $40 - $55 (double occupancy) from October 15 through May 14. For reservations and/or further information you can write to the above address or call (805) 682-9680.

SOHO currently has in its library a series of books on Country Inns in the United States. Come take a look at them in the Senlis Cottage office if you are planning a trip across town, up the coast, or across the country.
